AGENCY: Office of the Assistant Secretary for Public and Indian Housing, HUD.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This notice announces the monthly per unit fee amounts for use in determining the on-going administrative fee for housing agencies (HAs) administering the Section 8 rental voucher, rental certificate and moderate rehabilitation programs (including Single Room Occupancy and Shelter Plus Care) during Federal Fiscal Year (FY) 1999.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This notice is effective upon publication. HUD will use the procedures in this Notice to approve year-end financial statements for HA fiscal years ending on December 31, 1998; March 31, 1999; June 30, 1999; and September 30, 1999. HAs also must use these procedures to project earned administrative fees in the annual HA budget. The procedures in this Notice apply to administrative fees earned for that portion of the HA fiscal year that falls in Federal FY 1999 (i.e., from October 1, 1998, to September 30, 1999).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Statutory Background

HUD pays administrative fees to housing agencies (HAs) for the costs of administering the Section 8 rental certificate, rental voucher, and moderate rehabilitation programs, including the Single Room Occupancy and Shelter Plus care components. Section 202 of the Departments of Veterans Affairs and Housing and Urban Development, and Independent Agencies Appropriations Act, 1997 (Pub.L. 104–204, 110 Stat. 2874, approved September 26, 1996) established the procedures for calculating these administrative fees before Federal FY 1999. The procedures were superseded by subsection 8(q) of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. 1437f(q)), as amended by section 547 of the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act of 1998 (Pub.L. 105–276, 112 Stat. 2461, approved October 21, 1998) (QHWRA). Specifically, QHWRA raised the percentage (from 7.5 percent to 7.65 percent) of the ''base amount'' used for calculating the administrative fees for the first 600 units in an HA's Section 8 programs.

This notice announces the monthly per unit fee amounts for use in determining the on-going administrative fee for HAs administering the Section 8 rental voucher, rental certificate and moderate rehabilitation programs (including Single Room Occupancy and Shelter Plus Care) during FY 1999, and describes the methodology for calculating the administrative fees.

II. Calculating the On-Going Monthly Administrative Fee

(a) Administrative Fee. A housing agency is paid an on-going administrative fee for each unit month for which a dwelling unit is covered by a housing assistance payments contract. Under the system for FY 1999, the on-going monthly administrative fee is:

- 7.65 percent of the ''base amount'' for the first 600 units in an HA's rental voucher and rental certificate programs combined, and for the first 600 units in an HA's moderate rehabilitation program.
- 7.0 percent of the ''base amount'' for each additional rental voucher, rental certificate, or moderate rehabilitation unit above the 600-unit threshold.
- 3.0 percent of the ''base amount'' will be allowed for HA-owned units.

(b) The Base Amount. The ''Base Amount'' is the higher of:

1. The FY 1993 fair market rent for a two-bedroom unit in the HA's market area; or

2. The FY 1994 fair market rent for a two-bedroom unit, but not more than 103.5 percent of the FY 1993 fair market rent.

Note: The base amount is adjusted annually to reflect average local government wages as measured by the most recent Bureau of Labor Statistics data on local government wages (the ES–202 series).

(c) Special Fees.

1. Preliminary Fees. HUD may pay preliminary fees up to $500 per unit for preliminary expenses to HAs only in the first year the HA administers a tenant-based assistance program, and only if the first year of administering the Section 8 program was begun prior to October 21, 1998. Unless requested by HUD, the HA is not required to submit its justification for claimed preliminary fees to HUD. The justifications for preliminary fees must be kept on file and must be available to the HUD Field Office upon request.

2. Hard to House. HUD may pay a special fee for costs incurred in assisting families who experience difficulty, as determined by the Secretary, in obtaining appropriate housing under the Section 8 programs.

3. Extraordinary Costs. HUD may pay a special fee for extraordinary costs incurred by the HA in the operation of the Section 8 program, as approved by the Secretary.

III. Published Fee Amounts

HUD has attached a schedule of monthly per unit fee amounts for use by HUD and HAs when preparing and approving HA budgets and fiscal year-end financial statements. The tables are organized by the HUD-established fair market rent areas and show the monthly fee amounts an HA will earn for each unit under a housing assistance payments contract on the first day of the applicable month.

(a) Column A: Fees for 600 Units or Less. The amount in column A is the monthly per unit fee amount to be applied for up to the first 600 units (or 7,200 unit months) in FY 1999 in an HA's rental certificate and rental voucher programs combined (not including any HA-owned units). The 7,200 unit month figure is determined by multiplying 600 (the maximum number of units) by 12 (the number of months in one year). The amount in column A is also used for the first 7,200 unit months in FY 1999 in an HA's moderate rehabilitation program, including the moderate rehabilitation single room occupancy program and the shelter plus care single room occupancy program (not including any HA-owned units).

The monthly per unit fee is computed by multiplying the number of unit months that were under a housing assistance payments contract during FY 1999 by the monthly per unit fee amount in Column A (up to a maximum of 7,200 unit months during FY 1999). The maximum number of unit months for which the Column A fee amount may be used depends on the HA fiscal year end. Based on the applicable fiscal year end, an HA must use the following number of unit months to calculate its ongoing administrative fee for FY 1999:

FY 1999 fiscal year end	Maximum number of unit months
December 31, 1998	Up to 1,800 unit months.
March 31, 1999	Up to 3,600 unit months.
June 30, 1999	Up to 5,400 unit months.
September 30, 1999	Up to 7,200 unit months.

(b) Column B: Fees for Unit Months in Excess of the Column A Unit Months. Column B must be used to determine the monthly per unit fee amount for any unit months in FY 1999 in excess of the number of unit months specified in the above matrix, depending on the HA's FY 1999 fiscal year end (not including any HA-owned units). The excess unit months, based on the HA's fiscal year end and the number of rental voucher, rental certificate, and moderate rehabilitation units under housing assistance payment contracts during FY 1999, are multiplied by the monthly per unit fee amount in column B.

(c) Column C: Fees for HA-Owned Units. The monthly per unit fee amount in column C will be multiplied by the number of unit months available for the rental voucher, rental certificate, and moderate rehabilitation units owned by the HA and that are under housing assistance payments contracts during FY 1999. Column A and column B fee amounts are not used for HA-owned units.

(d) Fees for Unit Under Portability. The ongoing fee amounts for all portable units will be determined by using the monthly per unit ongoing administrative fee amounts in column B.

(e) Future Year Publication Date. For subsequent fiscal years, HUD will publish an annual notice in the Federal Register establishing the monthly per unit fee amounts for use in determining the on-going administrative fees for HAs operating the rental voucher, rental certificate and moderate rehabilitation programs in each metropolitan and each non-metropolitan fair market rent area for that Federal fiscal year. The annual change in the per-unit-month fee amounts will be based on changes in wage data or other objectively measurable data, as determined by HUD, that reflect the costs of administering the program.

The amounts shown on the attached schedule do not reflect the authority given to HUD to increase the fee if necessary to reflect extraordinary expenses such as the higher costs of administering small programs and programs operating over large geographic areas or expenses incurred because of difficulties some categories of families are having in finding appropriate housing. HUD will consider HA requests for such increased administrative fees. Furthermore, the amounts shown do not include preliminary fees.
