PURPOSE OF THE BILL

The purpose of H.R. 2385 is to convey certain property to the City of St. George, Utah, in order to provide for the protection and preservation of certain rare paleontological resources on that property, and for other purposes.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

In February of 2000, dinosaur tracks, taildraggings, and skin imprints of unprecedented quality dating as far back as the Jurassic Period were discovered on private land near St. George, Utah, during excavation activities. These extraordinary paleontological resources have been touted by scientists in the field as some of the most significant that have been discovered in decades because of the clarity and completeness of the imprints.

Since the discovery, over 140,000 people from all 50 states and at least 54 foreign countries have visited the site. While the city and private land owners have worked together to try to protect these valuable resources while still allowing public access, there is a lack of adequate infrastructure or facilities to accommodate the large crowds. Surrounding streets and neighborhoods area are often clogged with visitors and vehicular traffic.

The preservation of these valuable resources is also in jeopardy. The fragile sandstone in which the impressions have been made is susceptible to the heat and wind typical of the Southern Utah climate, and rain is nearly catastrophic for quickly eroding unearthed impressions. At present, only a temporary open-sided roof structure stands between uncovered imprints and the elements.

H.R. 2385, as ordered reported, would provide a grant from the Department of Interior of up to $500,000 to the City of St. George to purchase up to 10 acres at fair market value from the private landowner for the purposes of preserving the specified land and paleontological resources. The grant would be subject to a cooperative management agreement between the Department of Interior and the city. Up to $500,000 in additional funds from the Department would be authorized to assist the city in meeting its responsibilities under the agreement, provided that the city fully match any federal assistance dollar for dollar with non-federal sources. The bill also authorizes the Department to provide technical assistance to the city.

COMMITTEE ACTION

H.R. 2385 was introduced on June 28, 2001, by Congressman James Hansen (R-UT) and referred to the Committee on Resources. On July 5, 2001, the bill was referred to the Subcommittee on National Parks, Recreation, and Public Lands. On July 26, 2001, the Subcommittee held a hearing on the bill. On July 31, 2001, the Subcommittee met to mark up the bill. Congressman Joel Hefley (R-CO) offered an amendment in the nature of a substitute that: (1) authorized only the Secretary of Interior to purchase the property cited in the bill; (2) increased the time the Secretary will have to purchase the property to 60 days; (3) required the property to be purchased at fair market value; (4) reduced the number of acres for possible purchase to ten, and (5) reverts the property to the Federal government should the city not manage the property as prescribed by the legislation. The amendment was adopted by voice vote. The bill, as amended, was then forwarded to the Full Committee by voice vote. On September 12, 2001, the Full Resources Committee met to consider the bill. Congressman Joel Hefley offered an amendment in the nature of a substitute that authorized the Secretary of Interior to grant up to $500,000 to the City of St. George, Utah, to acquire the property directly, subject to certain conditions. The amendment was adopted by voice vote. The bill, as amended, was then ordered favorably reported to the House of Representatives by voice vote.

H.R. 2385—Virgin River Dinosaur Footprint Preserve Act

H.R. 2385 would authorize the Secretary of the Interior to provide up to $500,000 to the city of St. George, Utah, to allow that city to purchase certain privately owned lands that contain paleontological resources. The bill would direct the Secretary to enter into a cooperative agreement with the city to manage those lands and resources and would authorize the Secretary to provide up to $500,000 in additional funds to help the city meet its responsibilities under that agreement, provided that the city fully match any federal assistance. The bill also would authorize the Secretary to provide other financial and technical assistance to help the city to preserve and protect the resources.

Based on information from the Department of Justice of the Interior, CBO estimates that implementing H.R. 2385 would cost $1 million during fiscal year 2002, assuming appropriation of the specified amounts. CBO also estimates that providing additional financial or technical assistance would not significantly increase the department's costs in any given year.

H.R. 2385 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments. The assistance authorized by this bill would benefit the city of St. George. Any costs incurred by that or other governments to match federal funds or comply with other conditions of assistance would be voluntary.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Megan Carroll. This estimate was approved by Peter H. Fontaine, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

COMPLIANCE WITH PUBLIC LAW 104-4

This bill contains no unfunded mandates.

PREEMPTION OF STATE, LOCAL OR TRIBAL LAW

This bill is not intended to preempt any State, local or tribal law.

CHANGES IN EXISTING LAW

If enacted, this bill would make no changes in existing law.
