

provided to us, as members of the subcommittee, listing things that they need, but they could not fit into the overall budget. Now, many of the Members who have asked to have congressionally-directed adds put in this bill, many of those Members are asking that the shortfall list be dealt with. The Members who are very knowledgeable on national defense issues in this House, and there are many who are knowledgeable, they are working toward the same shortfall list that the Department of Defense has provided for us during our hearings. We will be very careful to make sure that anything that we add over the budget will fit into the category of having a direct national defense effect, and number 2, that there is a requirement for it.

So for those who are questioning how I intend to vote on the Obey motion, I intend to support it because I see nothing at all wrong with it.

Mr. Speaker, I want to take another minute. The gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. OBEY) mentioned the F-14. He is right, the F-14 had a pretty serious safety record. I led the fight in the committee for years to reengine the F-14s to eliminate the TF-30 engine that was causing many of the accidents and the problems. As the airplane got older, the Defense Department decided not to continue the reengining program because the airplanes would be going out of the inventory. But those F-14s that are going out of the inventory are not nearly as old as some of the C-130s that we are replacing with those that we add today. Some are as many as 40 years old. Yes, some of them are hurricane hunters. Others are refueling tankers used by the Marine Corps and are 40 years old. I just do not think that people who are in uniform and given a mission to fly into a hostile situation should have to fly an airplane that is 40 years old. Frankly, an airplane at 40 years old should not be in the air.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. CALVERT). Without objection, the previous question is ordered on the motion to instruct.

There was no objection.

MOTION TO INSTRUCT OFFERED BY MR. SERRANO

Mr. SERRANO. Mr. Speaker, I offer a motion to instruct conferees.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. SERRANO moves that the managers on the part of the House at the conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the bill, H.R. 4112, be instructed to bolster the Capitol police force by concurring in the Senate amendments that restore $4.197 million of reductions passed by the House for Capitol Police salaries and Capitol Police general expenses.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. CALVERT). The gentleman from New York (Mr. SERRANO) and the gentleman from New York (Mr. WALSH) each will control 30 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from New York (Mr. WALSH).

Mr. WALSH. Mr. Speaker, I will withhold my comments until we hear from the gentleman from downstate New York.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. SERRANO. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I believe this is a motion every Member can support. This has been an extraordinary year for the Capitol Police and its police force. We have seen the first deaths of Capitol Police officers in the line of duty in many years. U.S. embassies have been bombed by terrorists, and the U.S. has responded to this terrorism with missile attacks. All of this raises the perception of threats, if not the actual threats to U.S. interests and institutions all over the world.

The Capitol, of course, is one of the great symbols of our Nation. Therefore, it is occasionally a target of people with seriously deranged thinking or violent anti-American views.

The Capitol is also the seat of the people's branch of our government and the destination of thousands of visitors every day, both constituents and tourists, as well as high-ranking officials of our own government and leaders from all over the world.

I suppose we could be much safer and perhaps also save money if we chose to wall the Capitol complex off from the people. But I believe everyone here would strongly oppose that approach to security.

Instead, Mr. Speaker, the people's branch must remain open to the public. It is our duty, often through this bill, to make sure that the Capitol Police have the resources they need to keep this open campus safe and secure for Members, staff, employees, visitors, and guests.

As threats evolve, responses must evolve, and the Capitol Police must have the resources for the personnel, training, and technology they need.

Mr. Speaker, as I have said before and will no doubt say again, the gentleman from New York (Mr. WALSH) has done an excellent job in putting this bill together. I think our initial decisions on funding levels for the Capitol Police were entirely appropriate.

But since our bill passed the House in June, we have seen the unfortunate murders of Officers Chestnut and Gibson, the bombings of U.S. embassies in Kenya and Tanzania, and the resulting missile attacks on terrorist locations.

All of this has increased the obligations of the Capitol Police, increased the need for overtime, caused new thinking on the physical security needs for the campus and the need for additional resources.

As a first step to that end, and of course there will be additional and more substantial steps, I urge my colleagues to support this motion to instruct conferees, to accept the Senate figures for the Capitol Police.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. WALSH. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I am delighted to accept the gentleman's motion to instruct the conferees. I think it is very constructive. It puts the House squarely in a position where we see the wisdom of the Senate's decision to fund these given the events that my good friend, the gentleman from New York (Mr. SERRANO) has mentioned, especially the tragic events that occurred last month involving the loss of our two officers, Chestnut and Gibson.

We really need to enhance our security, and certainly we need to reward the professionalism and the high quality of service provided by our Capitol Hill Police.

So we see this as constructive and support the motion.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. SERRANO. Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time, and I move the previous question on the motion to instruct.
