HARMAN, MRS. ROUKEMA, MR. COMBEST, MR. EHLERS, AND MS. ENGLISH OF ARIZONA

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution to provide for a balanced budget for the United States Government and for greater accountability in the enactment of tax legislation.

Feb. 17, 1993—Referred to the Subcommittee on Economic and Commercial Law.

Feb. 24, 1994—Discharge petition (No. 14) filed by Mr. Stenholm on H.Res. 331, a rule resolution referred to the Committee on Rules, providing for the consideration of H.J.Res. 103.

Feb. 24, 1994—Motion to discharge the Committee on Rules from consideration of H.Res. 331 (providing for the consideration of H.J.Res. 103) placed on the Calendar of Motions to Discharge Committees, 218 Members having signed the discharge petition.

Mar. 11, 1994—The House agreed that it be in order to consider H.Res. 331 (providing for the consideration of H.J.Res. 103) on March 16, 1994, and that the period of general debate provided in H.Res. 331 be reduced to six hours.

Mar. 16, 1994—The House adopted the rule (H.Res. 331) discharging the Committee on the Judiciary from further consideration of H.J.Res. 103 and providing for the consideration of H.J.Res. 103 with six hours of general debate, waiving all points of order, making in order certain amendments, providing adoption of substitute amendments to be under “king-of-the-hill” (only the last substitute amendment adopted to be considered as finally adopted), providing for one motion to recommit with or without instructions, and providing for the consideration of a comparable resolution if passed by the Senate. (387 yeas; 22 nays).

Mar. 16, 1994—The House disagreed to the Kyl substitute amendment that sought to limit Federal outlays to 19% of the gross national product for that year, unless the requirement is waived by a 3/5-majority vote of the entire membership of the Senate and House of Representatives; and to authorize a Presidential line-item veto of any bill containing any item of spending authority. (179 yeas; 242 noes).

Mar. 17, 1994—Executive Communication No. 2791 received from the President of the United States reaffirming his opposition to H.J.Res. 103. (House Document 103-223).

Mar. 17, 1994—The House disagreed to the Barton amendment that sought to prohibit revenues from growing faster than the rate of increase in national income in the second prior fiscal year, unless a 3/5 vote of the total membership of both the House of Representatives and the Senate is taken to approve a specific tax increase. (213 yeas; 215 noes).

Mar. 17, 1994—The House agreed to the Barton amendment (above) on a separate vote required by the Rules of the House, the votes of the Delegates having been decisive on the previous vote. (211 yeas; 204 nays).

Mar. 17, 1994—The House disagreed to the Wise amendment that sought to require that the operating budget of the Federal Government be balanced, while a separate capital budget for investments that provide long-term economic returns is established; exempt Social Security and the Federal Disability Insurance Trust Fund from balanced budget calculations; and to provide that only under certain circumstances would Congress be permitted to run a deficit (war, a serious military threat, or a recession). (111 yeas; 318 noes).

Mar. 17, 1994—The House agreed to the Stenholm substitute amendment that changes the effective date from 1999 to 2001 or the second fiscal year after ratification, whichever is later.

Mar. 17, 1994—Failed passage by the House, two-thirds not voting in the affirmative. (271 yeas; 153 nays).
