HOUSE BILLS

and eighty minutes of general debate; waiving all points of order against consideration of the bill; providing that the amendment in the nature of a substitute printed in part A of the report of the Committee on Rules accompanying the rule resolution shall be considered as adopted; providing that the bill, as amended, shall be considered as the original bill for the purpose of further amendment and shall be considered as read; providing that no further amendment to the bill, as amended, shall be in order except those printed in part B of the report of the Committee on Rules; providing that the amendments printed in part B of the report may be offered only in the order printed in the report, may be offered only by a Member designated in the report, shall be considered as read, shall be debatable for the time specified in the report equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent, shall not be subject to amendment except as specified in the report, and shall not be subject to a demand for division of the question in the House or in the Committee of the Whole; waiving all points of order against amendments printed in part B of the report; and providing for one motion to recommit with or without instructions.

Feb. 26, 2002—Mr. Linder, Committee on Rules, reported H.Res. 350, the rule providing for the consideration of H.R. 1542. (H.Rept. 107-361) (House Calendar).

Feb. 27, 2002—The House adopted the rule (H.Res. 350). (282 yeas; 142 nays).

Feb. 27, 2002—The House agreed to the amendment in the nature of a substitute reported by the Committee on Rules. (Unanimous consent).

Feb. 27, 2002—The House agreed to the Upton amendment (A002). (421 yeas; 7 noes).

Feb. 27, 2002—Objection was heard to a unanimous consent request that, during further consideration of H.R. 1542 in the Committee of the Whole and pursuant to H.Res. 350, Mr. Buyer be permitted to offer amendment numbered 3 printed in part B of H.Rept. 107-361, as a free standing amendment to the bill.

Feb. 27, 2002—The House failed to order the previous question on the Markey motion to recommit H.R. 1542 to the Committee on Energy and Commerce with instructions requiring the bill to be reported back to the House forthwith containing an amendment consisting of the provisions of amendment numbered 2 printed in part B of H.Rept. 107-361, striking section 4 of the bill and inserting a new section 4 providing protection for competitive investments by preserving the existing rules for telecommunications services that govern competitive local exchange carriers and preserves State authority and consumer safeguards from the broad preemption of such authority granted under H.R. 1542. (173 yeas 256 noes).

Feb. 27, 2002—The House agreed to a Buyer motion to amend the Markey motion to recommit with instructions (seeking to include the provisions of amendment numbered 3 printed in part B of H.Rept. 107-361. Amendment numbered 3 guarantees that CLECs have access to customers served by Bell company high speed networks under FCC-regulated rates, terms, and conditions. The amendment preserves rules governing CLECs access to Bell facilities, including a rule that permits CLECs to “line share” on Bell copper facilities exclusively for the purpose of providing high speed internet service. Finally, it requires Bell companies to allow CLECs to connect their own high speed Internet facilities to Bell services and equipment). (Voice vote).

Feb. 27, 2002—The House agreed to the motion to recommit with instructions, as amended. (Voice vote).

Feb. 27, 2002—The House agreed to the Tauzin amendment (A003). (Voice vote).
