AN ACT
For the relief of William E. Aitcheson.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That William E. Aitcheson, Greenbelt, Maryland, is hereby relieved of all liability to refund to the United States the sum of $794.22 paid to him for services as an employee of the Public Housing Administration during the period November 2, 1942, to September 10, 1943, when he was also employed by the Post Office Department. The said William E. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any disbursing officer of the United States, full credit shall be given for amounts paid to the said William E. Aitcheson for services as an employee of the Public Housing Administration during the period November 2, 1942, to September 10, 1943.

William E. Aitcheson.
