SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background.—These investigations are being instituted in response to a petition filed on June 12, 1997, by the Coalition for Fair Atlantic Salmon Trade.

Participation in the investigations and public service list.—Persons (other than petitioners) wishing to participate in the investigations as parties must file an entry of appearance with the Secretary to the Commission, as provided in sections 201.11 and 207.10 of the Commission's rules, not later than seven days after publication of this notice in the Federal Register. Industrial users and (if the merchandise under investigation is sold at the retail level) representative consumer organizations have the right to appear as parties in Commission countervailing duty and antidumping investigations. The Secretary will prepare a public service list containing the names and addresses of all persons, or their representatives, who are parties to these investigations upon the expiration of the period for filing entries of appearance.

Limited disclosure of business proprietary information (BPI) under an administrative protective order (APO) and BPI service list.—Pursuant to section 207.7(a) of the Commission's rules, the Secretary will make BPI gathered in these investigations available to authorized applicants representing interested parties (as defined in 19 U.S.C. § 1677(9)) who are parties to the investigations under the APO issued in the investigations, provided that the application is made not later than seven days after the publication of this notice in the Federal Register. A separate service list will be maintained by the Secretary for those parties authorized to receive BPI under the APO.

Conference.—The Commission's Director of Operations has scheduled a conference in connection with these investigations for 9:30 a.m. on July 3, 1997, at the U.S. International Trade Commission Building, 500 E Street SW., Washington, DC. Parties wishing to participate in the conference should contact Brad Hudgens (202-205-3189) not later than July 1, 1997, to arrange for their appearance. Parties in support of the imposition of countervailing and antidumping duties in these investigations and parties in opposition to the imposition of such duties will each be collectively allocated one hour within which to make an oral presentation at the conference. A nonparty who has testimony that may aid the Commission's deliberations may request permission to present a short statement at the conference.

Written submissions.—As provided in sections 201.8 and 207.15 of the Commission's rules, any person may submit to the Commission on or before July 9, 1997, a written brief containing information and arguments pertinent to the subject matter of the investigations. Parties may file written testimony in connection with their presentation at the conference no later than three days before the conference. If briefs or written testimony contain BPI, they must conform with the requirements of sections 201.6, 207.3, and 207.7 of the Commission's rules.

In accordance with sections 201.16(c) and 207.3 of the rules, each document filed by a party to the investigation must be served on all other parties to the investigation (as identified by either the public or BPI service list), and a certificate of service must be timely filed. The Secretary will not accept a document for filing without a certificate of service.

Authority: These investigations are being conducted under authority of title VII of the Tariff Act of 1930; this notice is published pursuant to section 207.12 of the Commission's rules.

By order of the Commission.

Issued: June 16, 1997.

Donna R. Koehnke,
Secretary.

BILLING CODE 7020-02-P

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Lodging of Consent Decree Pursuant to the Clean Water Act

Notice is hereby given that a proposed Final Consent Decree in United States v. Roger Fleming, Civil No. 3:96-2080-17 (D.S.C.), was lodged with the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina on May 28, 1997. The proposed Consent Decree concerns alleged violations of sections 301(a) and 404 of the Clean Water Act, 33 U.S.C. 1311(a) and 1344, resulting from the unauthorized dredging, flooding, and diking of approximately 0.7 acre of wetlands in Eastover, Richland County, South Carolina. The violation involved the construction of a 0.5-acre pond and the discharge of fill material into an additional 0.2 acre of wetlands to form a dike on three sides of the pond. The manner of construction utilized also resulted in the unlawful impoundment of water on adjacent property. The pond was subsequently modified with the installation and reconfiguration of a new inlet pipe to eliminate the impoundment problem.

The proposed Final Consent Decree would provide for the payment of a $250 civil penalty, permanently enjoin the Defendant from further violations of the Clean Water Act, and allow for monitoring of the corrective measures taken to ensure that impoundment does not reoccur.

The U.S. Department of Justice will receive written comments relating to the proposed Consent Decree for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of publication of this notice. Comments should be addressed to R. Emery Clark, Assistant United States Attorney, District of South Carolina, 1441 Main Street, Suite 500, Columbia, SC 29201 and should refer to United States v. Roger Fleming, Civil No. 3:96-2080-17 (D.S.C.).

The proposed Final Consent Decree may be examined at the Clerk's Office, United States District Court for the District of South Carolina, Columbia Division, 1945 Assembly Street, Columbia, South Carolina 29201.
