NURSE GENEVIEVE DE GALARD-TERRAUBE

Whereas this year marks the one hundredth anniversary of Florence Nightingale's historic nursing of the wounded in the Crimean War; and

Whereas Nurse Genevieve de Galard-Terraube, officer of the Army of the Republic of France, in her ministering to the sick and wounded at Dien Bien Phu and her subsequent service to her comrades as prisoners of the Viet Minh has provided an example of the courage of a woman in battle and of the devotion of a nurse to her sworn duty which has been unsurpassed in this century; and

Whereas this inspiring woman is representative of the devotion to duty of soldiers of the Republic of France, which has been an ally of the United States for one hundred and seventy-eight years and whose people today are considered the warm friends of the people of the United States; and

Whereas Nurse Genevieve de Galard-Terraube's example of fortitude in the face of supreme danger has changed the fall of Dien Bien Phu from a military reversal to a great psychological victory of the undefeatable principles of free mankind fighting the force of darkness; and

Whereas this nurse, known affectionately as "The Angel of Dien Bien Phu" embodies the finest attributes of free women accepting with men the full burden of living in our modern world: Therefore be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That the Congress hereby extends to Nurse Genevieve de Galard-Terraube its warm congratulations for her gallant service and invites her, at the earliest time convenient to her and her country, to visit the United States as an honored guest.

Congratulations of Congress.

The President is respectfully requested to transmit copies of this resolution to the Government of France, and to Nurse Genevieve de Galard-Terraube.
