12 (a) EFFECT OF SOLE SURVIVORSHIP DISCHARGE.—
 13 Section 303a(e) of title 37, United States Code, is amend-
 14 ed—

1           (1) in paragraph (1), by striking “A member”
2           and inserting “(A) Except as provided in paragraph

4           (2) by redesignating paragraph (2) as subpara-
5           graph (B) of paragraph (1).

6           (3) by inserting after paragraph (1), as so
7           amended, the following new paragraph (2):

8           “(2)(A) If a member of the uniformed services re-
9           ceives a sole survivorship discharge, the Secretary con-
10          cerned—

11           “(i) shall not require repayment by the member
12           of the unearned portion of any bonus, incentive pay,
13           or similar benefit previously paid to the member;
14           and

15           “(ii) may grant an exception to the requirement
16           to terminate the payment of any unpaid amounts of 17           a bonus, incentive pay, or similar benefit if the Sec-18           retary concerned determines that termination of the 19           payment of the unpaid amounts would be contrary
20           to a personnel policy or management objective, 21           would be against equity and good conscience, or 22           would be contrary to the best interests of the United 23           States.

24           “(B) In this paragraph, the term ‘sole survivorship 25           discharge’ means the separation of a member from the

1 Armed Forces, at the request of the member, pursuant 2 to the Department of Defense policy permitting the early
3 separation of a member who is the only surviving child 4 in a family in which—

5           “(i) the father or mother or one or more sib-
6           lings—

7                   “(I) served in the Armed Forces; and

8                   “(II) was killed, died as a result of 9                   wounds, accident, or disease, is in a captured or 10                  missing in action status, or is permanently 100
11                  percent disabled or hospitalized on a continuing 12                  basis (and is not employed gainfully because of 13                  the disability or hospitalization); and

14               “(ii) the death, status, or disability did not re-
15               sult from the intentional misconduct or willful ne-
16               glect of the parent or sibling and was not incurred 17               during a period of unauthorized absence.”.

18           (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—In light of the extraor-
19           dinary discretion granted to the Secretary of a military 20           department by statute and policy to continue to pay the 21           unpaid amounts of a bonus, incentive pay, or similar ben-22           efit otherwise due to a member of the Armed Forces under 23           the jurisdiction of the Secretary who receives a sole survi-
24           vorship discharge, it is the sense of Congress that the Sec-
25           retaries of the military departments should aggressively

1 use such discretion to the benefit of members receiving
2 a sole survivorship discharge.
