All records are available to any U.S. Government agency showing a proper interest therein.

16. Section 128.15 is revised to read as follows:

§ 128.15 Orders containing probationary periods.

(a) Revocation of probationary periods. A debarment or interim suspension order may set a probationary period during which the order may be held in abeyance for all or part of the debarment or suspension period, subject to the conditions stated therein. The Director, Office of Defense Trade Controls, may apply without notice to any person to be affected thereby, to the Administrative Law Judge for an order revoking probation when it appears that the conditions of the probation have been breached. The facts in support of the application will be presented to the Administrative Law Judge, who will report thereon and make a recommendation to the Assistant Secretary for Political-Military Affairs. The latter will make a determination whether to revoke probation and will issue an appropriate order.

A copy must be simultaneously submitted to the Office of Defense Trade Controls. Denials and admissions, as well as any mitigating circumstances, which the person affected intends to present must be set forth in or accompany the letter of objection and must be supported by evidence. A request for an oral hearing may be made at the time of filing objections.

(4) Determination. The application and objections thereto will be referred to the Administrative Law Judge. An oral hearing if requested, will be conducted at an early convenient date, unless the objections filed raise no issues of material fact to be determined. The Administrative Law Judge will report the facts and make a recommendation to the Assistant Secretary for Political-Military Affairs, who will determine whether the application should be granted or denied and will issue an appropriate order. A copy of the order and of the Administrative Law Judge's report will be furnished to any person affected thereby.

(5) Effect of revocation on other actions. The revocation of a probationary period will not preclude any other action concerning a further violation, even where revocation is based on the further violation.

17. Section 128.16 is revised to read as follows:

§ 128.16 Extension of time.

The Administrative Law Judge, for good cause shown, may extend the time within which to prepare and submit an answer to a charging letter or to perform any other act required by this part.

Additionally, Alaska proposed several minor editorial revisions.

OSM announced receipt of the proposed amendment in the February 27, 1995, Federal Register (60 FR 10520), provided an opportunity for a public hearing or meeting on its substantive adequacy, and invited public comment on its adequacy (administrative record No. AK-E-05). Because no one requested a public hearing or meeting, none was held. The public comment period ended on March 29, 1995.

During its review of the amendment, OSM identified concerns relating to the provisions of the Alaska Administrative Code at 11 AAC 05.010(a)(9)(D) and 11 AAC 90.011, fees; 11 AAC 90.023, identification of interests and compliance information; 11 AAC 90.117, administrative processing of permit applications; 11 AAC 90.125, Commissioner's findings; 11 AAC 90.126, impropiously issued permits; 11 AAC 90.129, permit revisions and renewals; 11 AAC 90.149(d), operations near alluvial valley floors; 11 AAC 90.173, eligibility for small operator assistance; 11 AAC 90.207(f), self-bonding provisions; 11 AAC 90.327, stream channel diversions; 11 AAC 90.336, impoundment design and construction; 11 AAC 90.391, disposal of excess spoil or coal mine waste; 11 AAC 90.409, return of materials to underground workings; 11 AAC 90.423, protection of fish and wildlife; 11 AAC 90.443, backfilling and grading; 11 AAC 90.457, revegetation success standards; 11 AAC 90.491, construction and maintenance of roads, transportation and support facilities, and utility installations; 11 AAC 90.601, inspections; 11 AAC 90.901, applicability; 11 AAC 90.902, exemption for coal extraction incidental to the extraction of other minerals; 11 AAC 90.907, public participation; and 11 AAC 90.911, definitions. OSM notified Alaska of the concerns by letter
