Apr. 21, 1999—Referred to the Subcommittee on Crime.

Apr. 22, 1999—Subcommittee mark-up. Ordered favorably reported to the full Committee. (Voice vote).

June 14, 1999—Rule hearing by the Committee on Rules.

June 15, 1999—Committee on Rules granted a structured rule providing for the consideration of H.R. 1501 and one hour of general debate, making in order only those amendments printed in Part A of the report accompanying the rule and providing for consideration of those amendments, waiving all points of order against such amendments, and providing for one motion to recommit with or without instructions; further providing for the consideration of H.R. 2122 (Mandatory Gun Show Background Check Act of 1999) and one hour of general debate, making in order only those amendments printed in Part B of the report accompanying the rule and providing for consideration of those amendments, waiving all points of order against such amendments, and providing for one motion to recommit with or without instructions; and finally providing that in the engrossment of H.R. 1501 the Clerk shall add the text of H.R. 2122 (as passed by the House) as new matter at the end of H.R. 1501 and then lay H.R. 2122 on the table.

June 16 (leg. day June 15), 1999—Mr. Dreier, Committee on Rules, reported H.Res. 209, the rule providing for the consideration of H.R. 1501 and H.R. 2122. (H.Rept. 106-186) (House Calendar).

June 16, 1999—The House adopted the rule (H.Res. 209). (240 yeas; 189 nays). (Previously agreed that the Conyers amendment be deemed to have been included as the last amendment printed in Part B of H.Rept. 106-186).

June 16, 1999—Committee on the Judiciary discharged from further consideration pursuant to the rule (H.Res. 209).

June 16, 1999—Considered by the House.

June 17, 1999—The House disagreed to a motion to recommit H.R. 1501 to the Committee on the Judiciary with instructions to report it back forthwith containing an amendment authorizing flexible block grant programs to address juvenile crime control and prevention; insuring increased accountability for juvenile offenders; and establishing research and evaluation initiatives related to the prevention and control of juvenile delinquency and serious crime. (191 yeas; 233 nays).

June 17, 1999—Passed the House, amended. (287 yeas; 139 nays).

June 18, 1999—H.R. 2122 failed passage by the House and therefore the text of such bill was not added to the end of H.R. 1501 as provided in the rule providing for consideration of the bills (H.Res. 209).

June 18, 1999—The House agreed to amend the title of H.R. 1501 to read "To amend the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 to provide grants to ensure increased accountability for juvenile offenders; to amend the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act of 1974 to provide quality prevention programs and accountability programs relating to juvenile delinquency".

June 23, 1999—Read the first and second time and placed on the Senate Calendar.

July 26, 1999—Considered by the Senate.

July 28, 1999—The Senate invoked cloture on amendment no. 1344, three-fifths having voted to close further debate. (77 yeas; 22 nays).

July 28, 1999—Passed the Senate, amended, by unanimous consent.

July 28, 1999—Senate insisted on its amendment and requested a conference, appointing as conferees: Senators Hatch, Thurmond, Sessions, Leahy, and Kennedy.

July 30, 1999—The House disagreed to the Senate amendment and agreed to a conference.

July 30, 1999—The House appointed conferees from the Committee on the Judiciary for consideration of the House bill, the Senate amendment, and modifications: Representatives Hyde, McCollum, Gekas, Coble, Smith of Texas, Canady, Barr, Conyers, Frank of Massachusetts, Scott, Berman, and Lofgren; provided, that Representative Jackson-Lee of Texas is appointed in lieu of Representative Frank of Massachusetts for consideration of sections 741, 1501, 1505, 1534-1535, and titles V, VI and IX of the Senate amendment; and provided that Representative Meehan is appointed in lieu of Representative Berman for consideration of sections 741, 1501, 1505, 1534-1535, and titles V, VI and IX of the Senate amendment.

July 30, 1999—The House appointed conferees from the Committee on Education and the Workforce for consideration of the House bill, the Senate amendment (except sections 741, 1501, 1505, 1534-1535, and titles V, VI and IX), and modifications: Representatives Goodling, Petri, Castle, Greenwood, DeMint, Clay, Kildee, and McCarthy of New York.

