Bureau of Export Administration

Action Affecting Export Privileges; New York & Southern Lumber Corp.; Order Denying Permission To Apply For or Use Export Licenses

In the matter of: New York & Southern Lumber Corporation, 6 West Park Place, Great Neck, New York 11023.

On June 15, 1995, New York & Southern Lumber Corporation was convicted in the United States District Court for the Western District of Louisiana of violating the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C.A. §§ 1701-1706 (1991)) (IEEPA). Specifically, New York & Southern Lumber Corporation was convicted on one count of willfully selling and causing to be exported from Louisiana to Italy, for transshipment to Libya, approximately 7670.46 cubic board meters of southern yellow pine lumber, in violation of the President's embargo on the exportation of all goods to that country.

Section 11(h) of the Export Administration Act of 1979, as amended (50 U.S.C.A. app. §§ 2401-2420 (1991, Supp. 1993, and Pub. L. No. 103-277, July 5, 1994)) (the Act),<sup>1</sup> provides that, at the discretion of the Secretary of Commerce,<sup>2</sup> no person convicted of violating the IEEPA, or certain other provisions of the United States Code, shall be eligible to apply for or use any export license issued pursuant to, or provided by, the Act or the Export Administration Regulations (currently codified at 15 CFR Parts 768-799 (1995)) (the Regulations) for a period of up to 10 years from the date of the conviction. In addition, any export license issued pursuant to the Act in which such a person had any interest at the time of conviction may be revoked.

Pursuant to Sections 770.15 and 772.1(g) of the Regulations, upon notification that a person has been convicted of violating the IEEPA, the Director, Office of Export Licensing, in consultation with the Director, Office of Export Enforcement, shall determine whether to deny that person permission to apply for or use any export license issued pursuant to, or provided by, the Act and the Regulations, and shall also determine whether to revoke any export license previously issued to such a person.

Having received notice of New York & Southern Lumber Corporation's conviction for violating the IEEPA, and following consultations with the Director, Office of Export Enforcement, I have decided to deny New York & Southern Lumber Corporation permission to apply for or use any export license, including any general license, issued pursuant to, or provided by, the Act and the Regulations, for a period of 10 years from the date of its conviction. The 10-year period ends on June 15, 2005. I have also decided that this denial period be suspended for the entire 10-year period and thereafter waived, provided that, during the period of suspension, New York & Southern Lumber Corporation has committed no violations of the Act or any regulation, order, or license issued under the Act.

Accordingly, it is hereby Ordered:
I. Until June 15, 2005, New York & Southern Lumber Corporation, 6 West Park Place, Great Neck, New York 11023, hereby is denied all privileges of participating, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, in any transaction in the United States or abroad involving any commodity or technical data exported or to be exported from the United States, in whole or in part, and subject to the Regulations. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, participation, either in the United States or abroad, shall include participation, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity: (i) as a party or as a representative of a party to any export license application submitted to the Department; (ii) in preparing or filing with the Department any export license application or request for reexport authorization, or any document to be submitted therewith; (iii) in obtaining from the department or using any validated or general export license, reexport authorization or other export
