TIN SMELTER AT TEXAS CITY, TEXAS

Continuation in operation.

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That it is the sense of the Congress that the Government tin smelter at Texas City, Texas, should be continued in operation at least until June 30, 1955, under the provisions of section 2 of Public Law 125, Eighteenth Congress, and the tin produced may be transferred to the national stockpile.

61 Stat. 190.
50 USC 98 note.

Transfer of functions.

SEC. 2. It is the further sense of the Congress that the President, pursuant to the authority contained in Public Law 125, Eighteenth Congress, and Public Law 163, Eighty-third Congress, should transfer at the earliest practicable date all functions, powers, duties, and authority under Public Law 125, Eighteenth Congress, as amended (the tin program), from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to such officer, agency, or instrumentality of the United States as the President may designate.

67 Stat. 230.
15 USC 603 note.

Study and investigation.

SEC. 3. It is the further sense of the Congress that pursuant to section 1 (c) of Public Law 125, Eighteenth Congress, an appropriate committee or committees of the Congress shall be designated pursuant to a subsequent resolution to conduct the study and investigation of the matters with respect to tin which were determined by section 1 (c) to be required in the public interest and in promotion of the common defense. Such study shall be concluded and a report with respect thereto filed with each House of Congress no later than March 15, 1955.

Reports.

Legislation.

SEC. 4. It is the further sense of the Congress that the Congress should, after consideration of the reports filed pursuant to section 3 of this resolution, but not later than April 30, 1955, adopt appropriate legislation with respect to the tin program of the United States.

Agreed to July 13, 1954.