July 30, 1999—The House appointed conferees from the Committee on Commerce for consideration of sections 1365 and 1401-1403 of the House bill, sections 1504, 1515, and 1523 of the Senate amendment, and modifications: Representatives Bliley and Dingell; provided that Representative Bilirakis is appointed for consideration of section 1365 of the House bill and section 1523 of the Senate amendment; and provided that Representative Tauzin is appointed for consideration of sections 1401-1403 of the House bill and sections 1504 and 1515 of the Senate amendment.

July 30, 1999—The House agreed to a motion to instruct the conferees on the part of the House to insist (1) that the committee of conference recommend a conference substitute which includes a requirement that background checks be conducted on firearms sales at gun shows, does not include any measure that would weaken the effectiveness of background checks currently conducted, does not include any measure that would weaken any other provision of Federal firearms law or regulation, and authorizes funding for school violence programs; (2) that meetings of the conference be open to the public and media, held in venues to maximize attendance of the public and media, and be held during reasonable hours; (3) that sufficient opportunity be allowed for offer and debate amendments at all meetings; and (4) that a conference substitute be recommended before Congress adjourns for the August recess so that reasonable gun safety measures can be passed before children return to school. (305 yeas; 84 nays).

Sept. 22, 1999—The House considered a motion to instruct the conferees on the part of the House to insist that the committee of conference recommend a conference substitute that 1) includes a loophole-free system with respect to obtaining firearms from non-licensed persons and federally licensed firearm dealers at gunshows; 2) does not include provisions that weaken current gun safety law; and 3) includes provisions that aid in the enforcement of current gun laws against criminals who use guns.

HOUSE BILLS

Sept. 23, 1999—The House agreed to the Sept. 22 motion to instruct the conferees on the part of the House. (305 yeas; 117 nays).

Sept. 23, 1999—The House considered a motion to instruct the conferees on the part of the House insist that 1) the committee of conference should this week have its first substantive meeting to offer amendments and motions, including gun safety amendments and motions; and 2) the committee of conference should meet every weekday in public session until the committee of conference agrees to recommend a substitute.

Sept. 24, 1999—The House disagreed to the Sept. 23 motion to instruct the conferees on the part of the House. (190 yeas; 218 nays).

Sept. 24, 1999—The House agreed to a motion to instruct the conferees on the part of the House to insist that the conference report not include Senate provisions that 1) do not recognize that the second amendment to the Constitution protects the individual right of American citizens to keep and bear arms, and 2) impose unconstitutional restrictions on the second amendment rights of individuals. (337 yeas; 73 nays).

Sept. 24, 1999—The House agreed to a motion to instruct the conferees on the part of the House to insist that the conference committee recommend a conference substitute that includes provisions within the scope of conference which are consistent with the Second Amendment to the United States Constitution, e.g. 1) requiring unlicensed dealers at gun shows to conduct background checks; 2) banning the juvenile possession of assault weapons; 3) requiring that child safety locks be sold with every handgun; and 4) Juvenile Brady. (241 yeas; 167 nays).

Oct. 14, 1999—The House disagreed to a motion to instruct the conferees on the part of the House to insist that (1) the committee of conference should immediately have its first substantive meeting to offer amendments and motions, including gun safety amendments and motions, and (2) the committee of conference report a conference substitute by October 20, the six month anniversary of the tragedy at Columbine High School in Littleton, Colorado, and with sufficient opportunity for both the House and the Senate to consider gun safety legislation prior to adjournment. (174 yeas; 249 nays).

Mar. 15, 2000—The House agreed to a motion to instruct the conferees on the part of the House to insist that the committee of conference have its first substantive meeting to offer amendments and motions within the next two weeks. (218 yeas; 205 nays).

Apr. 11, 2000—The House agreed to a motion to instruct the conferees on the part of the House to insist that the committee of conference meet and report a committee substitute that includes both: (1) measures that aid in the effective enforcement of gun safety laws within the scope of conference and (2) common-sense gun safety measures that prevent felons, fugitives, and stalkers from obtaining firearms and children from getting access to guns within the scope of conference. (406 yeas; 22 nays).
