AUTHENTICATED
U.S. GOVERNMENT
INFORMATION
GPO

READING

See under the following subjects: "First and Second Reading Before Reference," pp. 241–243; "Journal," "Read Each Legislative Day," pp. 899–900; "Matters Read Into the Record by Senators," p. 649; "Petitions and Memorials," pp. 650–651; "Reading of, by Clerk, Determined Without Debate," p. 768; "Reading by Senator in Debate," p. 768; "Reading, Debate During, Out of Order," p. 768; "Reading Dispensed With," p. 900; "Reading of Documents, Decided Without Debate," p. 768; "Reading Into the Record Out of Order in Morning Business," p. 651; "Reading of, Out of Order in Absence of Quorum," p. 901; "Reading of Papers," p. 973; "Reading of Reports," pp. 1192–1193; "Reading of Resolution," p. 1208; "Third Reading," pp. 245–247.

Reading By Clerk

There is nothing in the rules that requires the reading clerk to stand while he is reading.[1]

READING OF BILL THREE TIMES

See "Calendar," pp. 253–267; "Amendments," pp. 24–125; "Bills," pp. 225–250.

RECAPITULATION

See "Quorum," pp. 1038–1078; "Voting," pp. 1397–1437.

---

[1] Apr. 23, 1980, 96–2, Record, p. 8749.