HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

H. Res. 611

Dec. 16, 1998

MR. HYDE

Impeaching William Jefferson Clinton, President of the United States, for high crimes and misdemeanors.

(Original resolution reported to the House in form agreed upon by the Committee on the Judiciary December 12, 1998, pursuant to H.Res. 581, authorizing and directing the Committee on the Judiciary to investigate whether sufficient grounds exist for the impeachment of William Jefferson Clinton, President of the United States; for hearings, other related action, and printed material refer to IMPEACHMENT INQUIRY).

Dec. 16, 1998—Reported favorably to the House as an original resolution by Mr. Hyde, Committee on the Judiciary. (H.Rept. 105-830) (House Calendar).

Dec. 18, 1998—Considered by the House as a privileged matter.

Dec. 18, 1998—Objection was heard to a unanimous consent request that, during consideration of House Resolution 611, the previous question shall be considered as ordered on the resolution to final adoption without intervening motion except: (1) debate on the resolution shall be extended to 4 hours equally divided at the outset and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on the Judiciary; and (2) one motion to recommit with or without instructions, which, if including instructions, shall be debatable for 10 minutes equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent; and subsequently the House proceeded under its standing rule of debate, pending any further unanimous consent agreements.

Dec. 18, 1998—The House proceeded with one hour of debate.

Dec. 18, 1998—The House agreed to a unanimous consent request that during further consideration of H.Res. 611 the previous question shall be considered as ordered on the resolution to final adoption without intervening motion except: (1) debate on the resolution for a period not to exceed beyond 10:00 p.m. equally divided between the Chairman and ranking minority Member of the Committee on the Judiciary, and one further hour of debate on December 19, 1998, equally divided and controlled; (2) after such first period of debate, a motion to adjour; and (3) one motion to recommit with or without instructions, which if including instructions shall be debatable for 10 minutes, equally divided and controlled. Further providing that during consideration of a resolution appointing and authorizing managers for an impeachment trial the previous question shall be considered as ordered on the resolution to final adoption without intervening motion or demand for a division of the question except 10 minutes of debate on the resolution, equally divided and controlled.

Dec. 18, 1998—The House agreed to a demand that the question be divided on consideration of H.Res. 611 in order that each of four articles of impeachment shall be voted on separately at the conclusion of debate.

Dec. 19, 1998—The House completed general debate.

Dec. 19, 1998—The previous question was ordered pursuant to a previous order of the House.

Dec. 19, 1998—A motion was made to recommit H.Res. 611 to the Committee on the Judiciary with instructions to report it back forthwith containing an amendment to strike all after the enacting clause and insert the following: That it is the sense of the House that (1) on January 20, 1993, William Jefferson Clinton took the oath prescribed by the Constitution of the United States faithfully to execute the office of President; implicit in that oath is the obligation that the President set an example of high moral standards and conduct himself in a manner that fosters respect for the truth; and that he has egregiously failed in this obligation, and through his actions violated the trust of the American people lessened their esteem for the office of President, and dishonored the office which they have entrusted to him; (2)(A) He made false statements concerning his reprehensible conduct with a subordinate; (B) He wrongly took steps to delay discovery of the truth; and (C) inasmuch as no person is above the law, he remains subject to criminal and civil penalties; and (3) William Jefferson Clinton, President of the United States, by his conduct has brought upon himself, and fully deserves, the censure and condemnation of the American people and this House.

Dec. 19, 1998—The House agreed to a motion to table a motion to appeal a ruling of the Chair sustaining a point of order that the motion to recommit with instructions was not germane to H.Res. 611. (230 yeas; 204 nays).

Dec. 19, 1998—The House agreed to Article I—Perjury Before the Grand Jury. (228 yeas; 206 nays).

Dec. 19, 1998—The House disagreed to Article II—Perjury in the Jones Case. (205 yeas; 229 nays).
