DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

[Program Announcement 02097]

Hemophilia Prevention Education and Peer Support; Notice of Availability of Funds

A. Purpose

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) announces the availability of fiscal year (FY) 2002 funds for a cooperative agreement program for Hemophilia Prevention Education and Peer Support. This program addresses the "Healthy People 2010" focus area(s) of Disability and Secondary Conditions, HIV, Immunization and Infectious Diseases, and Educational and Community-Based Programs.

The purpose of the program is to enhance public health prevention practices for persons with bleeding disorders by: (1) Promoting peer-led prevention education, intervention and outreach activities; (2) developing and implementing programs that educate and encourage persons with bleeding disorders to make informed decisions regarding healthcare practices and to adopt behaviors that reduce or eliminate bleeding disorder complications; (3) promoting the professional development of health care providers by encouraging collaboration between providers and persons with bleeding disorders to enhance prevention efforts; and (4) disseminating prevention and intervention information and education materials to the bleeding disorders community.

B. Eligible Applicants

Applications may be submitted by public and private non-profit organizations and by governments and their agencies; that is, universities, colleges, research institutions, hospitals, other public and private non-profit organizations, State and local governments or their bona fide agents, including the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, American Samoa, Guam, the Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, and the Republic of Palau, federally recognized Indian tribal governments, Indian tribes, or Indian tribal organizations. Faith-based organizations are eligible for this award.

Note: Title II of the United States Code section 1611 states that an organization described in section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code that engages in lobbying activities is not eligible to receive Federal funds constituting an award, grant or loan.

C. Availability of Funds

Approximately $2,800,000 is available in FY 2002 to fund one award. It is expected that the award will begin on or about September 30, 2002 and will be made for a 12-month budget period within a project period of up to five years. The funding estimate may change.

Continuation awards within an approved project period will be on the basis of satisfactory progress as evidenced by required reports and the availability of funds.

Funding Preference

A funding preference may be given to the current recipient because they can demonstrate experience in conducting, developing, and evaluating peer led prevention interventions and national programs. They have effective and well-defined working relationships with partnering communities (including local consumer organizations and hemophilia treatment centers).

D. Program Requirements

In conducting activities to achieve the purpose of this program, the recipient will be responsible for the activities under 1. (Recipient Activities) and CDC will be responsible for the activities listed under 2. (CDC Activities).

1. Recipient Activities

a. Collaborate with consumers and hemophilia care providers to develop user-centered educational programs and materials aimed at reducing or eliminating complications of bleeding disorders.

b. Evaluate the effectiveness of education programs and materials, identify gaps, and propose strategies to improve the quality and availability of educational resources and prevention information.

c. Develop strategies to increase collaboration between local community based organizations and hemophilia treatment centers (HTCs) to enhance prevention programs.

d. Maintain a comprehensive information clearinghouse for consumers and hemophilia care providers to disseminate information on health promotion, and prevention of complications for persons with bleeding disorders.

e. Coordinate a model demonstration project by developing education programs, communication strategies/methods, and outcome measures to deliver prevention messages aimed at helping individuals make informed decisions regarding their care and adapting behaviors to prevent the complications associated with bleeding disorders. This project should be evaluated by assessing outcome measures, and yield a data bank of effective programs that can be duplicated and disseminated for use in local settings.

f. Expand and enhance peer-based prevention and educational activities by supporting programs at the local level. Provide technical assistance and financial support for program planning, development, implementation, and evaluation of public health education for local peer-led activities to deliver prevention messages.

g. Provide opportunities for hemophilia care providers to receive prevention information and training. Collaborate with current hemophilia care providers to develop orientation training for new providers.

h. Promote programs for early diagnosis and management of women with bleeding disorders.

i. Collaborate with community-based hemophilia organizations to develop, implement, and evaluate outreach initiatives to increase access to healthcare and prevention services for under served groups with bleeding disorders.

j. Encourage the use of appropriate safety precautions to prevent the transmission of blood borne pathogens. Participate in a formal communication network with CDC, and other Federal agencies to address blood safety and availability issues when necessary. Encourage people with bleeding disorders to participate in blood safety monitoring efforts.

2. CDC Activities

a. Provide scientific and public health information regarding the prevention of complications of hemophilia, and other bleeding disorders. This includes reviewing educational and promotional materials developed by the proposed program.

b. Provide consultation and technical assistance for program planning, development, implementation, and evaluation, which may include consulting with committees or working
