Regulatory Analyses and Notices*Administrative Procedure Act*

We issued the associated temporary rule without prior notice or public procedure under 5 U.S.C. 553(b) and without it being subject to the effective date limitation in section 553(d) for two reasons. First, the temporary rule merely cross-references and incorporates the NOP rules as they relate to alcohol beverage labeling. The mandatory compliance date for the NOP rules is October 21, 2002. Second, we are not imposing new requirements. By this notice, we are allowing interested persons an opportunity to comment.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

A regulatory flexibility analysis is not required. Implementation of this proposed rule would not significantly impact a substantial number of small entities.

We do not endorse products when we approve labels that make organic claims. These regulations merely allow bottlers to more accurately describe their products to consumers and help consumers identify the alcohol beverages they purchase. Thus, any benefit derived from the use of an organic claim results from a proprietors' own efforts and from consumer acceptance of products that comply with the rules of the NOP.

Paperwork Reduction Act

We propose no requirement to collect information. Therefore, the provisions of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, 44 U.S.C. 3507, and its implementing regulations, 5 CFR part 1320, do not apply.

Executive Order 12866

We have determined that this proposed rule is not a significant regulatory action as defined by Executive Order 12866. Therefore, a regulatory assessment is not required.
