

PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 10, THE COM-PREHENSIVE RETIREMENT SECURITY AND PENSION RE-FORM ACT OF 2001

MAY 1, 2001.—Referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed

Mr. REYNOLDS, from the Committee on Rules, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany H. Res. 127]

The Committee on Rules, having had under consideration House Resolution 127, by a nonrecord vote, report the same to the House with the recommendation that the resolution be adopted.

SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS OF THE RESOLUTION

The resolution provides for the consideration in the House of H.R. 10, the Comprehensive Retirement Security and Pension Reform Act of 2001, under a modified closed rule. The rule provides ninety minutes of debate, with sixty minutes equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Ways and Means and thirty minutes equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Education and the Workforce.

The rule provides that, in lieu of the amendments recommended by the Committee on Ways and Means and the Committee on Education and the Workforce now printed in the bill, the amendment in the nature of a substitute printed in the Congressional Record and numbered one shall be considered as adopted. The rule waives all points of order against consideration of the bill as amended.

The rule provides for consideration of the amendment in the nature of a substitute printed in this report, if offered by Representative Rangel or his designee, which shall be considered as read and shall be separately debatable for one hour equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent. The rule waives all points of order against the amendment. Finally, the rule provides one motion to recommit with or without instructions.

The waiver of all points of order includes a waiver of clause 4(a) of rule XIII (requiring a three-day layover of the committee report), a waiver of clause 3(h) of rule XIII (requiring the inclusion in the report of a tax complexity analysis for a bill reported by the Committee on Ways and Means) and section 303 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 (prohibiting consideration of legislation, as reported, providing new budget authority, changes in revenues, or changes in the public debt for a fiscal year until the budget resolution for that year has been agreed to).

The waiver of clause 4(a) of rule XIII is needed because the reports were not filed until Tuesday, May 1, and the bill may be considered by the House as early as Wednesday, May 2. The waiver of clause 3(h) of rule XIII is needed because the report failed to include a sufficient tax complexity statement. The waiver of section 303 is necessary because Congress has not yet completed consideration of a budget resolution for FY 2002 and, according to the Joint Committee on Taxation, the bill would decrease revenues and increase direct spending in FY 2002.

The waiver of all points of order against consideration of the minority substitute is necessary for the same general reasons as are necessary for the bill.

COMMITTEE VOTES

Pursuant to clause 3(b) of House rule XIII the results of each record vote on an amendment or motion to report, together with the names of those voting for and against, are printed below:
