9 CFR Part 71

[Docket No. 00-094-2]

RIN 0579-AB84

Interstate Movement of Sheep and Goats

AGENCY: Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, USDA.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: We are amending the regulations regarding the interstate movement of animals to add sheep and goats to the approved livestock facility agreement. Livestock facilities that handle sheep and goats in interstate commerce must meet the requirements for approval including complying with this agreement to utilize certain provisions in our scrapie regulations that reduce the movement requirements for sheep and goats moving to or from these establishments. Such facilities may include stockyards, livestock markets, buying stations, concentration points, or any other premises where sheep and goats in interstate commerce are assembled. Our approval will be contingent on the facility operator meeting certain minimum standards and other conditions related to the receipt, handling, and release of sheep and goats at the facility, as well as complying with certain animal identification and recordkeeping requirements. These standards and other conditions will serve, in part, to support our regulations relating to the interstate movement of sheep and goats in order to control the spread of scrapie, a serious disease of sheep and goats.

DATES: Effective Date: May 1, 2009.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On August 26, 2004, we published in the Federal Register (69 FR 52451–52461, Docket No. 00-094-1) a proposed rule to amend our regulations governing the interstate movement of sheep and goats to require livestock facilities that handle sheep and goats in interstate commerce to be approved by the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) if they want to take advantage of provisions in our scrapie regulations in 9 CFR part 79 that reduce the movement requirements for sheep and goats moving to or from these establishments. Approval would be contingent on the facility operator meeting certain minimum standards and certain other conditions relating to receipt, handling, and release of sheep and goats at the facility, as well as complying with certain animal identification and recordkeeping requirements. The proposed standards and other conditions were based, in part, on our regulations relating to the interstate movement of sheep and goats in order to control the spread of scrapie, a serious disease of sheep and goats.

We solicited comments concerning our proposal for 60 days ending October 25, 2004. We received nine comments by that date. The comments came from private citizens, a livestock marketer and marketing association, wool growers associations, a sheep industry association, a farm bureau association, and a veterinary medical association. The comments generally supported the proposed rule. They did, however, raise several issues associated with the proposed rule. Those issues are discussed below.

Some commenters said that the definitions of exposed animal and high-risk animal in 9 CFR parts 54 and 79 did not properly describe animals that pose a true risk for the spread of scrapie based on current science. These commenters stated that genetically resistant sheep pose a minimal risk of transmitting scrapie and therefore should not be required to be quarantined at assembly points as proposed. In addition, the commenters stated that the definitions in the proposed rule excluded some animals that could pose a risk, such as genetically susceptible animals that have resided on infected premises.

We agree with the commenters and intend to modify the definitions in 9 CFR 54.1 and 79.1 in a future rulemaking. In our proposed rule, we proposed requiring exposed sheep that have not also been designated as high-risk animals be kept in quarantine pens away from other animals at livestock facilities. Because we agree with the commenters that genetically resistant exposed sheep pose a minimal risk of transmitting scrapie, we have removed the provision from this final rule.

Some commenters asked for clarification of the term “breeding sheep and goats,” which is not spelled out in the existing regulations. They said that a single, clear definition of breeding sheep and goats would help clarify both existing identification requirements and the additional requirements described in the proposed rule.

We agree with the commenters and have added the following definition of breeding sheep and goats to § 71.1: “Any sexually intact sheep or goat that is not moving either directly to slaughter or through one or more restricted sales and/or terminal feedlots and then directly to slaughter.”

Several commenters requested clarification of the definition of a facility. The proposed rule suggests that a facility has permanent pens, etc., but some commenters stated that some business owners gather sheep for resale in interstate commerce using portable pens and loading ramps. The commenters believe that this portable equipment should be exempt from a definition of a facility.

Becoming an approved livestock facility for sheep and goats is only required if a facility wishes to utilize the provisions in part 79 that reduce the movement requirements for animals moving to or from these facilities, such as the ability to accept unidentified animals in interstate commerce that otherwise would have been required to be identified before entering the facility. As such it places no additional burden on facilities that are not currently approved, or on tent shows or other informal gatherings that use portable equipment.

A few commenters requested clarification of “interstate commerce,” which is defined in part as trade, traffic, or transportation of livestock interstate. The commenters noted that some sheep might cross State lines without ownership change and noted that there are also producers who buy and sell replacement females across State lines. The commenters asked if these types of movement are to be exempt from the proposed requirements which relate to the inspection of facilities, etc. If so, they stated, that exemption needs to be clearly spelled out; if not, then an exemption should be provided, as these activities by and of themselves are not likely to cause the dissemination of scrapie.

The movement of animals by private agreement or without transfer of ownership is governed by the requirements of part 79, and their premises of origin are not considered livestock facilities for the purposes of § 71.20.

Some commenters questioned why the proposed rule did not include a requirement for high-risk or exposed sheep intended for slaughter to be kept in pens apart from the general population of sheep and goats, especially those that may return to a farm for breeding. They pointed out that if any of these high-risk animals have lambed or may lamb in the livestock facility, they could introduce scrapie contamination into the environment.

We agree with the commenters and will revise paragraph (a)(5) of § 71.20 to read: "Any reactor, suspect, exposed, high-risk, or scrapie-positive livestock shall be held in quarantined pens apart from all other livestock at the facility. This requirement shall not apply to scrapie exposed sheep that are not also designated high-risk animals or to sheep or goats designated under 9 CFR part 79 as scrapie exposed or high-risk animals that either are not pregnant based on the animal being male, an owner certification that any female animals have not been exposed to a male in the preceding 6 months, or a certificate issued by an accredited veterinarian stating that the animals are open; or that the animals are under 12 months of age and are not visibly pregnant and are maintained in the same pen only with other animals that will be moved directly to slaughter or to a terminal feedlot in accordance with 9 CFR parts 71 and 79." This is intended to prevent potential breeding animals from being exposed to scrapie during the time they are held in an approved livestock facility while allowing exposed and high-risk slaughter lambs and kids to move through markets.

We will also change 71.20(a)(11) to add "and the quarantined animal gave birth or aborted at the facility" after "if the disease of concern is scrapie." This will significantly reduce the number of times the disinfection procedure specified in 9 CFR 54.7(e)(2) will be required in addition to the standard disinfection procedure.

One commenter noted that the proposed rule would require that facility operators separate breeding and slaughter animals at all times, but questioned how operators are to distinguish between animals for breeding and animals for slaughter. The commenter pointed out that sorting animals might entail a substantial amount of time being added to the check-in process, and that the increased time in unloading at the facility could be detrimental to the well-being of the animals.

In response to this comment, we are changing the wording of § 71.20(a)(17)(iv) from "breeding and slaughter animals must be separated at all times so that no contact will occur" to "sexually intact animals that do not meet the requirements of part 79 to be sold as breeding animals must be maintained in separate enclosures at all times from animals that may be offered for sale as breeding animals unless all animals maintained in an enclosure arrived at the facility as part of the same consignment and are separated prior to sale."

One commenter stated that the market approval requirement to provide quarantine pens for reactor, suspect, or exposed sheep or goats makes no sense since the approval requirements also prohibit "the sale of any reactor, suspect, or exposed livestock, and any livestock that show signs of being infected with any communicable disease." The commenter asserted that market operators are unlikely to know the disease status of the animals entering their market, and even if the animals were known to be reactors, exposed, or suspect, the market operators would refuse to receive them for sale.

We agree it is unlikely that these animals would be found at a market. However, if they are found, it is important that they be segregated. These animals could be placed in a non-species specific quarantine pen that could be disinfected after the affected animals were removed. An APHIS or State animal health official must be notified immediately when such animals are quarantined. We also agree that facilities should not have to indicate that they will handle classes of animals that are prohibited from sale and are amending § 71.20(a)(17) accordingly.

Some commenters said that it is not clear if businesses doing less than $750,000 in sales per year will be exempted from the requirements. The commenters further said that such small businesses pose little threat to the nation's economy because of the transport of sheep infected with scrapie and their transactions should be protected.

The $750,000 figure included in the regulatory flexibility analysis for the proposed rule represents the threshold established by the Small Business Administration for transition between small and large entities and has nothing to do with compliance requirements. Businesses doing less than $750,000 in sales per year will not be exempt from these regulations.

Some commenters expressed concern about a lack of resources for enforcement and that APHIS will expect the States and private enterprise to handle enforcement without offering sufficient funding.

APHIS establishes the necessary regulations on interstate commerce to conduct disease eradication, control, and surveillance programs. The States, through cooperative agreements and memorandums of understanding with APHIS, support these efforts by promulgating the necessary laws and regulations and undertaking associated compliance and enforcement activities within the State. The standards that States must meet to qualify as Consistent States are described in § 79.6; as we are not amending that section in this rule, we do not agree that States are being assigned additional enforcement responsibilities. Some States currently work collaboratively with APHIS on market approvals and would likely continue to do so. Private enterprises are required to comply with the regulations, not enforce them.

One commenter noted that the issue of individual animal identification is hampered by the fact that there is no technology currently available that is workable at the speed of commerce and is affordable to the sheep and goat industry. The commenter stated that until a suitable technology is available, APHIS cannot assume that individual identification records can be kept on sheep and goats.

We agree with the commenter that in some circumstances reading and recording of pre-existing identification numbers may be impractical and are taking steps in conjunction with the sheep and goat industry ID working group to identify appropriate ID methods which meet the needs of commerce, the needs of disease eradication and surveillance programs, and the economics of sheep and goat production. As appropriate technologies are identified, they will be introduced through the scrapie eradication program and industry initiatives. Until this is achieved, we will continue to follow the established identification requirements in 9 CFR 79.2.

One commenter asserted that there are incorrect statements made in the rule, for example: "Most of the sheep and lambs shipped for immediate slaughter would not be affected by the proposed rule since they would not be handled by a livestock market or other assembly point en route to the slaughter facility." The commenter asserted that most sheep and lambs are handled by livestock markets and other assembly points (dealers or feed yards) sometime during their lifetimes. As supporting evidence, the commenter asserted that of the approximately 170,595 head of sheep exported to Mexico in 2003, probably 95 percent came through a market or some other dealer in Texas. The commenter also asserted that many of the kid goats and lambs that are sold for immediate slaughter to slaughterhouses all over the United States go through markets first.

We acknowledge the major role of markets in the movement of lambs and cull sheep into and through slaughter channels; however, we believe it is accurate that more than 50 percent of slaughter animals do not move directly to slaughter through livestock facilities that would require approval under this rule.

Some commenters said that there was an inconsistency between the current recordkeeping requirements for livestock facilities and the proposed requirements, specifically with respect to how long the records must be kept. Given this, the commenters stated, clarification of the distinction between the recordkeeping schedule for sheep and goats and that for other species may be warranted in the final rule.

Approved markets that handle sheep and goats would have to agree to maintain records in a manner consistent with the requirements of the scrapie eradication program in 9 CFR part 79. Those recordkeeping requirements support the need for tracing activities for a disease with an incubation period of 4 to 5 years in most cases.

Some commenters stated that the current regulations are sufficient and that there is no need to add additional requirements. They stated that current efforts to eradicate scrapie through genetic selection in show animals would do more than any new regulations, and furthermore the proposed rule would add to the economic burden on producers and be detrimental to the health of the industry.

In order for the United States to eradicate scrapie, we must be able to trace all infected and exposed animals. To do this we need to increase compliance with the identification requirements in 9 CFR part 79. Accelerating the scrapie eradication program could help the United States sheep and goat industry to become more competitive in both the domestic and global market. Since both actual product quality and purchaser's perception of quality contribute to continued market acceptance, efforts to eradicate scrapie will serve the economic interests of the industry.

Therefore, for the reasons given in the proposed rule and in this document, we are adopting the proposed rule as a final rule, with the changes discussed in this document.

Executive Order 12866 and Regulatory Flexibility Act

This rule has been reviewed under Executive Order 12866. The rule has been determined to be not significant for the purposes of Executive Order 12866 and, therefore, has not been reviewed by the Office of Management and Budget.

This final regulatory flexibility analysis examines the rule's expected costs and benefits in accordance with requirements of the Office of Management and Budget for regulatory analysis and its expected impact on small entities, in accordance with the Regulatory Flexibility Act. This analysis for the final rule follows an earlier analysis that was prepared for the proposed rule, and takes into account public comment received in response to the proposed rule. There were no public comments in response to the initial regulatory flexibility analysis.

Overview of U.S. Sheep and Goat Industry Operations, Inventory, and Trade

Production and trade: As of January 1, 2008, there were 6.055 million sheep and lambs in 67,160 operations, and values at $836 million.¹ This number represented a 1.9 percent inventory decline from January 1, 2000. The above total consists of 4.505 million breeding sheep and lambs and 1.55 million market sheep. Of the breeding sheep, ewes, 1 year old or older, totaled 3.617 million, replacement lambs were 0.695 million, and rams totaled 0.193 million.

Sheep are produced in all parts of the United States, although stock levels vary from State to State. Ten States (Colorado, California, Idaho, Montana, Iowa, Oregon, South Dakota, Texas, Utah, and Wyoming) account for nearly 68 percent of the total inventory, with most in the Mountain, North Central, and South Central areas. These States also account for about 81 percent of incoming shipments, indicating most sheep and sheep meat production activities take place in these States.² Northern and southeastern States have the smallest sheep populations, accounting only for 7.8 percent of the total.

A total of about 4.8 million sheep and lambs were marketed in 2007. A little over 84 percent of these are lambs and the rest mature sheep. Marketing includes animals for slaughter market, younger animals shipped to other States for feeding and breeding purposes, and some exports. Most animals shipped for immediate slaughter will not be affected by this rule. A total of 2.69 million sheep and lambs were slaughtered in 2007, of which 95 percent were lambs.³

In 2002 (the latest year for which detailed data is available for goats), there were 91,462 goat operations in the United States, which raised about 2.53 million goats, valued at approximately $141 million, an increase of about 12 percent from the 1997 level. About 11.9 percent were Angora goats, about 11.5 percent were milk goats, and 76.6 percent were goats other than Angora or milk-type. The State of Texas accounted for about 47 percent of the goat inventory. Other important goat raising States are Alabama, California, Georgia, Kentucky, Missouri, North Carolina, Oklahoma, and Tennessee. These States together represented another 24 percent of the U.S. goat holdings. Goat holdings vary in size and degree of commercialization, with many producers relying on other sources of income. With an average holding of about 28 goats, most, if not all, goat operations are relatively small, and are classified as small entities with annual sales of $750,000 or less.⁴ Of the total number of operations, about 74 percent of goat producers were full owners, about 21 percent were part owners, and 5 percent were tenants.

² USDA/NASS, Livestock Slaughter: 2007 Summary, March 2008. The national average sale price of a sheep between 2003 and 2007 was $132 ($= (119 + 130 + 141 + 134 + 138)/5$) per head (USDA/NASS, 2008 Agricultural Statistics). Note that these average sale prices reflect the sale of millions of slaughter sheep, selling near the average price, and a few thousand valuable registered breeding sheep selling for much more. The average price for registered breeding sheep is in the range of $300, with some selling for thousands of dollars (<http://showcase.netins.net/web/sam/ccd.htm>).

³ The average price for goats between 2003 and 2007 was $72 ($= (63.3 + 67.2 + 75.9 + 78.5 + 74.8)/5$) per head USDA/NASS, 2008 Agricultural

The United States produced about 183 million pounds of lamb and mutton in 2007, a decline of about 43 percent from a decade earlier. Imports of lamb and mutton increased from 42.1 million pounds in 1991 to 183.9 million pounds in 2007, an increase of about 337 percent.⁵

An increasing proportion of domestic demand for lamb and mutton is met by imports. The share of imports in domestic consumption of lamb and mutton increased from about 11 percent in 1991 to about 50 percent in 2007. Even with such increased imports both total consumption as well as per capita consumption of lamb declined. Total consumption declined from about 396 million pounds to 367 million pounds, a decline of about 8 percent.

Trade

The United States has a limited foreign trade both in live sheep and goats and their products. Both the sources of imports and destination of exports are concentrated in a few countries. During calendar year 2007, the U.S. exported 116,618 sheep valued at $8.148 million (see table 1). Mexico (65,075 head) and Canada (50,808 head) accounted for over 95 percent of this total. Other importers were St. Vincent and the Grenadines (37), Ecuador (323), the Bahamas (22), and Guyana (20). The United States also exported 9,231 goats valued at $597,000 in 2007. Again, the primary importers were Mexico (7,211 head) and Canada (1,697). Other destinations included St. Vincent and the Grenadines, which imported 323 goats.

The U.S. imported 92 sheep valued at $58,000 in 2007. The sheep imports in 2007 were from Canada (84 head), Australia (6) and New Zealand (2). Additionally, the U.S. imported 33 goats valued at $10,000 in 2007, all from Australia. The average value of an imported sheep ($630) is higher than the average value of an exported sheep ($70). Likewise, the average value of an imported goat ($300) is higher than the average value of an exported goat ($65).

In 2007, the United States imported 207 million pounds of sheep and goat meat valued at $490.5 million and exported 9.2 million pounds of sheep and goat meat valued at $11.7 million. Most lamb and mutton imports came from Australia and New Zealand. The U.S. exports are distributed to a larger number of markets.⁶ Since imports of sheep and goats represent a very small fraction of domestic supply, most interstate movements would involve domestic sheep and goats.

Expected Costs and Benefits

There are currently 107 facilities that handle sheep and 62 facilities that handle goats moving in interstate commerce. These facilities would have to provide access to accredited veterinarians, State representatives, and APHIS representatives, as well as comply with certain notification requirements with respect to livestock known to be infected, exposed, or suspect, or that show signs of being infected with a communicable disease if they want to take advantage of provisions in our scrapie regulations in 9 CFR part 79 that reduce the movement requirements for sheep and goats moving to or from these establishments. Such facilities also would have to keep State animal health officials and APHIS informed of upcoming sale days at the facility. Some of the livestock facilities covered by this rule are already subject to these requirements as approved livestock facilities handling other classes of livestock.

To be approved, such livestock facilities also would have to follow certain identification, recordkeeping, and handling practices with respect to sheep or goats under their control as provided in 9 CFR parts 71 and 79. Documents such as weight tickets, sales slips, and records of origin, identification, and destination relating to livestock at the facility would have to be maintained by the facility for a period of 5 years. Some of these requirements are already provided for elsewhere in the regulations, and thus would not represent a new burden. Still, any new paperwork and administrative burdens may result in additional cost to facility operators who find it necessary to adjust their operations to meet the new requirements. However, the additional activities are not expected to be significant for most facilities.

The livestock facility and its equipment would have to be maintained in a state of good repair. Chutes, pens, alleys, and sales rings would have to be well constructed and well lighted for the inspection, identification, vaccination, testing, and branding of livestock. Electrical outlets would have to be provided at the chute area for branding purposes. The facility, including yards, docks, pens, alleys, sale rings, chutes, scales, means of conveyance, and their associated equipment would have to be maintained in a clean and sanitary condition. The operator of the facility would be responsible for maintaining an adequate supply of disinfectant and serviceable equipment for cleaning and disinfection. Meeting these standards could entail additional costs for some livestock facilities seeking to qualify as approved livestock facilities. Since most of these conditions represent good business practices and most facilities already follow them, it is not expected to be a significant issue. Most of these facilities are already complying with Statistics). The annual prices are from various issues of Agricultural Statistics. The goat quantities are from the 2002 Census of Agriculture. As in the case of sheep there is variability in the market value of goats. Market values can vary depending on whether the animal is a slaughter goat, Angora goat, dairy goat, crossbred or purebred, etc. Boer goats are considered to be the most expensive goats with some commanding well over $50,000 for one Boer buck and over $10,000 for purebred does (www.jackmauldin.com/new.htm).

these conditions as approved livestock facilities handling other classes of livestock. Therefore, this rule should not result in a significant effect on facilities conducting their business.

In addition, as a condition of approval, reactor, suspect, exposed, scrapie high-risk, or scrapie-positive livestock would have to be held in quarantine pens apart from all other livestock at the facility except exposed sheep that are not also high-risk animals or exposed and high-risk animals that are segregated from breeding animals and that do not pose a significant risk of lambing or kidding while in the facility. The quarantine pens in which such animals are held would have to be clearly marked and would have to be cleaned and disinfected before being used to hold other animals not affected with diseases. The quarantine pens would also have to have proper drainage and be constructed of materials that are substantially impervious to moisture and able to withstand continued cleaning and disinfection. The regulations in 9 CFR 71.20(a)(5) already require that approved livestock facilities hold any reactor, suspect, or exposed livestock in quarantine pens apart from all other livestock at the facility. Facilities handling sheep or goats that do not have quarantine pens would likely incur a one-time capital investment of about $3,000 to $5,000 to install such a pen. Otherwise, the number of reactor, suspect, exposed, scrapie high-risk, or scrapie-positive livestock handled by approved livestock facilities is expected to be very small, and thus quarantining of such animals should not have a significant effect on facility operations or economic activity.

Furthermore, producers who are engaged in intrastate and interstate marketing may also pay higher consignment fees as approved facilities pass their increased costs of providing services to affected producers. Other costs to producers of this action could result for those animals requiring special handling at livestock facilities.

This rule could result in a small increase in the time that APHIS and State representatives spend monitoring livestock facilities. In those cases where a facility is already operating as an approved livestock facility for other classifications of livestock, and APHIS and State representatives are already on site, the addition of sheep and goats to the classifications of livestock covered by the agreement is unlikely to substantially increase the workload for those representatives. APHIS and State representatives monitor compliance at such facilities with the identification requirements of the scrapie regulations in 9 CFR part 79. Thus, any additional monitoring responsibilities on the part of State or Federal representatives that may result from implementation of this rule could be handled by existing staff.

This rule should not affect the interstate flow of sheep and goats. The interstate movement of sheep and goats is important as it reduces interstate price differences faced by consumers of livestock products and it allows movement of sheep and goats from areas of surplus to areas of deficit. A majority of sheep and goats moving across State lines are slaughter animals. Although we do not have specific data, based on our observation of livestock markets and the sheep and goat industry, we believe that most of these slaughter animals move directly to the slaughterhouse and bypass the types of livestock facilities that are the subject of this rule. In addition, the operators of livestock facilities that agree to handle animals affected by scrapie would be the entities most affected by this rule. However, the number of sheep and goats affected by scrapie and handled by these livestock facilities is likely to be very small. This rule should not post a significant burden on operators of livestock facilities or producers and is not expected to reduce interstate commerce or retard economic availability.

In spite of the potential small burdens to livestock facility operators and producers, the long-term avoided costs of coping with losses associated with scrapie by the U.S. sheep and goat industries as a result of accelerating the scrapie eradication program far exceed the potential costs of this rule. This includes the avoidance of veterinary and associated costs for managing scrapie-affected flocks. An APHIS estimate showed that scrapie costs the U.S. sheep industry about $24 million per year in losses. This includes an estimated $10 million in lost breeding stock and embryo sales, $10.5 million in disposal costs for offal, and $2.8 million in lost meat and bone meal sales.

Accelerating the eradication of scrapie in the United States also could facilitate movement of the U.S. sheep and goat industries toward increased competitiveness both in the domestic and global markets, particularly in the export of live sheep and goats. Currently, producers in countries such as Australia and New Zealand have a competitive advantage over U.S. producers, based in part on the absence of scrapie in those countries. The achievement of “scrapie-free” status in the United States could neutralize the competitive advantage of such countries.

Since both actual product quality as well as purchasers’ perception of quality contribute to continued market acceptance, efforts to eradicate scrapie and secure the health of U.S. sheep and goats will continue to serve the economic interests of the industry and the nation.

Effects on Small Entities

This rule will affect livestock facilities that handle sheep and goats in interstate commerce, including stockyards, livestock markets, buying stations, concentration points, or any other premises under State or Federal veterinary supervision where sheep or goats have been assembled and which choose to become an approved livestock facility. These facilities are considered small if they have 100 or fewer employees (North American Industry Classification System [NAICS] 424520).⁷ There are currently about 1,106 livestock facilities that handle cattle and calves, swine, or sheep and goats moving in interstate commerce. Of this total, about 107 handle sheep and 62 handle goats, and all are considered to be small entities.

Producers of sheep or goats (NAICS 112410) also could be affected by the rule if livestock facilities pass on the increased costs of providing services attributable to the rule to affected producers. There were 44,189 sheep operations and 43,495 goat operations that sold animals in 2002. An operation engaged in sheep or goat production is considered small if it has annual sales of not more than $750,000.⁸ Small operations, as shown in table 2, accounted for over 99 percent of all operations that sold sheep and lambs. About 81 percent of the producers sold fewer than 100 animals each, but these accounted only for about 17 percent of total sales of sheep and lambs. On the other hand, large sheep operations that sold 5,000 sheep or more represented less than 1 percent of the farms but accounted for about 32 percent of the total number sold. The overall average size of a flock was 117 animals in 2002. The average size of a flock on large operations was 11,094 animals, while that on small operations was 80 animals. The vast majority of sheep and goat producers would be considered small entities based on such criteria. Of ⁷ The Small Business Administration defines small market facilities (NAICS 424520) as those having fewer than 100 employees.

⁸ Based on the size standard established by the Small Business Administration for livestock and animal specialties, sheep producers (NAICS 112410) and goat producers (NAICS 112420) with not more than $0.75 million in annual sales qualify as small entities.

6 percent were tenants. Approximately 81 percent of these sheep are marketed, involving crossing State lines in most cases.

Livestock facilities that are considered small entities would have to meet the same standards as other larger firms if they choose to become an approved facility. This would include following certain identification, recordkeeping, and handling practices with respect to sheep or goats. Some of these requirements are already provided in part 79 of the regulations, and thus would not represent a new burden. In addition, a certain number of these facilities already comply with many of the conditions in this rule in operating as approved livestock facilities for other classes of livestock.

We considered the feasibility of exempting small entities from some or all of the requirements in this rule or establishing differing compliance or reporting requirements that take into account the resources available to small entities. However, one of the aims of an effective national program to control and eradicate scrapie is to establish uniform standards that will be followed by all livestock facilities handling unidentified sheep or goats and animals with a certificate of veterinary inspection in interstate commerce. Programs relating to disease surveillance and control do not lend themselves to different compliance standards based on the size of the entity subject to regulation. Also, the requirements in part 79 pertaining to identification, recordkeeping, and handling of sheep and goats make no distinction as to the size of the producer or other livestock facility handling the animals.

As discussed above, producers who are engaged in intrastate and interstate marketing may be indirectly affected by this rule if they have to pay higher consignment fees as livestock facilities pass their increased costs of providing services. Other costs to producers of this action could result for those animals requiring special handling at approved livestock facilities. However, because most of the facilities that handle sheep and goats are already in compliance with the regulations in part 79, the potential costs to sheep and goat producers considered small entities should not be significant.

In sum, it is reasonable to expect that both small and large entities would benefit from this rule, which would strengthen scrapie control programs resulting in long-term avoided costs of coping with market losses associated with scrapie. Direct losses to the U.S. sheep industry alone are currently estimated to be as high as $24 million per year. We expect any costs to operators of livestock facilities or to producers to be more than offset by the added benefits to the industry at large in providing a more effective scrapie eradication program.

The primary alternative to the rule would be to make no changes at all to the existing regulations. The regulations in part 79 already include certain requirements to be followed by approved livestock markets with respect to the identification, recordkeeping and handling of sheep and goats in interstate commerce. However, the regulations in part 71 do not specify the process by which these facilities are to be approved. Therefore, it is imperative that an approval process be added to our regulations.

This rule contains various recordkeeping requirements, which were described in our proposed rule and which have been approved by the Office of Management and Budget (see "Paperwork Reduction Act" below).

National Environmental Policy Act

An environmental assessment and finding of no significant impact have been prepared for this final rule. The environmental assessment provides a basis for the conclusion that the APHIS approval of livestock facilities that handle sheep and goats in interstate commerce under the conditions specified in this rule will not have a significant impact on the quality of the human environment. Based on the finding of no significant impact, the Administrator of the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service has determined that an environmental impact statement need not be prepared.

The environmental assessment and finding of no significant impact were prepared in accordance with: (1) The National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA), as amended (42 U.S.C. 4321 et seq.), (2) regulations of the Council on Environmental Quality for implementing the procedural provisions of NEPA (40 CFR parts 1500–1508), (3) USDA regulations implementing NEPA (7 CFR part 1b), and (4) APHIS' NEPA Implementing Procedures (7 CFR part 372).

APHIS representatives and State representatives shall be permitted to review and copy those documents during normal business hours.

* * * * *

(11) Quarantined pens shall be clearly labeled with paint or placarded with the word "Quarantined" or the name of the disease of concern, and shall be cleaned and disinfected in accordance with 9 CFR part 71 as well as 9 CFR 54.7(e)(2) if the disease of concern is scrapie and the quarantined animal gave birth or aborted at the facility, before being used to pen livestock that are not reactor, suspect, exposed, high-risk, or scrapie-positive animals.

—This facility will not handle goats known to be scrapie-exposed or sheep or goats known to be high-risk animals, nor permit such animals to enter the facility: [Initials of operator, date]

(i) All sheep and goats must be received, handled, and released by the facility only in accordance with 9 CFR parts 71 and 79.

(ii) All sheep and goats at the facility must be officially identified and relevant records related to those identified animals must be maintained by the facility operator, as required under 9 CFR part 79.

(iii) The identity of sheep and goats from consistent States and inconsistent States must be maintained by the facility operator.

(iv) Sexually intact animals that do not meet the requirements of part 79 to be sold as breeding animals must be maintained in separated enclosures at all times from animals that may be offered for sale as breeding animals unless all animals maintained in an enclosure arrived at the facility as part of the same consignment and are separated prior to sale.

National Poultry Improvement Plan and Auxiliary Provisions

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: We are amending the National Poultry Improvement Plan (the Plan) and its auxiliary provisions by providing new or modified sampling and testing procedures for Plan participants and participating flocks. The changes were voted on and approved by the voting delegates at the Plan's 2006 National Plan Conference. These changes will keep the provisions of the Plan current with changes in the poultry industry and provide for the use of new sampling and testing procedures.

DATES: Effective Date: May 1, 2009.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The National Poultry Improvement Plan (NPIP, also referred to below as "the Plan") is a cooperative Federal-State-industry mechanism for controlling certain poultry diseases. The Plan consists of a variety of programs intended to prevent and control poultry diseases. Participation in all Plan programs is voluntary, but breeding flocks, hatcheries, and dealers must first qualify as "U.S. Pullorum-Typhoid Clean" as a condition for participating in the other Plan programs.

The Plan identifies States, flocks, hatcheries, dealers, and slaughter plants that meet certain disease control standards specified in the Plan's various programs. As a result, customers can buy poultry that has tested clean of certain diseases or that has been produced under disease-prevention conditions.

The regulations in 9 CFR parts 145, 146, and 147 (referred to below as the regulations) contain the provisions of the Plan. The Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS, also referred to as "the Service") of the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA, also referred to as "the Department") amends these provisions from time to time to incorporate new scientific information and technologies within the Plan.

On May 28, 2008, we published in the Federal Register (73 FR 30528–20543, Docket No. APHIS–2007–0042) a proposal¹ to amend the Plan and its auxiliary provisions by providing new or modified sampling and testing procedures for Plan participants and participating flocks. The proposed changes were voted on and approved by the voting delegates at the Plan's 2006 National Plan Conference. These changes were intended to keep the provisions of the Plan current with changes in the poultry industry and provide for the use of new sampling and testing procedures.

We solicited comments concerning our proposal for 60 days ending July 28, 2008. We received 11 comments by that date. They were from State agencies, a university, a diagnostic laboratory association, and private citizens. All 11 commenters raised specific issues regarding the proposed rule. Those issues are discussed below.

We proposed to amend §§ 145.14(d) and 146.13(b), which describe approved tests for avian influenza (AI) under the Plan, to approve the use of two agent detection tests for AI: The real time reverse transcriptase/polymerase chain reaction (RRT–PCR) assay and the USDA-licensed type A influenza antigen capture immunoassay (ACIA). In the proposed regulatory text, we stated that agent detection tests that detect influenza A matrix gene or protein would be allowed to be performed by an authorized laboratory, but tests that determine hemagglutinin (H) or neuraminidase (N) subtypes would not be allowed to be performed by an authorized laboratory.

Several commenters stated that laboratories that are not part of the National Animal Health Laboratory Network (NAHLN) should not be authorized to perform RRT–PCR assays for AI. As the commenters noted, many laboratories that are considered authorized laboratories under the Plan are operated by poultry industry groups or other parties and thus are not part of NALHN, which is composed of State and university laboratories and APHIS' National Veterinary Services Laboratories (NVSL).

NAHLN is a multifaceted network composed of sets of laboratories that focus on different diseases, using common testing methods and software platforms to process diagnostic requests and share information. The State and university laboratories in NAHLN perform routine diagnostic tests for endemic animal diseases as well as targeted surveillance and response testing for foreign animal diseases. The laboratories have the capability and capacity to conduct nationwide surveillance testing for the early detection of an animal disease outbreak, and they are able to test large numbers of samples rapidly during an outbreak and to demonstrate freedom from disease after eradication.

The commenters cited many concerns regarding allowing laboratories other than NAHLN laboratories to perform RRT–PCR assays for AI, including conflicts of interest in reporting positive results from industry-operated laboratories; loss of data or delays in reporting to State animal health officials in the event of positive results; lack of standardization of procedures between other laboratories and NALHN; NVSL's lack of resources for auditing industry laboratories; the potential for false positives or premature reporting from non-NAHLN laboratories; and biosafety and public health concerns. One of the commenters noted that only NALHN laboratories are currently authorized to perform RRT–PCR assays; this commenter stated that this system has worked well.

We agree with the commenters that RRT–PCR assays for AI should only be performed by NAHLN laboratories. We proposed that RRT–PCR assays would have to be conducted using the NVSL official protocol for RRT–PCR (AVPRO1510) and be conducted by personnel who have passed an NVSL proficiency test. The protocol and the proficiency testing we proposed to require are only available to NALHN laboratories and personnel.

To resolve any confusion that may have arisen from our statement that tests that detect influenza A matrix gene or protein would be allowed to be performed by an authorized laboratory, we have modified that provision in this final rule. The regulatory text in this final rule states that agent detection tests may be used to detect influenza A matrix gene or protein but not to determine H or N subtypes. As described earlier, the specific requirements for performing RRT–PCR assays make it clear that only NAHLN laboratories can perform those assays. (As commenters noted, the ACIA may be performed by authorized laboratories as well as NAHLN laboratories.)

The proposed rule contained several other proposed changes related to AI. We proposed to add in a new § 145.15 the requirements in § 146.14 for AI diagnostic surveillance programs, which must include examination of all submitted cases of unexplained respiratory disease, egg production drops, and mortality for AI; this proposed change was intended to clearly indicate that these requirements apply to breeding poultry as well as commercial poultry. We proposed to increase the frequency at which multiplier egg-type chicken breeding flocks, multiplier meat-type chicken breeding flocks, and multiplier turkey breeding flocks that participate in the U.S. Avian Influenza Clean classifications in §§ 145.23(h)(2), 145.33(l)(2), and 145.43(g)(2), respectively, are tested, allowing 90 days rather than 180 days between tests. We proposed to establish a U.S. Avian Influenza Clean classification for ostrich, emu, rhea, and cassowary breeding flocks. We proposed to modify the sampling requirements for the U.S. H5/H7 Avian Influenza Monitored classification for meat-type turkey slaughter plants to allow testing at the flock level rather than at slaughter. Finally, we proposed to establish a U.S. H5/H7 Avian Influenza Monitored classification for commercial upland game bird slaughter plants, commercial waterfowl slaughter plants, raised-for-release upland game bird premises, and raised-for-release waterfowl premises.

One commenter stated a presumption that there is no AI being found in the U.S. chicken industry, based on the lack of such reports. Based on this information, the commenter stated, increasing sampling frequency does not appear to make sense. The commenter recommended instead that we require end-of-life testing of long-lived birds, such as breeder flocks, and symptomatic flocks, such as flocks with respiratory disease. The commenter stated that testing every meat bird flock in low-risk environments, such as conventional commercial poultry houses, appears to be an unnecessary step to placate international trading partners.

We agree with the commenter that testing of breeding flocks and symptomatic flocks is important. Our proposals to increase the frequency at which breeding flocks participating in the U.S. Avian Influenza Clean classification are tested and to add diagnostic AI surveillance program provisions to 9 CFR part 145 speak to our concern on those issues. However, contrary to the commenter's assertion, occurrences of AI in U.S. poultry are rare but regular. The testing requirements for participants in the U.S. H5/H7 Avian Influenza Monitored classifications for meat-type flocks and slaughter plants are necessary to provide assurance that such flocks and slaughter plants are monitored for AI.

We proposed to establish new requirements for authorized laboratories in a new § 147.51. These included a requirement for an annual site visit and recordkeeping audit by the Official State Agency (OSA), which the regulations define as the State authority recognized by the Department to cooperate in the administration of the Plan. (In some States, the OSA is also the State animal health authority; in some States, the OSA includes representation from, but is not identical to, the State animal health authority.)

One commenter recommended that we require that the OSA and the State animal health authority of the State in which the laboratory is located be in concurrence before a laboratory is approved. The commenter also recommended that the Plan be modified where applicable to say that a representative of the State animal health authority may accompany the OSA whenever a site visit is conducted.

The OSA is the entity designated in the NPIP to carry out the administration of the Plan within a State and, in that capacity, makes the final determination on whether to authorize a laboratory. Therefore, requiring in the regulations that the State animal health authority concur with the OSA to authorize a laboratory or that the State animal health authority participate in site visits with the OSA would be inappropriate. However, we note that, in those cases when the OSA is not the State animal health authority itself, the OSA always includes representation from the State animal health authority.

Therefore, for the reasons given in the proposed rule and in this document, we are adopting the proposed rule as a final rule, with the change discussed in this document.

Executive Order 12866 and Regulatory Flexibility Act

This final rule has been reviewed under Executive Order 12866. The rule has been determined to be not significant for the purposes of Executive Order 12866 and, therefore, has not been reviewed by the Office of Management and Budget.

In accordance with the Regulatory Flexibility Act, we have analyzed the potential economic effects of this action on small entities.

We are amending the Plan and its auxiliary provisions by providing new or modified sampling and testing procedures for Plan participants and participating flocks. The changes were voted on and approved by the voting delegates at the Plan's 2006 National Plan Conference. These changes will keep the provisions of the Plan current with changes in the poultry industry and provide for the use of new sampling and testing procedures.

The United States is the world's largest poultry producer, the second-largest egg producer, and the largest exporter of poultry meat. U.S. poultry meat production totals over 42 billion pounds annually; over four-fifths is broiler meat, most of the remainder is turkey meat, and a small fraction is other chicken meat. Cash receipts (see table 1) from sales of poultry and eggs (broilers, farm chickens, eggs, turkey, ducks, and other poultry) were about $28.9 billion in 2005 (with preliminary value for 2006 and forecasted value for 2007 being a little higher).² Of this total, 72 percent was from broilers, 14 percent from eggs, 11 percent from turkeys, and 3 percent from other poultry.

In terms of tonnage, poultry production and trade exceeds that of beef or pork. For instance, in 2006, the United States produced 41.4 billion pounds of poultry meat, compared with 26.2 billion pounds of beef and 21 billion pounds of pork. The United States also produced 6.5 billion dozen eggs in 2006. Per capita consumption of poultry meat (103.8 pounds in 2006) exceeds per capita consumption of both beef (65.7 pounds) and pork (49.3 pounds). Furthermore, the United States exports more poultry meat (5.8 billion pounds in 2006) than beef and veal (1.2 billion pounds) or pork (3 billion pounds).³

Broiler production is concentrated in a group of States stretching from Delaware south along the Atlantic coast to Georgia, then westward through Alabama, Mississippi, and Arkansas. The top broiler-producing State is Georgia, followed by Arkansas, Alabama, North Carolina, Mississippi, and Texas. Operations in these States account for over 65 percent of broiler cash receipts.

Most U.S. broiler production is conducted under contract with broiler processors. The grower normally supplies the grow-out house with all the necessary heating, cooling, feeding, and watering systems. The grower also supplies the labor needed in growing the birds. The broiler processor supplies the chicks, feed, and veterinary medicines. The processor schedules transportation of the birds from the farm to the slaughter plant. In many cases, the processor also supplies the crews who place broilers into cages for transportation to the slaughter plant.

The U.S. turkey industry produces over one-quarter of a billion birds annually, with the live weight of each bird averaging over 25 pounds. Production of turkeys is somewhat more scattered geographically than broiler production. The top five turkey-producing States are Minnesota, North Carolina, Missouri, Arkansas, and Virginia. The United States is by far the world's largest turkey producer, followed by the European Union. Even though exports are a major component of the U.S. turkey industry, the United States consumes more turkey per capita than any other country.

U.S. egg operations produce over 77 billion eggs annually. Over three-fourths of egg production is for human consumption (the table-egg market). The remainder of production is for the hatching market. These eggs are hatched to provide replacement birds for the egg-laying flocks and broiler chicks for grow-out operations. The top five egg-producing States are Iowa, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana, and California.⁴

The United States is the world's largest exporter of poultry meat. Annual poultry meat exports totaled about 5.8 billion pounds in 2006, which is about 14.5 percent of U.S. production. (All trade statistics in this and the following paragraph are for 2006.) Demand for U.S. poultry meat products has fluctuated over the last several years due to changing economic conditions and currency exchange rates in major importing countries. The largest importers of U.S. broiler products are Russia, Mexico, China, Canada, Hong Kong, Turkey, Taiwan, Angola, South Korea, and Ukraine. Together, these markets accounted for over 74 percent of U.S. poultry meat exports, on a quantity basis. The United States imports only small amounts of poultry meat, accounting for less than two-tenths of 1 percent of domestic production. Over 98 percent of imports come from Canada.

As in the case of poultry meat, U.S. exports of live poultry and exports of fresh shell eggs are widely distributed and significantly outweigh imports of these products. The United States exported 1,302 million eggs and imported 65.4 million eggs in 2006. The major importers of eggs are Canada, Mexico, Jamaica, United Kingdom, Hong Kong, Brazil, Trinidad and Tobago, Dominican Republic, Guyana, and Nicaragua. These countries altogether accounted for about 80 percent of U.S. egg exports. U.S. imports are mainly from Canada, China, France, and Taiwan. These countries together accounted for 91 percent of U.S. imports of eggs. The United States exported 51 million live poultry and imported 13.7 million live poultry in 2006. Major destinations include Canada, Mexico, China, Thailand, Peru, Colombia, Guatemala, Indonesia, Egypt, and El Salvador. These countries accounted for 70 percent of U.S. total live poultry exports. All U.S. imports of live poultry came from Canada, United Kingdom, and Italy.

The decision to participate in the NPIP program is voluntary. Being a participating flock in NPIP has many benefits. These include: The flock being recognized as a participating member of NPIP; the flock having an approval number which may be used on shipping labels, certificates, invoices, and other documents for identification purposes; the flock being listed in the official NPIP Directory of Participants; free listing in various State fair brochures; and receiving emergency disease management updates. Furthermore, being a participant in the NPIP allows for greater ease in moving hatching eggs and live birds within a State, across State lines, and into international markets. In fact, most countries will not accept hatching eggs, live birds, table eggs, or broilers unless they can be shown to be from an NPIP participant.

Any increased cost to NPIP participants due to the proposed rule will be minor compared to the expected benefits of the changes in this final rule. Additional costs are likely to be minor because most of the participants already had been implementing these changes for several years. Even if additional tests are required, the additional number of birds tested will be very small compared to the size of flocks in the industry. Individual producers will continue to participate in the NPIP program only if the benefits they receive from participation outweigh the costs. Over 99 percent of poultry breeders and hatcheries, commercial table-egg layer flocks, and commercial meat-type chicken and turkey slaughter plants are Plan participants.

Impact on Small Entities

The Regulatory Flexibility Act requires that agencies consider the economic effects of their rules on small entities. According to the Small Business Administration's (SBA's) Office of Advocacy, regulations create economic disparities based on size when they have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities.

Entities engaged in production of breeding stock and hatcheries will be affected by this final rule. Currently there are four major firms that produce primary breeding stock of egg-type chickens, three breeders of meat-type chickens, two breeders of turkeys, and one firm producing breeding stock of both egg-type and meat-type chickens.⁵ All of these are large facilities headquartered in the United States that operate in domestic and international markets, and would not be considered small entities. Few, if any, small producers will be directly affected by this final rule.

Broiler operations (North American Industry Classification System [NAICS] code 112320), turkey operations (NAICS 112330), hatcheries (NAICS 112340), and other poultry operations (112390) could also be affected by the changes in this final rule. All of these operations are considered to be small if they have annual sales of $750,000 or less (SBA Table of Small Business Size Standards, http://www.sba.gov/idc/groups/public/documents/sba_homepage/serv_sstd_tablepdf.pdf). Commercial egg producers (NAICS 112310) are considered small if they have annual sales of not more than $11.5 million.

The broiler industry has evolved from small backyard flocks to fewer than 50 highly specialized, vertically integrated agribusiness firms. A measure of the changing structure is the number and size of chicken hatcheries. In 1973, there were 989 facilities that hatched all chickens in the United States. Those hatcheries had the capacity to incubate 436 million eggs at one time for an average capacity of 440,849 eggs per facility. In 2006, there were 313 chicken hatcheries, with an incubator capacity of 910 million eggs for an average capacity of 2.9 million eggs per facility. Similarly, there were 203 turkey hatching facilities with capacity to incubate 45 million eggs at one time, for an average capacity of 221,675 eggs per facility. In 2006, there were 55 turkey hatcheries, with an incubator capacity of 39 million eggs for an average capacity of 703,927 eggs per facility.⁶

We do not foresee any significant impact of this final rule on small entities. The NPIP is a voluntary program, so poultry producers can decide if it is beneficial for them to participate.

Under these circumstances, the Administrator of the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service has determined that this action will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities.

■ 5. Section 145.15 is revised to read as follows:

§ 145.15 Diagnostic surveillance program for low pathogenic avian influenza.

(a) The Official State Agency must develop a diagnostic surveillance program for H5/H7 low pathogenic avian influenza for all poultry in the State. The exact provisions of the program are at the discretion of the States. The Service will use the standards in paragraph (b) of this section in assessing individual State plans for adequacy, including the specific provisions that the State developed. The standards should be used by States in developing those plans.

(b) Avian influenza must be a disease reportable to the responsible State authority (State veterinarian, etc.) by all licensed veterinarians. To accomplish this, all laboratories (private, State, and university laboratories) that perform diagnostic procedures on poultry must examine all submitted cases of unexplained respiratory disease, egg production drops, and mortality for avian influenza by both an approved serological test and an approved antigen detection test. Memoranda of understanding or other means must be used to establish testing and reporting criteria (including criteria that provide for reporting H5 and H7 low pathogenic avian influenza directly to the Service) and approved testing methods. In addition, States should conduct outreach to poultry producers, especially owners of smaller flocks, regarding the importance of prompt reporting of clinical symptoms consistent with avian influenza.

(b) U.S. Avian Influenza Clean. This program is intended to be the basis from which the breeding-hatchery industry may conduct a program for the prevention and control of avian influenza. It is intended to determine the presence of avian influenza in all ostrich, emu, rhea, and cassowary breeding flocks through routine serological surveillance of each participating breeding flock. Acceptable tests include antigen and antibody detection tests, as approved by the Official State Agency. A flock, and the hatching eggs and chicks produced from it, will qualify for this classification when the Official State Agency determines that it has met one of the following requirements:

(1) It is a primary breeding flock in which 10 percent of the flock, up to a maximum of 30 birds, has been tested negative for type A influenza virus with all pens represented equally and when the tested birds are more than 4 months of age. Positive samples shall be further tested by an authorized laboratory. To retain this classification:

(i) A sample of at least 30 birds must be tested negative at intervals of 180 days, or

(ii) A sample of less than 10 percent of the birds, up to a maximum of 30 birds, may be tested and found to be negative at any one time if all pens are equally represented and a total of 30 birds are tested within each 180-day period.

(2) It is a multiplier breeding flock in which a minimum of 30 birds has been tested negative to type A influenza virus with all pens represented equally and when the tested birds are more than 4 months of age. Positive samples shall be further tested by an authorized laboratory. To retain this classification:

(i) A sample of at least 30 birds must be tested negative at intervals of 180 days, or

(ii) A sample of at least 10 percent of birds from each pen with all pens being represented must be tested negative at intervals of 180 days; or

(iii) A sample of less than 10 percent of the birds may be tested, and found to be negative, at any one time if all pens are equally represented and a total of 10 percent of the birds are tested within each 180-day period.

§ 146.11 Inspections.

(a) Each participating slaughter plant shall be audited at least once annually or a sufficient number of times each year to satisfy the Official State Agency that the participating slaughter plant is in compliance with the provisions of this part. The yearly audit will consist of an evaluation of 2 weeks’ worth of records, selected at random, of the following data:

(1) The actual flock slaughter date for each flock. This information must come from a verifiable source. Verifiable sources include electronic record systems that have oversight from the Department’s Grain Inspectors, Packers and Stockyards Administration or Food Safety and Inspection Service (FSIS) documents such as FSIS Form 9061–2.

(c) Two or more flocks that are found to be not conforming to protocol in the yearly audit for a slaughter plant shall be cause for a deficiency rating for that plant. However, if the root cause for the deficiency was identified, corrected, and documented, the plant will be eligible for an immediate reevaluation of 2 additional weeks’ worth of records, again selected at random. If no more than one missed flock is identified in this reevaluation, the plant will be considered in compliance and no further action will be required. A followup audit on the information in paragraphs (a)(1) and (a)(2) of this section will occur within 90 days from the receipt of the corrective action plan. Slaughter plants will retain their classification and may continue to use the Plan emblem in § 146.9(a) during this process. A failure on the followup audit may result in disbarment from participation according to the procedures in § 146.12.

- 28. A new Subpart F, “Authorized Laboratories and Approved Tests,” §§ 147.51 and 147.52, is added to read as follows:

Subpart F—Authorized Laboratories and Approved Tests

147.52 Approved tests.

Subpart F—Authorized Laboratories and Approved Tests

§ 147.51 Authorized laboratory minimum requirements.

These minimum requirements are intended to be the basis on which an authorized laboratory of the Plan can be evaluated to ensure that official Plan assays are performed and reported as described in this part. A satisfactory evaluation will result in the laboratory being recognized by the NPIP office of the Service as an authorized laboratory qualified to perform the assays provided for in this part.

(a) Check-test proficiency. The laboratory must use a regularly scheduled check test for each assay that it performs.

(b) Trained technicians. The testing procedures at the laboratory must be run or overseen by a laboratory technician who has attended and satisfactorily completed Service-approved laboratory workshops for Plan-specific diseases within the past 3 years.

(c) Laboratory protocol. Official Plan assays must be performed and reported as described in this part.

(d) State site visit. The Official State Agency will conduct a site visit and recordkeeping audit annually.

(e) Service review. Authorized laboratories will be reviewed by the Service (NPIP staff) every 3 years. The Service's review may include, but will not necessarily be limited to, checking records, laboratory protocol, check-test proficiency, technician training, and peer review.

(f) Reporting. (1) A memorandum of understanding or other means shall be used to establish testing and reporting criteria to the Official State Agency, including criteria that provide for reporting H5 and H7 low pathogenic avian influenza directly to the Service.

(2) Salmonella pullorum and Mycoplasma Plan disease reactors must be reported to the Official State Agency within 48 hours.

(g) Verification. Random samples may also be required to be submitted for verification as specified by the Official State Agency.

§ 147.52 Approved tests.

(a) The procedures for the bacteriological examination of poultry and poultry environments described in this part are approved tests for use in the NPIP. In addition, all tests that use veterinary biologics (e.g., antiserum and other products of biological origin) that are licensed or produced by the Service and used as described in this part are approved for use in the NPIP.

(b) Diagnostic test kits that are not licensed by the Service (e.g., bacteriological culturing kits) may be approved through the following procedure:

(1) The sensitivity of the kit will be estimated in at least three authorized laboratories selected by the Service by testing known positive samples, as determined by the official NPIP procedures found in Subparts A, B, C, and D of this part. If certain conditions or interfering substances are known to affect the performance of the kit, appropriate samples will be included so that the magnitude and significance of the effect(s) can be evaluated.

(2) The specificity of the kit will be estimated in at least three authorized laboratories selected by the Service by testing known negative samples, as determined by the official NPIP procedures found in this part. If certain conditions or interfering substances are known to affect the performance of the kit, appropriate samples will be included so that the magnitude and significance of the effect(s) can be evaluated.

(3) The kit will be provided to the cooperating laboratories in its final form and include the instructions for use. The cooperating laboratories must perform the assay exactly as stated in the supplied instructions. Each laboratory must test a panel of at least 25 known positive clinical samples supplied by the manufacturer of the test kit. In addition, each laboratory will be asked to test 50 known negative clinical samples obtained from several sources, to provide a representative sampling of the general population. The identity of the samples must be coded so that the cooperating laboratories are blinded to identity and classification. Each sample must be provided in duplicate or triplicate, so that error and repeatability data may be generated.

(4) Cooperating laboratories will submit to the kit manufacturer all raw data regarding the assay response. Each sample tested will be reported as positive or negative, and the official NPIP procedure used to classify the sample must be submitted in addition to the assay response value.

(5) The findings of the cooperating laboratories will be evaluated by the NPIP technical committee, and the technical committee will make a recommendation regarding whether to approve the test kit to the General Conference Committee. If the technical committee recommends approval, the final approval will be granted in accordance with the procedures described in §§ 147.46 and 147.47.

DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Federal Aviation Administration

14 CFR Part 39

[Docket No. FAA-2008-1206; Directorate Identifier 2008-NE-19-AD; Amendment 39-15869; AD 2009-07-10]

Airworthiness Directives; General Electric Company CF6-80A Series Turbofan Engines

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The FAA is adopting a new airworthiness directive (AD) for General Electric Company (GE) CF6-80A series turbofan engines with a high-pressure turbine rotor (HPTR) stage 1 disk, part number (P/N) 9367M45G06, installed. This AD requires removing any HPTR stage 1 disk, P/N 9367M45G06, before exceeding 2,075 cycles-since-new (CSN). This AD results from an error by GE that incorrectly cited a cyclic life of 12,600 CSN for the HPTR stage 1 disk, P/N 9367M45G06. We are issuing this AD to prevent the HPTR stage 1 disk from exceeding its part life, which could cause fatigue cracks to start and grow. These cracks could result in a possible uncontained disk failure and damage to the airplane.

DATES: This AD becomes effective May 6, 2009.

ADDRESSES: The Docket Operations office is located at the Docket Management Facility, U.S. Department of Transportation, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, SE., West Building Ground Floor, Room W12-140, Washington, DC 20590-0001.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Robert Green, Aerospace Engineer, Engine Certification Office, FAA, Engine & Propeller Directorate, 12 New England Executive Park, Burlington, MA 01803; e-mail: robert.green@faa.gov; telephone (781) 238-7754; fax (781) 238-7199.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The FAA proposed to amend 14 CFR part 39 with a proposed AD. The proposed AD applies to GE CF6-80A series turbofan engines with a HPTR stage 1 disk, P/N 9367M45G06, installed. We published the proposed AD in the Federal Register on November 14, 2008 (73 FR 67433). That action proposed to require removing any HPTR stage 1 disk, P/N 9367M45G06, before exceeding 2,075 CSN.

Examining the AD Docket

You may examine the AD docket on the Internet at <http://www.regulations.gov>; or in person at the Docket Operations office between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, except Federal holidays. The AD docket contains this AD, the regulatory evaluation, any comments received, and other information. The street address for the Docket Operations office (telephone (800) 647-5527) is provided in the ADDRESSES section. Comments will be available in the AD docket shortly after receipt.

Comments

We provided the public the opportunity to participate in the development of this AD. We have considered the comment received. The commenter supports the proposal.

Conclusion

We have carefully reviewed the available data, including the comment received, and determined that air safety and the public interest require adopting the AD as proposed.

Costs of Compliance

We estimate that this AD will affect 10 engines installed on airplanes of U.S. registry. We also estimate that it will take about 110 work-hours per engine to perform the actions, and that the average labor rate is $80 per work-hour. Required parts will cost about $437,000 per engine. Based on these figures, we estimate the total cost of the AD to U.S. operators to be $4,458,000.

Authority for This Rulemaking

Title 49 of the United States Code specifies the FAA's authority to issue rules on aviation safety. Subtitle I, Section 106, describes the authority of the FAA Administrator. Subtitle VII, Aviation Programs, describes in more detail the scope of the Agency's authority.

We are issuing this rulemaking under the authority described in Subtitle VII, Part A, Subpart III, Section 44701, "General requirements." Under that section, Congress charges the FAA with promoting safe flight of civil aircraft in air commerce by prescribing regulations for practices, methods, and procedures the Administrator finds necessary for safety in air commerce. This regulation is within the scope of that authority because it addresses an unsafe condition that is likely to exist or develop on products identified in this rulemaking action.

Regulatory Findings

We have determined that this AD will not have federalism implications under Executive Order 13132. This AD will not have a substantial direct effect on the States, on the relationship between the national government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government.

For the reasons discussed above, I certify that this AD:

- (1) Is not a "significant regulatory action" under Executive Order 12866;
- (2) Is not a "significant rule" under DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034, February 26, 1979); and
- (3) Will not have a significant economic impact, positive or negative, on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

We prepared a summary of the costs to comply with this AD and placed it in the AD Docket. You may get a copy of this summary at the address listed under ADDRESSES.

Air transportation, Aircraft, Aviation safety, Safety.

Adoption of the Amendment

- Accordingly, under the authority delegated to me by the Administrator, the Federal Aviation Administration amends 14 CFR part 39 as follows:

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

- 1. The authority citation for part 39 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 49 U.S.C. 106(g), 40113, 44701.

§ 39.13 [Amended]

- 2. The FAA amends § 39.13 by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

2009-07-10 General Electric Company:

Amendment 39-15869. Docket No. FAA-2008-1206; Directorate Identifier 2008-NE-19-AD.

Effective Date

(a) This airworthiness directive (AD) becomes effective May 6, 2009.

Affected ADs

- (b) None.

Applicability

(c) This AD applies to General Electric Co. (GE) CF6-80A, CF6-80A1, CF6-80A2, and CF6-80A3 turbofan engines with a high-pressure turbine rotor (HPTR) stage 1 disk, part number (P/N) 9367M45G06, installed. These engines are installed on, but not limited to, Airbus A310 series and Boeing 767 series airplanes.

Unsafe Condition

(d) This AD results from an error by GE that incorrectly cited a cyclic life of 12,600 CSN in the Airworthiness Limitations Section (ALS) of the Instructions for Continued Airworthiness (ICA) for the H PTR stage 1 disk, P/N 9367M45G06. We are issuing this AD to prevent the H PTR stage 1 disk from exceeding its part life, which could cause fatigue cracks to start and grow. These cracks could result in a possible uncontained disk failure and damage to the airplane.

Compliance

(e) You are responsible for having the actions required by this AD performed within the compliance times specified unless the actions have already been done.

New Reduced Life Limit for H PTR Stage 1 Disks, P/N 9367M45G06

(f) After the effective date of this AD, remove H PTR stage 1 disks, P/N 9367M45G06, from service before exceeding the new, reduced life limit of 2,075 cycles-since-new.

Alternative Methods of Compliance

(g) The Manager, Engine Certification Office, has the authority to approve alternative methods of compliance for this AD if requested using the procedures found in 14 CFR 39.19.

Special Flight Permits

(h) Under 14 CFR part 39.23, we are prohibiting any special flight permits.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Food and Drug Administration

21 CFR Part 5

[Docket No. FDA-2009-N-0144]

Revision of Organization and Conforming Changes to Regulations

AGENCY: Food and Drug Administration, HHS.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) is issuing this final rule to amend the regulations to reflect organizational changes in the agency and to make other conforming changes. This action is editorial in nature and is intended to improve the accuracy of the agency's regulations.

DATES: This rule is effective April 1, 2009.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Vanessa Starks, Office of Management Programs (HFA-410), Food and Drug Administration, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20857, 301-827-4654; or Sharon Burgess, Office of Management Programs (HFA-410), 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20857, 301-827-2065.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

FDA is issuing this final rule to amend the agency's regulations by updating the organizational information in part 5 (21 CFR part 5). The agency has updated the references to part 5, subpart M.

The portion of this final rule updating the organizational information in part 5, subpart M is a rule of agency organization, procedure, or practice. FDA is issuing these provisions as a final rule without publishing a general notice of proposed rulemaking because such notice is not required for rules of agency organization, procedure, or practice under 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(3)(A). For the conforming changes to the other regulations, the agency finds good cause under 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(3)(B) to dispense with prior notice and comment, and good cause under 5 U.S.C. 553(d)(3) to make these conforming changes effective less than 30 days after publication because such notice and comment and delayed effective date are unnecessary and contrary to the public interest. As discussed previously, these conforming changes merely update the footnotes in part 5, subpart M. These changes do not result in any substantive change in the regulations.

II. Analysis of Impacts

FDA has examined the impacts of the final rule under Executive Order 12866 and the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601-612), and the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (Public Law 104-4). Executive Order 12866 directs agencies to assess all costs and benefits of available regulatory alternatives and, when regulation is necessary, to select regulatory approaches that maximize net benefits (including potential economic, environmental, public health and safety, and other advantages; distributive impacts; and equity). The agency believes that this final rule is consistent with the principles identified in the Executive order. In addition, the final rule is not a significant regulatory action as defined by the Executive order and so is not subject to review under the Executive order.

The Regulatory Flexibility Act requires agencies to analyze regulatory options that would minimize any significant impact of a rule on small entities. Because this rule simply updates the organizational information, it does not impose any additional costs on industry. Consequently, the agency certifies that the final rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. Therefore, under the Regulatory Flexibility Act, no further analysis is required.

Section 202(a) of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 requires that agencies prepare a written statement, which includes an assessment of anticipated costs and benefits, before proposing "any rule that includes any Federal mandate that may result in the expenditure by State, local, and tribal governments, in the aggregate, or by the private sector, of $100,000,000 or more (adjusted annually for inflation) in any one year." The current threshold after adjustment for inflation is $130 million, using the most current (2007) Implicit Price Deflator for the Gross Domestic Product. FDA does not expect this final rule to result in any 1-year expenditure that would meet or exceed this amount.

III. Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995

This final rule contains no collections of information. Therefore, clearance by the Office of Management and Budget under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 is not required.

IV. Environmental Impact

FDA has determined under 21 CFR 25.30(h) that this action is of a type that does not individually or cumulatively have significant effect on the human environment. Therefore, neither an environmental assessment nor an environmental impact statement is required.

V. Federalism

FDA has analyzed this final rule in accordance with the principles set forth in Executive Order 13132. FDA has determined that the rule does not contain policies that have substantial direct effects on the States, on the relationship between the National Government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government. Accordingly the agency has concluded that the rule does not contain policies that have federalism implications as defined in the Executive order and, consequently, a federalism summary impact statement is not required.

DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT

RIN 2501-AD23

Civil Money Penalties: Certain Prohibited Conduct; Technical Amendment

AGENCY: Office of the Secretary, HUD.

ACTION: Final rule, technical amendment.

SUMMARY: On January 15, 2009, HUD published a final rule to revise HUD's regulations that govern the imposition of civil money penalties. The effect of the rulemaking was to remove one item from the list of actions for which the Mortgagee Review Board may initiate a civil money penalty action against a mortgagee or lender, reducing the list from 15 numbered items to 14, and redesignating the 15th item as item number 14. However, a related cross reference was not updated to reflect this change. In addition, a section revised in 2006 involving delinquent mortgages, also requires a cross-reference change. This document corrects these cross-references.

DATES: Effective Date: April 1, 2009.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On January 15, 2009 (74 FR 2750), HUD published a final rule that revised HUD's regulations that govern the imposition of civil money penalties, located at part 30 of Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations. The final rule followed a proposed rule published on October 17, 2008 (73 FR 61754), that provided a 60 day public comment period. HUD received no comments in response to the proposed rule, the proposed rule was adopted as final without change. The rule was adopted as final effective February 17, 2009, see 74 FR 2750, Jan. 15, 2009.

The civil money penalty regulations at 24 CFR 30.35 contain a list of actions, the commission of which allows the mortgagee review board to initiate a civil money penalty action. There were originally 14 such actions (see 61 FR 50216-50217). On April 26, 2005, HUD amended the rule to add a 15th action, failure to engage in loss mitigation. This action was codified at 24 CFR 30.35(a)(15). Along with this addition, 24 CFR 30.35(c)(2) was added pursuant to statutory requirement to provide for a triple civil money penalty for violations of this section.

On January 15, 2009, HUD adopted as final regulations that revised 24 CFR 30.35(a) to remove item 24 CFR 30.35(a)(14) from the list, and to redesignate the failure to engage in loss mitigation item from 24 CFR 30.35(a)(15) to 24 CFR 30.35(a)(14) (74 FR 2751, Jan. 15, 2009). However, the 2009 rule failed to incorporate the related cross reference. Therefore, this technical amendment revises 24 CFR 30.35(c)(2) to refer to § 30.35(a)(14).

The civil money penalty regulations at § 30.35(a)(9)(vi) contain a provision stating that the mortgagee review board may initiate a civil money penalty action for failure to report all delinquent mortgages to HUD. Section 30.35(a)(9)(vi) cross-references § 203.332 on delinquent mortgages. In 2006, § 203.332 was moved to § 203.330 and revised (71 FR 16234, Mar. 31, 2006). Therefore, this technical amendment revises the cross-reference.

ACTION: Notice of temporary deviation from regulations.

SUMMARY: The Commander, First Coast Guard District, has issued a temporary deviation from the regulation governing the operation of the P.J. McArdle Bridge across the Chelsea River, mile 0.3, between Chelsea and East Boston, Massachusetts. This deviation is necessary to facilitate the Chelsea River Revel and 5K Road Race. This deviation allows the bridge to remain in the closed position during the running of the 5K Road Race and for the remainder of the Chelsea River Revel. Vessels that can pass under the draw without a bridge opening may do so at all times.

DATES: This deviation is effective from 8 a.m. through 5 p.m. on June 13, 2009.

ADDRESSES: Documents indicated in this preamble as being available in the docket are part of docket USCG-2009-0150 and are available online at <http://www.regulations.gov>. FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: John McDonald, Project Officer, First Coast Guard District, at (617) 223-8364.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The owner of the bridge, the City of Boston, requested this temporary deviation. The P.J. McArdle Bridge, across the Chelsea River at mile 0.3, between Chelsea and East Boston, Massachusetts, has a vertical clearance in the closed position of 21 feet at mean high water and 30 feet at mean low water. The bridge opens on signal as required by 33 CFR 117.593.

This deviation which allows the bridge to remain closed is effective from 8 a.m. through 5 p.m. on June 13, 2009. Vessels able to pass under the closed draw may do so at any time. Tankers, and tug and barge units transit Chelsea Creek under the McArdle Bridge. Waterway users were advised of the requested bridge closure period and offered no objection.

In accordance with 33 CFR 117.35(e), the bridge must return to its regular operating schedule immediately at the end of the designated time period. This deviation from the operating regulations is authorized under 33 CFR 117.35.

Safety Zone; Captain of the Port Zone Jacksonville; Offshore Cape Canaveral, FL

AGENCY: Coast Guard, DHS.

ACTION: Final Rule.

SUMMARY: The Coast Guard is establishing four safety zones to protect infrastructure and marine traffic from the hazards associated with recurring space vehicle launches from Cape Canaveral Air Force Station (CCAFS). The safety zones extend from the shoreline to points approximately 12 nautical miles offshore and will only be activated and enforced during pre-launch hours and terminate approximately 15 minutes after a successful launch. In addition to protecting marine traffic from the hazards associated with the launching of space vehicles, the regulation will expedite notification to the public of such launches and also reduce the administrative workload of the Coast Guard.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Regulatory Information

On August 18, 2008, we published a notice of proposed rulemaking (NPRM) entitled Safety Zone; Captain of the Port Zone Jacksonville; Offshore Cape Canaveral, FL in the Federal Register (73 FR 160). We received 0 letters commenting on the rule. No public meeting was requested, and none was held.

Background and Purpose

Space vehicle launches from CCAFS occur throughout the year and have a decided impact on the waters offshore Cape Canaveral. These waters are located within the boundaries of Seventh Coast Guard District, Captain of the Port (COTP) Zone Jacksonville, as defined by CFR 3.35-20. Currently, CCAFS launches 12 to 15 vehicles per year. For each launch, the Coast Guard activates and enforces the security zone in 33 CFR 165.701. The offshore portion of that security zone extends three miles from the baseline. However, to ensure the safety of all maritime interests, CCAFS has requested an additional safety buffer be added to an extent reaching 12 nautical miles offshore, the maximum distance from baseline for which the COTP has jurisdictional authority to establish safety zones. Presently, for each space vehicle launch, CCAFS requests, and the Coast Guard creates, a Temporary Final Rule establishing a safety zone from the baseline out to 12 nautical miles. This temporary safety zone covers an area of the Atlantic Ocean that commences at the shoreline and extends 3 miles either side of the launch azimuth bearing out to 12 nautical miles. Administrative efficiency can be achieved while improving public notice through the promulgation of a final rule and subsequent enforcement notice rather than through promulgation of individual temporary final rules for each launch. In 2007, the Coast Guard issued 12 temporary regulations. In addition to the administrative burden, the repeated temporary rules have caused confusion among maritime interests who must adjust plans and operations to each new and different temporary zone. This problem will worsen in the near future as CCAFS pursues more robust launch schedules.

Furthermore, the unpredictability of weather causes a significant proportion of launches to be delayed. Any delay precludes suitable notification to the public on the effective date and time safety zones are enacted and enforced. The Coast Guard must therefore create temporary final rules that sometimes are not completed until days or hours before the event. This Final Rule coupled with notice will serve the public interest by ensuring the safety of maritime interests at risk during a launch.

This rule will significantly relieve the administrative burden on the Coast Guard, and at the same time allow the Coast Guard to notify the public of launch area restrictions in a timely manner. The public notification of launch date and time along with a description of the regulated zone will be furnished via Broadcast Notice to Mariners, Public Notices, and on-scene Patrol Commanders. In addition, the closing of the area will be signified by the display of a yellow ball from a 90-foot pole near the shoreline at approximately 28°35'00" N, 080°34'36" W, and from a 90-foot pole near the shoreline at approximately 28°25'18" N, 080°35'00" W.

Discussion of Comments and Changes

On August 18, 2008 the Coast Guard published a notice of proposed rulemaking (NPRM) that proposed establishment of four safety zones to protect infrastructure and marine traffic from the hazards associated with recurring space vehicle launches from Cape Canaveral Air Force Station. No comments were received in response to the NPRM, however the COTP has incorporated the following changes to notify the public the safety zone has been activated.

The closing of the area will be signified by the display of a yellow ball from a 90-foot pole near the shoreline at approximately 28°35'00" N, 080°34'36" W, and from a 90-foot pole near the shoreline at approximately 28°25'18" N, 080°35'00" W.

Regulatory Analyses

We developed this rule after considering numerous statutes and executive orders related to rulemaking. Below we summarize our analysis based on 13 of these statutes or executive orders.

Regulatory Planning and Review

This rule is not a significant regulatory action under section 3(f) of Executive Order 12866, Regulatory Planning and Review, and does not require an assessment of potential costs and benefits under section 6(a)(3) of that Order. The Office of Management and Budget has not reviewed it under that Order.

We expect the economic impact of this rule to be so minimal that a full Regulatory Evaluation is unnecessary. Safety zones will be enacted 45 minutes prior to launch time and only extend 15 minutes beyond a successful launch. During this time, no vessel will be permitted to transit through the safety zone(s).

Small Entities

Under the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601–612), we have considered whether this rule would have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. The term “small entities” comprises small businesses, not-for-profit organizations that are independently owned and operated and are not dominant in their fields, and governmental jurisdictions with populations of less than 50,000.

The Coast Guard certifies under 5 U.S.C. 605(b) that this rule would not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. Total time of safety zone activation and thus restriction to the public is expected to be one hour per launch. We do not anticipate any significant economic impact resulting from activation of the safety zone(s).

Assistance for Small Entities

Under section 213(a) of the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996 (Pub. L. 104-121), in the NPRM we offered to assist small entities in understanding the rule so that they could better evaluate its effects on them and participate in the rulemaking process.

Collection of Information

Federalism

A rule has implications for federalism under Executive Order 13132, Federalism, if it has a substantial direct effect on State or local governments and would either preempt State law or impose a substantial direct cost of compliance on them. We have analyzed this rule under that Order and have determined that it does not have implications for federalism.

Unfunded Mandates Reform Act

The Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (2 U.S.C. 1531–1538) requires Federal agencies to assess the effects of their discretionary regulatory actions. In particular, the Act addresses actions that may result in the expenditure by a State, local, or tribal government, in the aggregate, or by the private sector of $100,000,000 or more in any one year. Though this rule would not result in such an expenditure, we do discuss the effects of this rule elsewhere in this preamble.

Taking of Private Property

This rule will not effect a taking of private property or otherwise have taking implications under Executive Order 12630, Governmental Actions and Interference with Constitutionally Protected Property Rights.

Civil Justice Reform

This rule meets applicable standards in sections 3(a) and 3(b)(2) of Executive Order 12988, Civil Justice Reform, to minimize litigation, eliminate ambiguity, and reduce burden.

Protection of Children

We have analyzed this rule under Executive Order 13045, Protection of Children from Environmental Health Risks and Safety Risks. This rule is not an economically significant rule and would not create an environmental risk to health or risk to safety that may disproportionately affect children.

Indian Tribal Governments

This rule does not have tribal implications under Executive Order 13175, Consultation and Coordination with Indian Tribal Governments, because it does not have a substantial direct effect on one or more Indian tribes, on the relationship between the Federal Government and Indian tribes, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities between the Federal Government and Indian tribes.

Energy Effects

We have analyzed this rule under Executive Order 13211, Actions Concerning Regulations That Significantly Affect Energy Supply, Distribution, or Use. We have determined that it is not a “significant energy action” under that order because it is not a “significant regulatory action” under Executive Order 12866 and is not likely to have a significant adverse effect on the supply, distribution, or use of energy. The Administrator of the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs has not designated it as a significant energy action. Therefore, it does not require a Statement of Energy Effects under Executive Order 13211.

Technical Standards

The National Technology Transfer and Advancement Act (NTTAA) (15 U.S.C. 272 note) directs agencies to use voluntary consensus standards in their regulatory activities unless the agency provides Congress, through the Office of Management and Budget, with an explanation of why using these standards would be inconsistent with applicable law or otherwise impractical. Voluntary consensus standards are technical standards (e.g., specifications of materials, performance, design, or operation; test methods; sampling procedures; and related management systems practices) that are developed or adopted by voluntary consensus standards bodies.

This rule does not use technical standards. Therefore, we did not consider the use of voluntary consensus standards.

Environment

We have analyzed this rule under Department of Homeland Security Management Directive 5100.1 and Commandant Instruction M16475.lD, which guide the Coast Guard in complying with the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA) (42 U.S.C. 4321–4370f), and have concluded under the Instruction that there are no factors in this case that would limit the use of a categorical exclusion under section 2.B.2 of the Instruction. Therefore, this rule is categorically excluded, under figure 2–1, paragraph (34)(g), of the Instruction, from further environmental documentation.

An environmental analysis checklist and a categorical exclusion determination are available in the docket where indicated under ADDRESSES.

Safety Zone; Underwater Object, Massachusetts Bay, MA

AGENCY: Coast Guard, DHS.

ACTION: Temporary final rule.

SUMMARY: The Coast Guard is extending the duration of a temporary safety zone surrounding the fishing vessel PATRIOT located approximately 17 miles northeast of Scituate, Massachusetts in Massachusetts Bay. This action is necessary to ensure that vessels are not endangered by conducting dredging, diving, salvage, anchoring, fishing or other activities in this area. This temporary rulemaking is needed to protect the environment, the commercial fishing industry, and the general public from potential hazards associated with the underwater object. DATES: This rule is effective from 11:59 p.m. March 14, 2009 through 11 p.m. April 28, 2009.

ADDRESSES: Documents indicated in this preamble as being available in the docket are part of docket USCG-2008-1272 and will be available online at www.regulations.gov. They will also be available for inspection or copying in two locations: the Docket Management Facility (M-30), U.S. Department of Transportation, West Building Ground Floor, Room W12-140, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, SE., Washington, DC 20590, between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, except Federal holidays, and United States Coast Guard Sector Boston, 427 Commercial St, Boston, MA 02109 between 7 a.m. and 3 p.m., Monday through Friday, except Federal holidays.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Regulatory Information

We did not publish a notice of proposed rulemaking (NPRM) for this regulation. Under 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(B), the Coast Guard finds that good cause exists for not publishing a notice of proposed rulemaking (NPRM) with respect to this rule because initial immediate action was needed to protect the public from the hazards posed by an unknown underwater object located in Massachusetts Bay. This object was later identified as the F/V Patriot. The F/V PATRIOT is located in approximately 95 feet of water 17 miles northeast of Scituate, Massachusetts. This rule extends the duration of the existing safety zone, which would have expired on March 14, 2009, to ensure, to the extent practicable, the immediate, continued protections for the environment, the commercial fishing industry, and the general public from the hazards associated with the F/V

PATRIOT, while investigative efforts continue, risk mitigation strategies are further explored and implemented, and salvage efforts are conducted.

For the same reasons, under 5 U.S.C. 553(d)(3), the Coast Guard finds that good cause exists for making this rule effective less than 30 days after publication in the Federal Register.

Background and Purpose

On January 3, 2009, the F/V PATRIOT, a 54-foot steel-hull boat, sank with the loss of two crewmembers onboard. The vessel was reported to have an estimated 5000 gallons of fuel onboard. There were no survivors and the exact position of the vessel was not immediately known. On January 8, 2009, the Coast Guard established a temporary safety zone around a reported underwater object believed to be the F/V PATRIOT, located in Massachusetts Bay approximately 17 miles northeast of Scituate, Massachusetts, in position 42°24'27.34" N, 70°27'17.23" W.

This underwater object created an immediate and significant danger to the environment, the commercial fishing industry, and the general maritime public, as mariners unaware of its presence could make contact with the object and cause damage to their vessel, equipment below the water or fishing gear. On January 14, 2009, the Coast Guard extended the temporary safety zone until March 14, 2009, while investigative efforts continued and risk mitigation strategies were further explored. On January 23, 2009, underwater exploratory operations with photographic equipment confirmed that the object was the F/V PATRIOT. The owners of the vessel intend to conduct dive and salvage operations on the vessel. The extension of this zone will help ensure the planned dive and salvage operations can be conducted safely.

Discussion of Rule

This regulation extends the duration of the temporary safety zone on the navigable waters of Massachusetts Bay, Massachusetts, 17 miles northeast of Scituate, Massachusetts. This extension is necessary to allow the owners of the F/V PATRIOT to conduct salvage operations. The first safety zone, on this matter, was effective from January 8, through January 14, 2009. On January 14, 2009, the duration of the zone was extended until March 14, 2009 (74 FR 7817). With this rule, we are extending the duration of the safety zone from March 14, 2009 through April 28, 2009. The zone extends for 500 yards, in all directions, from the F/V PATRIOT in approximate position 42°24'27.34" N, 70°27'17.23" W. The position of the safety zone has been modified slightly from the prior safety zones so as to better identify its location.

This action is intended to prohibit vessels and persons from entering, transiting, anchoring, diving, dredging, dumping, fishing, trawling, laying cable, or conducting salvage operations in this zone except as authorized by the Coast Guard Captain of the Port Boston, Massachusetts. Public notifications about this safety zone have been and will continue to be made through broadcast and local notice to mariners. Marine traffic may transit safely in surrounding areas of Massachusetts Bay, but are restricted from entering the area delineated above.

The Captain of the Port anticipates minimal negative impact on vessel traffic due to the limited area and duration covered by this safety zone.

Regulatory Analyses

We developed this rule after considering numerous statutes and executive orders related to rulemaking. Below we summarize our analyses based on 13 of these statutes or executive orders.

Regulatory Planning and Review

This rule is not a significant regulatory action under section 3(f) of Executive Order 12866, Regulatory Planning and Review, and does not require an assessment of potential costs and benefits under section 6(a)(3) of that Order. The Office of Management and Budget has not reviewed it under that Order.

We expect the economic impact of this rule will be so minimal that a full Regulatory Evaluation under the regulatory policies and procedures of DHS is unnecessary. This regulation may have some impact on the public. This impact, however, is outweighed by the safety risks mitigated by the enactment of this zone. Further, the safety zone extends only 500 yards in all directions of the fishing vessel PATRIOT, and as such mariners will be able to transit around the zone without incurring additional costs.

Small Entities

Under the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601–612), we have considered whether this rule would have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. The term “small entities” comprises small businesses, not-for-profit organizations that are independently owned and operated and are not dominant in their fields, and governmental jurisdictions with populations of less than 50,000.

The Coast Guard certifies under 5 U.S.C. 605(b) that this rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. This rule may affect the following entities, some of which may be small entities: The owners or operators of vessels intending to transit, anchor, or fish in a portion of the Massachusetts Bay covered by the safety zone. This rule will not have a significant impact on a substantial number of small entities for the following reasons: The area this rule is affecting is very small and there is plenty of water in the area for vessels to transit around.

Assistance for Small Entities

Under section 213(a) of the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996 (Public Law 104–121), we offer to assist small entities in understanding the rule so that they can better evaluate its effects on them and participate in the rulemaking process.

Small businesses may send comments on the actions of Federal employees who enforce, or otherwise determine compliance with, Federal regulations to the Small Business and Agriculture Regulatory Enforcement Ombudsman and the Regional Small Business Regulatory Fairness Boards. The Ombudsman evaluates these actions annually and rates each agency's responsiveness to small business. If you wish to comment on actions by employees of the Coast Guard, call 1–888–REG–FAIR (1–888–734–3247). The Coast Guard will not retaliate against small entities that question or complain about this rule or any policy or action of the Coast Guard.

Collection of Information

Federalism

A rule has implications for federalism under Executive Order 13132, Federalism, if it has a substantial direct effect on State or local governments and would either preempt State law or impose a substantial direct cost of compliance on them. We have analyzed this rule under that Order and have determined that it does not have implications for federalism.

Unfunded Mandates Reform Act

The Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (2 U.S.C. 1531–1538) requires Federal agencies to assess the effects of their discretionary regulatory actions. In particular, the Act addresses actions that may result in the expenditure by a State, local, or tribal government, in the aggregate, or by the private sector of $100,000,000 or more in any one year. Though this rule will not result in such an expenditure, we do discuss the effects of this rule elsewhere in this preamble.

Taking of Private Property

This rule will not affect a taking of private property or otherwise have taking implications under Executive Order 12630, Governmental Actions and Interference with Constitutionally Protected Property Rights.

Civil Justice Reform

This rule meets applicable standards in sections 3(a) and 3(b)(2) of Executive Order 12988, Civil Justice Reform, to minimize litigation, eliminate ambiguity, and reduce burden.

Protection of Children

We have analyzed this rule under Executive Order 13045, Protection of Children from Environmental Health Risks and Safety Risks. This rule is not an economically significant rule and does not create an environmental risk to health or risk to safety that may disproportionately affect children.

Indian Tribal Governments

This rule does not have tribal implications under Executive Order 13175, Consultation and Coordination with Indian Tribal Governments, because it does not have a substantial direct effect on one or more Indian tribes, on the relationship between the Federal Government and Indian tribes, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities between the Federal Government and Indian tribes.

Energy Effects

We have analyzed this rule under Executive Order 13211, Actions Concerning Regulations That Significantly Affect Energy Supply, Distribution, or Use. We have determined that it is not a “significant energy action” under that order because it is not a “significant regulatory action” under Executive Order 12866 and is not likely to have a significant adverse effect on the supply, distribution, or use of energy. The Administrator of the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs has not designated it as a significant energy action. Therefore, it does not require a Statement of Energy Effects under Executive Order 13211.

Technical Standards

The National Technology Transfer and Advancement Act (NTTAA) (15 U.S.C. 272 note) directs agencies to use voluntary consensus standards in their regulatory activities unless the agency provides Congress, through the Office of Management and Budget, with an explanation of why using these standards would be inconsistent with applicable law or otherwise impractical. Voluntary consensus standards are technical standards (e.g., specifications of materials, performance, design, or operation; test methods; sampling procedures; and related management systems practices) that are developed or adopted by voluntary consensus standards bodies.

This rule does not use technical standards. Therefore, we did not consider the use of voluntary consensus standards.

Environment

We have analyzed this rule under Department of Homeland Security Management Directive 0023.1 and Commandant Instruction M16475.ID, which guide the Coast Guard in complying with the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA) (42 U.S.C. 4321–4370f), and have concluded this action is one of a category of actions which do not individually or cumulatively have a significant effect on the human environment. This rule is categorically excluded, under figure 2–1, paragraph (34)(g), of the Instruction, from further environmental documentation as the rule pertains to a temporary safety zone established and extended to address an emergency situation lasting more than one week. The written environmental analysis checklist and Categorical Exclusion Determination prepared for the initial effective period of this safety zone regulation is applicable to this extension. These documents are available in the docket where indicated under ADDRESSES.

Outline

- I. Background
- II. Evaluation of the Albuquerque Fugitive Dust Control Rule
- III. Final Action
- IV. Statutory and Executive Order Reviews

I. Background

The Albuquerque/Bernalillo County Air Quality Control Board (AQCB) is the federally delegated air quality authority for Albuquerque and Bernalillo County. The AQCB is authorized to administer and enforce the CAA and the New Mexico Air Quality Control Act, and to require local air pollution sources to comply with air quality standards.

EPA approved the AQCB's Rule 8, Airborne Particulate Matter, on February 23, 1993 (58 FR 10970). The AQCB revised this regulation with NMAC 20.11.20, Airborne Particulate Matter, in 1996. The AQCB later substantially revised NMAC 20.11.20 on January 14, 2004, and renamed it “Fugitive Dust Control.” On September 7, 2004, the Governor of New Mexico submitted a SIP revision requesting that EPA revise the New Mexico Albuquerque/Bernalillo County SIP by replacing Regulation 8 with NMAC 20.11.20, Fugitive Dust Control. The AQCB later requested that this SIP submission be placed on hold, anticipating that NMAC 20.11.20 would again be revised. Subsequently, on April 3, 2008, the Governor of New Mexico submitted a SIP revision with the newly revised NMAC 20.11.20.

II. What did the state submit and how did we evaluate it?

The AQCB's SIP revision package included (1) Regulation 8, Airborne Particulate Matter; (2) NMAC 20.11.20, Fugitive Dust Control; (3) documents associated with a public hearing and a public meeting conducted on February 13, 2008; (4) evidence that legal notices were published in the local newspaper and the New Mexico Register, and (5) evidence NMAC 20.11.20, Fugitive Dust Control was filed with the New Mexico State Records Center on February 15, 2008.

NMAC 20.11.20, Fugitive Dust Control has a number of changes over Regulation 8, Airborne Particulate Matter, that will enable the City of Albuquerque Air Quality Division to improve its ability to address particulate matter emissions. In general, NMAC 20.11.20, Fugitive Dust Control is designed to capture all sources of fugitive dust, in contrast to Regulation 8, which targeted industrial and commercial activities. Examples of the improvements incorporated into NMAC 20.11.20, Fugitive Dust Control include the following:

- The use of reasonably available control measures identified in the regulation, or other effective control measures to prevent or abate fugitive dust leaving a property where human actions may or will generate fugitive dust.
- The stabilization of new and existing unpaved roadways and unpaved lots in Bernalillo County to abate fugitive dust.
- A requirement that permits be obtained for surface disturbing activities involving $\frac{3}{4}$ acre or more.
- Control of greenwaste (e.g., grass clippings or leaves) from being deposited on publicly owned properties, where it can become airborne.
- Provisions for programmatic permits for routine maintenance, routine surface disturbance activities, or routine ongoing active operations.
- Provisions for construction permits.
- Re-seeding specifications for native plants.
- Provisions for public outreach and training on fugitive dust for those involved in earthwork activities.
- Guidelines for responding to complaints, especially where damage to private property by fugitive dust is alleged.
- Appeal procedures for permits and enforcement actions.

See the Technical Support Document for a more detailed comparison of NMAC 20.11.20, Fugitive Dust Control with the earlier Regulation 8.

Under section 110(l), EPA cannot approve a SIP revision if the revision would interfere with any applicable requirement concerning attainment and reasonable further progress (RFP), or any other applicable requirement of the CAA. As shown above, this revision makes the SIP more stringent and includes coverage of more sources. It will not result in increased emissions. Therefore, EPA's approval of this SIP revision will not interfere with any applicable requirement concerning attainment and RFP or any other CAA requirement in compliance with the requirements of section 110(l) of the Act.

III. What is our final action?

The EPA is approving the April 3, 2008 revision to the New Mexico Albuquerque/Bernalillo County SIP regarding Fugitive Dust Control. This revision replaces Regulation 8, Airborne Particulate Matter, with NMAC 20.11.20, Fugitive Dust Control because it is a substantial improvement over the approved SIP. Furthermore, as the April 3, 2008 SIP submission is a replacement of the September 7, 2004 SIP submission, we are taking no action on the September 7, 2004 submission. This rulemaking action is being taken under section 110 of the CAA.

IV. Why is this a “final action?”

EPA is publishing this rule without prior proposal because we view this as a noncontroversial amendment and anticipate no adverse comments. However, in the proposed rules section of this Federal Register publication, we are publishing a separate document that will serve as the proposal to approve the SIP revision if adverse comments are received. This rule will be effective on June 1, 2009 without further notice unless we receive adverse comment by May 1, 2009. If we receive adverse comments, we will publish a timely withdrawal in the Federal Register informing the public that the rule will not take effect. We will address all public comments in a subsequent final rule based on the proposed rule. We will not institute a second comment period on this action. Any parties interested in commenting must do so at this time. Please note that if we receive adverse comment on an amendment, paragraph, or section of this rule and if that provision may be severed from the remainder of the rule, we may adopt as final those provisions of the rule that are not the subject of an adverse comment.

V. Statutory and Executive Order Reviews

Under the Clean Air Act, the Administrator is required to approve a SIP submission that complies with the provisions of the Act and applicable Federal regulations. 42 U.S.C. 7410(k); 40 CFR 52.02(a). Thus, in reviewing SIP submissions, EPA's role is to approve state choices, provided that they meet the criteria of the Clean Air Act. Accordingly, this action merely approves state law as meeting Federal requirements and does not impose additional requirements beyond those imposed by state law. For that reason, this action:

- Is not a “significant regulatory action” subject to review by the Office of Management and Budget under Executive Order 12866 (58 FR 51735, October 4, 1993);
- Does not impose an information collection burden under the provisions of the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.);
- Is certified as not having a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities under the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.);
- Does not contain any unfunded mandate or significantly or uniquely affect small governments, as described in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (Pub. L. 104–4);
- Does not have Federalism implications as specified in Executive Order 13132 (64 FR 43255, August 10, 1999);
- Is not an economically significant regulatory action based on health or safety risks subject to Executive Order 13045 (62 FR 19885, April 23, 1997);
- Is not a significant regulatory action subject to Executive Order 13211 (66 FR 28355, May 22, 2001);
- Is not subject to requirements of Section 12(d) of the National Technology Transfer and Advancement Act of 1995 (15 U.S.C. 272 note) because application of those requirements would be inconsistent with the Clean Air Act; and
- Does not provide EPA with the discretionary authority to address, as appropriate, disproportionate human health or environmental effects, using practicable and legally permissible methods, under Executive Order 12898 (59 FR 7629, February 16, 1994).

In addition, this rule does not have tribal implications as specified by Executive Order 13175 (65 FR 67249, November 9, 2000), because the SIP is not approved to apply in Indian country located in the state, and EPA notes that it will not impose substantial direct costs on tribal governments or preempt tribal law.

The Congressional Review Act, 5 U.S.C. 801 et seq., as added by the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996, generally provides that before a rule may take effect, the agency promulgating the rule must submit a rule report, which includes a copy of the rule, to each House of the Congress and to the Comptroller General of the United States. EPA will submit a report containing this action and other required information to the U.S. Senate, the U.S. House of Representatives, and the Comptroller General of the United States prior to publication of the rule in the Federal Register. A major rule cannot take effect until 60 days after it is published in the Federal Register. This action is not a “major rule” as defined by 5 U.S.C. 804(2).

Under section 307(b)(1) of the Clean Air Act, petitions for judicial review of this action must be filed in the United States Court of Appeals for the appropriate circuit by June 1, 2009. Filing a petition for reconsideration by the Administrator of this final rule does not affect the finality of this action for the purposes of judicial review nor does it extend the time within which a petition for judicial review may be filed, and shall not postpone the effectiveness of such rule or action. This action may not be challenged later in proceedings to enforce its requirements. (See section 307(b)(2).)

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:I. What Action Is EPA Taking Today?

EPA is approving New Jersey's revision to the particulate matter (PM) State Implementation Plan (SIP) submitted on November 2, 2007. This SIP revision relates to New Jersey's PM variance determination for the cooling tower at the PSEG Nuclear LLC Hope Creek and Salem Generating Stations located in Lower Alloways Creek Township, Salem County. As part of this variance evaluation, alternate emission limitations are specified for total suspended particulates (TSP) and PM-10 (particles with an aerodynamic diameter of 10 micrometers or less). No variance was requested, or is being granted for PM2.5. This evaluation and variance only involves the operation of the cooling tower. The reader is referred to the proposed rulemaking on this action (May 29, 2008, 73 FR 30873) for additional details.

II. What Comments Were Received and What Is EPA's Response?

EPA received one anonymous comment which did not support the variance request. The commenter indicated concern with the health effects of particulate matter and the need to clean up our air. The commenter also stated that the plant should be forced to upgrade and that the proposed SIP revision should have included a discussion of particulates smaller than 2.5 parts per million (ppm).

EPA is also concerned with the health effects of particulates and revised the national ambient air quality standard (NAAQS) for PM2.5 in September 2006, lowering the 24-hour PM2.5 NAAQS from 65 µg/m³ to 35 µg/m³ and readopted the annual PM2.5 NAAQS at 15 µg/m³. States were required to make recommendations for designating their counties as either attainment or nonattainment by December 2007. On December 18, 2008, EPA's Administrator signed a final rulemaking containing the new PM2.5 air quality designations.

Based on current air quality monitoring data, Salem County is in attainment of the new 24-hour PM2.5 standard. Salem County is currently designated as attaining the previous 24-hour PM2.5 standard, and annual PM2.5 standard, and this is confirmed with air quality monitoring data. Therefore, the County where the cooling tower is located is currently attaining the 65 µg/m³ NAAQS and is also attaining the new lower 35 µg/m³ NAAQS.

As part of the requirements for obtaining a variance, an air quality modeling analysis may be required. Such an analysis was performed for the potential increase in emissions from the PSEG cooling tower which looked at annual and 24-hour TSP, PM10 and PM2.5 standards. The PM2.5 standard regulates fine particulates with an aerodynamic diameter of 2.5 micrometers or less (that is, all particulates 2.5 micrometers and smaller). The proposed approval (73 FR 30874, May 29, 2008) and the air quality modeling analysis included in the Docket for this action addressed the PM2.5 emissions from the cooling tower. Maximum modeled concentrations were compared to the respective significant impact levels. In general, concentrations of pollutants (in micrograms per cubic meter) above the significant impact levels may contribute to a violation of a NAAQS. However, in this case, the modeled impact of all three pollutants was less than their respective significance levels. In addition, the modeled impacts were added to the area-wide background concentrations, and all the results were less than the NAAQS. Therefore, the proposed SIP revision has demonstrated no interference with any NAAQS and satisfied section 110(l) of the Act, and EPA concludes the proposed SIP revision will not interfere with attainment or any other requirements of the Act. Further, as discussed in the proposal (73 FR 30873), the cooling tower will have its annual allowable particulate matter emissions limited to 65.9 tons per year (tpy) instead of the current allowable of 129 tpy. Under worst case assumptions, hourly emissions are allowed to increase to 42.0 pounds per hour (lbs/hr) from 29.4 lbs/hr. The worst-case particulate matter emissions were modeled and are not predicted to cause an exceedance of the NAAQS.

The variance request also included a review of the existing controls at PSEG's cooling tower, an evaluation of other methods of reducing emissions at this facility, including the cost of these controls, and a comparison of controls that could be required on newly constructed cooling towers. The control efficiency currently measured for this cooling tower is comparable to or better than similar cooling towers documented in EPA's RACT/BACT/LAER Clearinghouse. Therefore, no additional controls are feasible.

In determining whether to approve the variance request submitted by New Jersey, EPA was guided by the applicable rules contained in the State Implementation Plan (SIP), the results of air quality monitoring for the area, the results of air quality modeling of the proposed impact of the variance request, and the results of the technological and economic evaluations which were used to justify the variance. The New Jersey Administrative Code, Title 7, Chapter 27, Subchapter 6, Control and Prohibition of Particulates from Manufacturing Processes, Section 6.5 specifically permits variances to be issued and provides procedures and requirements which must be met in order for the variance to be granted. New Jersey has demonstrated to EPA's satisfaction that these requirements have been met and that the variance will not cause or contribute to an exceedance of the applicable NAAQS.

III. Conclusion

EPA is approving New Jersey's SIP revision request for a variance and an alternative emission limit determination for the PSEG Nuclear LLC Hope Creek and Salem Generating Stations cooling tower. This SIP revision contains source-specific particulate emission limitations contained in New Jersey's Air Pollution Control Operating Permit for this source of: TSP less than or equal to 65.9 tpy, PM-10 less than or equal to 65.9 tpy, TSP less than or equal to 42 lbs/hr, and PM-10 less than or equal to 42 lbs/hr.

IV. Statutory and Executive Order Reviews

Under the Clean Air Act, the Administrator is required to approve a SIP submission that complies with the provisions of the Act and applicable Federal regulations. 42 U.S.C. 7410(k); 40 CFR 52.02(a). Thus, in reviewing SIP submissions, EPA's role is to approve state choices, provided that they meet the criteria of the Clean Air Act. Accordingly, this action merely approves state law as meeting Federal requirements and does not impose additional requirements beyond those imposed by state law. For that reason, this action:

- Is not a "significant regulatory action" subject to review by the Office of Management and Budget under Executive Order 12866 (58 FR 51735, October 4, 1993);
- Does not impose an information collection burden under the provisions of the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.);
- Is certified as not having a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities under the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.);
- Does not contain any unfunded mandate or significantly or uniquely affect small governments, as described in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (Pub. L. 104-4);

- Does not have Federalism implications as specified in Executive Order 13132 (64 FR 43255, August 10, 1999);
- Is not an economically significant regulatory action based on health or safety risks subject to Executive Order 13045 (62 FR 19885, April 23, 1997);
- Is not a significant regulatory action subject to Executive Order 13211 (66 FR 28355, May 22, 2001);
- Is not subject to requirements of Section 12(d) of the National Technology Transfer and Advancement Act of 1995 (15 U.S.C. 272 note) because application of those requirements would be inconsistent with the Clean Air Act; and

- Does not provide EPA with the discretionary authority to address, as appropriate, disproportionate human health or environmental effects, using practicable and legally permissible methods, under Executive Order 12898 (59 FR 7629, February 16, 1994).

In addition, this rule does not have tribal implications as specified by Executive Order 13175 (65 FR 67249, November 9, 2000), because the SIP is not approved to apply in Indian country located in the state, and EPA notes that it will not impose substantial direct costs on tribal governments or preempt tribal law.

The Congressional Review Act, 5 U.S.C. 801 et seq., as added by the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996, generally provides that before a rule may take effect, the agency promulgating the rule must submit a rule report, which includes a copy of the rule, to each House of the Congress and to the Comptroller General of the United States. EPA will submit a report containing this action and other required information to the U.S. Senate, the U.S. House of Representatives, and the Comptroller General of the United States prior to publication of the rule in the Federal Register. A major rule cannot take effect until 60 days after it is published in the Federal Register. This action is not a "major rule" as defined by 5 U.S.C. 804(2).

Under section 307(b)(1) of the Clean Air Act, petitions for judicial review of this action must be filed in the United States Court of Appeals for the appropriate circuit by June 1, 2009. Filing a petition for reconsideration of this rule with the Administrator does not affect the finality of this action for the purposes of judicial review nor does it extend the time within which a petition for judicial review may be filed, and shall not postpone the effectiveness of such rule or action. This action may not be challenged later in proceedings to enforce its requirements. (See section 307(b)(2).)

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On February 3, 2009 (74 FR 5900), EPA delayed, by sixty days, the effective date of the final rule that amends the Spill Prevention, Control, and Countermeasure (SPCC) regulations that was promulgated in the Federal Register on December 5, 2008 (73 FR 74236) under section 311 of the Clean Water Act. This was done in accordance with the January 20, 2009, White House memorandum entitled “Regulatory Review” (74 FR 4435, January 26, 2009) and the memorandum from the Office of Management and Budget entitled “Implementation of Memorandum Concerning Regulatory Review” (M–09–08, January 21, 2009) (OMB memorandum). The Agency took that action to ensure that the rule reflects proper consideration of all relevant facts. In the February 3, 2009 notice (74 FR 5900), EPA requested public comment on the extension of the effective date and its duration, and on the regulatory amendments contained in the final rule. The SPCC rule amendments clarify, tailor, and streamline certain existing requirements for those facility owners or operators who are required to prepare and implement an SPCC Plan (or “Plan”) to prevent the discharge of oil into or upon navigable waters of the United States or adjoining shorelines.

EPA received 57 comments in response to the February 3, 2009 notice. Several comments addressed the effective date for the December 2008 rule amendments. Specifically, three commenters suggested the rule become effective on April 4, 2009, particularly for provisions related to onshore, non-oil production facilities, while one commenter requested that EPA finalize the rule expeditiously to ensure time to conduct outreach efforts. On the other hand, one commenter suggested the rule not become effective on April 4, 2009 and requested that the rule be withdrawn permanently, or the effective date extended indefinitely until the 2008 proposed amendments can be carefully reconsidered. Other commenters provided recommendations related to specific amendments, such as the optional approaches for produced water containers, the criteria for qualified oil production facilities, and other amendments. Consistent with the January 21, 2009 OMB memorandum “Implementation of Memorandum Concerning Regulatory Review,” the EPA Administrator has chosen this rule for additional assessment of policy and legal issues; therefore, EPA must carefully consider the issues raised in these comments. Because EPA cannot adequately address the comments before an April 4, 2009 effective date, the Agency agrees with the comment in support of delaying the effective date. With this action, the Agency is extending the effective date of the December 5, 2008 SPCC amendments and is requesting public comment on whether a further extension of the effective date may be warranted. The Agency will provide a complete discussion of the comments received specific to the amendments, and its response to those comments, in a Federal Register notice describing any changes to the 2008 amendments.

The effective date of the final rule would have been April 4, 2009. With this extension, the amendments will become effective on January 14, 2010.

This rule is effective immediately. Section 553(d) of the Administrative Procedures Act requires 30 days notice before the effective date of a final rule. However, section 553(d)(1) allows an exception to the 30-day notice where a rule relieves a restriction. Because this final rule relieves a restriction, the Agency invokes section 553(d)(1) to allow an immediate effective date.

Finally, the Agency is also reviewing the dates by which owners or operators of facilities must prepare or amend their SPCC Plans, and implement those Plans. EPA intends to address these dates in a separate notice.

Statutory and Executive Order Reviews

A. Executive Order 12866—Regulatory Planning and Review

This action is not a “significant regulatory action” under the terms of Executive Order 12866 (58 FR 51735, October 4, 1993) and is therefore not subject to review under the Executive Order.

B. Paperwork Reduction Act

This action does not impose any new information collection burden. This action results in no changes to the information collection requirements of the SPCC rule and will have no impact on the information collection estimate of project cost and hour burden previously submitted to OMB.

C. Regulatory Flexibility Act

The Regulatory Flexibility Act (RFA) generally requires an agency to prepare a regulatory flexibility analysis of any rule subject to notice and comment rulemaking requirements under the Administrative Procedure Act or any other statute unless the agency certifies that the rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. Small entities include small businesses, small organizations, and small governmental jurisdictions.

For purposes of assessing the impacts of today’s rule on small entities, small entity is defined as: (1) A small business as defined by the Small Business Administration’s (SBA) regulations at 13 CFR 121.201; (2) a small governmental jurisdiction that is a government of a city, county, town, school district or special district with a population of less than 50,000; and (3) a small organization that is any not-for-profit enterprise which is independently owned and operated and is not dominant in its field. After considering the economic impacts of today’s final rule on small entities, I certify that this action will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. In determining whether a rule has a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities, the impact of concern is any significant adverse economic impact on small entities, since the primary purpose of the regulatory flexibility analyses is to identify and address regulatory alternatives “which minimize any significant economic impact of the rule on small entities.” 5 U.S.C. 603 and 604. Thus, an agency may certify that a rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities if the rule relieves regulatory burden, or otherwise has a positive economic effect on all of the small entities subject to the rule.

This action is delaying the effective date of the final rule that amends the SPCC regulations promulgated in the Federal Register on December 5, 2008. We have therefore concluded that today’s final rule will relieve regulatory burden for all affected small entities.

D. Unfunded Mandates Reform Act

This action contains no Federal mandates under the provisions of Title II of the Unfunded Mandates Reform

Act of 1995 (UMRA), 2 U.S.C. 1531–1538 for state, local, or tribal governments or the private sector. This action imposes no enforceable duty on any state, local, or tribal governments or the private sector. Therefore, this action is not subject to the requirements of sections 202 and 205 of the UMRA. This action is also not subject to the requirements of section 203 of UMRA because it contains no regulatory requirements that might significantly or uniquely affect small governments. This action only delays the effective date of the December 5, 2008 rule and does not impose any additional enforceable duty.

E. Executive Order 13132: Federalism

Executive Order 13132, entitled “Federalism” (64 FR 43255, August 10, 1999), requires EPA to develop an accountable process to ensure “meaningful and timely input by state and local officials in the development of regulatory policies that have federalism implications.” “Policies that have federalism implications” is defined in the Executive Order to include regulations that have “substantial direct effects on the states, on the relationship between the national government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government.”

This action does not have federalism implications. It will not have substantial direct effects on the states, on the relationship between the national government and the states, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government, as specified in Executive Order 13132. This action will not impose direct compliance costs on state or local governments, and will not preempt state law. Thus, Executive Order 13132 does not apply to this action.

F. Executive Order 13175: Consultation and Coordination With Indian Tribal Governments

This action does not have tribal implications, as specified in Executive Order 13175 (59 FR 22951, November 9, 2000). It will not have substantial direct effects on tribal governments, on the relationship between the Federal government and Indian tribes, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities between the Federal government and Indian tribes, as specified in Executive Order 13175. Thus, Executive Order 13175 does not apply to this action.

G. Executive Order 13045: Protection of Children From Environmental Health Risks and Safety Risks

EPA interprets Executive Order 13045 (62 FR 19885, April 23, 1997) as applying to those regulatory actions that concern health or safety risks, such that the analysis required under section 5–501 of the Executive Order has the potential to influence the regulation. This action is not subject to Executive Order 13045 (62 FR 19885, April 23, 1997) because it is not economically significant as defined in Executive Order 12866, and because the Agency does not believe the environmental health or safety risks addressed by this action presents a disproportionate risk to children.

H. Executive Order 13211: Actions Concerning Regulations That Significantly Affect Energy Supply, Distribution, or Use

This action is not subject to Executive Order 13211, “Actions Concerning Regulations That Significantly Affect Energy Supply, Distribution, or Use” (66 FR 28355, May 22, 2001) because it is not a significant regulatory action under Executive Order 12866.

I. National Technology Transfer and Advancement Act

Section 12(d) of the National Technology Transfer and Advancement Act of 1995 (NTTAA) (Pub. L. 104–113; section 12(d) (15 U.S.C. 272 note) directs EPA to use voluntary consensus standards (VCS) in its regulatory activities unless to do so would be inconsistent with applicable law or otherwise impractical. VCS are technical standards (e.g., materials specifications, test methods, sampling procedures, and business practices) that are developed or adopted by VCS bodies. NTTAA directs EPA to provide Congress, through OMB, explanations when EPA decides not to use available and applicable VCS. This action does not involve technical standards. Therefore, EPA did not consider the use of any VCS.

J. Executive Order 12898: Federal Actions To Address Environmental Justice in Minority Populations and Low-Income Populations

Executive Order 12898 (59 FR 7629, February 16, 1994) establishes Federal executive policy on environmental justice. Its main provision directs Federal agencies, to the greatest extent practicable and permitted by law, to make environmental justice part of their mission by identifying and addressing, as appropriate, disproportionately high and adverse human health or environmental effects of their programs, policies, and activities on minority populations and low-income populations in the United States.

EPA has determined that this action will not have disproportionately high and adverse human health or environmental effects on minority or low-income populations because it does not affect the level of protection provided to human health or the environment.

K. Congressional Review Act

The Congressional Review Act, 5 U.S.C. 801, et seq., as added by the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996, generally provides that before a rule may take effect, the agency promulgating the rule must submit a rule report, which includes a copy of the rule, to each House of the Congress and to the Comptroller General of the United States. Section 808 allows the issuing agency to make a rule effective sooner than otherwise provided by the CRA if the agency makes a good cause finding that notice and public procedure is impracticable, unnecessary, or contrary to the public interest. This determination must be supported by a brief statement. 5 U.S.C. 808(2). As stated previously, EPA has made such a good cause finding, including the reasons therefore. EPA will submit a report containing this rule and other required information to the United States Senate, the United States House of Representatives, and the Comptroller General of the United States prior to publication of the rule in the Federal Register. This action is not a “major rule” as defined by 5 U.S.C. 804(2).

Dated: March 26, 2009.

II. Petition for Tolerance

In the Federal Register of June 4, 2008 (73 FR 31862) (FRL-8365-3), EPA issued a notice pursuant to section 408(d)(3) of FFDCA, 21 U.S.C. 346a(d)(3), announcing the filing of a pesticide petition (PP 8E7325) by Interregional Research Project Number 4 (IR-4), 500 College Rd. East, Suite 201 W, Princeton, NJ 08540. The petition requested that 40 CFR 180.588 be amended by establishing tolerances for residues of the fungicide quinoxyfen, 5,7-dichloro-4-(4-fluorophenoxy)quinoline, in or on artichoke, globe at 1.4 parts per million (ppm); fruit, stone, group 12 at 0.70 ppm; squash, winter at 0.20 ppm; pumpkin at 0.20 ppm; and gourd, edible at 0.20 ppm. IR-4 additionally proposed to remove the established tolerances for the residues of quinoxyfen in or on the food commodities cherry, sweet; and cherry, tart at 0.30 ppm. That notice referenced a summary of the petition prepared on behalf of IR-4 by Dow AgroSciences LLC, the registrant, which is available to the public in the docket, <http://www.regulations.gov>. There were no comments received in response to the notice of filing.

III. Aggregate Risk Assessment and Determination of Safety

Section 408(b)(2)(A)(i) of FFDCA allows EPA to establish a tolerance (the legal limit for a pesticide chemical residue in or on a food) only if EPA determines that the tolerance is “safe.” Section 408(b)(2)(A)(ii) of FFDCA defines “safe” to mean that “there is a reasonable certainty that no harm will result from aggregate exposure to the pesticide chemical residue, including all anticipated dietary exposures and all other exposures for which there is reliable information.” This includes exposure through drinking water and in residential settings, but does not include occupational exposure. Section 408(b)(2)(C) of FFDCA requires EPA to give special consideration to exposure of infants and children to the pesticide chemical residue in establishing a tolerance and to "ensure that there is a reasonable certainty that no harm will result to infants and children from aggregate exposure to the pesticide chemical residue...."

Consistent with section 408(b)(2)(D) of FFDCA, and the factors specified in section 408(b)(2)(D) of FFDCA, EPA has reviewed the available scientific data and other relevant information in support of this action. EPA has sufficient data to assess the hazards of and to make a determination on aggregate exposure for the petitioned-for tolerances for residues of quinoxyfen on artichoke, globe at 1.4 ppm; fruit, stone, group 12 at 0.70 ppm; squash, winter at 0.20 ppm; pumpkin at 0.20 ppm; and gourd, edible at 0.20 ppm. EPA's assessment of exposures and risks associated with establishing tolerances follows.

A. Toxicological Profile

EPA has evaluated the available toxicity data and considered its validity, completeness, and reliability as well as the relationship of the results of the studies to human risk. EPA has also considered available information concerning the variability of the sensitivities of major identifiable subgroups of consumers, including infants and children.

The existing quinoxyfen data indicate that it possesses low acute toxicity via the oral, dermal and inhalation routes. It is a mild eye irritant and dermal sensitizer, but it is not a dermal irritant.

The primary target organs affected by quinoxyfen are the liver and kidney. Subchronic effects in rats and mice included increased liver weights, hepatocellular hypertrophy and individual cell hepatocellular necrosis, and chronic effects in the dog included increased liver weights, increased alkaline phosphatase levels and increased incidences of slight microscopic hepatic lesions. Kidney effects were noted only in the rat combined chronic/carcinogenicity study, resulting in an increased severity of chronic progressive glomerulonephropathy in males. Rabbits were much more susceptible to the effects of quinoxyfen than any other species. Systemic effects observed in the rabbit developmental study included inanition, loss of body weight, perineal soiling, blood in the cage pan associated with urine, and abortions.

Long-term dietary administration of quinoxyfen did not result in an overall treatment-related increase in incidence of tumor formation in rats or mice. As a result, EPA classified quinoxyfen as "not likely to be carcinogenic to humans." Quinoxyfen did not show evidence of mutagenicity in in vitro or in vivo studies. No evidence of neurotoxicity or neuropathology was seen in any of the submitted studies, including the acute and subchronic neurotoxicity studies.

The toxicology data for quinoxyfen provides no indication of increased susceptibility, as compared to adults, of rat and rabbit fetuses to in utero exposure in developmental studies. No maternal or developmental toxicity was observed in the rat developmental toxicity study. The rabbit developmental toxicity study included maternal toxic effects (inanition, decreased body weight and weight gain, decreased fecal output, perineal soiling, blood in the cage pan associated with urine, and abortions) at the same dose as developmental effects (increased abortions). In the 2-generation reproduction study conducted with rats, increased quantitative susceptibility of offspring (minimally reduced pup weights) was noted in the absence of maternal toxicity at the high dose. There was no evidence of immunotoxicity in the database.

Specific information on the studies received and the nature of the adverse effects caused by quinoxyfen as well as the no-observed-adverse-effect-level (NOAEL) and the lowest-observed-adverse-effect-level (LOAEL) from the toxicity studies can be found at <http://www.regulations.gov> in document "Quinoxyfen. Human Health Risk Assessment for the Proposed Food Use of Quinoxyfen on Stone Fruits Crop Group 12 (excluding Cherry), Artichoke, Winter Squash, (Pumpkin and Edible Gourds)," at pages 25–26 in docket ID number EPA-HQ-OPP-2008-0362.

B. Toxicological Endpoints

For hazards that have a threshold below which there is no appreciable risk, a toxicological point of departure (POD) is identified as the basis for derivation of reference values for risk assessment. The POD may be defined as the NOAEL in the toxicology study identified as appropriate for use in risk assessment. However, if a NOAEL cannot be determined, the LOAEL or a Benchmark Dose (BMD) approach is sometimes used for risk assessment. Uncertainty/safety factors (UFs) are used in conjunction with the POD to take into account uncertainties inherent in the extrapolation from laboratory animal data to humans and in the variations in sensitivity among members of the human population as well as other unknowns. Safety is assessed for acute and chronic dietary risks by comparing aggregate food and water exposure to the pesticide to the acute population adjusted dose (aPAD) and chronic population adjusted dose (cPAD). The aPAD and cPAD are calculated by dividing the POD by all applicable UFs. Aggregate short-term, intermediate-term, and chronic-term risks are evaluated by comparing food, water, and residential exposure to the POD to ensure that the margin of exposure (MOE) called for by the product of all applicable UFs is not exceeded. This latter value is referred to as the Level of Concern (LOC).

For non-threshold risks, the Agency assumes that any amount of exposure will lead to some degree of risk. Thus, the Agency estimates risk in terms of the probability of an occurrence of the adverse effect greater than that expected in a lifetime. For more information on the general principles EPA uses in risk characterization and a complete description of the risk assessment process, see <http://www.epa.gov/pesticides/factsheets/riskassess.htm>.

A summary of the toxicological endpoints for quinoxyfen used for human risk assessment can be found at <http://www.regulations.gov> in document "Quinoxyfen. Human Health Risk Assessment for the Proposed Food Use of Quinoxyfen on Stone Fruits Crop Group 12 (excluding Cherry), Artichoke, Winter Squash, (Pumpkin and Edible Gourds)," at pages 25–26 in docket ID number EPA-HQ-OPP-2008-0362.

C. Exposure Assessment

i. Acute exposure. Quantitative acute dietary exposure and risk assessments are performed for a food-use pesticide, if a toxicological study has indicated the possibility of an effect of concern occurring as a result of a 1-day or single exposure:

No such effects were identified in the toxicological studies for quinoxyfen; therefore, a quantitative acute dietary exposure assessment is unnecessary.

ii. Chronic exposure. In conducting the chronic dietary exposure assessment EPA used the food consumption data from the USDA 1994–1996 and 1998

Continuing Survey of Food Intake by Individuals (CSFII). As to residue levels in food, EPA used tolerance-level residues, Dietary Exposure Evaluation Model (DEEM) default processing factors, and assumed 100 percent crop treated (PCT) for all proposed commodities.

iii. Cancer. Based upon lack of evidence of carcinogenicity in rats and mice by all routes of exposure, EPA has classified quinoxyfen as "not likely to be carcinogenic to humans;" therefore, a quantitative exposure assessment to evaluate cancer risk is unnecessary.

iv. Anticipated residue and PCT information. EPA did not use anticipated residue and/or PCT information in the dietary assessment for quinoxyfen. Tolerance level residues and/or 100 PCT were assumed for all food commodities.

2. Dietary exposure from drinking water. The Agency used screening level water exposure models in the dietary exposure analysis and risk assessment for quinoxyfen in drinking water. These simulation models take into account data on the physical, chemical, and fate/transport characteristics of quinoxyfen. Further information regarding EPA drinking water models used in pesticide exposure assessment can be found at <http://www.epa.gov/oppefed1/models/water/index.htm>.

Based on the First Index Reservoir Screening Tool (FIRST) model for surface water, and the Screening Concentration in Ground Water (SCI-GROW) model for ground water, the estimated drinking water concentrations (EDWCs) of quinoxyfen for surface water are estimated to be 9.9 parts per billion (ppb) for acute exposures, and 0.66 ppb for chronic exposures. For ground water, the estimated drinking water concentration is 0.0034 ppb.

Modeled estimates of drinking water concentrations were directly entered into the dietary exposure model. For chronic dietary risk assessment, the water concentration of value 0.66 ppb was used to assess the contribution to drinking water.

3. From non-dietary exposure. The term "residential exposure" is used in this document to refer to non-occupational, non-dietary exposure (e.g., for lawn and garden pest control, indoor pest control, termiticides, and flea and tick control on pets).

Quinoxyfen is not registered for any specific use patterns that would result in residential exposure.

4. Cumulative effects from substances with a common mechanism of toxicity. Section 408(b)(2)(D)(v) of FFDCA requires that, when considering whether to establish, modify, or revoke a tolerance, the Agency consider "available information" concerning the cumulative effects of a particular pesticide's residues and "other substances that have a common mechanism of toxicity."

EPA has not found quinoxyfen to share a common mechanism of toxicity with any other substances, and quinoxyfen does not appear to produce a toxic metabolite produced by other substances. For the purposes of this tolerance action, therefore, EPA has assumed that quinoxyfen does not have a common mechanism of toxicity with other substances. For information regarding EPA's efforts to determine which chemicals have a common mechanism of toxicity and to evaluate the cumulative effects of such chemicals, see EPA's website at <http://www.epa.gov/pesticides/cumulative>.

D. Safety Factor for Infants and Children

1. In general. Section 408(b)(2)(C) of FFDCA provides that EPA shall apply an additional tenfold (10X) margin of safety for infants and children in the case of threshold effects to account for prenatal and postnatal toxicity and the completeness of the database on toxicity and exposure unless EPA determines based on reliable data that a different margin of safety will be safe for infants and children. This additional margin of safety is commonly referred to as the FQPA safety factor (SF). In applying this provision, EPA either retains the default value of 10X, or uses a different additional safety factor when reliable data available to EPA support the choice of a different factor.

2. Prenatal and postnatal sensitivity. The toxicology data for quinoxyfen provides no indication of increased susceptibility, as compared to adults, of rat and rabbit fetuses to in utero exposure in developmental studies up to the limit dose of 1,000 milligrams/kilogram/day (mg/kg/day). In the multi-generation rat reproduction study, offspring effects were noted at the high dose of 100 mg/kg/day tested (minimally reduced F_{1a} pup weights) in the absence of maternal toxicity at the same level; thereby showing quantitative evidence of increased susceptibility in rat offspring. However, concern is low since:

i. The effects in pups are well-characterized with a clear NOAEL of 20 mg/kg/day.

ii. The pup effects are minimal at the LOAEL and only noted in the first generation offspring.

iii. The doses and endpoints selected for regulatory purposes would address the concerns of the pup effects noted in the rat reproduction study.

3. Conclusion. EPA has determined that reliable data show the safety of infants and children would be adequately protected if the FQPA SF were reduced to 1X. That decision is based on the following findings:

i. The toxicity database for quinoxyfen is complete except for immunotoxicity testing. Recent changes to 40 CFR part 158 make immunotoxicity testing (OPPTS Guideline 870.7800) required for pesticide registration; however, the existing data are sufficient for endpoint selection for exposure/risk assessment scenarios, and for evaluation of the requirements under the FQPA. The available data for quinoxyfen do not show potential for immunotoxic effects. Therefore, EPA does not believe that conducting the immunotoxicity study will result in a NOAEL lower than the NOAEL of 20 mg/kg/day already set for quinoxyfen. Consequently, an additional database uncertainty factor does not need to be applied.

ii. There is no indication that quinoxyfen is a neurotoxic chemical and there is no need for a developmental neurotoxicity study or additional UFs to account for neurotoxicity.

iii. Although there is quantitative evidence of increased susceptibility of offspring (minimally reduced pup weights) in the absence of maternal effects in the rat multi-generation reproduction study, the Agency did not identify any residual uncertainties after establishing toxicity endpoints and traditional UFs to be used in the risk assessment. Therefore, there are no residual concerns regarding developmental effects in the young.

iv. There are no residual uncertainties identified in the exposure databases. Dietary food exposure assessments were performed based on 100% crop treated and tolerance-level residues. EPA made conservative (protective) assumptions in the ground water and surface water modeling used to assess exposure to quinoxyfen in drinking water. These assessments will not underestimate the exposure and risks posed by quinoxyfen.

E. Aggregate Risks and Determination of Safety

EPA determines whether acute and chronic pesticide exposures are safe by comparing aggregate exposure estimates to the aPAD and cPAD. The aPAD and cPAD represent the highest safe exposures, taking into account all appropriate SFs. EPA calculates the aPAD and cPAD by dividing the POD by all applicable UFs. For linear cancer risks, EPA calculates the probability of additional cancer cases given the estimated aggregate exposure. Short-term, intermediate-term, and chronic-term risks are evaluated by comparing the estimated aggregate food, water, and residential exposure to the POD to ensure that the MOE called for by the product of all applicable UFs is not exceeded.

1. Acute risk. An acute aggregate risk assessment takes into account exposure estimates from acute dietary consumption of food and drinking water. No acute dietary endpoint was identified for any segment of the United States (U.S.) population. Therefore, quinoxyfen is not expected to pose an acute risk.

2. Chronic risk. Using the exposure assumptions described in this unit for chronic exposure, EPA has concluded that chronic exposure to quinoxyfen from food and water will utilize 2% of the cPAD for children 1 to 2 years old, the population group receiving the greatest exposure. There are no residential uses for quinoxyfen to consider.

3. Short-term and intermediate-term risk. Short-term and intermediate-term aggregate exposure takes into account short-term and intermediate-term residential exposure plus chronic exposure to food and water (considered to be a background exposure level).

Quinoxyfen is not registered for any use patterns that would result in residential exposure. Therefore, the short-term and intermediate-term aggregate risk is the sum of the risk from exposure to quinoxyfen through food and water and will not be greater than the chronic aggregate risk.

4. Aggregate cancer risk for U.S. population. Based on the lack of evidence of carcinogenicity in mice and rats at doses that were judged to be adequate to assess the carcinogenic potential, quinoxyfen was classified as "not likely to be carcinogenic to humans." Therefore, quinoxyfen is not expected to pose a cancer risk to humans.

5. Determination of safety. Based on these risk assessments, EPA concludes that there is a reasonable certainty that no harm will result to the general population, or to infants and children from aggregate exposure to quinoxyfen residues.

IV. Other Considerations

A. Analytical Enforcement Methodology

Adequate enforcement methodology (gas chromatography with mass-selective detection (GC-MSD)) is available to enforce the tolerance expression. The method may be requested from: Chief, Analytical Chemistry Branch, Environmental Science Center, 701 Mapes Rd., Ft. Meade, MD 20755-5350; telephone number: (410) 305-2905; e-mail address: residuemethods@epa.gov.

B. International Residue Limits

There are no Mexican maximum residue limits (MRLs) established for residues of quinoxyfen in crops associated with this review. Codex MRLs exist for quinoxyfen on cherry, sweet and tart at 0.4 ppm; and Canadian MRLs exist for cherry, sweet and tart at 0.3 ppm. However, the proposed tolerance for fruit, stone, group 12 (0.70 ppm), of which cherry is a part, cannot be harmonized with the Codex or Canadian MRLs on these commodities because field trial data supporting the stone fruit group tolerance shows residue levels that are higher than 0.4 ppm.

V. Conclusion

Therefore, tolerances are established for residues of quinoxyfen, 5,7-dichloro-4-(4-fluorophenoxy)quinoline, in or on artichoke, globe at 1.4 ppm; fruit, stone, group 12 at 0.70 ppm; squash, winter at 0.20 ppm; pumpkin at 0.20 ppm; and gourd, edible at 0.20 ppm. This regulation also deletes the established tolerances in or on cherry, sweet; and cherry, tart, as they are superseded by inclusion in fruit, stone, group 12. This regulation additionally deletes the time-limited tolerances for pumpkin; winter squash; and melon subgroup 9A, as the tolerances expired on December 31, 2007.

VI. Statutory and Executive Order Reviews

This final rule establishes tolerances under section 408(d) of FFDCA in response to a petition submitted to the Agency. The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) has exempted these types of actions from review under Executive Order 12866, entitled Regulatory Planning and Review (58 FR 51735, October 4, 1993). Because this final rule has been exempted from review under Executive Order 12866, this final rule is not subject to Executive Order 13211, entitled Actions Concerning Regulations That Significantly Affect Energy Supply, Distribution, or Use (66 FR 28355, May 22, 2001) or Executive Order 13045, entitled Protection of Children from Environmental Health Risks and Safety Risks (62 FR 19885, April 23, 1997). This final rule does not contain any information collections subject to OMB approval under the Paperwork

Reduction Act (PRA), 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq., nor does it require any special considerations under Executive Order 12898, entitled Federal Actions to Address Environmental Justice in Minority Populations and Low-Income Populations (59 FR 7629, February 16, 1994).

Since tolerances and exemptions that are established on the basis of a petition under section 408(d) of FFDCA, such as the tolerance in this final rule, do not require the issuance of a proposed rule, the requirements of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (RFA) (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.) do not apply.

This final rule directly regulates growers, food processors, food handlers, and food retailers, not States or tribes, nor does this action alter the relationships or distribution of power and responsibilities established by Congress in the preemption provisions of section 408(n)(4) of FFDCA. As such, the Agency has determined that this action will not have a substantial direct effect on States or tribal governments, on the relationship between the national government and the States or tribal governments, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government or between the Federal Government and Indian tribes. Thus, the Agency has determined that Executive Order 13132, entitled Federalism (64 FR 43255, August 10, 1999) and Executive Order 13175, entitled Consultation and Coordination with Indian Tribal Governments (65 FR 67249, November 9, 2000) do not apply to this final rule. In addition, this final rule does not impose any enforceable duty or contain any unfunded mandate as described under Title II of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (UMRA) (Public Law 104-4).

This action does not involve any technical standards that would require Agency consideration of voluntary consensus standards pursuant to section 12(d) of the National Technology Transfer and Advancement Act of 1995 (NTTAA), Public Law 104-113, section 12(d) (15 U.S.C. 272 note).

VII. Congressional Review Act

The Congressional Review Act, 5 U.S.C. 801 et seq., generally provides that before a rule may take effect, the agency promulgating the rule must submit a rule report to each House of the Congress and to the Comptroller General of the United States. EPA will submit a report containing this rule and other required information to the U.S. Senate, the U.S. House of Representatives, and the Comptroller General of the United States prior to publication of this final rule in the Federal Register. This final rule is not a “major rule” as defined by 5 U.S.C. 804(2).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. General Information

A. Does this Action Apply to Me?

The Agency included in the final rule a list of those who may be potentially affected by this action. If you have questions regarding the applicability of this action to a particular entity, consult the person listed under FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT.

B. How Can I Access Electronic Copies of this Document and Other Related Information?

In addition to accessing electronically available documents at <http://www.regulations.gov>, you may access this Federal Register document electronically through the EPA Internet under the “Federal Register” listings at <http://www.epa.gov/fedrgstr>.

II. What Does this Technical Amendment Do?

EPA issued a notice of proposed rulemaking in the Federal Register of June 6, 2007 (72 FR 31221) (FRL-8122-7), that proposed to revoke, revise, and establish certain tolerances for captan, 2,4-D, dodine, DCPA, endothall, fomesafen, propyzamide, ethofumesate, permethrin, dimethipin, and fenarimol. On page 31228, third column, first full paragraph, the Agency stated the following:

... EPA is proposing to revise commodity terminology and tolerances to conform to current Agency practice in 40 CFR 180.185(a) for the combined residues of the herbicide DCPA and its metabolites MTP and TCP (calculated as DCPA) in or on melon, honey dew to muskmelon; and onion to onion, bulb ...

The June 6, 2007 Federal Register publication was intended only to update commodity terminology, and not to revoke or revise the scope of existing tolerances. The existing tolerance for “onion” covered both “onion, bulb” and “onion, green” as defined under current commodity terminology. The reference to “onion, green” was inadvertently omitted from both the June 6, 2007 proposed rule and the final rule published on September 12, 2007 (72 FR 52013) (FRL-8142-2). Use on both “onion, bulb” and “onion, green” continues to be permitted according to labels of currently registered DCPA products, and the required safety findings for the residues permitted under the tolerance were made taking into account both types of onions. Therefore, 40 CFR 180.185(a) is amended by establishing a tolerance for DCPA in/on onion, green at 1.0 ppm to effectuate EPA’s original intention in the proposed and final rules changing terminology only.

III. Why is this Technical Amendment Issued as a Final Rule?

Section 553 of the Administrative Procedure Act (APA), 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(B), provides that, when an Agency for good cause finds that notice and public procedure are impracticable, unnecessary or contrary to the public interest, the Agency may issue a final rule without providing notice and an opportunity for public comment. EPA has determined that there is good cause for making today’s technical amendment final without prior proposal and opportunity for comment, because this action merely corrects a drafting error in the rulemaking that was contrary to the intention of the changes as discussed in the proposed rule. Notice and comment are unnecessary to correct an erroneous deletion of a tolerance that was neither intended nor discussed in rulemaking. EPA finds that this constitutes good cause under 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(B).

IV. Do Any of the Statutory and Executive Order Reviews Apply to this Action?

The discussion in Unit IV. of the September 12, 2007 final rule also applies to this action.

V. Congressional Review Act

The Congressional Review Act, 5 U.S.C. 801 et seq., generally provides that before a rule may take effect, the Agency promulgating the rule must submit a rule report to each House of the Congress and to the Comptroller General of the United States. EPA will submit a report containing this rule and other required information to the U.S. Senate, the U.S. House of Representatives, and the Comptroller General of the United States prior to publication of this final rule in the Federal Register. This final rule is not a “major rule” as defined by 5 U.S.C. 804(2).

II. Petition for Tolerance

In the Federal Register of June 4, 2008 (73 FR 31863) (FRL-8365-3), EPA issued a notice pursuant to section 408(d)(3) of FFDCA, 21 U.S.C. 346a(d)(3), announcing the filing of a pesticide petition (PP 7F7279) by Bayer CropScience, P.O. Box 12014, 2 T.W. Alexander Dr., Research Triangle Park, NC 27709. The petition requested that 40 CFR 180.626 be amended by increasing a tolerance for combined residues of the fungicide prothioconazole, 2-[2-(1-chlorocyclopropyl)-3-(2-chlorophenyl)-2-hydroxypropyl]-1,2-dihydro-3H-1,2,4-triazole-3-thione, and prothioconazole-desthio, in or on, wheat, forage from 6.0 to 8.0 parts per million (ppm). That notice referenced a summary of the petition prepared by Bayer CropScience, the registrant, which is available to the public in the docket, <http://www.regulations.gov>. There were no comments received in response to the notice of filing.

III. Aggregate Risk Assessment and Determination of Safety

Section 408(b)(2)(A)(i) of FFDCA allows EPA to establish a tolerance (the legal limit for a pesticide chemical residue in or on a food) only if EPA determines that the tolerance is "safe." Section 408(b)(2)(A)(ii) of FFDCA defines "safe" to mean that "there is a reasonable certainty that no harm will result from aggregate exposure to the pesticide chemical residue, including all anticipated dietary exposures and all other exposures for which there is reliable information." This includes exposure through drinking water and in residential settings, but does not include occupational exposure. Section 408(b)(2)(C) of FFDCA requires EPA to give special consideration to exposure of infants and children to the pesticide chemical residue in establishing a tolerance and to "ensure that there is a reasonable certainty that no harm will result to infants and children from aggregate exposure to the pesticide chemical residue. . . ."

Consistent with section 408(b)(2)(D) of FFDCA, and the factors specified in section 408(b)(2)(D) of FFDCA, EPA has reviewed the available scientific data and other relevant information in support of this action. EPA has sufficient data to assess the hazards of and to make a determination on aggregate exposure for the petitioned-for tolerances for combined residues of prothioconazole, and prothioconazole-desthio, calculated as parent, in or on wheat, forage at 8.0 ppm. EPA's assessment of exposures and risks associated with establishing tolerances follows.

A. Toxicological Profile

EPA has evaluated the available toxicity data and considered its validity, completeness, and reliability as well as the relationship of the results of the studies to human risk. EPA has also considered available information concerning the variability of the sensitivities of major identifiable subgroups of consumers, including infants and children. Prothioconazole has low acute toxicity by oral, dermal, and inhalation routes. It is not a dermal sensitizer, or a skin or eye irritant. Prothioconazole's metabolite, prothioconazole-desthio, also has low acute toxicity by oral, dermal, and inhalation routes. It is not a dermal sensitizer, or a skin irritant, but it is a slight eye irritant. The subchronic and chronic studies show that the target organs at the lowest-observed-adverse effect level (the LOAEL) include the liver, kidney, urinary bladder, thyroid and blood. In addition, the chronic studies showed body weight and food consumption changes, and toxicity to the lymphatic and GI systems. Prothioconazole and its metabolites may be primary developmental toxicants, producing effects including malformations in the conceptus at levels equal to or below maternally toxic levels in some studies; particularly those conducted using prothioconazoledesthio. Reproduction studies in the rat with prothioconazole and prothioconazole-desthio suggested that these chemicals may not be primary reproductive toxicants. Acute and subchronic neurotoxicity studies were conducted in the rat using prothioconazole. A developmental neurotoxicity study was conducted in the rat using prothioconazole-desthio. The available data show that the prothioconazole-desthio metabolite produces toxicity at the lowest dose levels in the areas of subchronic, developmental, reproductive, and neurotoxic toxicities compared with prothioconazole and the two additional metabolites that were tested. The available carcinogenicity and/or chronic studies in the mouse and rat, using both prothioconazole and prothioconazole-desthio, show no increase in tumor incidence. Therefore, EPA has concluded prothioconazole or its metabolites are not carcinogenic, and are classified "Not likely to be Carcinogenic to Humans" according to the 2005 Cancer Guidelines. Specific information on the studies received and the nature of the adverse effects caused by prothioconazole as well as the no-observed-adverse-effect-level (NOAEL) and LOAEL from the toxicity studies can be found at <http://www.regulations.gov> in document Prothioconazole; Pesticide Tolerance pages 14714–14719 in docket ID number EPA-HQ-OPP-2007-0178.

B. Toxicological Endpoints

For hazards that have a threshold below which there is no appreciable risk, a toxicological point of departure (POD) is identified as the basis for derivation of reference values for risk assessment. The POD may be defined as the highest dose at which no adverse effects are observed (the NOAEL) in the toxicology study identified as appropriate for use in risk assessment. However, if a NOAEL cannot be determined, the LOAEL at which adverse effects of concern are identified (the LOAEL) or a Benchmark Dose (BMD) approach is sometimes used for risk assessment. Uncertainty/safety factors (UFs) are used in conjunction with the POD to take into account uncertainties inherent in the extrapolation from laboratory animal data to humans and in the variations in sensitivity among members of the human population as well as other unknowns. Safety is assessed for acute and chronic dietary risks by comparing aggregate food and water exposure to the pesticide to the acute population adjusted dose (aPAD) and chronic population adjusted dose (cPAD). The aPAD and cPAD are calculated by dividing the POD by all applicable UFs. Aggregate short-term, intermediate-term, and chronic-term risks are evaluated by comparing food, water, and residential exposure to the POD to ensure that the margin of exposure (MOE) called for by the product of all applicable UFs is not exceeded. This latter value is referred to as the Level of Concern (LOC).

For non-threshold risks, the Agency assumes that any amount of exposure will lead to some degree of risk. Thus, the Agency estimates risk in terms of the probability of an occurrence of the adverse effect greater than that expected in a lifetime. For more information on the general principles EPA uses in risk characterization and a complete description of the risk assessment process, see: <http://www.epa.gov/oppfead1/trac/science>; <http://www.epa.gov/pesticides/factsheets/riskassess.htm>; and <http://www.epa.gov/pesticides/trac/science/aggregate.pdf>.

A summary of the toxicological endpoints for prothioconazole used for human risk assessment can be found at <http://www.regulations.gov> in document Prothioconazole: Human Health Risk Assessment for Proposed Section 3 Seed treatment Use on Wheat, Barley, and Triticale, Plus Increase Tolerance on Forage of Wheat, Barley, and Triticale pages 20–21 in docket ID number EPA-HQ-OPP-2008-0327.

C. Exposure Assessment

1. Dietary exposure from food and feed uses. In evaluating dietary exposure to prothioconazole, EPA considered exposure under the petitioned-for tolerances as well as all existing prothioconazole tolerances in (40 CFR 180.626). EPA assessed dietary exposures from prothioconazole residues in food as follows:

i. Acute exposure. Quantitative acute dietary exposure and risk assessments are performed for a food-use pesticide, if a toxicological study has indicated the possibility of an effect of concern occurring as a result of a 1 day or single exposure.

In estimating acute dietary exposure, EPA used food consumption information from the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) 1994–1996 and 1998 Nationwide Continuing Surveys of Food Intake by Individuals (CSFII). A moderately refined acute dietary exposure (food and drinking water) assessment was conducted for prothioconazole. Average field trial values, empirical processing factors, and livestock maximum residues were incorporated into the refined acute assessment. The assessment also assumed 100 percent of crops covered by the existing tolerances, as well as the changed tolerance on wheat forage, are treated with prothioconazole.

ii. Chronic exposure. In conducting the chronic dietary exposure assessment EPA used the food consumption data from the USDA 1994–1996 and 1998 CSFII. A moderately refined chronic dietary exposure (food and drinking water) assessment was conducted for prothioconazole. Average field trial values, empirical processing factors, and livestock maximum residues were incorporated into the refined acute assessment. The assessment also assumed 100 percent of crops covered by the existing tolerances, as well as the changed tolerance on wheat forage, are treated with prothioconazole.

iii. Cancer. The available toxicology studies in the mouse and rat showed no increase in tumor incidence, and therefore the Agency has concluded that neither prothioconazole, nor its metabolites are carcinogenic. Thus classified, by the Agency, as “Not Likely to Carcinogenic to Humans” according to the 2005 Cancer Guidelines. Consequently, a quantitative dietary cancer assessment was not performed.

iv. Anticipated residue and percent crop treated (PCT) information. Section 408(b)(2)(E) of FFDCA authorizes EPA to use available data and information on the anticipated residue levels of pesticide residues in food and the actual levels of pesticide residues that have been measured in food. If EPA relies on such information, EPA must require pursuant to section 408(f)(1) of FFDCA that data be provided 5 years after the tolerance is established, modified, or left in effect, demonstrating that the levels in food are not above the levels anticipated. For the present action, EPA will issue such Data Call-Ins as are required by section 408(b)(2)(E), and authorized under section 408(f)(1) of FFDCA. Data will be required to be submitted no later than 5 years from the date of issuance of this tolerance. Average residues and 100 PCT were assumed for all food commodities.

2. Dietary exposure from drinking water. The Agency used screening level water exposure models in the dietary exposure analysis and risk assessment for prothioconazole in drinking water. These simulation models take into account data on the physical, chemical, and fate/transport characteristics of prothioconazole. Further information regarding EPA drinking water models used in pesticide exposure assessment can be found at <http://www.epa.gov/oppfead1/models/water/index.htm>.

Based on the Pesticide Root Zone Model/Exposure Analysis Modeling System (PRZM/EXAMS) and Screening

Concentration in Ground Water (SCI-GROW) models, the estimated drinking water concentrations (EDWCs) of prothioconazole for acute exposures are estimated to be 29 parts per billion (ppb) for surface water and 0.67 ppb for ground water. The EDWCs for chronic exposures are estimated to be 13 ppb for surface water and 0.67 ppb for ground water.

Modeled estimates of drinking water concentrations were directly entered into the dietary exposure models. For acute dietary risk assessment, the water concentration value of 29 ppb was used to assess the contribution from drinking water. For the chronic dietary risk assessment, the water concentration value of 13 ppb was used to assess the contribution from drinking water. EPA used the EDWCs from surface water only in assessing the risk from prothioconazole because the EDWCs for ground water source are less than 1 ppb, and considered minimal in comparison to surface water.

3. From non-dietary exposure. The term “residential exposure” is used in this document to refer to non-occupational, non-dietary exposure (e.g., for lawn and garden pest control, indoor pest control, termiticides, and flea and tick control on pets).

Prothioconazole is not registered for use patterns that would result in residential exposure.

4. Cumulative effects from substances with a common mechanism of toxicity. Section 408(b)(2)(D)(v) of FFDCA requires that, when considering whether to establish, modify, or revoke a tolerance, the Agency consider “available information” concerning the cumulative effects of a particular pesticide’s residues and “other substances that have a common mechanism of toxicity.”

Prothioconazole is a member of the triazole-containing class of pesticides, often referred to as the conazoles. EPA is not currently following a cumulative risk approach based on a common mechanism of toxicity for the conazoles. The conazole pesticides, as a whole, tend to exhibit carcinogenic, developmental, reproductive, and/or neurological effects in mammals. Additionally, all the members of this class of compounds are capable of forming, via environmental and metabolic activities, 1,2,4-triazole, triazolylalanine and/or triazolylacetic acid. These metabolites have also been shown to cause developmental, reproductive, and/or neurological effects. Structural similarities and sharing a common effect does not constitute a common mechanism of toxicity. Evidence is needed to establish that the chemicals operate "by the same, or essentially the same sequence of major biochemical events. Hence, the underlying basis of toxicity is the same, or essentially the same for each chemical." (EPA, 2002) A number of potential events could contribute to the toxicity of conazoles (e.g., altered cholesterol levels, stress responses, altered DNA methylation). At this time, there is not sufficient evidence to determine whether conazoles share common mechanisms of toxicity. Without such understanding, there is no basis to make a common mechanism of toxicity finding for the diverse range of effects found. Investigations into the conazoles are currently being undertaken by the EPA's Office of Research and Development. When the results of this research are available, the Agency will make a determination of whether there is a common mechanism of toxicity and, therefore, a basis for assessing cumulative risk. For information regarding EPA's efforts to determine which chemicals have a common mechanism of toxicity and to evaluate the cumulative effects of such chemicals, see EPA's website at <http://www.epa.gov/pesticides/cumulative>.

Triazole-derived pesticides can form the common metabolite 1,2,4-triazole and three triazole conjugates (triazole alanine, triazole acetic acid, and triazolylpyruvic acid). To support existing tolerances and to establish new tolerances for triazole-derivative pesticides, including prothioconazole, EPA conducted a human health risk assessment for exposure to 1,2,4-triazole, triazole alanine, and triazole acetic acid resulting from the use of all current and pending uses of any triazole-derived fungicide as of September 1, 2005. The risk assessment is a highly conservative, screening-level evaluation in terms of hazards associated with common metabolites (e.g., use of a maximum combination of uncertainty factors) and potential dietary and non-dietary exposures (i.e., high end estimates of both dietary and non-dietary exposures). In addition, the Agency retained the additional 10X FQPA safety factor for the protection of infants and children. The assessment included evaluations of risks for various subgroups, including those comprised of infants and children. The Agency's September 1, 2005 risk assessment can be found in the propiconazole reregistration docket at <http://www.regulations.gov> (Docket ID EPA-HQ-OPP-2005-0497). In October and December of 2008, EPA updated the dietary and aggregate risk assessments for exposure to 1,2,4-triazole, triazole alanine, triazole acetic acid, and triazolylpyruvic acid resulting from the use of all current and pending uses of any triazole-derived fungicide to support existing tolerances and to establish new tolerances for new uses of metconazole (canola, corn, cotton, and sugarcane; PP 7F7221, 7F7292, and 08FL03), propiconazole (beets, parsley, and pineapple; PP 7F7300), prothioconazole (wheat and barley; PP 7F7279), and tetraconazole (grapes; PP 7E7273). These updated dietary and aggregate assessments are below the Agency's level of concern. These updated triazole risk assessments can be found in the Rule's docket (EPA-HQ-OPP-2008-0327) and the following associated dockets at <http://www.regulations.gov> (Docket IDs EPA-HQ-OPP-2007-514 and EPA-HQ-OPP-2008-0718).

D. Safety Factor for Infants and Children

1. In general. Section 408(b)(2)(c) of FFDCA provides that EPA shall apply an additional tenfold (10X) margin of safety for infants and children in the case of threshold effects to account for prenatal and postnatal toxicity and the completeness of the database on toxicity and exposure unless EPA determines based on reliable data that a different margin of safety will be safe for infants and children. This additional margin of safety is commonly referred to as the FQPA safety factor (SF). In applying this provision, EPA either retains the default value of 10X, or uses a different additional safety factor when reliable data available to EPA support the choice of a different factor.

2. Prenatal and postnatal sensitivity.

There is evidence of increased susceptibility following prematernal or postnatal exposure in:

- i. Rat developmental toxicity studies with prothioconazole as well as its prothioconazole-desthio and sulfonic acid K salt metabolites.
- ii. Rabbit developmental toxicity studies with prothioconazole-desthio.
- iii. A rat developmental neurotoxicity study with prothioconazole-desthio; and
- iv. Multi-generation reproduction studies in the rat with prothioconazole-desthio. Effects include skeletal structural abnormalities, such as cleft palate, deviated snout, malocclusion, extra ribs, and developmental delays. Available data also show that the skeletal effects such as extra ribs are not completely reversible after birth in the rat, but persist as development continues. Although increased susceptibility was seen in these studies, the Agency concluded that there is a low concern and no residual uncertainties for prenatal and/or postnatal toxicity effects of prothioconazole because:

- Developmental toxicity NOAELs and LOAELs from prenatal exposure are well characterized after oral and dermal exposure
- The off-spring toxicity NOAELs and LOAELs from postnatal exposures are well characterized; and
- The NOAEL for the fetal effect malformed vertebral body and ribs is used for assessing acute risk of females 13 years and older and, because it is lower than the NOAELs in other developmental studies, is protective of all potential developmental effects.

3. Conclusion. EPA has determined that reliable data show the safety of infants and children would be adequately protected if the FQPA SF were reduced to 1X. That decision is based on the following findings:

- i. The toxicity database for prothioconazole is complete, except for immunotoxicity testing. EPA began requiring functional immunotoxicity testing of all food and non-food use pesticides on December 26, 2007. Although an immunotoxicity study in the mouse is part of the existing prothioconazole toxicity data base, this study as reported does not satisfy the current guideline requirements for an immunotoxicity study (OPPTS 870.7800). As such, EPA is requiring that an immunotoxicity study be submitted which meets guideline requirements. EPA has evaluated the available prothioconazole toxicity database (including the non-guideline study in the mouse) to determine whether an additional database uncertainty factor is needed to account for potential immunotoxicity. In one chronic study in the rat (but not in the mouse or dog), blood leukocyte counts were significantly elevated at the high dose level (750 milligrams/kilogram/day (mg/kg/day)) along with increased thrombocyte counts and decrease hemoglobin. However, this finding is made in the presence of toxicity to a broad range of organ systems such as the liver, urinary bladder, kidney, thyroid, and decreased body weight gains. Furthermore, no signs of immunotoxicity, including evidence of toxicity to the lymphatic system, were observed at dose levels up to 400 mg/kg/day in the non-guideline immunotoxicity study in the mouse. There appears to be no basis for concern for immunotoxicity, particularly at the Points of Departure (POD) for prothioconazole and its metabolites which, at 2.0 and 1.1 mg/kg/day (Acute and Chronic Reference Dose (aRfD and cRfD), respectively) are two orders of magnitude lower than the 400 and 750 mg/kg/day dose levels mentioned in this Unit. This finding, along with the absence of immunotoxicity observed in the subchronic and chronic studies with prothioconazole and its metabolites supports the reduction of the FQPA factor to 1X in the interim, pending receipt of an acceptable guideline immunotoxicity study.

ii. Previously, because of incomplete data reporting, there were uncertainties regarding dose levels at which neurotoxicities (brain morphometrics and peripheral nerve degeneration) were occurring in the pups. Because of this database uncertainty, the FQPA safety factor was retained at 10X in previous hazard characterizations. Critical data on brain morphometry and peripheral nerve lesions in a rat developmental neurotoxicity study have now been submitted and reviewed. Upon evaluation of these new data, neither the apparent increases in axonal degeneration at the high dose or the brain morphometric changes at the low and mid doses were considered treatment-related. Therefore, these data support the reduction of the FQPA factor to 1X.

iii. Although increased susceptibility was seen in the developmental and reproduction studies, the Agency concluded that there is a low concern and no residual uncertainties for prenatal and/or postnatal toxicity effects of prothioconazole for the reasons explained in Unit III.D.2.

iv. There are no residual uncertainties identified in the exposure databases. The dietary food exposure assessments were performed based on 100 PCT and tolerance-level or anticipated residues derived from reliable residue field trials. EPA made conservative (protective) assumptions in the ground water and surface water modeling used to assess exposure to prothioconazole in drinking water. Residential exposures are not expected. These assessments will not underestimate the exposure and risks posed by prothioconazole.

E. Aggregate Risks and Determination of Safety

EPA determines whether acute and chronic pesticide exposures are safe by comparing aggregate exposure estimates to the Acute Percent Adjusted Dose and Chronic Percent Adjusted Dose (aPAD and cPAD). The aPAD and cPAD represent the highest safe exposures, taking into account all appropriate SFs. EPA calculates the aPAD and cPAD by dividing the POD by all applicable UFs. For linear cancer risks, EPA calculates the probability of additional cancer cases given the estimated aggregate exposure. Short-term, intermediate-term, and chronic-term risks are evaluated by comparing the estimated aggregate food, water, and residential exposure to the POD to ensure that the MOE called for by the product of all applicable UFs is not exceeded.

1. Acute risk. An acute aggregate risk assessment takes into account exposure estimates from acute dietary consumption of food and drinking water. No adverse effect resulting from a single-oral exposure was identified and therefore no acute dietary endpoint was selected for the general population. However, an acute dietary endpoint was selected for the population subgroup females 13 to 49 years of age. Using the exposure assumptions discussed in this unit for acute exposure, the acute dietary exposure from food and drinking water to prothioconazole will occupy 8% of the aPAD for (female 13 to 49 years old).

2. Chronic risk. Using the exposure assumptions described in this unit for chronic exposure, EPA has concluded that chronic exposure to prothioconazole from food and water will utilize 22% of the cPAD for (infants less than 1 year old) the population group receiving the greatest exposure. There are no residential uses for prothioconazole.

3. Short-term risk. Short-term aggregate exposure takes into account short-term residential exposure plus chronic exposure to food and water (considered to be a background exposure level).

Prothioconazole is not registered for any use patterns that would result in residential exposure. Therefore, the short-term aggregate risk is the sum of the risk from exposure to prothioconazole through food and water and will not be greater than the chronic aggregate risk.

4. Intermediate-term risk. Intermediate-term aggregate exposure takes into account intermediate-term residential exposure plus chronic exposure to food and water (considered to be a background exposure level).

Prothioconazole is not registered for any use patterns that would result in intermediate-term residential exposure. Therefore, the intermediate-term aggregate risk is the sum of the risk from exposure to prothioconazole through food and water, which has already been addressed, and will not be greater than the chronic aggregate risk.

5. Aggregate cancer risk for U.S. population. Aggregate cancer risk for U.S. population. The available studies in the mouse and rat show no increase in tumor incidence, therefore the Agency has concluded that neither prothioconazole nor its metabolites are carcinogenic, and are classified "Not likely to be Carcinogenic to Humans" according to the 2005 Cancer Guidelines. Therefore, prothioconazole is not expected to pose a cancer risk.

6. Determination of safety. Based on these risk assessments, EPA concludes that there is a reasonable certainty that no harm will result to the general population, or to infants and children from aggregate exposure to prothioconazole residues.

IV. Other Considerations

A. Analytical Enforcement Methodology

Adequate enforcement methodology are available to enforce the tolerance expression, consisting of liquid chromatography/tandem mass spectrometry (LC/MS/MS) for both plant and livestock commodities, using tandem mass spectrometry electrospray ionization in both the positive and negative modes. Both methods (LC/MS/MS Method RPA JA/03/01 for plants and LC/MS/MS Method Bayer Report No. 200537 for animals) have successfully passed tolerance method validation at ACB/BEAD. Methods may be requested from: Chief, Analytical Chemistry Branch, Environmental Science Center, 701 Mapes Rd., Ft. Meade, MD 20755-5350; telephone number: (410) 305-2905; e-mail address: residuemethods@epa.gov.

B. International Residue Limits

There are no maximum residue limits (MRLs) (tolerances) established for prothioconazole in Codex or in Mexico. MRLs have been established in Canada on barley grain at 0.35 ppm and wheat grain at 0.07 ppm.

V. Conclusion

Therefore, a tolerance is being revised for combined residues of prothioconazole, 2-[2-(1-chlorocyclopropyl)-3-(2-chlorophenyl)-2-hydroxypropyl]-1,2-dihydro-3H-1,2,4-triazole-3-thione, and prothioconazole-desthio, α -(1-chlorocyclopropyl)- α -[(2-chlorophenyl)methyl]-1H-1,2,4-triazole-1-ethanol, calculated as parent, in or on wheat, forage, from 6.0 ppm to 8.0 ppm.

VI. Statutory and Executive Order Reviews

This final rule establishes tolerances under section 408(d) of FFDCA in response to a petition submitted to the Agency. The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) has exempted these types of actions from review under Executive Order 12866, entitled Regulatory Planning and Review (58 FR 51735, October 4, 1993). Because this final rule has been exempted from review under Executive Order 12866, this final rule is not subject to Executive Order 13211, entitled Actions Concerning Regulations That Significantly Affect Energy Supply, Distribution, or Use (66 FR 28355, May 22, 2001) or Executive Order 13045, entitled Protection of Children from Environmental Health Risks and Safety Risks (62 FR 19885, April 23, 1997). This final rule does not contain any information collections subject to OMB approval under the Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA), 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq., nor does it require any special considerations under Executive Order 12898, entitled Federal Actions to Address Environmental Justice in Minority Populations and Low-Income Populations (59 FR 7629, February 16, 1994).

Since tolerances and exemptions that are established on the basis of a petition under section 408(d) of FFDCA, such as the tolerance in this final rule, do not require the issuance of a proposed rule, the requirements of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (RFA) (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.) do not apply.

This final rule directly regulates growers, food processors, food handlers, and food retailers, not States or tribes, nor does this action alter the relationships or distribution of power and responsibilities established by Congress in the preemption provisions of section 408(n)(4) of FFDCA. As such, the Agency has determined that this action will not have a substantial direct effect on States or tribal governments, on the relationship between the national government and the States or tribal governments, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government or between the Federal Government and Indian tribes. Thus, the Agency has determined that Executive Order 13132, entitled Federalism (64 FR 43255, August 10, 1999) and Executive Order 13175, entitled Consultation and Coordination with Indian Tribal Governments (65 FR 67249, November 9, 2000) do not apply to this final rule. In addition, this final rule does not impose any enforceable duty or contain any unfunded mandate as described under Title II of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (UMRA) (Public Law 104-4).

This action does not involve any technical standards that would require Agency consideration of voluntary consensus standards pursuant to section 12(d) of the National Technology Transfer and Advancement Act of 1995 (NTTAA), Public Law 104-113, section 12(d) (15 U.S.C. 272 note).

VII. Congressional Review Act

The Congressional Review Act, 5 U.S.C. 801 et seq., generally provides that before a rule may take effect, the agency promulgating the rule must submit a rule report to each House of the Congress and to the Comptroller General of the United States. EPA will submit a report containing this rule and other required information to the U.S. Senate, the U.S. House of Representatives, and the Comptroller General of the United States prior to publication of this final rule in the Federal Register. This final rule is not a “major rule” as defined by 5 U.S.C. 804(2).

14 CFR Part 39

[Docket No. FAA-2009-0293; Directorate Identifier 2008-NM-221-AD]

RIN 2120-AA64

Airworthiness Directives; Boeing Model 747-100, -100B, -100B SUD, -200B, -200C, -200F, -300, -400, -400D, -400F, and 747SR Series Airplanes

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking (NPRM).

SUMMARY: We propose to adopt a new airworthiness directive (AD) for certain Boeing Model 747 airplanes identified above. This proposed AD would require replacing the inboard trailing edge (TE) flap transmission carbon disk no-back brakes with skewed roller no-back brakes at the TE flap transmission, positions 4 and 5. This proposed AD results from reports of the inboard TE flaps blowing back due to the failure of a transmission carbon disk no-back brake. The no-back brake did not hold the TE flaps in the commanded position. We are proposing this AD to prevent a decrease of the aerodynamic controllability of the airplane, which could adversely affect the airplane's continued safe flight and landing.

DATES: We must receive comments on this proposed AD by May 18, 2009.

ADDRESSES: You may send comments by any of the following methods:

Federal Register

Vol. 74, No. 61

Wednesday, April 1, 2009

We will post all comments we receive, without change, to <http://www.regulations.gov>, including any personal information you provide. We will also post a report summarizing each substantive verbal contact we receive about this proposed AD.

Discussion

We have received reports of the inboard trailing edge (TE) flaps blowing back due to the failure of a transmission carbon disk no-back brake. The no-back brake did not hold the TE flaps in the commanded position. On approach, with landing flaps 25 or 30 selected, the inboard TE flaps failed to hold the commanded position and blew back to approximately flaps 10/15. This failure can cause an asymmetric flap blow-back if a torque tube becomes disconnected in combination with a failed no-back brake, or cause a symmetric flap blow-back if the hydraulic motor torque is lost in combination with two failed no-back brakes.

This condition, if not corrected, could result in a decrease of the aerodynamic controllability of the airplane, which could adversely affect the airplane's continued safe flight and landing.

Relevant Service Information

We have reviewed Boeing Special Attention Service Bulletin 747-27-2422, dated October 30, 2008. The service bulletin describes procedures to replace the inboard TE flap transmission carbon disk no-back brakes with skewed roller no-back brakes at the TE flap transmission, positions 4 and 5.

FAA's Determination and Requirements of This Proposed AD

We are proposing this AD because we evaluated all relevant information and determined the unsafe condition described previously is likely to exist or develop in other products of these same type designs. This proposed AD would require accomplishing the actions specified in the service information described previously.

Costs of Compliance

We estimate that this proposed AD would affect 249 airplanes of U.S. registry. The following table provides the estimated costs for U.S. operators to comply with this proposed AD.

TABLE—ESTIMATED COSTS

Action	Work hours	Average labor rate per hour	Parts	Cost	Number of U.S.-registered airplanes	Fleet cost
Replacement	25	$80	$60,670	$62,670	249	$15,604,830

Authority for This Rulemaking

Title 49 of the United States Code specifies the FAA's authority to issue rules on aviation safety. Subtitle I, section 106, describes the authority of the FAA Administrator. "Subtitle VII: Aviation Programs," describes in more detail the scope of the Agency's authority.

We are issuing this rulemaking under the authority described in "Subtitle VII, Part A, Subpart III, Section 44701: General requirements." Under that section, Congress charges the FAA with promoting safe flight of civil aircraft in air commerce by prescribing regulations for practices, methods, and procedures the Administrator finds necessary for safety in air commerce. This regulation is within the scope of that authority because it addresses an unsafe condition that is likely to exist or develop on products identified in this rulemaking action.

Regulatory Findings

We determined that this proposed AD would not have federalism implications under Executive Order 13132. This proposed AD would not have a substantial direct effect on the States, on the relationship between the national Government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government.

For the reasons discussed above, I certify this proposed regulation:

1. Is not a "significant regulatory action" under Executive Order 12866,
2. Is not a "significant rule" under the DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034, February 26, 1979), and
3. Will not have a significant economic impact, positive or negative, on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

You can find our regulatory evaluation and the estimated costs of compliance in the AD Docket.

Accordingly, under the authority delegated to me by the Administrator,

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

1. The authority citation for part 39 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 49 U.S.C. 106(g), 40113, 44701.

§ 39.13 [Amended]

2. The FAA amends § 39.13 by adding the following new AD:

Comments Due Date

(a) We must receive comments by May 18, 2009.

Affected ADs

(b) None.

Applicability

(c) This AD applies to Boeing Model 747-100, -100B, -100B SUD, -200B, -200C, -200F, -300, -400, -400D, -400F, and 747SR series airplanes, certificated in any category; as identified in Boeing Special Attention Service Bulletin 747-27-2422, dated October 30, 2008.

Subject

(d) Air Transport Association (ATA) of America Code 27: Flight controls.

Unsafe Condition

(e) This AD results from reports of the inboard trailing edge (TE) flaps blowing back due to the failure of a transmission carbon disk no-back brake. The no-back brake did not hold the flaps in the commanded position. The Federal Aviation Administration is issuing this AD to prevent a decrease of the aerodynamic controllability of the airplane, which could adversely affect the airplane's continued safe flight and landing.

Compliance

(f) You are responsible for having the actions required by this AD performed within the compliance times specified, unless the actions have already been done.

Corrective Action

(g) Within 5 years after the effective date of this AD, replace the trailing edge flap transmission no-back brakes with skewed roller no-back brakes at the trailing edge flap transmission, positions 4 and 5, in accordance with Boeing Special Attention Service Bulletin 747-27-2422, dated October 30, 2008.

Alternative Methods of Compliance (AMOCs)

(h)(1) The Manager, Seattle Aircraft Certification Office (ACO), FAA, has the authority to approve AMOCs for this AD, if requested using the procedures found in 14 CFR 39.19. Send information to ATTN: Douglas Tsuji, Aerospace Engineer, Systems and Equipment Branch, ANM-130S, FAA, Seattle Aircraft Certification Office, 1601 Lind Avenue, SW., Renton, Washington 98057-3356; telephone (425) 917-6487; fax (425) 917-6590.

(2) To request a different method of compliance or a different compliance time for this AD, follow the procedures in 14 CFR 39.19. Before using any approved AMOC on any airplane to which the AMOC applies, notify your principal maintenance inspector (PMI) or principal avionics inspector (PAI), as appropriate, or lacking a principal inspector, your local Flight Standards District Office. The AMOC approval letter must specifically reference this AD.

Issued in Renton, Washington, on March 18, 2009.

Airworthiness Directives; Airbus Model A300, A310, and A300-600 Series Airplanes

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), Department of Transportation (DOT).

ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking (NPRM).

SUMMARY: The FAA proposes to supersede an existing airworthiness directive (AD) that applies to certain Airbus Model A300 and A310 series airplanes. The existing AD currently requires replacement of the nose landing gear drag strut upper attachment pin. This proposed AD would require revising the Airworthiness Limitations section (ALS) of the Instructions for Continued Airworthiness (ICA) to require additional life limits and/or replacements for certain main landing gear and nose landing gear components, and would also expand the applicability. This proposed AD results from revisions to the ALS of the ICA to include new or more restrictive life limits and/or replacements. We are proposing this AD to ensure the continued structural integrity of these airplanes.

DATES: We must receive comments on this proposed AD by May 1, 2009.

Discussion

On July 21, 1987, we issued AD 87-16-06, amendment 39-5692 (52 FR 28241, July 29, 1987), for certain Airbus Model A300 and A310 series airplanes. That AD requires replacement of the nose landing gear drag strut upper attachment pin. That AD resulted from reports of pins which were found to be improperly manufactured. We issued that AD to prevent failure of the pin and collapse of the nose landing gear.

Actions Since Existing AD Was Issued

Since we issued AD 87-16-06, the manufacturer has revised the Airworthiness Limitations Section (ALS) of the Instructions for Continued Airworthiness (ICA) to include new or more restrictive life limits and replacements for the main landing gear and the nose landing gear. These new limits affect the replacement of the upper attachment pin for the nose landing gear drag strut that was the subject of AD 87-16-06.

In addition, European Aviation Safety Agency (EASA) Airworthiness Directive 2007-0293, dated November 29, 2007, which is parallel to this proposed AD, includes Model A300-600 series airplanes. Those airplane models were not included in AD 87-16-06.

Relevant Service Information

Airbus has issued the following revisions to the ALS of the ICA. These documents provide each mandatory replacement time, structural inspection interval, and related structural inspection procedures or other procedures (e.g., modifications).

- For Model A300 Series Airplanes: "Sub-part 1-2: Life Limits," and "Sub-part 1-3: Demonstrated fatigue lives" of Part 1, "Safe Life Airworthiness Limitation Items," dated September 6, 2007.

- For Model A300-600 Series Airplanes: "Sub-part 1-2: Life Limits," and "Sub-part 1-3: Demonstrated fatigue lives" of Part 1, "Safe Life Airworthiness Limitation Items," dated December 21, 2006.

- For Model A310 Series Airplanes: "Sub-part 1-2: Life Limits," and "Sub-part 1-3: Demonstrated fatigue lives" of Part 1, "Safe Life Airworthiness Limitation Items," dated December 21, 2006.

Airbus has also issued Section 05-10-00, Revision 28, dated February 27, 1998, of Chapter 5, "Service Life Limits and Maintenance Checks," of the A300 Aircraft Maintenance Manual. Section 05-10-00 includes life limit values for the nose and main landing gears. This document is an alternate source for the life limits defined in Part 1, "Safe Life Airworthiness Limitation Items," dated September 6, 2007, of the ALS, for Model A300 series airplanes.

Airbus has also issued Service Information Letter (SIL) 32-118, Revision 02, dated October 24, 2007. This SIL gives instructions for calculating the life limit of main or nose landing gear parts where the history of accumulated landings is partial or unknown, or where the history of application details (airplane type, model, weight variant, etc.) is partial or unknown.

Accomplishing the actions specified in the service information is intended to adequately address the unsafe condition. EASA mandated the service information and issued Airworthiness Directive 2007-0292, dated November 29, 2007, to ensure the continued airworthiness of these airplanes in the European Union.

Other Relevant Rulemaking

On January 11, 1984, we issued AD 84-02-04 (49 FR 2746, January 23, 1984), for certain Airbus Model A300 B2 and B4 series airplanes. That AD requires inspection of main landing gear hinge arms for corrosion and cracks, and repair or modifications if needed. That AD also requires replacement of the main landing gear shock absorber sliding rod attachment fitting. That AD resulted from corrosion and cracks found on these components. We issued that AD to prevent landing gear failure.

The actions specified in paragraph (h) of this proposed AD would satisfy the requirements of paragraph A. of AD 84-02-04. There are no actions in this proposed AD that would satisfy the requirements of paragraphs B. and C. of AD 84-02-04.

FAA's Determination and Requirements of the Proposed AD

This product has been approved by the aviation authority of another country, and is approved for operation in the United States. Pursuant to our bilateral agreement with the State of Design Authority, we have been notified of the unsafe condition described in the MCAI and service information referenced above. We are proposing this AD because we evaluated all pertinent information and determined an unsafe condition exists and is likely to exist or develop on other products of the same type design.

This proposed AD would supersede AD 87-16-06 and would retain the requirements of that existing AD. This proposed AD would also add airplanes to the applicability and require revising the ALS of the ICA to incorporate additional life limits and/or structural inspections for certain main landing gear and nose landing gear components.

Change to Existing AD

This proposed AD would retain the requirements of AD 87-16-06. Since AD 87-16-06 was issued, the AD format has been revised. As a result, the corresponding paragraph identifiers have changed in this proposed AD, and paragraph (g) of this proposed AD corresponds to paragraph A. of AD 87-16-06.

Costs of Compliance

The following table provides the estimated costs for U.S. operators to comply with this proposed AD.

ESTIMATED COSTS

Action	Work hours	Average labor rate per hour	Parts	Cost per airplane	Number of U.S.-registered airplanes	Fleet cost
Replacement (required by AD 87-16-06)	7	$80	$3,300	$3,860	94	$362,840
Revision (new proposed action)	1	80	0	80	238	19,040

Authority for This Rulemaking

Title 49 of the United States Code specifies the FAA's authority to issue rules on aviation safety. Subtitle I, Section 106, describes the authority of the FAA Administrator. Subtitle VII, Aviation Programs, describes in more detail the scope of the Agency's authority.

We are issuing this rulemaking under the authority described in Subtitle VII, Part A, Subpart III, Section 44701, "General requirements." Under that section, Congress charges the FAA with promoting safe flight of civil aircraft in air commerce by prescribing regulations for practices, methods, and procedures the Administrator finds necessary for safety in air commerce. This regulation is within the scope of that authority because it addresses an unsafe condition that is likely to exist or develop on products identified in this rulemaking action.

Regulatory Findings

We have determined that this proposed AD would not have federalism implications under Executive Order 13132. This proposed AD would not have a substantial direct effect on the States, on the relationship between the national Government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government.

For the reasons discussed above, I certify that the proposed regulation:

1. Is not a "significant regulatory action" under Executive Order 12866;

2. Is not a "significant rule" under the DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034, February 26, 1979); and

3. Will not have a significant economic impact, positive or negative, on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

We prepared a regulatory evaluation of the estimated costs to comply with this proposed AD and placed it in the AD docket. See the ADDRESSES section for a location to examine the regulatory evaluation.

The Proposed Amendment

Accordingly, under the authority delegated to me by the Administrator, the FAA proposes to amend 14 CFR part 39 as follows:

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

1. The authority citation for part 39 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 49 U.S.C. 106(g), 40113, 44701.

§ 39.13 [Amended]

2. The Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) amends § 39.13 by removing amendment 39-5692 (52 FR 28241, July 29, 1987) and adding the following new airworthiness directive (AD):

Airbus: Docket No. FAA-2009-0292; Directorate Identifier 2008-NM-011-AD.

Comments Due Date

(a) The FAA must receive comments on this AD action by May 1, 2009.

Affected ADs

(b) This AD supersedes AD 87-16-06.

Applicability

(c) This AD applies to all Airbus Model A300, A310, and A300-600 series airplanes, certificated in any category.

Subject

(d) Air Transport Association (ATA) of America Code 32: Landing Gear.

Unsafe Condition

(e) This AD results from revisions to the Airworthiness Limitations section (ALS) of the Instructions for Continued Airworthiness (ICA) to include new or more restrictive life limits and/or replacements. We are issuing this AD to ensure the continued structural integrity of these airplanes.

Compliance

(f) You are responsible for having the actions required by this AD performed within the compliance times specified, unless the actions have already been done.

Note 1: This AD requires revisions to certain operator maintenance documents to include new replacements. Compliance with these inspections is required by 14 CFR 91.403(c). For airplanes that have been previously modified, altered, or repaired in the areas addressed by these replacements, the operator may not be able to accomplish the replacements described in the revisions. In this situation, to comply with 14 CFR 91.403(c), the operator must request approval for an alternative method of compliance according to paragraph (l) of this AD. The request should include a description of changes to the required replacements that will ensure the continued operational safety of the airplane.

Restatement of the Requirements of AD 87-16-06

(g) For Model A300 and A310 Series Airplanes: Prior to the accumulation of 16,000 landings, or within the next 2,000 landings after September 3, 1987 (the effective date of AD 87-16-06), whichever occurs later, replace the nose landing gear drag strut upper attachment pin in accordance with Airbus Service Bulletin A300-32-374, Revision 1, dated July 15, 1986 (applicable to Model A300 airplanes); or A310-32-2023, Revision 2, dated November 14, 1986 (applicable to Model A310 airplanes).

entry into service as defined in the applicable document.

Special Compliance Times

(j) For any airplane on which the history of accumulated landings is partial or unknown, or where the history of application details (airplane type, model, weight variant, etc.) is partial or unknown, with or without using the information in Airbus Service Information Letter 32-118, Revision 02, dated October 24, 2007: Parts listed in Figure 1 of this AD must be replaced at the associated compliance time. The replacement must be done thereafter at the interval specified in the applicable document(s) specified in paragraphs (h)(1), (h)(2), and (h)(3) of this AD.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:Background

The summer flounder, scup, and black sea bass fisheries are managed cooperatively under the provisions of the Summer Flounder, Scup, and Black Sea Bass Fishery Management Plan (FMP) developed by the Mid-Atlantic Fishery Management Council (Council) and the Atlantic States Marine Fisheries Commission (Commission), in consultation with the New England and South Atlantic Fishery Management Councils. The management units specified in the FMP include summer flounder (Paralichthys dentatus) in U.S. waters of the Atlantic Ocean from the southern border of North Carolina (NC) northward to the U.S./Canada border, and scup (Stenotomus chrysops) and black sea bass (Centropristes striata) in U.S. waters of the Atlantic Ocean from 35°13.3' N. lat. (the latitude of Cape Hatteras Lighthouse, Buxton, NC) northward to the U.S./Canada border.

The Council prepared the FMP under the authority of the Magnuson-Stevens Fishery Conservation and Management Act (Magnuson-Stevens Act), 16 U.S.C. 1801 et seq. Regulations implementing the FMP appear at 50 CFR part 648, subparts A (general provisions), G (summer flounder), H (scup), and I (black sea bass). General regulations governing U.S. fisheries also appear at 50 CFR part 600. States manage summer flounder within 3 nautical miles of their coasts, under the Commission's plan for summer flounder, scup, and black sea bass. The Federal regulations govern vessels fishing in the exclusive economic zone (EEZ), as well as vessels possessing a Federal fisheries permit, regardless of where they fish.

The FMP established Monitoring Committees (Committees) for the three fisheries, consisting of representatives from the Commission, the Mid-Atlantic Council, state marine fishery agency representatives from MA to NC, and NMFS. The FMP and its implementing regulations require the Committees to review scientific and other relevant information annually and to recommend management measures necessary to achieve the recreational harvest limits established for the summer flounder, scup, and black sea bass fisheries for the upcoming fishing year. The FMP limits these measures to minimum fish size, possession limit, and fishing season.

The Council's Demersal Species Committee and the Commission's Summer Flounder, Scup, and Black Sea Bass Management Board (Board) then consider the Committees' recommendations and any public comment in making their recommendations to the Council and the Commission, respectively. The Council then reviews the recommendations of the Demersal Species Committee, makes its own recommendations, and forwards them to NMFS for review. The Commission similarly adopts recommendations for the states. NMFS is required to review the Council's recommendations to ensure that they are consistent with the targets specified for each species in the FMP.

Quota specifications for the 2009 summer flounder, scup, and black sea bass fisheries were published on January 2, 2009 (74 FR 29). Based on these specifications, the 2009 coastwide recreational harvest limits are 7,158,600 lb (3,247 mt) for summer flounder, 2,585,952 lb (1,173 mt) for scup, and 1,137,810 lb (516 mt) for black sea bass. The specification rules did not establish recreational measures, since final recreational catch data for 2008 were not available when the Council made its recreational harvest limit recommendation to NMFS.

All minimum fish sizes discussed hereafter are total length measurements of the fish, i.e., the straight-line distance from the tip of the snout to the end of the tail while the fish is lying on its side. For black sea bass, total length measurement does not include the caudal fin tendril. All possession limits discussed below are per person.

Summer Flounder

Recreational landings for 2008 were estimated to have been 8.14 million lb (3,692 mt). This exceeded, by approximately 31 percent, the 2008 recreational harvest limit of 6.22 million lb (2,821 mt). All states except DE, VA, and NC are projected to have exceeded their state harvest limits established under the conservation equivalency system utilized to manage the 2008 recreational summer flounder fishery. The magnitude of the overages ranged from a low of 9 percent for NJ to a high of 105 percent for MD.

The 2009 coastwide harvest limit is 7.16 million lb (3,247 mt), a 15.1-percent increase from the 2008 harvest limit of 6.22 million lb (2,821 mt). However, given the magnitude of the 2008 overages, landings must be reduced by 12 percent coastwide from the 2008 levels to ensure that the 2009 harvest limit is not exceeded. The Council is recommending conservation equivalency, described as follows, that would require individual states to reduce summer flounder landings (measured in number of fish) to achieve the necessary recreational harvest reductions for 2009.

NMFS implemented Framework Adjustment 2 to the FMP (Framework Adjustment 2) on July 29, 2001 (66 FR 36208), which established a process that makes conservation equivalency an option for the summer flounder recreational fishery. Conservation equivalency allows each state to establish its own recreational management measures (possession limits, minimum fish size, and fishing seasons) to achieve its state harvest limit, as long as the combined effect of all of the states' management measures achieves the same level of conservation as would Federal coastwide measures developed to achieve the overall recreational harvest limit, if implemented by all of the states.

The Council and Board recommend annually that either state-specific recreational measures be developed (conservation equivalency) or coastwide management measures be implemented by all states to ensure that the recreational harvest limit will not be exceeded. Even when the Council and Board recommend conservation equivalency, the Council must specify a set of coastwide measures that would apply if conservation equivalency is not approved.

If conservation equivalency is recommended, and following confirmation that the proposed state measures would achieve conservation equivalency, NMFS may waive the permit condition found at § 648.4(b), which requires federally permitted vessels to comply with the more restrictive management measures when state and Federal measures differ. In such a situation, federally permitted charter/party permit holders and recreational vessels fishing for summer flounder in the EEZ would then be subject to the recreational fishing measures implemented by the state in which they land summer flounder, rather than the coastwide measures.

In addition, the Council and the Board must recommend precautionary default measures. The Commission would require adoption of the precautionary default measures by any state that either does not submit a summer flounder management proposal to the Commission's Summer Flounder Technical Committee (Technical Committee), or that submits measures that are determined not to achieve the required level of reduction for that state. The precautionary default measures are defined as the set of measures that would achieve at least the highest percent reduction for any state on a coastwide basis.

In December 2008, the Council and Board voted to recommend conservation equivalency to achieve the 2009 recreational harvest limit. The Commission's conservation equivalency guidelines require the states to determine and implement appropriate state-specific management measures (i.e., possession limits, fish size limits, and fishing seasons) to achieve state-specific harvest limits. States may also form voluntary regions wherein the member states' measures must achieve the overall reduction required for the region in question.

For 2009, the Commission is requiring that states that must reduce landings to ensure that at least 50 percent of the percent reduction derive from a modification to the fishing season. The Monitoring Committee and the Technical Committee have both stated that modification of season length is typically more effective at reducing landings than are modifications to minimum fish size and possession limits. The Commission is not requiring the use of any other adjustments or reductions similar to the performance-based adjustment factor that was utilized in 2008.

According to the conservation equivalency procedures established in Framework Adjustment 2, each state except DE, VA, and NC would be required to reduce 2009 landings by the percentages shown in Table 1. DE, VA, and NC may submit more liberal management measures, provided that they are sufficient to ensure their 2009 state harvest limits are not exceeded. ME and NH have no recreational summer flounder harvest limit and are not required to submit management measures to the Commission.

Under conservation equivalency, state-specific landings from 1998 are used as the baseline for individual state's reductions, because 1998 was the last year that recreational summer regulations were consistent along the coast. Recreational landings in 1998 were 6.978 million fish coastwide; the 2009 recreational harvest limit translates into 2,069 million fish (i.e., 7.16 million lb (3,247 mt) recreational harvest limit divided by predicted 2009 average fish weight of 3.46 lb/fish (1.57 kg/fish)). As such, landings must be reduced by 70.4 percent in 2009 to achieve the 1998 baseline level of landings.

The Board required that each state submit its conservation equivalency proposals to the Commission by late January 2009. The Technical Committee then evaluated the proposals and advised the Board of each proposal's consistency with respect to achieving the coastwide recreational harvest limit. The Commission invited public participation in its review process by allowing public comment on the state proposals at the Technical Committee meeting held on January 28, 2009. The Board met on February 3, 2009, and approved a range of management proposals for each state designed to attain conservation equivalency. Once the states select and submit their final summer flounder management measures to the Commission, the Commission will notify NMFS as to which individual state proposals have been approved or disapproved. NMFS retains the final authority either to approve or to disapprove using conservation equivalency in place of the coastwide measures and will publish its determination as a final rule in the Federal Register to establish the 2009 recreational measures for these fisheries.

States that do not submit conservation equivalency proposals, or whose proposals are disapproved by the Commission, will be required by the Commission to adopt the precautionary default measures. In the case of states that are initially assigned precautionary default measures, but subsequently receive Commission approval of revised state measures, NMFS will publish a notice in the Federal Register announcing a waiver of the permit condition at § 648.4(b). The suite of state proposals for 2009 has initially been approved by the Commission. Therefore, a state would only be required to implement precautionary default measures if the measures submitted for final Commission approval are different than those preliminarily approved by the Commission or for failing to finalize conservation equivalent measures for 2009.

The precautionary default measures recommended by the Council and Board during their joint December 2008 meeting are for a 21.5-inch (54.61-cm) minimum fish size, a possession limit of one fish, and an open season of July 4 through September 7, 2009.

As described above, for each fishing year, NMFS implements either coastwide measures or conservation equivalent measures at the final rule stage. The coastwide measures recommended by the Council and Board for 2009 are a 20-inch (50.80-cm) minimum fish size, a possession limit of two fish, and an open season from May 1 to September 30, 2009.

In this action, NMFS proposes to implement conservation equivalency with a precautionary default backstop, as previously outlined, for states that either fail to submit conservation equivalent measures or whose measures are disapproved by the Commission. NMFS proposes the non-preferred alternative of coastwide measures, as previously described, for use if conservation equivalency is not approved in the final rule. The coastwide measures would be waived if conservation equivalency is approved in the final rule.

Scup

The 2009 scup recreational harvest limit is 2,585,952 lb (1,173 mt), a 41-percent increase from the 2008 recreational harvest limit of 1.83 million lb (830 mt). Recreational landings are estimated to have been 4.75 million lb (2,155 mt).

Development of scup recreational management measures has been substantially complicated for 2009 following the results of a Northeast Fisheries Science Center (Center) Data Poor Stocks Working Group (DPSWG). The peer-reviewed results of the DPSWG has resulted in the adoption of revised scup biological reference points, a new stock assessment modeling approach, and a more favorable overall status of the stock than was previously available. In fact, the scup stock is now considered rebuilt, not overfished, and not subject to overfishing in 2007, the year for which the most recent information was available during the DPSWG.

The Council and Commission, at the time of their December 9–11, 2008, meeting, did not have the final DPSWG results; these were not available until January 20, 2009. As such, the Council and Commission adopted recommendations for scup measures based on the proposed 2009 scup TAL and recreational harvest limit as outlined in the October 28, 2008, proposed rule (73 FR 63934) issued by NMFS. This was a TAL of 7.34 million lb (3,329 mt) and a recreational harvest limit of 1.83 million lb (830 mt). This would have required a 63-percent reduction in scup landings for 2009.

The DPSWG peer-review was concluded December 12, 2008. The peer-review panel recommended during the meeting proceedings that the new modeling approach, biological reference points, and revised stock status be accepted for management advice for scup, provided sufficient attention was paid to the many uncertainties remaining in the new assessment. On the strength of this recommendation, NMFS increased the scup TAL from the 7.34 million lb (3,329 mt) proposed in October, to an 11.18-million-lb (4,170-mt) scup TAL in the final rule for the 2009 specifications. This increased the recreational harvest limit from 1.83 million lb (830 mt) to 2.59 million lb (1,173 mt). However, the Council was unable to revisit its recommendation, so the preferred measures proposed by the Council include a 12-inch (30.48-cm) minimum fish size, a January 1–February 28 and October 1–October 31, 2009, fishing season, and a 25-fish possession limit. The non-preferred alternatives offered by the Council were to retain status quo measures from 2008 or to close the Federal waters of the EEZ for 2009.

On February 3, 2009, the Commission's Scup Management Board (Board) elected to maintain status quo scup management measures from 2008 for state waters in 2009. Under this system, the states from MA to NY, which typically account for 95 to 97 percent of state water scup harvest, would have similar measures: Different minimum fish sizes; possession limits; and fishing seasons for private vessels/shore based anglers and party/charter vessels. A minimum fish size of 10.5 inches (26.7 cm), a common possession limit (10 fish), and a May 24 through September 26 fishing season for private vessels and shore-based anglers; party and charter vessels could take scup for up to 126 days under two distinct seasons with separate minimum fish sizes, possession limits, and seasons. One charter/party season, designated as "bonus fishery," has a minimum fish size of 11.0 inches (27.94 cm), a 45-fish possession limit, and is constrained to a 45-day period within May 15 through October 15. The second party/charter season designation is the "non-bonus fishery," which carries an 11.0-inch (27.94-cm) minimum fish size, a 10-fish possession limit, and is 81 days in duration either prior to or following the dates of the open season. Due to low scup landings in NJ through NC, the Board approved the retention of status quo management measures for those states, i.e., a 10-inch (25.40-cm) minimum fish size, a 50-fish possession limit, and open seasons of January 1 through February 29 and September 18 through November 30.

Very little of the scup recreational harvest comes from the Federal waters of the EEZ. The average total scup recreational harvest from Federal waters for the years 1998–2007 is slightly over 6 percent. In 2007, the percentage was slightly over 2 percent. NMFS is proposing to implement the Council's non-preferred alternative of status quo for the 2009 fishing year: A 10.5-inch (26.67-cm) minimum fish size; a 15-fish per person possession limit; and open seasons of January 1 through February 28, and October 1 through October 31, 2009. While these measures may result in a minor increase in 2009 scup recreational landings, the majority of landings will occur from state waters where NMFS has no jurisdiction. The state or Federal combined recreational landings are not likely to result in the scup stock being overfished or to result in overfishing.

Black Sea Bass

Recreational landings in 2008 were estimated to have been 1.27 million lb (576 mt)—40 percent below the 2008 target of 2.11 million lb (957 mt) but 10.5 percent above the 2009 target of 1.137 million lb (516 mt). The 2009 recreational harvest limit of 1.137 million lb (516 mt) is a 46.1-percent decrease from the 2008 target. Based on 2008 estimated landings, a 10-percent reduction in coastwide landings is necessary to achieve the 2009 target.

For Federal waters, the Council and Board have recommended measures that would increase the 12.0-inch (30.48-cm) minimum fish size from 2008 to 12.5 inches (31.75 cm) in 2009 and maintain the status quo 25-fish possession limit and open season of January 1 through December 31, 2009. NMFS proposes to implement the Council and Board recommended measures, which are expected to constrain recreational black sea bass landings to the 2009 target.

Classification

Pursuant to section 304 (b)(1)(A) of the Magnuson-Stevens Act, the Assistant Administrator has determined that this proposed rule is consistent with the Summer Flounder, Scup, and Black Sea Bass FMP, other provisions of the Magnuson-Stevens Act, and other applicable law, subject to further consideration after public comment.

This proposed rule has been determined to be not significant for purposes of Executive Order 12866.

An IRFA was prepared, as required by section 603 of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (RFA). The IRFA describes the economic impact this proposed rule, if adopted, would have on small entities. A description of the action, why it is being considered, and the legal basis for this action are contained at the beginning of this section of the preamble and in the SUMMARY. A summary of the analysis follows. A copy of the complete IRFA is available from the Council (see ADDRESSES).

This proposed rule does not duplicate, overlap, or conflict with other Federal rules.

The proposed action could affect any recreational angler who fishes for summer flounder, scup, or black sea bass in the EEZ or on a party/charter vessel issued a Federal permit for summer flounder, scup, and/or black sea bass. However, the IRFA focuses upon the impacts on party/charter vessels issued a Federal permit for summer flounder, scup, and/or black sea bass, because these vessels are considered small entities for the purposes of the RFA, i.e., businesses in the recreational fishery with gross revenues of up to $6.5 million. These small entities can be specifically identified in the Federal vessel permit database and would be impacted by the recreational measures, regardless of whether they fish in Federal or state waters. Although individual recreational anglers are likely to be impacted, they are not considered small entities under the RFA. Also, there is no permit requirement to participate in these fisheries; thus, it would be difficult to quantify any impacts on recreational anglers in general.

The Council estimated that the proposed measures could affect any of the 962 vessels possessing a Federal charter/party permit for summer flounder, scup, and/or black sea bass in 2007, the most recent year for which complete permit data are available. However, only 342 of these vessels reported active participation in the recreational summer flounder, scup, and/or black sea bass fisheries in 2007.

In the IRFA, the no-action alternative (i.e., maintenance of the regulations as codified) is defined as implementation of the following: (1) For summer flounder, coastwide measures of a 20-inch (50.8-cm) minimum fish size, a 2-fish possession limit, and a season from May 1 through September 30, i.e., the Federal regulatory measure that would be implemented if conservation equivalency is not implemented in the final rule; (2) for scup, a 10.5-inch (26.67-cm) minimum fish size, a 15-fish possession limit, and open seasons of January 1 through February 28, and October 1 through October 31; and (3) for black sea bass, a 12-inch (30.48-cm) minimum size, a 25-fish possession limit, and an open season of January 1 through December 31.

The no-action alternative for scup is the same (status quo) set of measures being proposed for 2009. As such, since there is no regulatory change being proposed for scup, there is no further discussion of the economic impacts within this section.

The impacts of the proposed action on small entities (i.e., federally permitted party/charter vessels in each state in the Northeast region) was analyzed, assessing potential changes in gross revenues for all 18 combinations of alternatives proposed. Although NMFS's RFA guidance recommends assessing changes in profitability as a result of proposed measures, the quantitative impacts were instead evaluated using changes in party/charter vessel revenues as a proxy for profitability. This is because reliable cost and revenue information is not available for charter/party vessels at this time. Without reliable cost and revenue data, profits cannot be discriminated from gross revenues. As reliable cost data become available, impacts to profitability can be more accurately forecast. Similarly, changes to long-term solvency were not assessed due both to the absence of cost data and because the recreational management measures change annually according to the specification-setting process. Effects of the various management measures were analyzed by employing quantitative approaches, to the extent possible. Where quantitative data were not available, qualitative analyses were utilized. Management measures proposed under the summer flounder conservation equivalency alternative (Summer Flounder Alternative 1) have yet to be adopted; therefore, potential losses under this alternative could not be analyzed in conjunction with various alternatives proposed for scup and black sea bass. Since conservation equivalency allows each state to tailor specific recreational fishing measures to the needs of that state, while still achieving conservation goals, it is likely that the measures developed under this alternative, when considered in combination with the measures proposed for scup and black sea bass, would have fewer overall adverse effects than any of the other combinations that were analyzed.

Impacts for other combinations of alternatives were examined by first estimating the number of angler trips aboard party/charter vessels in each state in 2008 that would have been affected by the proposed 2009 management measures. All 2008 party/charter fishing trips that would have been constrained by the proposed 2009 measures in each state were considered to be affected trips. MRFSS data indicate that anglers took 37.49 million fishing trips in 2008 in the Northeast U.S., and that party/charter anglers accounted for 5 percent of the angler fishing trips, private/rental boat trips accounted for 51 percent of angler fishing trips, and shore trips accounted for 44 percent of recreational angler fishing trips. The number of party/charter trips in each state ranged from 36,566 in DE to 335,740 in NJ (excluding ME and NH).

There is very little empirical evidence available to estimate how the party/charter vessel anglers might be affected by the proposed fishing regulations. If the proposed measures discourage trip-taking behavior among some of the affected anglers, economic losses may accrue to the party/charter vessel industry in the form of reduced access fees. On the other hand, if the proposed measures do not have a negative impact on the value or satisfaction the affected anglers derive from their fishing trips, party/charter revenues would remain unaffected by this action. In an attempt to estimate the potential changes in gross revenues to the party/charter vessel industry in each state, two hypothetical scenarios were considered:

A 25-percent reduction, and a 50-percent reduction, in the number of fishing trips that are predicted to be affected by implementation of the management measures in the Northeast (ME through NC) in 2009.

Total economic losses to party/charter vessels were then estimated by multiplying the number of potentially affected trips in each state in 2009, under the two hypothetical scenarios, by the estimated average access fee of $60.86¹ paid by party/charter anglers in the Northeast in 2007. Finally, total economic losses were divided by the number of federally permitted party/charter vessels that participated in the summer flounder fisheries in 2007 in each state (according to homeport state in the Northeast Region Permit Database) to obtain an estimate of the average projected gross revenue loss per party/charter vessel in 2009. The analysis assumed that angler effort and catch rates in 2009 will be similar to 2008.

The Council noted that this method is likely to overestimate the potential revenue losses that would result from implementation of the proposed measures in these three fisheries for several reasons. First, the analysis likely overestimates the potential revenue impacts of these measures because some anglers would continue to take party/charter vessel trips, even if the restrictions limit their landings. Also, some anglers may engage in catch and release fishing and/or target other species. It was not possible to estimate the sensitivity of anglers to specific management measures. Second, the universe of party/charter vessels that participate in the fisheries is likely to be even larger than presented in these analyses, as party/charter vessels that do not possess a Federal summer flounder, scup, or black sea bass permit because they fish only in state waters are not represented in the analyses. Considering the large proportion of landings from state waters (e.g., more than 90 percent of summer flounder and 94 percent of scup landings in 2007, respectively), it is probable that some party/charter vessels fish only in state waters and, thus, do not hold Federal permits for these fisheries. Third, economic losses are estimated under two hypothetical scenarios: (1) A 25-percent and (2) a 50-percent reduction in the number of fishing trips that are predicted to be affected by implementation of the management measures in the Northeast in 2009. Reductions in fishing effort of this magnitude in 2009 are not likely to occur, given the fact that the proposed measures do not prohibit anglers from keeping at least some of the fish they catch, or the fact that there are alternative species to harvest. Again, it is likely that at least some of the potentially affected anglers would not reduce their effort when faced with the proposed landings restrictions, thereby contributing to the potential overestimation of potential impacts for 2009.

Impacts of Summer Flounder Alternatives

The proposed action for the summer flounder recreational fishery would limit coastwide catch to 7.16 million lb (3,247 mt) by imposing coastwide Federal measures throughout the EEZ. As described earlier, upon confirmation that the proposed state measures would achieve conservation equivalency, NMFS may waive the permit condition found at § 648.4(b), which requires federally permitted vessels to comply with the more restrictive management measures when state and Federal measures differ. Federally permitted charter/party permit holders and recreational vessels fishing for summer flounder in the EEZ then would be subject to the recreational fishing measures implemented by the state in which they land summer flounder, rather than the coastwide measures.

The impact of the proposed summer flounder conservation equivalency alternative (in Summer Flounder Alternative 1) among states is likely to be similar to the level of landings reductions that are required of each state. As indicated above, each state except DE, VA, and NC would be required to reduce summer flounder landings in 2009, relative to state 2008 landings, by the percentages shown in Table 1 of the preamble of this proposed rule. If the preferred conservation equivalency alternative is effective at achieving the recreational harvest limit, then it is likely to be the only alternative that minimizes adverse economic impacts, to the extent practicable, yet achieves the biological objectives of the FMP. Because states have a choice, it is expected that the states would adopt conservation equivalent measures that result in fewer adverse economic impacts than the more restrictive Commission adopted, NMFS proposed precautionary default measures (i.e., 21.5-inch (54.61-cm) minimum fish size, a possession limit of one fish, and an open season of July 4 through September 7). Under the precautionary default measures, impacted trips are defined as trips taken in 2008 that landed at least one summer flounder smaller than 21.5 inches (54.61 cm) or landed summer flounder during closed seasons. The analysis concluded that implementation of precautionary default measures could affect 3.0 percent of the party/charter vessel trips in the Northeast, including those trips where no summer flounder were caught.

The impacts of the NMFS proposed summer flounder coastwide alternative, i.e., a 20-inch (50.80-cm) minimum fish size, a two-fish possession limit, and a fishing season from May 1 through September 30, were evaluated using the quantitative method described above. Impacted trips were defined as individual angler trips taken aboard party/charter vessels in 2008 that landed at least one summer flounder smaller than 20 inches (50.80 cm), that landed more than two summer flounder, or landed summer flounder during closed seasons. The analysis concluded that the measures would affect 0.69 percent of the party/charter vessel trips in the Northeast, including those trips where no summer flounder were caught.

Continuation of the current regulatory summer flounder coastwide management measures (i.e., a 19-inch (48.26-cm) minimum fish size, two-fish possession limit, and a May 23 through September 1 fishing season) is not expected to constrain 2009 landings to the recreational harvest limit; therefore, continuation of those measures would be inconsistent with the summer flounder rebuilding program, the FMP, and the Magnuson-Stevens Act.

Impacts of Black Sea Bass Alternatives

The proposed action for the black sea bass recreational fishery would limit coastwide catch to 1.14 million lb (516 mt) by imposing coastwide Federal measures throughout the EEZ. The impact of the Council and Commission preferred black sea bass alternative (Black Sea Bass Alternative 1; a 12.5-inch (31.75-cm) minimum fish size, a 25-fish per person possession limit, and an open season of January 1–December 31, 2009) would reduce black sea bass landings by 12 percent in 2009 from 2008 levels. Impacted trips were defined as trips taken in 2008 that landed at least one black sea bass smaller than 12.5 inches (31.75 cm) or landed more than 25 black sea bass. Analysis concluded that 0.52 percent of federally permitted party/charter vessel trips could be impacted by this alternative.

The impacts of the non-preferred black sea bass coastwide alternative for status quo (Black Sea Bass Alternative 2; 12.0-inch (30.87-cm) minimum fish size, 25-fish per person possession limit, and no closed season) is not expected to constrain 2009 landings to the recreational harvest limit; therefore, continuation of those measures in Federal waters would be inconsistent with the FMP and the Magnuson-Stevens Act.

Black Sea Bass Alternative 3, (a 12.0-inch (30.87-cm) minimum fish size, 25-fish per person possession limit, and closed fishing season from May 16–June 14, 2009) would reduce landings by 13.3 percent. This is the most restrictive alternative analyzed by the Council. Implementation of this alternative would result in a greater reduction than is required for the 2009 recreational black sea bass fishery.

Regionally, projected federally permitted party/charter revenue losses in 2009 range from $1.20 million to $5.72 million in sales, $440,000 to $1.94 million in income, and between 38 and 192 jobs, if a 25-percent reduction in the number of affected trips occurs. The estimated losses are approximately twice as high if a 50-percent reduction in affected trips is assumed to occur.

Potential revenue losses in 2009 could differ for federally permitted party/charter vessels that land more than one of the regulated species. The cumulative maximum gross revenue loss per vessel varies by the combination of permits held and by state. All 18 potential combinations of management alternatives for summer flounder, scup, and black sea bass are predicted to affect party/charter vessel revenues to some extent in all of the northeastern coastal states. Although potential losses were estimated for party/charter vessels operating out of ME and NH, these results are suppressed for confidentiality purposes. Average party/charter losses for federally permitted vessels operating in the remaining states are estimated to vary across the 18 combinations of alternatives. For example, in MD, average losses are predicted to range from a high of $7,068 per vessel to a low of $1,860 per vessel, assuming a 25-percent reduction in effort, as described above. Average gross revenue losses per vessel under each of the 18 combinations of alternatives were generally highest in NC followed by NY, MA, MD, NJ, RI, VA, CT, then DE.

Summary

The 2009 recreational harvest limits for summer flounder and scup are 15.3- and 41.5-percent higher, respectively, than the recreational harvest limits for year 2008. The 2009 black sea bass recreational harvest limit is 46 percent lower than the 2008 recreational harvest limit.

The 2008 summer flounder recreational fishery exceeded the recreational harvest limit by 31 percent. As a result, the proposed recreational management measures for summer flounder are likely to be more restrictive for 2009 (i.e., either larger minimum fish size, lower possession limits, and/or shorter fishing seasons) under the proposed conservation equivalency system (Summer Flounder Alternative 1) than those in place in 2008, given the magnitude of exceeding the previous year recreational harvest limit.

The scup recreational harvest limit was substantially increased for 2009. Action taken by the Commission to maintain status quo measures for state waters will result in landings that are similar to 2008. Only a very minor fraction of the recreational harvest limit is taken in the Federal waters of the EEZ. While retaining status quo measures for Federal waters may result in minor increases in scup recreational landings, over 95 percent of landings are expected to occur from state waters that are outside NMFS's jurisdiction. Given the revised stock status for scup, maintenance of the status quo is not expected to result in overfishing or moving the stock towards an overfished condition.

The proposed measures for black sea bass are more restrictive than the measures in place for 2008.

The proposed management measures, or management system in the case of conservation equivalency, were chosen because they allow for the maximum level of recreational landings, while allowing the NMFS to achieve the objectives of the FMP. Summer flounder conservation equivalency permits states to implement management measures tailored, to some degree, to meet the needs of their individual recreational fishery participants, provided the level of reduction is equal to the overall reduction needed coastwide, consistent with Framework Adjustment 2 to the FMP. The maintenance of scup status quo was selected because it will allow for a modest fishery in Federal waters while ensuring that overfishing does not occur in 2009. The majority of scup recreational harvest occurs within state waters, beyond the jurisdiction of NMFS. The black sea bass management measures were selected as they are projected to permit the maximum amount of landings under the 2009 recreational harvest limit.

There are no new reporting or recordkeeping requirements contained in any of the alternatives considered for this action.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Additional Comment Procedures

Information on the REEO and Roadmap is available for review at <http://www.ree.usda.gov>. Written comments must be received by 5 p.m. EST, May 31, 2009, to be considered. All comments, when they become available, may be reviewed on the REE Web page for six months.

Background and Purpose

The preparation of the roadmap for agricultural research, education, and extension is mandated in section 7504 of the Food, Conservation, and Energy Act (FCEA) of 2008, (Pub. L. 110-246, 7 U.S.C. 7614a. The Secretary, acting through the Under Secretary for Research, Education, and Extension (Under Secretary), will prepare the Roadmap. The Secretary will implement and use the Roadmap to set the agricultural research, education, and extension agenda of the Department of Agriculture.

The Under Secretary is also the Chief Scientist for USDA, responsible for the coordination of the research, education, and extension activities of the Department. [7 U.S.C. 6971(c)]. The Research, Education, and Extension Office (REEO) recently organized within the Office of the Under Secretary is the office that provides such coordination, per 7 U.S.C. #6971(e)(1). Therefore the Office of the Chief Scientist and Under Secretary is inviting input on the Roadmap to be provided to the REEO by all interested parties from the Federal Government and nongovernmental entities.

The Roadmap will identify current trends and constraints and major opportunities and gaps that no single entity within the Department of Agriculture would be able to address individually. Stakeholder input is encouraged on any and all aspects of the development and implementation of the Roadmap, including responses to the following questions:

1. What types of current and future critical issues (including those affecting citizens, communities and natural resources) does agriculture face that no USDA entity could address individually?
2. What criteria should USDA use to prioritize agricultural science (i.e., research, education, and extension) investments to address these issues?
3. How might USDA better coordinate agricultural sciences among its various agencies and with its partners?
4. What are some examples where agricultural sciences are successfully coordinated for maximum benefit? Why are they successful?
5. What are some examples where agricultural sciences are not coordinated effectively? Why is coordination lacking? What are the barriers?
6. What else might USDA do to improve coordination of science; enhance USDA's ability to identify issues and prioritize investments; and elevate its role in science implementation and coordination?

Implementation Plans

The Under Secretary and the REEO plan to consider stakeholder input received from written comments in developing the Roadmap. The Secretary will make the Roadmap available to the public, with an expected publication date of not later than September 16, 2009.

Done at Washington, DC, this 4th day of March, 2009.

Katherine Smith,

Acting Deputy Under Secretary, Research, Education, and Economics.

Commodity Credit Corporation

RIN 0560-AH60

Farm Storage Facility Loan Program; Public Meetings

AGENCY: Commodity Credit Corporation and Farm Service Agency, USDA.

ACTION: Notice of public meetings and request for comments.

SUMMARY: The Farm Service Agency (FSA), on behalf of the Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC), is holding public meetings to solicit comments on the Farm Storage Facility Loan (FSFL) Program. The comments received at the public meetings will be considered in the development and preparation of a Programmatic Environmental Assessment (PEA) for FSFL. The purpose of the PEA is to assist in providing USDA decision-makers and the public with an analysis of the environmental benefits and potential impacts associated with implementing various changes to FSFL consistent with the Food, Conservation and Energy Act of 2008 (the 2008 Farm Bill). CCC administers the FSFL program and is now conducting a comprehensive review of the current policies, achievements, and potential future program changes. The meetings provide an opportunity for the public to voice any concerns they may have about the program and any ideas for improving it in the future consistent with the 2008 Farm Bill.

DATES: Public meetings: The public meetings will be held on April 14, 2009, Kansas City, KS, and April 15, 2009, Cleveland, OH.

Comments: We will consider comments that we receive by May 13, 2009. We will consider comments submitted after that date, to the extent possible.

ADDRESSES: We invite you to submit comments on the Farm Storage Facility Loan Program and to participate in the public meetings. The public meeting locations are:

1. Kansas City—Hilton Garden Inn Kansas City (McCarthy Gallery), 520 Minnesota Avenue, Kansas City, KS 66101.

2. Cleveland—Hilton Garden Inn Cleveland Downtown (Edison 1 Room), 1100 Carnegie Avenue, Cleveland OH 44115.

You may also submit comments by any of the following methods:

- Mail: FSFL PEA, Geo-Marine Incorporated, 2713 Magruder Blvd., Suite D, Hampton, VA 23666-1572.
- Internet: Access <http://public.geo-marine.com>.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Matthew T. Ponish, National Environmental Compliance Manager, USDA, FSA, CEPD, Stop 0513, 1400 Independence Ave., SW., Washington, DC 20250-0513, (202) 720-6853, or e-mail at: Matthew.Ponish@wdc.usda.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The FSFL program provides, through the FSA county offices, low-interest loans to eligible producers for constructing on-farm storage facilities for the commodities they produce. Since the FSFL Program was reestablished in May 2000, FSA has disbursed $731,453,541.46 in facility loans to over 18,600 producers to build or upgrade storage and handling facilities for 562,493,806 bushels of on-farm grain storage.

The 2008 Farm Bill (Pub. L. 110-246) includes several changes to the FSFL program. The 2008 Farm Bill adds hay and renewable biomass as eligible FSFL commodities; extends the maximum loan term to 12 years; increases the maximum loan amount to $500,000; and allows for one partial loan disbursement and the final disbursement. The 2008 Farm Bill also clarifies the loan security requirements. The 2008 Farm Bill gives the USDA Secretary discretionary authority to determine other eligible commodities. CCC is looking into the following questions and options:

- Defining the eligible structures for new commodities,
- Handling portions of FSFL structures not used for FSFL storage,
- Defining the purpose of FSFL facilities, and
- Further securing loans with no resale collateral value.

Changes to the FSFL program will be implemented through rulemaking. More detailed information on FSFL is available on FSA's Web site at: <http://www.fsa.usda.gov/FSA/webapp?area=home&subject=prsu&topic=flp-fp>.

Public Participation

To increase public involvement and provide additional opportunities to comment, FSA is holding two public scoping meetings to provide information and opportunities for discussing the issues and the proposed alternatives to be covered in the PEA. Consistent with the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA), 42 U.S.C. 4321-4347, the PEA will analyze the environmental benefits and potential impacts associated with implementing the changes to FSFL as required by the 2008 Farm Bill. The two National meetings will be held on the following dates and locations:

Date	Time	Location information
April 14, 2009	5-8 p.m.	Hilton Garden Inn Kansas City in the McCarthy Gallery, 520 Minnesota Avenue, Kansas City, Kansas 66101; Phone 913-342-7900; Free parking.

Additional information about the public scoping meetings, including directions and how to provide comments, is available at: <http://public.geo-marine.com>.

A Final Programmatic Environmental Assessment (PEA) will be available from FSA or Geo-Marine Incorporated using the contact information included above.

As explained in Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Proceedings: Assessment of Antidumping Duties, 68 FR 23954 (May 6, 2003), the Department has clarified its practice with respect to the collection of final antidumping duties on imports of merchandise where intermediate firms are involved. The public should be aware of this clarification in determining whether to request an administrative review of merchandise subject to antidumping findings and orders. See also the Import Administration web site at <http://ia.ita.doc.gov>.

Six copies of the request should be submitted to the Assistant Secretary for Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Room 1870, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street & Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20230. The Department also asks parties to serve a copy of their requests to the Office of Antidumping/Countervailing Operations, Attention: Sheila Forbes, in room 3065 of the main Commerce Building. Further, in accordance with section 351.303(f)(1)(i) of the regulations, a copy of each request must be served on every party on the Department's service list.

The Department will publish in the Federal Register a notice of "Initiation of Administrative Review of Antidumping or Countervailing Duty Order, Finding, or Suspended Investigation" for requests received by the last day of April 2009. If the Department does not receive, by the last day of April 2009, a request for review of entries covered by an order, finding, or suspended investigation listed in this notice and for the period identified above, the Department will instruct the CBP to assess antidumping or countervailing duties on those entries at a rate equal to the cash deposit of (or bond for) estimated antidumping or countervailing duties required on those entries at the time of entry, or withdrawal from warehouse, for consumption and to continue to collect the cash deposit previously ordered.

This notice is not required by statute but is published as a service to the international trading community.

Dated: March 19, 2009.

John M. Andersen,
Acting Deputy Assistant Secretary for Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Operations.

Certain Preserved Mushrooms from the People's Republic of China: Preliminary Results of Antidumping Duty New Shipper Reviews

EFFECTIVE DATE: April 1, 2009.

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce (the Department) is currently conducting new shipper reviews (NSRs) of the antidumping duty order on certain preserved mushrooms from the People's Republic of China (PRC)¹ covering the period of review February 1, 2008, through July 31, 2008. We preliminarily determine that the sales made by Zhangzhou Gangchang Canned Foods Co., Ltd., Fujian (Zhangzhou Gangchang)² and by Zhejiang Iceman Group Co., Ltd. (Zhejiang Iceman), were not made below normal value (NV). If these preliminary results are adopted in our final results of this review, we will instruct U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) to assess antidumping duties on entries of subject merchandise during the period of review (POR) for any importer-specific assessment rates that are above de minimis.

² Based on the name by which Zhangzhou Gangchang identified itself in its request for new shipper review, the Department initiated the review for this company under the name Zhangzhou Gangchang Canned Foods Co., Ltd. See Certain Preserved Mushrooms from the People's Republic of China: Notice of Initiation of Antidumping Duty New Shipper Reviews, 73 FR 57333 (October 2, 2008). However, Zhangzhou Gangchang subsequently stated that its name is actually Zhangzhou Gangchang Canned Foods Co., Ltd., Fujian. See Zhangzhou Gangchang's January 16, 2009, submission at 8. Record evidence supports Zhangzhou Gangchang's contention. See Zhangzhou Gangchang's November 6, 2008, submission at Exhibit A-4. Therefore in this and subsequent notices we refer to Zhangzhou Gangchang by its correct name.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On August 21, 2008, pursuant to section 751(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Tariff Act), and 19 CFR 351.214(c), the Department received a NSR request from Zhejiang Iceman. On August 22, 2008, we received a NSR request from Zhangzhou Gangchang, also pursuant to 751(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Tariff Act the 19 CFR 351.214(c). The Department determined that both of these requests had not been properly filed, and therefore returned them on August 26, 2008. On August 29, 2008, both companies resubmitted their requests. They both certified that they are the producers and exporters of the subject merchandise upon which the requests were based.

On October 2, 2008, the Department initiated antidumping duty NSRs on certain preserved mushrooms from the PRC covering the two companies. See Certain Preserved Mushrooms from the People's Republic of China: Notice of Initiation of Antidumping Duty New Shipper Reviews, 73 FR 57333 (October 2, 2008) (Initiation Notice).

On October 8, 2008, the Department issued its standard antidumping questionnaire to both Zhejiang Iceman and Zhangzhou Gangchang. Between November 2008 and February 2009, Zhejiang Iceman and Zhangzhou Gangchang submitted responses to the original sections A, C, and D questionnaires and supplemental sections A, C, and D questionnaires.

On November 3, 2008, the Department sent interested parties a letter requesting comments on surrogate country selection and information pertaining to valuing factors of production (FOP). On February 17, 2009, Zhejiang Iceman and Zhangzhou Gangchang submitted surrogate value data. No other party submitted surrogate country or surrogate value data.

Scope of the Order

The products covered by this order are certain preserved mushrooms, whether imported whole, sliced, diced, or as stems and pieces. The certain preserved mushrooms covered under this order are the species Agaricus bisporus and Agaricus bitorquis.

"Certain Preserved Mushrooms" refers to mushrooms that have been prepared or preserved by cleaning, blanching, and sometimes slicing or cutting. These mushrooms are then packed and heated in containers including, but not limited to, cans or glass jars in a suitable liquid medium, including, but not limited to, water, brine, butter or butter sauce.

Certain preserved mushrooms may be imported whole, sliced, diced, or as stems and pieces. Included within the scope of this order are “brined” mushrooms, which are presalted and packed in a heavy salt solution to provisionally preserve them for further processing.³

Excluded from the scope of this order are the following: (1) All other species of mushroom, including straw mushrooms; (2) all fresh and chilled mushrooms, including “refrigerated” or “quick blanched mushrooms”; (3) dried mushrooms; (4) frozen mushrooms; and (5) “marinated,” “acidified,” or “pickled” mushrooms, which are prepared or preserved by means of vinegar or acetic acid, but may contain oil or other additives.

The merchandise subject to this order is classifiable under subheadings: 2003.10.0127, 2003.10.0131, 2003.10.0137, 2003.10.0143, 2003.10.0147, 2003.10.0153 and 0711.51.0000 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS). Although the HTSUS subheadings are provided for convenience and Customs purposes, the written description of the scope of this order is dispositive.

Non-Market Economy Country Status

In every case conducted by the Department involving the PRC, we have treated the PRC as a non-market economy (NME) country. In accordance with section 771(18)(C)(i) of the Tariff Act, any determination that a foreign country is an NME country shall remain in effect until revoked by the administering authority. See Brake Rotors From the People's Republic of China: Final Results and Partial Rescission of the 2004/2005 Administrative Review and Notice of Rescission of 2004/2005 New Shipper Review, 71 FR 66304 (November 14, 2006). None of the parties to this proceeding have contested such treatment. Accordingly, we calculated normal value (NV) in accordance with section 773(c) of the Tariff Act, which applies to NME countries.

Affiliation

Section 771(33) of the Tariff Act provides that the following persons shall be considered to be “affiliated” or “affiliated persons”: (A) Members of a family, including brothers and sisters (whether by the whole or half blood), spouse, ancestors, and lineal descendants; (B) Any officer or director of an organization and such organization; (C) Partners; (D) Employer and employee; (E) Any person directly or indirectly owning, controlling, or holding with power to vote, 5 percent or more of the outstanding voting stock or shares of any organization and such organization; (F) Two or more persons directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, any person; or (G) Any person who controls any other person and such other person. The Act further provides that “a person shall be considered to control another person if the person is legally or operationally in a position to exercise restraint or direction over the other person.” Id.

The Statement of Administrative Action (SAA) to the Uruguay Round Agreements Act states the following: the traditional focus on control through stock ownership fails to address adequately modern business arrangements, which often find one firm “operationally in a position to exercise restraint or direction” over another even in the absence of an equity relationship. A company may be in a position to exercise restraint or direction, for example, through corporate or family groupings, franchises or joint venture agreements, debt financing, or close supplier relationships in which the supplier or buyer becomes reliant upon the other.⁴

Section 351.102(b)(3) of the Department’s regulations defines affiliated persons and affiliated parties as having the same meaning as in section 771(33) of the Act and states that: “In determining whether control over another person exists, within the meaning of section 771(33) of the Act, the Secretary will consider the following factors, among others: corporate or family groupings; franchise or joint venture agreements; debt financing; and close supplier relationships. The Secretary will not find that control exists on the basis of these factors unless the relationship has the potential to impact decisions concerning the production, pricing, or cost of the subject merchandise or foreign like product. The Secretary will consider the temporal aspect of a relationship in determining whether control exists; normally, temporary circumstances will not suffice as evidence of control.”

To the extent that section 771(33) of the Tariff Act does not conflict with the Department’s application of separate rates and enforcement of the non-market economy provision, pursuant to section 773(c) of the Tariff Act, the Department will determine that exporters and/or producers are affiliated if the facts of the case support such a finding. For the reasons discussed below, we find that this condition has not prevented us from examining whether certain producers are affiliated with Zhejiang Iceman in this administrative review.

The record of this NSR demonstrates that Zhejiang Iceman Group Co. Ltd. (Zhejiang Iceman) and Dangshan Xincheng Foods Co. Ltd. (Dangshan) are affiliated, pursuant to section 771(33)(E) of the Act. See Memorandum from Robert James, Program Manager, to Richard Weible, Office Director, entitled “Certain Preserved Mushrooms from the People’s Republic of China: Affiliation and Collapsing of Zhejiang Iceman Group Co. Ltd. and Dangshan Xincheng Foods Co., Ltd.”, dated March 25, 2009 (Collapsing Memorandum). Zhejiang Iceman directly owns greater than 5 percent of the voting shares of Dangshan. See Collapsing Memorandum at pages 3 and 4. Also, both of Zhejiang Iceman’s owners, Mr. Shen Ronglu, and his wife, Mrs. Xiang Ping, collectively own 100 percent of the shares of Zhejiang Iceman, and directly own greater than 5 percent of the voting shares of Dangshan. Id. Record evidence also shows Zhejiang Iceman and Dangshan are under the common control of Mr. Shen Ronglu, and are, therefore affiliated under section 771(33)(F) of the Tariff act. Id. Zhejiang Iceman also claims it is controlled by its owner, Mr. Shen Ronglu, who is also the general manager of Zhejiang Iceman. Id. Zhejiang Iceman also claims Shen Ronglu has sole authority to bind both Zhejiang Icemen and Dangshan in agreements. Id. Further, record evidence shows that both Mr. Shen Ronglu, and his wife, Mrs. Xiang Ping, are affiliated as members of a family under section 771(33)(A) of the Tariff Act. Id.

Based on our analysis, we preliminarily find that, during the POR, producer/exporter Zhejiang Iceman and Dangshan were, in fact, affiliated through the common ownership and control of Zhejiang Iceman’s and Dangshan’s joint owners (who are affiliated as family members under 771(33)(A)) and pursuant to sections 771(33)(E) and (F) of the Tariff Act. For further discussion on this matter, see Collapsing Memorandum.

Collapsing

Pursuant to 19 CFR 351.401(f), the Department will collapse producers and treat them as a single entity where (1) those producers are affiliated, (2) the producers have production facilities for producing similar or identical products that would not require substantial retooling of either facility in order to restructure manufacturing priorities, and (3) there is a significant potential for manipulation of price or production.

To the extent that this provision does not conflict with the Department's application of separate rates and enforcement of the NME provision, section 773(c) of the Tariff Act, the Department will collapse two or more affiliated entities in a case involving an NME country if the facts of the case warrant such treatment. Furthermore, we note the factors listed in 19 CFR 351.401(f)(2) are not exhaustive, and in the context of an NME investigation or administrative review, other factors unique to the relationship of business entities within the NME may lead the Department to determine that collapsing is either warranted or unwarranted, depending on the facts of the case. See Hontex Enterprises, Inc. v. United States, 248 F. Supp. 2d 1323, 1342 (CIT 2003) (noting that the application of collapsing in the NME context may differ from the standard factors listed in the regulation).

In summary, if there is evidence of significant potential for manipulation between or among affiliates which produce and/or export similar or identical merchandise, whether or not all such merchandise is exported to the United States, the Department may find such evidence sufficient to apply the collapsing criteria in an NME context in order to determine whether all or some of those affiliates should be treated as one entity (see Certain Hot-Rolled Carbon Steel Flat Products from the People's Republic of China, Preliminary Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value, 66 FR 22183 (May 3, 2001); Notice of Final Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value: Certain Hot-Rolled Carbon Steel Flat Products from the People's Republic of China, 66 FR 49632 (September 28, 2001) (Certain Hot-Rolled Carbon Steel Flat Products); and Anshan Iron & Steel Co. v. United States, 27 C.I.T. 1234, 1246–47 (CIT 2003) (Anshan)).

The decision of whether to collapse two or more affiliated companies is specific to the facts presented in the proceeding and is based on several considerations, including the structure of the collapsed entity, the level of control between and among affiliates, and the level of participation by each affiliate in the proceeding. Given the unique relationships which arise in NMEs between individual companies and the government, a separate rate will be granted to the collapsed entity only if the facts, taken as a whole, support such a finding (see "Separate Rates" section below for further discussion).

We find that the first and second collapsing criteria are met with respect to Zhejiang Iceman and Dangshan because these producers are (1) affiliated under sections 771(33)(A), 771(33)(E), and 771(33)(F) of the Tariff Act, and (2) have production facilities for producing similar or identical products, such that no retooling at either of the three facilities would be required in order to restructure manufacturing priorities. Evidence on the record shows Zhejiang Iceman and Dangshan have production facilities which were suitable for producing the type of merchandise under consideration during the POR. Both Zhejiang Iceman and Dangshan did, in fact, produce the merchandise under consideration at these facilities during the POR. See Collapsing Memorandum at pages 4 and 5.

We find the third collapsing criterion is also met with respect to Zhejiang Iceman and Dangshan because a significant potential for manipulation of prices or production exists. In identifying a significant potential for the manipulation of price or production, the factors the Secretary may consider include: (i) the level of common ownership; (ii) the extent to which managerial employees or board members of one firm sit on the board of directors of an affiliated firm; (iii) and whether operations are intertwined, such as through the sharing of sales information, involvement in production and pricing decisions, the sharing of facilities or employees, or significant transactions between the affiliated producers. See 19 CFR 351.401(f)(2).

With regard to the criteria enumerated in 19 CFR 351.401(f)(2), there is common ownership and control of Zhejiang Iceman and Dangshan by both Mr. Shen Ronglu and Mrs. Xiang Ping. Because the individuals who collectively own and control Zhejiaing Iceman also collectively own and control Dangshan, we can preliminarily collapse these affiliated producers. Additionally, Mr. Shen Ronglu is the executive director and general manager of Zhejiang Iceman and has sole authority to bind both Zhejiang Iceman and Dangshan in agreements and, as a result, can manipulate prices and production. For these reasons, we find there is significant potential for manipulation of prices or production and, therefore, collapsing of Zhejiang Iceman and Dangshan is appropriate.

Based on the reasons explained fully in the Collapsing Memorandum and pursuant to 19 CFR 351.401(f), we have preliminarily collapsed Zhejiang Iceman and Dangshan because they are affiliated producers of the merchandise under consideration, and because there is a significant potential for manipulation of prices and production decisions between these parties. For all relevant purposes, all subsequent references in this notice to Zhejiang Iceman will be to the collapsed entity that includes Dangshan.

This decision is specific to the facts presented in this review and is based on several considerations, including the structure of the collapsed entity, the level of control between and among affiliates, and the level of participation by each affiliate in the proceeding. Given the unique relationships which arise in NMEs between individual companies and the government, a separate rate will be granted to the collapsed entity only if the facts, taken as a whole, support such a finding (see "Separate Rates" section below for further discussion).

Separate Rates Determination

A designation of a country as an NME remains in effect until it is revoked by the Department. See section 771(18)(C) of the Tariff Act. Accordingly, there is a rebuttable presumption that all companies within the PRC are subject to government control, and thus should be assessed a single antidumping duty rate. It is the Department's policy to assign all exporters of the merchandise subject to review in NME countries a single rate unless an exporter can affirmatively demonstrate an absence of government control, both in law (de jure) and in fact (de facto), with respect to exports. To establish whether a company is sufficiently independent to be entitled to a separate, company-specific rate, the Department analyzes each exporting entity in an NME country under the test established in the Final Determination of Sales at Less than Fair Value: Sparklers from the People's Republic of China, 56 FR 20588 (May 6, 1991), (Sparklers) as amplified by the Notice of Final Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value: Silicon Carbide from the People's Republic of China, 59 FR 22585 (May 2, 1994) (Silicon Carbide).

Absence of De Jure Control

Evidence supporting, though not requiring, a finding of de jure absence of government control over export activities includes: (1) an absence of restrictive stipulations associated with the individual exporter's business and export licenses; (2) any legislative enactments decentralizing control of companies; and (3) any other formal measures by the government decentralizing control of companies. See Sparklers, 56 FR at 20589. In this new shipper review, Zhejiang Iceman and Zhangzhou Gangchang submitted complete responses to the separate rates section of the Department's questionnaire. The evidence submitted in the instant review by Zhejiang Iceman and Zhangzhou Gangchang includes government laws and regulations on corporate ownership and control (i.e., the Company Law and the Foreign Trade Law of the People's Republic of China), individual business licenses, and narrative information regarding the companies' operations and selection of management. The evidence provided by Zhejiang Iceman and Zhangzhou Gangchang supports a preliminary finding of a de jure absence of government control over its export activities because: (1) there are no controls on exports of subject merchandise, such as quotas applied to, or licenses required for, exports of the subject merchandise to the United States; and (2) the government of the PRC has passed legislation decentralizing control of companies. See Zhejiang Iceman's November 6, 2008, submission at pages 2–10 and Exhibit A–4; Zhejiang Iceman's January 13, 2009, submission at pages 4–5; and Zhangzhou Gangchang's November 6, 2008, submission at pages 6–10 and Exhibit A–2.

Absence of De Facto Control

The absence of de facto government control over exports generally is based on whether the respondent: (1) sets its own export prices independent of the government and other exporters; (2) retains the proceeds from its export sales and makes independent decisions regarding the disposition of profits or financing of losses; (3) has the authority to negotiate and sign contracts and other agreements; and (4) has autonomy from the government regarding the selection of management. See Silicon Carbide, 59 FR at 22586–87; Sparklers, 56 FR at 20589; and Final Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value; Furfuryl Alcohol From the People's Republic of China, 60 FR 22544, 22545 (May 8, 1995).

In its November 6, 2008, submission, Zhangzhou Gangchang submitted evidence demonstrating an absence of de facto government control over its export activities. Specifically, this evidence indicates: (1) the company sets its own export prices independent of the government and without the approval of a government authority; (2) the company retains the proceeds from its sales and makes independent decisions regarding the disposition of profits or financing of losses; (3) the company has a general manager and a sales manager with the authority to negotiate and bind the company in an agreement; (4) the general manager is selected by the board of directors, and the general manager appoints the manager of each department; and (5) there is no restriction on the company's use of export revenues. Therefore, we preliminarily find that Zhangzhou Gangchang has established prima facie that it qualifies for a separate rate under the criteria established by Silicon Carbide and Sparklers.

Similarly, in its November 6, 2008, January 13, 2009, and February 17, 2009 submissions, Zhejiang Iceman also submitted evidence demonstrating an absence of de facto government control over its export activities. Specifically, this evidence indicates: (1) the company sets its own export prices independent of the government and without the approval of a government authority; (2) the company retains the proceeds from its sales and makes independent decisions regarding the disposition of profits or financing of losses; (3) the company has an executive director who is also the general manager and who has the authority to negotiate and bind the company in an agreement; (4) the executive director and general manager and his wife collectively own all of the shares of company, and are self-appointed; (5) the executive director and general manager appoint all of the managers of the company; and (6) there is no restriction on the company's use of export revenues. Therefore, we preliminarily find that Zhejiang Iceman has established prima facie that it qualifies for a separate rate under the criteria established by Silicon Carbide and Sparklers.

Bona Fide Analysis

Consistent with the Department's practice, we investigated the bona fide nature of the sales made by Zhejiang Iceman and Zhangzhou Gangchang for these NSRs. We found the new shipper sales by Zhejiang Iceman and Zhangzhou Gangchang were made on a bona fide basis. Based on our investigation into the bona fide nature of the sales and the questionnaire responses submitted by Zhejiang Iceman and Zhangzhou Gangchang, as well as the companies' eligibility for separate rates (see "Separate Rates Determination" section (above)), we preliminarily determine that Zhejiang Iceman and Zhangzhou Gangchang have met the requirements to qualify as new shippers during this POR. Therefore, for purposes of these preliminary results of review, we are treating Zhejiang Iceman's and Zhangzhou Gangchang's sales of subject merchandise to the United States as appropriate transactions for these NSRs.⁵

Surrogate Country

When the Department is investigating imports from an NME country, section 773(c)(1) of the Tariff Act directs it to base NV, in most circumstances, on the NME producer's factors of production (FOPs), valued in a surrogate market economy country or countries considered to be appropriate by the Department. In accordance with section 773(c)(4) of the Tariff Act, in valuing the FOPs, the Department shall utilize, to the extent possible, the prices or costs of FOPs in one or more market economy countries that are: (1) at a level of economic development comparable to that of the NME country; and (2) significant producers of comparable merchandise.

The Department determined that India, Philippines, Colombia, Thailand, and Indonesia are countries comparable to the PRC in terms of economic development.⁶ Moreover, it is the Department's practice to select an appropriate surrogate country based on the availability and reliability of data from the countries. See Department Policy Bulletin No. 04.1: Non-Market Economy Surrogate Country Selection Process (March 1, 2004) (Surrogate Country Policy Bulletin). Since the less-than-fair-value investigation, we have determined that India is comparable to the PRC in terms of economic development and has surrogate value data that are available and reliable. In this proceeding, we received no comments regarding surrogate country selection. Since no information has been provided in this review that would warrant a change in the Department's selection of India from prior segments of this proceeding, we continue to find that India is the appropriate surrogate country here because it is at a similar level of economic development pursuant to section 773(c)(4) of the Tariff Act, is a significant producer of comparable merchandise, and has reliable, publicly available data representing a broad-market average. See Memorandum to the File, through Richard Weible, Office Director, and Robert James, Program manager, from Fred Baker, Analyst, Subject: Antidumping Duty New Shipper Review of Certain Preserved Mushrooms from the People's Republic of China: Selection of a Surrogate Country, dated March 25, 2009.

⁶ See Memorandum from Carole Showers, Acting Director, Office of Policy, to Richard Weible, Director, Office 7; Subject: Request for a List of Surrogate Countries for a 2008 New Shipper Review of the Antidumping Duty Order on Certain Preserved Mushrooms from the People's Republic of China, dated October 16, 2008.

In accordance with 19 CFR 351.301(c)(3)(ii), for the final results in a new shipper review, interested parties may submit publicly available information to value FOPs within 20 days after the date of publication of these preliminary results.

U.S. Price

In accordance with section 772(a) of the Tariff Act, we based U.S. prices on the export prices (EP) of the sales to the United States by Zhejiang Iceman and Zhangzhou Gangchang because their first sales to an unaffiliated party were made before the date of importation and the use of constructed export price was not otherwise warranted. We calculated EP based on the free-on-board (FOB) price to the first unaffiliated purchaser in the United States. We deducted foreign inland freight and foreign brokerage and handling from the starting price (or gross unit price), in accordance with section 772(c) of the Tariff Act. Both of these services were provided by NME vendors for both Zhejiang Iceman's and Zhangzhou Gangchang's U.S. sales. Therefore, we based the deduction of these movement charges on surrogate values.

We valued foreign inland freight (which consisted of truck freight) using a per-unit average rate calculated from data on the following website: <http://www.infobanc.com/logistics/logtruck.htm>. The logistics section of this web site contains inland freight truck rates between many large Indian cities. Since this value is not contemporaneous with the POR, we deflated the rate using the wholesale price index (WPI). See Memoranda to the File, "New Shipper Review of Certain Preserved Mushroom from the People's Republic of China: Surrogate Values for the Preliminary Results" (Zhangzhou Gangchang Surrogate Values Memorandum) at Exhibit 7, and "New Shipper Review of Certain Preserved Mushroom from the People's Republic of China: Surrogate Values for the Preliminary Results" (Zhejiang Iceman Surrogate Values Memorandum) at Exhibit X.

We valued foreign brokerage and handling with the publicly summarized brokerage and handling expense reported in the U.S. sales listing of Indian mushroom producer, Agro Dutch Industries, Ltd. (Agro Dutch), in the 2004–2005 administrative review of Certain Preserved Mushrooms from India. See Zhangzhou Gangchang Surrogate Values Memorandum at Exhibit 8 and Zhejiang Iceman Surrogate Values Memorandum at Exhibit XI.

Normal Value

1. Methodology

Section 773(c)(1)(B) of the Tariff Act provides that the Department shall determine the NV using an FOP methodology if the merchandise is exported from an NME and the information does not permit the calculation of NV using home-market prices, third-country prices, or constructed value under section 773(a) of the Tariff Act. The Department bases NV on FOPs because the presence of government controls on various aspects of NMEs renders price comparisons and the calculation of production costs invalid under the Department's normal methodologies. See Tapered Roller Bearings and Parts Thereof, Finished or Unfinished, From the People's Republic of China: Preliminary Results of Antidumping Duty Administrative Review and Notice of Intent to Rescind in Part, 70 FR 39744 (July 11, 2005), unchanged in Tapered Roller Bearings and Parts Thereof, Finished and Unfinished, from the People's Republic of China: Final Results of 2003–2004 Administrative Review and Partial Rescission of Review, 71 FR 2517 (January 17, 2006).

We calculated NV by adding the value of the FOPs, general expenses, profit, and packing costs. The FOPs for subject merchandise include: (1) quantities of raw materials employed; (2) hours of labor required; (3) amounts of energy and other utilities consumed; (4) representative capital and selling costs; and (5) packing materials. We used the FOPs reported by Zhejiang Iceman and Zhangzhou Gangchang for materials, energy, labor, and packing, and valued those FOPs by multiplying the amount of the factor consumed in producing subject merchandise by the average unit surrogate value of the factor.

In addition, we added freight costs to the surrogate costs that we calculated for material inputs. We calculated freight costs by multiplying surrogate freight rates by the shorter of the reported distance from the domestic supplier to the factory that produced the subject merchandise or the distance from the nearest seaport to the factory that produced the subject merchandise, as appropriate. Where there were multiple domestic suppliers of a material input, we calculated a weighted-average distance after limiting each supplier's distance to no more than the distance from the nearest seaport to Zhejiang Iceman and Zhangzhou Gangchang. This adjustment is in accordance with the decision by the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit in Sigma Corp. v. United States, 117 F.3d 1401, 1407–1408 (Fed. Cir. 1997). We increased the calculated costs of the FOPs for surrogate general expenses and profit. See Zhangzhou Gangchang Surrogate Values Memorandum at Exhibit 8 and Zhejiang Iceman Surrogate Values Memorandum at Exhibit XII.

2. Selection of Surrogate Values

In selecting surrogate values, we followed, to the extent practicable, the Department's practice of choosing public values which are non-export averages, representative of a range of prices in effect during the POR, or over a period as close as possible in time to the POR, product-specific, and tax-exclusive. See, e.g., Notice of Preliminary Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value, Negative Preliminary Determination of Critical Circumstances and Postponement of Final Determination: Certain Frozen and Canned Warmwater Shrimp From the Socialist Republic of Vietnam, 69 FR 42672, 42682 (July 16, 2004), unchanged in Final Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value: Certain Frozen and Canned Warmwater Shrimp From the Socialist Republic of Vietnam, 69 FR 71005 (December 8, 2004). We also considered the quality of the source of surrogate information in selecting surrogate values. See Manganese Metal From the People's Republic of China: Final Results and Partial Rescission of Antidumping Duty Administrative Review, 63 FR 12440 (March 13, 1998). Where we could obtain only surrogate values that were not contemporaneous with the POR, we inflated (or deflated) the surrogate values using, where appropriate, the Indian WPI as published in International Financial Statistics by the International Monetary Fund. See Zhangzhou Gangchang Surrogate Values Memorandum at Exhibit 2 and Zhejiang Iceman Surrogate Values Memorandum at Exhibit III.

In calculating surrogate values from import statistics, in accordance with the Department's practice, we disregarded statistics for imports from NME countries and countries deemed to maintain broadly available, non-industry-specific subsidies which may benefit all exporters to all export markets (e.g., Indonesia, South Korea, and Thailand). See, e.g., Final Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value: Certain Automotive Replacement Glass Windshields From The People's Republic of China, 67 FR 6482 (February 12, 2002) and accompanying Issues and Decision Memorandum at Comment 1. See also Notice of Preliminary Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value, Postponement of Final Determination, and Affirmative Preliminary Determination of Critical Circumstances: Certain Color Television Receivers From the People's Republic of China, 68 FR 66800, 66808 (November 28, 2003), unchanged in Notice of Final Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value and Negative Final Determination of Critical Circumstances: Certain Color Television Receivers From the People's Republic of China, 69 FR 20594 (April 16, 2004). Additionally, we excluded from our calculations imports that were labeled as originating from an unspecified country because we could not determine whether they were from an NME country.

We valued production material inputs of mushroom spawn, rice straw, and manure using the financial statements of Agro Dutch or Flex Foods Ltd. (Flex Foods), Indian producers of mushrooms and vegetables, as follows. To value the input of mushroom spawn, we used data from the fiscal year (FY) 2004–2005 financial statement of Agro Dutch because Agro Dutch's mushroom spawn value is specific to the species Agaricus bisporous, which is the species used to produce subject merchandise. To value the input of rice straw, we used the straw value from the FY 2006–2007 financial statement of Flex Foods because this value is specific to the input. To value the input of purchased mushrooms, we used the FY 2006–07 financial statement of Agro Dutch because the value is specific to the input. Similarly, to value the input of manure, we used the manure value from the FY 2004–2005 financial statement of Agro Dutch because this value is specific to the input. See Zhangzhou Gangchang Surrogate Values Memorandum at Exhibits 3 and 4 and Zhejiang Iceman Surrogate Values Memorandum at Exhibit V. We valued super calcium phosphate (another production input) using weighted-average Indian import values derived from the World Trade Atlas online (WTA), for the period February 2008 through July 2008.

We valued processing and canning material inputs (salt, citric acid, lime, and cans) using weighted-average Indian import values derived from the World Trade Atlas online (WTA), for the period February 2008 through July 2008. See Zhangzhou Gangchang Surrogate Values Memorandum at Exhibit 4 and Zhejiang Iceman Surrogate Values Memorandum at Exhibit II. In addition, we valued packing material inputs (cardboard cartons, labels, packing tape, and glue) using weighted-average Indian import values derived from the WTA for the period February 2008 through July 2008. See Zhangzhou Gangchang Surrogate Values Memorandum at Exhibit 6 and Zhejiang Iceman Surrogate Values Memorandum at Exhibit II. The Indian import statistics obtained from the WTA were published by the Indian Directorate General of Commercial Intelligence and Statistics, Ministry of Commerce of India and are contemporaneous with the POR. As the Indian surrogate values were denominated in rupees, in accordance with section 773A(a) of the Tariff Act, we converted them to U.S. dollars using the official exchange rate for India recorded on the date of sale of subject merchandise in this case. See http://www.ia.ita.doc.gov/exchange/index.html.

We valued electricity using price data for small, medium, and large industries, as published by the Central Electricity Authority of the Government of India in its publication titled Electricity Tariff & Duty and Average Rates of Electricity Supply in India, dated July 2006. These electricity rates represent actual country-wide publicly-available information on tax-exclusive electricity rates charged to industries in India. Since the rates are not contemporaneous with the POR, we inflated the values using the WPI. See Zhangzhou Gangchang Surrogate Values Memorandum at Exhibit 5 and Zhejiang Iceman Surrogate Values Memorandum at Exhibit VII.

To value water, the Department used data from the Maharastra Industrial Development Corporation (www.midcindia.org) for June 2003, which we found to be the best available information since it includes a wide range of industrial water rates. Since the water rates were not contemporaneous with the POR, the Department adjusted the value for inflation. See Zhangzhou Gangchang Surrogate Values Memorandum at Exhibit 5 and Zhejiang Iceman Surrogate Values Memorandum at Exhibit VIII.

We valued coal using weighted-average Indian import values derived from the WTA for the period February 2008 through July 2008. See Zhangzhou Gangchang Surrogate Values Memorandum at Exhibit 5 and Zhejiang Iceman Surrogate Values Memorandum at Exhibit II.

We valued steam as 14.52 percent of the value of natural gas. To value natural gas, we used a value reported in the May 2005 issue of the Indian publication Financial Express. Since this value is not contemporaneous with the POR, we inflated it using the WPI. For details of our calculation, see the Zhejiang Iceman Surrogate Values Memorandum at Exhibit IX.

We valued truck freight expenses for inputs using the same surrogate data we used for valuing domestic inland freight for Zhejiang Iceman and Zhangzhou Gangchang's U.S. sale as described above (i.e., we used data from the website <http://www.infobanc.com/logistics/logtruck.htm>, which contains inland freight truck rates between many large Indian cities). Since these values are not contemporaneous with the POR, we deflated the rate using the WPI. See Zhangzhou Gangchang Surrogate Values Memorandum at Exhibit 7 and Zhejiang Iceman Surrogate Values Memorandum at Exhibit X.

The Department's regulations require the use of a regression-based wage rate. See 19 CFR 351.408(c)(3). Therefore, to value labor, the Department used the regression-based wage rate for the PRC published on the Import Administration website. See the IA website: <http://ia.ita.doc.gov/wages/05wages/05wages-041608.html>, and see Corrected 2007 Calculation of Expected Non-Market Economy Wages, 73 FR 27795 (May 14, 2008).

To value the surrogate financial ratios for factory overhead (OH), selling, general & administrative (SG&A) expenses, and profit, the Department used the 2006–2007 financial statements of Agro Dutch and Flex Foods. The Department notes that Agro Dutch is a producer of mushrooms, and Flex Foods is a producer of mushrooms and vegetable products. Therefore, Agro Dutch's and Flex Foods' financial ratios for OH and SG&A are comparable to Zhejiang Iceman's and Zhangzhou Gangchang's financial ratios by virtue of their production of the merchandise under consideration. Moreover, an average of the financial statements of Agro Dutch and Flex Foods represents a broader spectrum of the Indian mushroom industry than the financial statement of a single mushroom producer. See Zhangzhou Gangchang Surrogate Values Memorandum at Exhibit 8 and Zhejiang Iceman Surrogate Values Memorandum at Exhibit XII.

Preliminary Results of the Review

The Department has determined that the following preliminary dumping margins exist for the period February 1, 2008, through July 31, 2008:

CERTAIN PRESERVED MUSHROOMS FROM THE PRC

Manufacturer/Exporter	Weighted-Average Margin (Percent)
Zhejiang Iceman	0.00
Zhangzhou Gangchang	0.00

Public Comment

The Department will disclose to parties to this proceeding the calculations performed in reaching the preliminary results within five days of the date of publication of these preliminary results. See 19 CFR 351.224(b). Interested parties may submit written comments (case briefs) within 30 days of publication of the preliminary results and rebuttal comments (rebuttal briefs) within five days after the time limit for filing case briefs. See 19 CFR 351.309(c)(1)(ii) and 351.309(d)(1). Pursuant to 19 CFR 351.309(d)(2), rebuttal briefs must be limited to issues raised in the case briefs. Parties who submit arguments are requested to submit with the argument: (1) a statement of the issue; (2) a brief summary of the argument; and (3) a table of authorities. Further, the Department requests that parties submitting written comments provide the Department with a diskette containing the public version of those comments.

Any interested party may request a hearing within 30 days of publication of this notice. See 19 CFR 351.310(c). Interested parties who wish to request a hearing or to participate if one is requested, must submit a written request to the Assistant Secretary for Import Administration within 30 days of publication of this notice. Requests should contain: (1) the party's name, address, and telephone number; (2) the number of participants; and (3) a list of issues to be discussed. See 19 CFR 351.310(c). Issues raised in the hearing will be limited to those raised in the briefs.

Unless the deadline is extended pursuant to section 751(a)(2)(B)(iv) of the Tariff Act, the Department will issue the final results of these NSRs, including the results of our analysis of the issues raised by the parties in their comments, within 90 days after issuance of these preliminary results.

Deadline for Submission of Publicly Available Surrogate Value Information

In accordance with 19 CFR 351.301(c)(3), the deadline for submission of publicly available information to value factors of production under 19 CFR 351.408(c) is 20 days after the date of publication of the preliminary determination. In accordance with 19 CFR 351.301(c)(1), if an interested party submits factual information less than ten days before, on, or after (if the Department has extended the deadline), the applicable deadline for submission of such factual information, an interested party has ten days to submit factual information to rebut, clarify, or correct the factual information no later than ten days after such factual information is served on the interested party. However, the Department notes that 19 CFR 351.301(c)(1), permits new information only insofar as it rebuts, clarifies, or corrects information recently placed on the record. See Glycine from the People's Republic of China: Final Results of Antidumping Duty Administrative Review and Final Rescission, in Part, 72 FR 58809 (October 17, 2007) and accompanying Issues and Decision Memorandum at Comment 2. Furthermore, the Department generally will not accept business proprietary information in either the surrogate value submissions or the rebuttals thereto, as the regulation regarding the submission of surrogate values allows only for the submission of publicly available information.

Assessment Rates

Upon issuing the final results of the review, the Department shall determine, and CBP shall assess, antidumping duties on all appropriate entries. The Department intends to issue assessment instructions to CBP 15 days after the date of publication of the final results of review. Pursuant to 19 CFR 351.212(b)(1), we will calculate importer-specific ad valorem duty assessment rates based on the ratio of the total amount of the dumping margins calculated for the examined sales to the total entered value of those same sales. We will instruct CBP to assess antidumping duties on all appropriate entries covered by this review if any importer-specific assessment rate calculated in the final results of this review is above de minimis.

However, the final results of this review shall be the basis for the assessment of antidumping duties on entries of merchandise covered by the final results of these reviews and for future deposits of estimated duties, where applicable.

Cash Deposit Requirements

The following cash deposit requirements, when imposed, will be effective upon publication of the final results of this new shipper review for all shipments of subject merchandise exported by Zhejiang Iceman or Zhangzhou Gangchang and entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after the publication date, as provided by section 751(a)(2)(C) of the Tariff Act: (1) for subject merchandise manufactured and exported by Zhejiang Iceman or manufactured and exported by Zhangzhou Gangchang, the cash-deposit rate will be that established in the final results of this review; (2) for subject merchandise exported by Zhejiang Iceman or Zhangzhou Gangchang but not manufactured by Zhejiang Iceman or Zhangzhou Gangchang, respectively, the cash deposit rate will continue to be the PRC-wide rate (i.e., 198.63 percent); and (3) for subject merchandise manufactured by Zhejiang Iceman or Zhangzhou Gangchang, but exported by any other party, the cash deposit rate will be the rate applicable to the exporter. If the cash deposit rates calculated for Zhejiang Iceman or Zhangzhou Gangchang in the final results is zero or de minimis, a zero cash deposit will be required for entries of subject merchandise both produced and exported by Zhejiang Iceman or Zhangzhou Gangchang. These cash deposit requirements, when imposed, shall remain in effect until further notice.

Notification to Importers

This notice serves as a preliminary reminder to importers of their responsibility under 19 CFR 351.402(f)(2) to file a certificate regarding the reimbursement of antidumping duties prior to liquidation of the relevant entries during this review period. Failure to comply with this requirement could result in the Secretary's presumption that reimbursement of antidumping duties occurred and the subsequent assessment of double antidumping duties.

This new shipper review and notice are in accordance with sections 751(a)(2)(B) and 777(i) of the Tariff Act and 19 CFR 351.214(i).

Dated: March 25, 2009.

CORPORATION FOR NATIONAL AND COMMUNITY SERVICE

Proposed Information Collection; Comment Request

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Corporation for National and Community Service (hereinafter the "Corporation"), as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, conducts a pre-clearance consultation program to provide the general public and Federal agencies with an opportunity to comment on proposed and/or continuing collections of information in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA95) (44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(2)(A)). This program helps to ensure that requested data can be provided in the desired format, reporting burden (time and financial resources) is minimized, collection instruments are clearly understood, and the impact of collection requirement on respondents can be properly assessed.

This proposed sale directly supports the Mexican government and serves the interests of the Mexican people and the U.S.

The proposed sale of the helicopters will increase the Mexican Air Force's air capabilities to support its interdiction activities, rapid response of law enforcement in Mexico, and support for the civilian population in natural disasters.

The proposed sale of this equipment and support will not alter the basic military balance in the region.

The principal contractor is Bell Helicopter in Fort Worth, Texas. There are no known offset agreements proposed in connection with this potential sale.

Implementation of this proposed sale will not require the assignment of any additional U. S. Government personnel in country. One U.G. Government and one contractor representative will travel to Mexico three times per year, one week per trip for a period of three years to provide logistic support services.

There will be no adverse impact on U.S. defense readiness as a result of this proposed sale.

Please note the following:

- When you enter the Grants.gov site, you will find information about submitting an application electronically through the site, as well as the hours of operation.
- Applications received by Grants.gov are date and time stamped. Your application must be fully uploaded and submitted and must be date and time stamped by the Grants.gov system no later than 4:30:00 p.m., Washington, DC time, on the application deadline date. Except as otherwise noted in this section, we will not accept your application if it is received—that is, date and time stamped by the Grants.gov system—after 4:30:00 p.m., Washington, DC time, on the application deadline date. We do not consider an application that does not comply with the deadline requirements. When we retrieve your application from Grants.gov, we will notify you if we are rejecting your application because it was date and time stamped by the Grants.gov system after 4:30:00 p.m., Washington, DC time, on the application deadline date.

• The amount of time it can take to upload an application will vary depending on a variety of factors, including the size of the application and the speed of your Internet connection. Therefore, we strongly recommend that you do not wait until the application deadline date to begin the submission process through Grants.gov.

• You should review and follow the Education Submission Procedures for submitting an application through Grants.gov that are included in the application package for this program to ensure that you submit your application in a timely manner to the Grants.gov system. You can also find the Education Submission Procedures pertaining to Grants.gov at

- To submit your application via Grants.gov, you must complete all steps in the Grants.gov registration process (see http://www.grants.gov/applicants/get_registered.jsp). These steps include (1) Registering your organization, a multi-part process that includes registration with the Central Contractor Registry (CCR); (2) registering yourself as an Authorized Organization Representative (AOR); and (3) getting authorized as an AOR by your organization. Details on these steps are outlined in the Grants.gov 3-Step Registration Guide (see <http://www.grants.gov/section910/Grants.govRegistrationBrochure.pdf>). You also must provide on your application the same D-U-N-S Number used with this registration. Please note that the registration process may take five or more business days to complete, and you must have completed all registration steps to allow you to submit successfully an application via Grants.gov. In addition, you will need to update your CCR registration on an annual basis. This may take three or more business days to complete.

• You will not receive additional point value because you submit your application in electronic format, nor will we penalize you if you qualify for an exception to the electronic submission requirement, as described elsewhere in this section, and submit your application in paper format.

• You must submit all documents electronically, including all information you typically provide on the following forms: Application for Federal Assistance (SF 424), the Department of Education Supplemental Information for SF 424, Budget Information—Non-Construction Programs (ED 524), and all necessary assurances and certifications.

• You must attach any narrative sections of your application as files in a .DOC (document), .RTF (rich text), or .PDF (Portable Document) format. If you upload a file type other than the three file types specified in this paragraph or submit a password-protected file, we will not review that material.

• Your electronic application must comply with any page-limit requirements described in this notice.

• After you electronically submit your application, you will receive from Grants.gov an automatic notification of receipt that contains a Grants.gov tracking number. (This notification indicates receipt by Grants.gov only, not receipt by the Department.) The Department then will retrieve your application from Grants.gov and send a second notification to you by e-mail.

This second notification indicates that the Department has received your application and has assigned your application a PR/Award number (an ED-specified identifying number unique to your application).

- We may request that you provide us original signatures on forms at a later date.

Application Deadline Date Extension in Case of Technical Issues with the Grants.gov System: If you are experiencing problems submitting your application through Grants.gov, please contact the Grants.gov Support Desk, toll free, at 1-800-518-4726. You must obtain a Grants.gov Support Desk Case Number and must keep a record of it.

If you are prevented from electronically submitting your application on the application deadline date because of technical problems with the Grants.gov system, we will grant you an extension until 4:30:00 p.m., Washington, DC time, the following business day to enable you to transmit your application electronically or by hand delivery. You also may mail your application by following the mailing instructions described elsewhere in this notice.

If you submit an application after 4:30:00 p.m., Washington, DC time, on the application deadline date, please contact the person listed under FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT in Section VII of this notice and provide an explanation of the technical problem you experienced with Grants.gov, along with the Grants.gov Support Desk Case Number. We will accept your application if we can confirm that a technical problem occurred with the Grants.gov system and that that problem affected your ability to submit your application by 4:30:00 p.m., Washington, DC time, on the application deadline date. The Department will contact you after a determination is made on whether your application will be accepted.

Note: The extensions to which we refer in this section apply only to the unavailability of, or technical problems with, the Grants.gov system. We will not grant you an extension if you failed to fully register to submit your application to Grants.gov before the application deadline date and time; or, if the technical problem you experienced is unrelated to the Grants.gov system.

Exception to Electronic Submission Requirement: You qualify for an exception to the electronic submission requirement, and may submit your application in paper format, if you are unable to submit an application through the Grants.gov system because—

- You do not have access to the Internet; or

- You do not have the capacity to upload large documents to the Grants.gov system; and
- No later than two weeks before the application deadline date (14 calendar days; or, if the fourteenth calendar day before the application deadline date falls on a Federal holiday, the next business day following the Federal holiday), you mail or fax a written statement to the Department, explaining which of the two grounds for an exception prevent you from using the Internet to submit your application.

If you mail your written statement to the Department, it must be postmarked no later than two weeks before the application deadline date. If you fax your written statement to the Department, we must receive the faxed statement no later than two weeks before the application deadline date.

Address and mail or fax your statement to: Tanyelle Richardson, U.S. Department of Education, 1990 K Street, NW., room 6017, Washington, DC 20006–8521. FAX: (202) 502–7859.

If you mail your application through the U.S. Postal Service, we do not accept either of the following as proof of mailing:

(1) A private metered postmark.

(2) A mail receipt that is not dated by the U.S. Postal Service.

If your application is postmarked after the application deadline date, we will not consider your application.

Note: The U.S. Postal Service does not uniformly provide a dated postmark. Before relying on this method, you should check with your local post office.

c. Submission of Paper Applications by Hand Delivery.

If you qualify for an exception to the electronic submission requirement, you (or a courier service) may deliver your paper application to the Department by hand. You must deliver the original and two copies of your application by hand, on or before the application deadline date, to the Department at the following address: U.S. Department of Education, Application Control Center, Attention: (CFDA Number 84.269A), 550 12th Street, SW., Room 7041, Potomac Center Plaza, Washington, DC 20202–4260.

Note for Mail or Hand Delivery of Paper Applications:

(1) You must indicate on the envelope and—if not provided by the Department—in Item 11 of the SF 424, the CFDA number, including suffix letter, if any, of the competition under which you are submitting your application; and

(2) The Application Control Center will mail to you a notification of receipt of your grant application. If you do not receive this notification within 15 business days from the application deadline date, you should call the U.S. Department of Education Application Control Center at (202) 245–6288.

V. Application Review Information

1. General: Applications are randomly divided into groupings for review. International studies and foreign language experts, organized into panels of three, will review each application. Each panel reviews, scores, and ranks its applications separately from the applications assigned to the other panels. Ultimately, all applications, without being divided into groups, will be ranked from the highest to the lowest score for funding purposes.

2. Selection Criteria: The selection criteria for this program are from section 75.210 of EDGAR and are as follows: (a) Significance of the project (20 points), (b) quality of the project design (20 points), (c) quality of project personnel (10 points), (d) quality of management plan (15 points), (e) adequacy of resources (15 points), and (f) quality of project evaluation (20 points).

Applicants should review section 75.210 of EDGAR for a complete description of these criteria.

3. Application Requirements: In addition to any other requirements outlined in the application package for this program, section 621(c) of the HEA (20 U.S.C. 1131(c)) requires that each application include a description of how the activities funded by the grant will reflect diverse perspectives and a wide range of views and generate debate on world regions and international affairs, where applicable.

VI. Award Administration Information

1. Award Notices: If your application is successful, we notify your U.S. Representative and U.S. Senators and send you a Grant Award Notice (GAN). We may notify you informally, also.

If your application is not evaluated or not selected for funding, we notify you.

2. Administrative and National Policy Requirements: We identify administrative and national policy requirements in the application package and reference these and other requirements in the Applicable Regulations section of this notice.

We reference the regulations outlining the terms and conditions of an award in the Applicable Regulations section of this notice and include these and other specific conditions in the GAN. The GAN also incorporates your approved application as part of your binding commitments under the grant.

3. Reporting: At the end of your project period, you must submit a final performance report, including financial information, as directed by the Secretary. If you receive a multi-year award, you must submit an annual performance report that provides the most current performance and financial expenditure information as specified by the Secretary in 34 CFR 75.118. Grantees are required to use the electronic data instrument International Resource Information System (IRIS) to complete both the annual and final report. The Secretary may also require more frequent performance reports under 34 CFR 75.720(c). For specific requirements on reporting, please go to <http://www.ed.gov/fund/grant/apply/appforms/appforms.html>.

4. Performance Measure: The goal of the Institute for International Public Policy is to assist certain eligible institutions of higher education to produce experts in less commonly taught languages and area studies, particularly from members of underrepresented populations, who are capable of contributing to the needs of the U.S. Government and national security. The Department will use the following measures to evaluate the success of the Institute for International Public Policy program:

1. Percentage of Institute for International Public Policy graduates who are employed in government or international service.

2. Percentage of Institute for International Public Policy program participants who complete a master's degree within six years of enrolling in the program.

3. Federal cost per Institute for International Public Policy graduates employed in government or international service.

The Department will use information provided by grantees in their performance reports submitted via IRIS as the source of data for this measure. Reporting screens for applicants can be viewed at: <http://www.ieps-iris.org/iris/pdfs/IIPP.pdf>.

Deadline for Transmittal of Applications: May 1, 2009.

Deadline for Intergovernmental Review: June 30, 2009.

Full Text of Announcement

I. Funding Opportunity Description

Purpose of Program: The MSEIP is designed to effect long-range improvement in science and engineering education at predominantly minority institutions and to increase the flow of underrepresented ethnic minorities, particularly minority women, into scientific and technological careers.

Priorities: In accordance with 34 CFR 75.105(b)(2)(iv), these priorities are from allowable activities specified in section 352 of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended (HEA) (20 U.S.C. 1067b(b)).

Competitive Preference Priorities: For FY 2009, three priorities are competitive preference priorities based on 34 CFR 637.31(c). Under 34 CFR 75.105(c)(2)(i) we award an additional five (5) points to an application that meets Competitive Preference Priority 1. Under 34 CFR 75.105(c)(2)(ii) we give preference to an application that meets Competitive Preference Priority 2 and Competitive Preference Priority 3 over an application of comparable merit that does not meet these priorities.

These priorities are:

Competitive Preference Priority 1. Applications from institutions that have not received a MSEIP grant within five years prior to this competition.

Competitive Preference Priority 2. Applications from previous grantees with a proven record of success.

Competitive Preference Priority 3. Applications that contribute to achieving balance among funded projects with respect to—(a) geographic region; (b) academic discipline; and (c) project type.

Invitational Priorities: For FY 2009, three priorities are invitational priorities. Under 34 CFR 75.105(c)(1) we do not give an application that meets these invitational priorities a competitive or absolute preference over other applications.

These priorities are:

Invitational Priority 1. Applications that focus on the development of bridge or articulation programs that target freshmen entering into the science, technology, engineering, or mathematics (STEM) fields.

Invitational Priority 2. Applications that focus directly on student learning and encourage and facilitate implementation of pedagogical approaches that have been proven effective in increasing student retention and achievement in STEM fields.

Invitational Priority 3. Applications that focus on mentoring programs designed to increase the number of underrepresented students who graduate with STEM undergraduate degrees.

Program Authority: 20 U.S.C. 1067–1067k.

Applicable Regulations: (a) The Education Department General Administrative Regulations (EDGAR) in 34 CFR parts 74, 75, 77, 79, 82, 84, 85, 86, 97, 98, and 99. (b) The regulations for this program in 34 CFR part 637.

III. Eligibility Information

1. Eligible Applicants: The eligibility of an applicant is dependent on the type of MSEIP project. There are four types of MSEIP projects: institutional projects, design projects, special projects, and cooperative projects. We will not award Design Project Grants in the FY 2009 competition.

A. For institutional and special projects described in 34 CFR 637.12 through 637.14, eligible applicants include public and private nonprofit minority institutions of higher education as specified in section 361(1) and (2) of the HEA.

B. For special projects described in 34 CFR 637.14(b) and (c), eligible applicants are, in addition to those described in paragraph (A) of this section, nonprofit science-oriented organizations, professional scientific societies, institutions of higher education that award baccalaureate degrees and meet the requirements of section 361(3) of the HEA, and consortia of organizations that meet the requirements of section 361(4) of the HEA.

C. For cooperative projects described in 34 CFR 637.15, eligible applicants are groups of nonprofit accredited colleges and universities whose primary fiscal agent is an eligible minority institution as defined in 34 CFR 637.4(b).

Note: As defined in 34 CFR 637.4(b), a minority institution means an accredited college or university whose enrollment of a single minority group or a combination of minority groups exceeds 50 percent of the total enrollment.

2. Cost Sharing or Matching: This program does not require cost sharing or matching.

IV. Application and Submission Information

1. Address to Request Application Package: You can obtain an application via the Internet using the following address: <http://www.grants.gov>. If you do not have access to the Internet, please contact Bernadette M. Hence, Yolande Badarou, or Matthew Willis, U.S. Department of Education, 1990 K Street, NW., Washington, DC 20006-8517. Telephone: (202) 502-7777, or by e-mail: bernadette.hence@ed.gov; yolande.badarou@ed.gov; or matthew.willis@ed.gov.

If you use a telecommunications device for the deaf (TDD), call the Federal Relay Service (FRS), toll free, at 1-800-877-8339.

Individuals with disabilities can obtain a copy of the application package in an accessible format (e.g., braille, large print, audiotape, or computer diskette) by contacting the program contact persons listed in this section.

2. Content and Form of Application Submission: Requirements concerning the content of an application, together with the forms you must submit, are in the application package for this program.

Page Limit: The application narrative is where you, the applicant, address the selection criteria that reviewers use to evaluate your application. We have established a mandatory page limit for the narrative portion for each type of project application. The page limits are as follows:

Institutional Project Grant

Application: 40 pages.

Special Project Grant Application: 35 pages.

Cooperative Project Grant

Application: 50 pages.

You must limit the application narrative (Part III) to the equivalent of no more than these page limits, using the following standards:

- A "page" is 8.5" x 11", on one side only, with 1" margins at the top, bottom, and both sides. Page numbers and a document identifier may be within the 1" margin.
- Double space (no more than three lines per vertical inch) all text in the application narrative, except titles, headings, footnotes, quotations, references, captions, and all text in charts, tables, and graphs. These items may be single spaced; however, they will count toward the page limit.

- Use a font that is either 12 point or larger, or no smaller than 10 pitch (characters per inch).

- Use one of the following fonts: Times New Roman, Courier, Courier New, or Arial. An application submitted in any other font (including Times Roman or Arial Narrow) will not be accepted.

The page limit does not apply to Part I, the cover sheet; Part II, the budget information summary form (ED 524); or Part IV, the assurances and certifications. The page limit also does not apply to an abstract, the table of contents, the MSEIP Eligibility Certification Form, one letter of commitment, and evidence of partnerships. If you include any attachments or appendices not specifically requested, these items will be counted as part of the application narrative (Part III) for purposes of the page limit requirement. You must include your complete responses to the selection criteria in the application narrative.

We will reject your application if you exceed the page limit or if you apply other standards and exceed the equivalent of the page limit. We will also reject your application if you fail to provide the MSEIP Eligibility Certification Form.

3. Submission Dates and Times:

Applications Available: April 1, 2009. Deadline for Transmittal of Applications: May 1, 2009.

Applications for grants under this program must be submitted electronically using the Grants.gov Apply site (Grants.gov). For information (including dates and times) about how to submit your application electronically, or in paper format by mail or hand delivery if you qualify for an exception to the electronic submission requirement, please refer to section IV. 6. Other Submission Requirements of this notice.

We do not consider an application that does not comply with the deadline requirements.

Individuals with disabilities who need an accommodation or auxiliary aid in connection with the application process should contact the persons listed under FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT in section VII of this notice. If the Department provides an accommodation or auxiliary aid to an individual with a disability in connection with the application process, the individual's application remains subject to all other requirements and limitations in this notice.

Deadline for Intergovernmental Review: June 30, 2009.

4. Intergovernmental Review: This program is subject to Executive Order 12372 and the regulations in 34 CFR part 79. Information about Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs under Executive Order 12372 is in the application package for this program.

5. Funding Restrictions: We reference regulations outlining funding restrictions in the Applicable Regulations section of this notice.

6. Other Submission Requirements: Applications for grants under this program must be submitted electronically unless you qualify for an exception to this requirement in accordance with the instructions in this section.

a. Electronic Submission of Applications.

Applications for grants under the Minority Science and Engineering Improvement Program (MSEIP), CFDA number 84.120A, must be submitted electronically using the Governmentwide Grants.gov Apply site at www.Grants.gov. Through this site, you will be able to download a copy of the application package, complete it offline, and then upload and submit your application. You may not e-mail an electronic copy of a grant application to us.

We will reject your application if you submit it in paper format unless, as described elsewhere in this section, you qualify for one of the exceptions to the electronic submission requirement and submit, no later than two weeks before the application deadline date, a written statement to the Department that you qualify for one of these exceptions. Further information regarding calculation of the date that is two weeks before the application deadline date is provided later in this section under Exception to Electronic Submission Requirement.

You may access the electronic grant application for MSEIP at <http://www.Grants.gov>. You must search for the downloadable application package for this program by the CFDA number. Do not include the CFDA number's alpha suffix in your search (e.g., search for 84.120, not 84.120A).

Please note the following:

- When you enter the Grants.gov site, you will find information about submitting an application electronically through the site, as well as the hours of operation.

- Applications received by Grants.gov are date and time stamped. Your application must be fully uploaded and submitted and must be date and time stamped by the Grants.gov system no later than 4:30:00 p.m., Washington, DC time, on the application deadline date. Except as otherwise noted in this section, we will not accept your application if it is received—that is, date and time stamped by the Grants.gov system—after 4:30:00 p.m., Washington, DC time, on the application deadline date. We do not consider an application that does not comply with the deadline requirements. When we retrieve your application from Grants.gov, we will notify you if we are rejecting your application because it was date and time stamped by the Grants.gov system after 4:30:00 p.m., Washington, DC time, on the application deadline date.

- The amount of time it can take to upload an application will vary depending on a variety of factors, including the size of the application and the speed of your Internet connection. Therefore, we strongly recommend that you do not wait until the application deadline date to begin the submission process through Grants.gov.

- You should review and follow the Education Submission Procedures for submitting an application through Grants.gov that are included in the application package for this program to ensure that you submit your application in a timely manner to the Grants.gov system. You can also find the Education Submission Procedures pertaining to Grants.gov at <http://e-Grants.ed.gov/help/GrantsgovSubmissionProcedures.pdf>.

- To submit your application via Grants.gov, you must complete all steps in the Grants.gov registration process (see http://www.grants.gov/applicants/get_registered.jsp). These steps include (1) registering your organization, a multi-part process that includes registration with the Central Contractor Registry (CCR); (2) registering yourself as an Authorized Organization Representative (AOR); and (3) getting authorized as an AOR by your organization. Details on these steps are outlined in the Grants.gov 3-Step Registration Guide (see <http://www.grants.gov/section910/Grants.govRegistrationBrochure.pdf>).

You also must provide on your application the same D-U-N-S Number used with this registration. Please note that the registration process may take five or more business days to complete, and you must have completed all registration steps to allow you to submit successfully an application via Grants.gov. In addition, you will need to update your CCR registration on an annual basis. This may take three or more business days to complete.

- You will not receive additional point value because you submit your application in electronic format, nor will we penalize you if you qualify for an exception to the electronic submission requirement, as described elsewhere in this section, and submit your application in paper format.

- You must submit all documents electronically, including all information you typically provide on the following forms: Application for Federal Assistance (SF 424), the Department of Education Supplemental Information for SF 424, Budget Information—Non-Construction Programs (ED 524), and all necessary assurances and certifications.

- You must attach any narrative sections of your application as files in a .DOC (document), .RTF (rich text), or .PDF (Portable Document) format. If you upload a file type other than the three file types specified in this paragraph or submit a password-protected file, we will not review that material.

- Your electronic application must comply with any page-limit requirements described in this notice.

- After you electronically submit your application, you will receive from Grants.gov an automatic notification of receipt that contains a Grants.gov tracking number. (This notification indicates receipt by Grants.gov only, not receipt by the Department.) The Department then will retrieve your application from Grants.gov and send a second notification to you by e-mail. This second notification indicates that the Department has received your application and has assigned your application a PR/Award number (an ED-specified identifying number unique to your application).

- We may request that you provide us original signatures on forms at a later date.

Application Deadline Date Extension in Case of Technical Issues With the Grants.gov System: If you are experiencing problems submitting your application through Grants.gov, please contact the Grants.gov Support Desk, toll free, at 1-800-518-4726. You must obtain a Grants.gov Support Desk Case Number and must keep a record of it.

If you are prevented from electronically submitting your application on the application deadline date because of technical problems with the Grants.gov system, we will grant you an extension until 4:30:00 p.m., Washington, DC time, the following business day to enable you to transmit your application electronically or by hand delivery. You also may mail your application by following the mailing instructions described elsewhere in this notice.

If you submit an application after 4:30:00 p.m., Washington, DC time, on the application deadline date, please contact the persons listed under For Further Information Contact in section VII of this notice and provide an explanation of the technical problem you experienced with Grants.gov, along with the Grants.gov Support Desk Case Number. We will accept your application if we can confirm that a technical problem occurred with the Grants.gov system and that that problem affected your ability to submit your application by 4:30:00 p.m., Washington, DC time, on the application deadline date. The Department will contact you after a determination is made on whether your application will be accepted.

Note: The extensions to which we refer in this section apply only to the unavailability of, or technical problems with, the Grants.gov system. We will not grant you an extension if you failed to fully register to submit your application to Grants.gov before the application deadline date and time or if the technical problem you experienced is unrelated to the Grants.gov system.

Exception to Electronic Submission Requirement: You qualify for an exception to the electronic submission requirement, and may submit your application in paper format, if you are unable to submit an application through the Grants.gov system because—

- You do not have access to the Internet; or
- You do not have the capacity to upload large documents to the Grants.gov system; and
- No later than two weeks before the application deadline date (14 calendar days or, if the fourteenth calendar day before the application deadline date falls on a Federal holiday, the next business day following the Federal holiday), you mail or fax a written statement to the Department, explaining which of the two grounds for an exception prevents you from using the Internet to submit your application.

If you mail your written statement to the Department, it must be postmarked no later than two weeks before the application deadline date. If you fax your written statement to the Department, we must receive the faxed statement no later than two weeks before the application deadline date.

Address and mail or fax your statement to: Karen W. Johnson, U.S. Department of Education, 1990 K Street, NW., room 6032, Washington, DC 20006–8517. FAX: (202) 502–7861.

(2) A mail receipt that is not dated by the U.S. Postal Service.

If your application is postmarked after the application deadline date, we will not consider your application.

Note: The U.S. Postal Service does not uniformly provide a dated postmark. Before relying on this method, you should check with your local post office.

c. Submission of Paper Applications by Hand Delivery.

If you qualify for an exception to the electronic submission requirement, you (or a courier service) may deliver your paper application to the Department by hand. You must deliver the original and two copies of your application by hand, on or before the application deadline date, to the Department at the following address: U.S. Department of Education, Application Control Center, Attention: (CFDA Number 84.120A) 550 12th Street, SW., Room 7041, Potomac Center Plaza, Washington, DC 20202–4260.

What Information Is EPA Particularly Interested In?

Pursuant to section 3506(c)(2)(A) of the PRA, EPA specifically solicits comments and information to enable it to:

- (i) Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- (ii) Evaluate the accuracy of the Agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- (iii) Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- (iv) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses. In particular, EPA is requesting comments from very small businesses (those that employ less than 25) on examples of specific additional efforts that EPA could make to reduce the paperwork burden for very small businesses affected by this collection.

What Should I Consider When I Prepare My Comments for EPA?

You may find the following suggestions helpful for preparing your comments:

1. Explain your views as clearly as possible and provide specific examples.
2. Describe any assumptions that you used.

3. Provide copies of any technical information and/or data you used that support your views.

4. If you estimate potential burden or costs, explain how you arrived at the estimate that you provide.

5. Offer alternative ways to improve the collection activity.

6. Make sure to submit your comments by the deadline identified under DATES.

7. To ensure proper receipt by EPA, be sure to identify the docket ID number assigned to this action in the subject line on the first page of your response. You may also provide the name, date, and Federal Register citation.

What Information Collection Activity or ICR Does This Apply To?

Affected entities: Entities potentially affected by this action are those which participate in the Acid Rain Program

Title: Acid Rain Program

ICR numbers: EPA ICR No. 1633.15, OMB Control No. 2060-0258.

ICR status: This ICR is currently scheduled to expire on July 31, 2009. An Agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information, unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. The OMB control numbers for EPA's regulations in title 40 of the CFR, after appearing in the Federal Register when approved, are listed in 40 CFR part 9, are displayed either by publication in the Federal Register or by other appropriate means, such as on the related collection instrument or form, if applicable. The display of OMB control numbers in certain EPA regulations is consolidated in 40 CFR part 9.

Abstract: The Acid Rain Program was established under Title IV of the 1990 Clean Air Act Amendments. The program calls for major reductions of the pollutants that cause acid rain while establishing a new approach to environmental management. This information collection is necessary to implement the Acid Rain Program. It includes burden hours associated with developing and modifying permits, transferring allowances, obtaining allowances from the conservation and renewable energy reserve, monitoring emissions, participating in the annual auctions, completing annual compliance certifications, participating in the Opt-in program, and complying with NOx permitting requirements. Most of this information collection is mandatory under 40 CFR Parts 72-78. Some parts of it are voluntary or to obtain a benefit, such as participation in the annual auctions under 40 CFR Part 73, Subpart E. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. The OMB control numbers for EPA's regulations in 40 CFR are listed in 40 CFR Part 9.

Burden Statement: The annual public reporting and recordkeeping burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 110 hours per response. Burden means the total time, effort, or financial resources expended by persons to generate, maintain, retain, or disclose or provide information to or for a Federal agency. This includes the time needed to review instructions; develop, acquire, install, and utilize technology and systems for the purposes of collecting, validating, and verifying information, processing and maintaining information, and disclosing and providing information; adjust the existing ways to comply with any previously applicable instructions and requirements which have subsequently changed; train personnel to be able to respond to a collection of information; search data sources; complete and review the collection of information; and transmit or otherwise disclose the information.

The ICR provides a detailed explanation of the Agency's estimate, which is only briefly summarized here:

Estimated total number of potential respondents: 1,500.

Frequency of response: Varies by task.

Estimated total average number of responses for each respondent: 12

Estimated total annual burden hours: 1,971,276

Estimated total annual costs: $262,369,989. This includes an estimated burden cost of $120,111,989 and an estimated cost of $142,258,000 for capital investment or maintenance and operational costs.

What Is the Next Step in the Process for This ICR?

EPA will consider the comments received and amend the ICR as appropriate. The final ICR package will then be submitted to OMB for review and approval pursuant to 5 CFR 1320.12. At that time, EPA will issue another Federal Register notice pursuant to 5 CFR 1320.5(a)(1)(iv) to announce the submission of the ICR to OMB and the opportunity to submit additional comments to OMB. If you have any questions about this ICR or the approval process, please contact the technical person listed under FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT.

Dated: March 23, 2009.

FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

[Docket No. 07-04]

Norland Industries, Inc., Linna Textiles Manufacturing Limited, Medcorp Distributors, Inc., Malan Garment Limited and Malan Garment, Inc. v. Reliable Logistics, LLC; Notice of Filing of Amended and Supplemental Complaint

Notice is given that an Amended and Supplemental Complaint has been filed with the Federal Maritime Commission ("Commission") by Norland Industries, Inc., Linna Textiles Manufacturing Limited, Medcorp Distributors, Inc., Malan Garment Limited, and Malan Garment, Inc. ("Complainants") in this proceeding against Reliable Logistics, LLC ("Respondent") noticed on April 25, 2007 (72 FR 20548). Complainants' original complaint alleged that Respondent Reliable Logistics, LLC's actions as a licensed ocean transportation intermediary ("OTI") in handling Complainants' cargo violated Section 10(d) of the Shipping Act of 1984 by failing to establish observe, and enforce just and reasonable regulations and practices in connection with transportation services (46 U.S.C. 41102(c)). Complainants assert that Washington International Insurance Company ("Washington International") is the insurance company that underwrote Respondent's $75,000.00 OTI bond. Complainants' Amended and Supplemental Complaint adds Washington International Insurance Company as a party to this proceeding and sets forth events occurring after the original complaint was filed.

In the Amended and Supplemental Complaint, Complainants contend that Respondent has ceased doing business and that all U.S. mail sent to Respondent has been returned as "undeliverable." The Commission's attempt to serve notice of this proceeding in April 2007 was also returned. Complainants state that, when initiating this proceeding, Complainants simultaneously commenced an action against Respondent in the Supreme Court of the State of New York. The Commission's proceeding was stayed at Complainants' request while pursuing their New York case to judgment. Complainants assert that a default judgment was issued against Respondent in the New York action in the amount of $181,375.03. Complainants claim that their attempts to receive payment from Washington International by presenting their judgment against Respondent's OTI bond were unsuccessful. Complainants allege that Washington International's denial of their claim undermines the very purpose for which the OTI bond is to stand as security and therefore represents an unfair shipping practice.

Complainants request that the Commission issue an order for reparations against Washington International Insurance Company in the amount of $75,000.00 plus interest from August 17, 2008, and legal fees in pursuing these proceedings. Complainants also request that the Commission grant such other, proper, and further relief as it may deem just, proper and equitable in the circumstances.

Notice is also given that the presiding Administrative Law Judge's Memorandum and Order on Motion to File Amended and Supplemental Complaint (served March 18, 2009) directed Respondents to serve and file their answering memorandum of facts and arguments on or before April 3, 2009.

Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality

Agency Information Collection Activities: Proposed Collection; Comment Request

AGENCY: Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality, HHS.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This notice announces the intention of the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality (AHRQ) to request that the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) approve the proposed information collection project: "Assessing Organizational Responses to AHRQ's Health Literacy Pharmacy Tools." In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, 44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(2)(A), AHRQ invites the public to comment on this proposed information collection.

This proposed information collection was previously published in the Federal Register on January 29th, 2009 and allowed 60 days for public comment. No comments were received. The purpose of this notice is to allow an additional 30 days for public comment.

DATES: Comments on this notice must be received by May 1, 2009.

ADDRESSES: Written comments should be submitted to: AHRQ's OMB Desk Officer by fax at (202) 395-6974 (attention: AHRQ's desk officer) or by e-mail at OIRA_submission@omb.eop.gov (attention: AHRQ's desk officer).

Copies of the proposed collection plans, data collection instruments, and specific details on the estimated burden can be obtained from the AHRQ Reports Clearance Officer.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Doris Lefkowitz, AHRQ Reports Clearance Officer, (301) 427-1477, or by e-mail at doris.lefkowitz@ahrq.hhs.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Proposed Project: Assessing Organizational Responses to AHRQ's Health Literacy Pharmacy Tools.

According to the 2003 National Assessment of Adult Literacy, only 12 percent of adults have proficient health literacy—the capacity to obtain, process, and understand basic health information and services needed to make appropriate health decisions. Limited health literacy often leads to medication errors. For example, one study found that a majority of adults with low health literacy did not understand instructions to "take medication on an empty stomach." Overall, it is estimated that low health literacy costs the U.S. health care system $50 billion to $73 billion per year. Pharmacies can serve as an important source of medication information for people with limited health literacy, but relatively few pharmacies have implemented health literacy practices (Praska et al., 2005).

Recognizing that pharmacies may need outside knowledge and assistance to improve their health literacy practices, AHRQ, through a previous task order, supported the creation of the following four health literacy tools for pharmacy settings, which have been validated in institutional pharmacy settings.

1. Is Our Pharmacy Meeting Patients' Needs? A Pharmacy Health Literacy Assessment Tool User's Guide (Jacobson et al., 2007).

2. Strategies to Improve Communication between Staff and Patients: Training Program for Pharmacy Staff (Kripalini & Jacobson, 2007).

3. How to Create a Pill Card (Jacobson et al., 2008).

4. Telephone Reminders: A Tool to Help Refill Medications on Time (Jacobson et al., 2008).

AHRQ now proposes to distribute these tools to a more diverse set of pharmacies and to conduct in-depth case studies to enhance our understanding about the conditions that may facilitate or impede the adoption of the tools in these settings. AHRQ would use insights gained to develop materials (promotional implementation guides) that could assist interested pharmacies in putting the tools into practice and anticipating and overcoming obstacles to doing so.

The pharmacy health literacy tools will be disseminated through an AHRQ Web site, which will also provide technical assistance to pharmacies that wish to implement the tools. A description of the tools and site will be distributed to pharmacists through national pharmacy organizations' trade publications and a direct mailing to chain pharmacy headquarters. We anticipate that we would be able to reach as many as 60,000 individual pharmacists across the country through these channels.

This project is being conducted pursuant to AHRQ's statutory authority to conduct and support research on health care and on systems for the delivery of such care, including activities with respect to: The quality, effectiveness, efficiency, appropriateness and value of health care services; quality measurement and improvement; and health care costs, productivity, organization, and market forces. 42 U.S.C. 299a(a)(1), (2), and (6).

Method of Collection

Case Studies

Through its contractor, AHRQ proposes to conduct 7 in-depth case studies to assess pharmacies' experiences with implementation of one or more of these four health literacy tools, using interviews, site visits, review of documents and a survey of pharmacy staff from case study pharmacies. In addition, AHRQ will conduct 2 more limited studies of pharmacies that were aware of the tools but chose not to implement them.

A 1-day site visit will be conducted with each of the 7 sites that implement at least one of the tools. Each site visit will include a walk-through of the pharmacy site to see the physical layout, an interview with the key informant or contact person, and individual interviews with up to four additional pharmacy employees, who may include the pharmacy manager, staff pharmacists, pharmacy technicians, and pharmacy clerks.

Therefore, up to 35 interviews will be completed across the 7 sites that implement one or more of the tools. In addition, up to 12 pharmacy staff at each of the 7 implementation sites will complete the tool's Pharmacy Staff Survey contained in the Pharmacy Health Literacy Assessment Tool.

For each of the two pharmacies which do not implement the tools, interviews will be conducted with up to 2 informants per site. The content of this interview will be similar, but not identical, to the interviews with staff at the implementing sites.

Web Site Visitors' Survey

For pharmacists and other visitors to the AHRQ Web site, we will conduct a voluntary survey regarding health literacy in general, and feedback regarding AHRQ's health literacy tools. The Web site visitors' survey will be available on-line.

Estimated Annual Respondent Burden

Exhibit 1 shows the estimated annualized burden hours for the respondents' time to participate in the case studies. The staff interview at the implementing sites will be completed with up to 5 total pharmacy staff members from each of the 7 pharmacies that implement at least one of the health literacy tools. Staff interviews at the two non-implementation sites will be completed with up to 2 individuals per pharmacy. The interviews are estimated to last 1 hour for each of the 5 staff interviews at the 7 implementing sites and 30 minutes for each of the 2 staff interviews at the 2 non-implementing sites. The pharmacy staff survey will be completed by up to 12 staff from the 7 implementation pharmacies and is estimated to take approximately 20 minutes. Lastly, we estimate that the Web site visitor's survey will be completed by about 150 respondents and is estimated to take up to 12 minutes to complete. The total burden hours for all data collections is estimated to be 95 hours.

Exhibit 2 shows the estimated annualized cost burden for the respondents' time to provide the requested data. The estimated total cost burden is $2,882.

Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration

Agency Information Collection Activities: Submission for OMB Review; Comment Request

Periodically, the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) will publish a summary of information collection requests under OMB review, in compliance with the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. Chapter 35). To request a copy of these documents, call the SAMHSA Reports Clearance Officer on (240) 276-1243.

Project: National Suicide Prevention Lifeline—Call Log—NEW

The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration’s (SAMHSA), Center for Mental Health Services has funded a National Suicide

Prevention Lifeline Network, consisting of a system of toll-free telephone numbers that route calls from anywhere in the United States to a network of local crisis centers. In turn, the local centers link callers to local emergency, mental health, and social service resources.

Through its grantee which is administering the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline Network, SAMHSA developed a Call Log in an effort to monitor basic trends in calls received. Data from this instrument will inform the Lifeline's ability to enhance network services, provide training to crisis counselors, and more effectively target its promotional efforts, thus increasing the network's accessibility to people at risk for suicidal behavior and optimizing public health efforts to prevent suicide and suicidal behavior.

All 125 networked crisis centers will be invited to complete the Call Logs, which will be available in both Web-based and hardcopy formats. For the estimated 80% of centers that already collect compatible data, an IT worker will be able to conduct monthly downloads from their own software systems. For the remaining centers, trained crisis counselors will be able to complete the majority of Call Log items during the course of the call, without asking the caller specific questions. They will use their judgment as to whether to complete the remainder of the Call Log at the conclusion of individual calls. Completing the form entails asking callers several basic questions (e.g., age, race, ethnicity, veteran status, how they heard about the Lifeline service). No identifiable information will be collected.

The estimated annual response burden¹ to collect this information is as follows:

Type of respondent	Number of respondents	Responses per respondent	Total responses	Hours per response	Total hour burden per respondent	Total hour burden, all respondents
IT Worker (extract, reformat, upload; ACCs)	² 111,100	12	1,200	.5	6	600
Caller (question response; NCCs)	³ 26,640	1	26,640	.05	.05	1,332
Volunteer Crisis Counselor (form completion; NCCs)	⁴ 375	⁵ 36	13,500	.08	2.9	1,088
Paid Staff Crisis Counselor (form completion; NCCs)	375	36	13,500	.08	2.9	1,088
Total	27,490	54,840	4,108

Written comments and recommendations concerning the proposed information collection should be sent by May 1, 2009 to: SAMHSA Desk Officer, Human Resources and Housing Branch, Office of Management and Budget, New Executive Office Building, Room 10235, Washington, DC 20503; due to potential delays in OMB's receipt and processing of mail sent through the U.S. Postal Service, respondents are encouraged to submit comments by fax to: 202-395-6974.

Transportation Security Administration

Intent To Request Renewal From OMB of One Current Public Collection of Information: TSA Claims Management Program

AGENCY: Transportation Security Administration (TSA), DHS.

ACTION: 60 day notice.

SUMMARY: The Transportation Security Administration (TSA) invites public comment on one currently approved Information Collection Request (ICR), OMB control number 1652-0039, abstracted below that we will submit to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for renewal in compliance with the Paperwork Reduction Act. The ICR describes the nature of the information collection and its expected burden. The collection involves the submission of information from claimants in order to thoroughly examine and resolve tort claims against the agency.

DATES: Send your comments by June 1, 2009.

ADDRESSES: Comments may be mailed or delivered to Ginger LeMay, PRA Officer, Office of Information Technology, TSA-11, Transportation Security Administration, 601 South 12th Street, Arlington, VA 20598-6011.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Comments Invited

In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.), an agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control number. The ICR documentation is available at <http://www.reginfo.gov>. Therefore, in preparation for OMB review and approval of the following information collection, TSA is soliciting comments to—

¹ Estimates based on 444,000 calls annually.

² 100 (80%) of the networked crisis centers currently collect this data electronically (automated crisis centers or ACCs). An IT worker would need to extract, reformat, and upload those records monthly.

³ 25 (20%) of the networked crisis centers do not currently collect this data (non-automated crisis centers or NCCs) and counselors would therefore need to ask callers questions from the Call Log. A 30% response rate is anticipated. 444,000 total annual calls × (20% of the centers) = 88,800 annual calls answered by NCCs × (30% response rate) = 26,640 Call Logs completed by NCCs.

- (3) Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- (4) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including using appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

Information Collection Requirement

OMB Control Number 1652-0039; TSA Claims Management Program allows the agency to collect information from claimants in order to thoroughly examine and resolve tort claims against the agency. TSA receives approximately 1,900 tort claims per month arising from airport screening activities and other circumstances, including motor vehicle accidents and employee loss. The Federal Tort Claims Act (28 U.S.C. 1346(b), 1402(b), 2401(b), 2671-2680) is the authority under which the TSA Claims Management Branch adjudicates tort claims.

The data is collected whenever an individual believes s/he has experienced property loss or damage, a personal injury, or other damages due to the negligence or wrongful act or omission of a TSA employee, and decides to file a Federal tort claim against TSA. Submission of a claim is entirely voluntary and initiated by individuals. The claimants (or respondents) to this collection are typically the traveling public. Currently, claimants file a claim by submitting to TSA a Standard Form 95 (SF-95), which has been approved under OMB control number 1105-0008. Because TSA requires further clarifying information, claimants are asked to complete a Supplemental Information page added to the SF-95. If TSA determines payment is warranted, TSA will send the claimant a form requesting banking information (routing and accounting numbers) in order to direct payment to the claimant. This form has been approved under OMB control number 1652-0039.

Claim instructions and forms are available through the TSA Web site at <http://www.tsa.gov>. Claimants must download these forms and mail or fax them to TSA. On the Supplemental Information page, claimants are asked to provide additional claim information including: (1) E-Mail address, (2) location of incident within the airport, (3) airport, (4) complete travel itinerary, (5) whether baggage was delayed by airline, (6) why they believe TSA was negligent, (7) whether they used a third-party baggage service, (8) whether they were traveling under military orders, and (9) whether they submitted claims with the airlines or insurance.

If TSA determines payment is warranted, TSA sends the claimant a form requesting: (1) Claimant signature, (2) banking information, and (3) Social Security number (required by the U.S. Treasury for all Government payments to the public pursuant to 31 U.S.C. 3325).

Under the current system of claims submitted by mail or fax, TSA estimates there will be approximately 22,800 respondents on an annual basis, for a total annual hour burden of 11,400 hours.

TSA will use all data collected from claimants to examine and analyze tort claims against the agency to determine alleged TSA liability and to reimburse claimants when claims are approved. In some cases, TSA may use the information to identify victims of theft or to aid any criminal investigations into property theft.

Issued in Arlington, Virginia, on March 26, 2009.

Paperwork Reduction Act Officer, Office of Information Technology.

[Docket No. USCBP-2008-0112]

Enhanced Bonding Requirement for Certain Shrimp Importers

AGENCY: U.S. Customs and Border Protection, Department of Homeland Security.

ACTION: General notice.

SUMMARY: This notice ends the designation of shrimp subject to antidumping or countervailing duty orders as a special category or covered case subject to an enhanced bonding requirement (EBR). A recent World Trade Organization (WTO) Appellate Body Report held that the application of this requirement to shrimp from Thailand and India was inconsistent with U.S. WTO obligations. In response to this report, Customs and Border Protection (CBP) is ending the designation of shrimp subject to antidumping or countervailing duty orders as a special category or covered case subject to the EBR. The shrimp importers affected by this requirement may request termination of any existing continuous bonds pursuant to 19 CFR 113.27(a) and submit a new bond application pursuant to 19 CFR 113.12(b).

DATES: Effective Date: The notice is effective on April 1, 2009.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

A key U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) mission is to collect all import duties determined to be due to the United States. Under CBP statutes and regulations, release of merchandise prior to the determination of all duties that may be owed is ordinarily permitted, provided the importer posts a bond or other security to insure payment of duties and compliance with other applicable laws and regulations. The final assessment of duties occurs at liquidation of the entry.

The United States maintains a retrospective antidumping and countervailing duty system. The retrospective system means that in the case of goods subject to antidumping or countervailing (AD/CV) duties, the actual rates of AD/CV duties owed are calculated after the entry is made, in an assessment review conducted by the Department of Commerce (DOC). There is a delay between entry and final duty collection, and the United States requires that a security be provided. When an importer requests an assessment review of an AD/CV duty order, the amount of the duty that is ultimately assessed, based on the final AD/CV duty rate, sometimes does not correspond to the amount of security posted.

CBP follows instructions from the DOC. The DOC determines the actual AD/CV duty rates owed on merchandise subject to an AD/CV duty order. CBP assesses the duties owed on specific entries upon liquidation, pursuant to DOC instructions as to the final rates. However, CBP has found that many importers subject to AD/CV duties fail to pay the additional duties determined to be due at liquidation. As a result, because defaults on AD/CV duty supplemental bills have increased significantly, CBP conducted an internal policy review of revenue protection strategies.

CBP's Enhanced Bonding Requirement (EBR)

In response to importers' increasing failure to pay additional duties determined to be due at liquidation, CBP reconsidered the general bond formula which provides that the minimum continuous bond may be in an amount equal to the greater of $50,000 or ten percent of the amount of the previous year's duties, taxes and fees. In order to address the growing collection problem, CBP issued four documents. "Amendment to Bond Directive 99-3510-004 for Certain Merchandise Subject to Antidumping/Countervailing Cases," July 9, 2004; "Current Bond Formulas," January 25, 2005; "Clarification to July 9, 2004 Amended Monetary Guidelines for Setting Bond Amounts for Special Categories of Merchandise Subject to Antidumping and/or Countervailing Duty Cases," August 10, 2005; and Monetary Guidelines for Setting Bond Amounts for Importations Subject to Enhanced Bonding Requirements, 71 FR 62276 (October 24, 2006) (all four documents are referred to collectively as the Amended Customs Bond Directive).

CBP applied the Amended Customs Bond Directive to merchandise subject to the first antidumping orders involving agriculture and aquaculture merchandise imposed after the issuance of the July 2004 Amendment to the Bond Guidelines.¹ Known as the enhanced bonding requirement (EBR), CBP required that continuous bond amounts for importers of shrimp subject to AD/CV duty orders be increased to the rate established in the final AD/CV duty order, multiplied by the value of the importer's entries of the subject merchandise in the previous 12-month period.

World Trade Organization Disputes Regarding EBR

On April 24, 2006, Thailand requested consultations with respect to certain issues relating to the imposition of antidumping measures on shrimp from Thailand, including the application of the EBR to importers of shrimp from Thailand. Thailand requested the establishment of a dispute settlement panel on September 15, 2006, and the World Trade Organization (WTO) Dispute Settlement Body (DSB) established a panel on October 26, 2006.

On June 6, 2006, India requested consultations with respect to certain issues relating to the Amended Customs Bond Directive and the EBR. India alleged that the United States had imposed on importers a requirement to maintain a continuous entry bond in the amount of the anti-dumping duty margin multiplied by the value of imports of subject shrimp imported by the importer in the preceding year, and that this action breached several provisions of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade 1994 (GATT 1994), the WTO Agreement on Implementation of Article VI of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade 1994 (AD Agreement), and the Agreement on Subsidies and Countervailing Measures (SCM Agreement). India requested the establishment of a panel on October 13, 2006, and the DSB established a panel on November 21, 2006.

The panels circulated the reports in both disputes on February 29, 2008. Among other things, the panels found that the EBR as applied to importers of shrimp from Thailand and India was a "specific action against dumping" inconsistent with Article 18.1 of the AD Agreement and was inconsistent with the Ad Note to paragraphs 2 and 3 of GATT 1994 Article VI because it did not constitute "reasonable" security.² Thailand and India disagreed with several of the panels' findings with respect to the additional bond requirement and appealed those findings on April 17, 2008.³ The United States cross-appealed one aspect of those findings on April 29, 2008.⁴

agreed with the panels in finding that the Amended Customs Bond Directive was not "as such" inconsistent with the AD Agreement or the SCM Agreement. Id. at paras. 270, 275. The Appellate Body found that the panels properly concluded that the EBR as applied to importers of shrimp from Thailand and India did not constitute reasonable security. The Panel and Appellate Body reports were adopted by the DSB on August 1, 2008. On August 29, 2008, the United States indicated that it intended to comply with the recommendations and findings of the DSB.

Notice of Proposed Modification

On January 12, 2009, CBP published a notice in the Federal Register (74 FR 1224) that proposed to end the designation of shrimp covered by antidumping or countervailing duty orders as a special category or covered case subject to the requirement of additional bond amounts, to comply with the recommendations of the DSB. The notice also proposed that shrimp importers may request termination of existing continuous bonds pursuant to 19 CFR 113.27(a) and submit a new continuous bond application pursuant to 19 CFR 113.12(b). The notice of proposed modification solicited comments from the public, and the comment period closed on February 11, 2009.

Discussion of Comments

Twelve parties responded to the solicitation of comments in the notice of proposed modification. A description of the comments contained in the submission and CBP's analysis is set forth below.

Comment: One commenter argues that CBP should devise a bonding mechanism for imports of shrimp and other agriculture and aquaculture products subject to antidumping or countervailing duties that will provide additional assurance that all such duties will be collected, that it should explain how any new bonding mechanism addresses "the large and increasing" amount of uncollected or uncollectible duties, and that it must "implement any new bonding mechanism prospectively only, as required by law." The commenter notes that revenue loss continues to be an issue with agriculture and aquaculture products subject to AD/CV duty orders including shrimp and therefore CBP's concerns that led to the EBR were appropriate.

The commenter further contends that CBP's proposal to no longer require the EBR with respect to shrimp importers rewards and further encourages the refusal by certain importers to abide by their legal requirements. The commenter states that as CBP is well aware from its past efforts to enforce the trade laws and collect duties owed, for many agriculture/aquaculture products (and, separately, non-agriculture/aquaculture products of Chinese origin), the companies that become the importer of record for such goods frequently have little intent, much less ability, to pay duties above the deposit rate.

The commenter requests that CBP immediately withdraw its proposal to terminate the designation of shrimp covered by AD/CV orders as a special category or covered case subject to the requirement of additional bond amounts. Instead, the commenter recommends that CBP issue a proposal and/or seek comments on amending the EBR in order to both comply with the WTO's Appellate Body report and address the under-collection of AD/CV duties.

Another commenter states that CBP should use the proposal as an opportunity to include an individual importer risk assessment into its bond analysis. The commenter asserts that the "one size fits all" EBR policy based on a sector or category wide risk assessment usurps the core factors of objective risk analysis and imposes a severe strain on the balance sheets of otherwise healthy companies. The commenter contends that a bond based on an assessment for individual importers is not only good Federal policy, but also a necessary analysis for defense of CBP's actions before reviewing panels of the WTO. The commenter further contends that a transparent system supported by substantial evidence is essential to an effective EBR. The commenter maintains that the tools are present for CBP to give proper emphasis to companies with proven track records and solid balance sheets.

CBP's Response: Although CBP is no longer designating shrimp subject to antidumping or countervailing duty orders as a special category or covered case subject to the EBR, CBP is not abandoning its duty to protect revenue or its requirement of sufficient security. In its report, the WTO Appellate Body concluded that the United States could impose "reasonable security" on entries made after the imposition of an antidumping duty order and before the final assessment of antidumping duties, but that the EBR, as applied to importers of shrimp from Thailand and India was not "reasonable security". Consistent with that finding, CBP is ending the designation of shrimp as a covered case or special category subject to the EBR.

As for the other commenter's suggestions for possible methods for future bonding requirements, CBP continues to explore options to protect revenue and address issues of uncollected AD/CV duties, consistent with U.S. international obligations.

Comment: Several commenters support the withdrawal of the designation of shrimp under the EBR, but argue that it should apply retroactively to all entries of subject merchandise covered by bonds calculated using the EBR, and not just to entries made on or after the effective date of the final notice.

Supporters of retroactive application of the proposal contend that because the WTO Appellate Body upheld the panel's findings that the EBR is inconsistent with WTO agreements, compliance with the WTO's rulings would preclude CBP from continuing to treat pre-existing EBR-calculated bonds as valid and enforceable security after the date of implementation or from taking any future action to make a claim against the bonds. Consequently, commenters in support of the retroactive application of the proposal argue that in order to comply with the WTO reports, CBP must not only stop applying the EBR to imports of subject shrimp going forward, but must also "cancel" (as one commenter describes it) or "retroactively eliminate" (as another commenter argues), bonds to which the EBR has been applied and replace them with bonds based on the standard bond formula of 10% of the previous year's duties, taxes, and fees, or $50,000, whichever is greater. Supporters assert that retroactively applying the proposal is necessary to address surety collateral requirements which have burdened importers' credit lines, causing significant economic harm.

One supporter of the retroactive application of the proposal cites to National Fisheries Institute, Inc. v. United States Bureau of Customs and Border Protection (465 F. Supp. 2d 1300, 1335–36 (Ct. Int'l Trade 2006)) (National Fisheries) to argue that CBP has authority to do this, and claim that this authority has been recognized by the courts.

One commenter argues that canceling the bonds to which the EBR was applied would not be retroactive because the United States would be agreeing to make no future claims against the EBR-calculated bonds.

One commenter urges CBP to automatically terminate all existing continuous bonds and institute new bonds at the minimum required obligation rather than require individual importers to submit individual termination requests in order to expedite U.S. compliance with rulings of the DSB.

Another commenter argues that allowing importers to terminate existing continuous bonds would risk CBP's ability to fully collect duties owed.

CBP's Response: CBP is ending the designation of frozen warmwater shrimp subject to AD/CV duties as a special category or covered case for purposes of the EBR, and is providing importers with an opportunity to request that existing bonds be terminated pursuant to 19 CFR 113.27(a) and submit a new continuous bond application pursuant to 19 CFR 113.12(b). These actions bring the United States into compliance with the recommendations and rulings of the DSB regarding the EBR. The effective date is the publication date of this notice.

CBP disagrees with the commenters' statement that CBP must apply the proposal retroactively. When a bond is terminated, no further obligations arising from post-termination customs transactions may be charged against the bond. See 19 CFR 113.27(c); see also HQ 211485 (May 12, 1980). The principal (in this case, the importer) and the surety remain liable for the obligations incurred before the date the bond was terminated. See 19 CFR 113.3. Termination of the bond does not alter the obligations charged against the bond before it was terminated, but does prevent any obligations arising from post-termination customs transactions from being charged against the bond. See 19 CFR 113.27(c); see also HQ 211485 (May 12, 1980).

CBP has determined that it will permit importers to terminate EBR-calculated bonds. The only legal authority commenters cite for the proposition that CBP could "cancel" or otherwise retroactively apply the policy is the decision of the U.S. Court of International Trade in National Fisheries. However, the court made no such finding in that case, nor did it order cancellation or "retroactive elimination" of bonds. National Fisheries at 1335–1336. Moreover, bonds are contracts between principals and sureties, and are thus contracts between private parties. CBP is reluctant to interfere in that relationship. See Customs Bond Structure, Revision, 49 FR 41152, 41155 (October 19, 1984). In addition, the existence of two bonds covering the same period could pose legal confusion. If different sureties issued the bonds, each would raise the other as a defense in a collection action, posing serious risk to the agency's ability to collect duties lawfully owed.

through court action. Furthermore, canceling an existing bond and replacing it with another bond with a different limit of liability (either lower or higher) and with retroactive effect is contrary to sound administrative practice. There are approximately 140,000 bonds currently on file with CBP. The possibility that each and every one of these bonds may be reconsidered and liability reassessed anytime after execution would cause administrative chaos. Finally, to avoid confusion, termination will not occur automatically and importers must request termination pursuant to 19 CFR 113.27(a).

CBP requires bonds to protect revenue and assure compliance with any provision of law, regulation, or instruction the agency is authorized to enforce. See 19 U.S.C. 1623. CBP is also required to collect debts aggressively. See 31 U.S.C. 3711 and 31 CFR 901.1. In order to fulfill its mandate and also facilitate trade, CBP does not retroactively raise or lower bond security amounts that cover past customs transactions. When CBP determines that an existing bond does not provide sufficient security, the principal is only required to terminate the existing bond and obtain a new bond with additional security for future importations. The obligation of the earlier bond for the earlier time period remains in place. See 19 CFR 113.3.

It is incorrect to state that if the United States were to agree to make no future claims against the EBR-calculated bonds, then the cancellation of the bonds would not be retroactive. Cancelling the bonds would be retroactive because the bonds secure customs transactions, which are, in this case, entries already made into the United States. As discussed in the Background section of this notice, even though the actual amount of AD/CV duties owed may be determined at a later date, the obligation is incurred and security is posted at the time of entry. Finally, the U.S. Court of International Trade in National Fisheries did not order CBP to cancel the bonds at issue in that case, and therefore does not support the commenters' argument that CBP should cancel the EBR-calculated bonds. National Fisheries at 1335–1336.

Therefore, on or after the publication of this notice, an importer with a current bond that was calculated using the EBR may request termination pursuant to 19 CFR 113.27(a), such that no further obligations would be charged against that bond. For existing bonds, CBP will enforce the bonds up to the date of termination, which will be no earlier than the effective date of this notice.

Comment: Some commenters recommend that even though the proposal indicates that it applies to shrimp imports from all of the countries subject to an AD order, to avoid confusion, CBP should specifically state this in the final notice and list the individual countries.

Another commenter asserts that the proposal should only apply to India and Thailand because the WTO dispute was initiated by these countries and therefore, the recommendation only applies to those countries and not Brazil, China, and Vietnam. The commenter states that continuing to apply the EBR to Brazil, China, and Vietnam would help to offset any revenue loss on those cases. The commenter also states that discontinuing application to those countries would be contrary to CBP's commitment to Congress to address the issue of non-collection of AD duties and is irrational, unwarranted, and a clear perversion of CBP's mission to collect all import duties determined to be due to the United States.

CBP's Response: Based on a careful evaluation of the WTO reports and available evidence, CBP has decided to end the designation of shrimp subject to AD/CV duty orders as a special category or covered case subject to the requirement of additional bond amounts for all countries. For a list of orders currently covering shrimp, see footnote 1 of this document.

Conclusion

After analysis of the comments and further review of the matter, CBP has decided to end the designation of shrimp covered by antidumping or countervailing duty orders as a special category or covered case subject to the requirement of additional bond amounts. Shrimp importers may request termination of existing continuous bonds pursuant to 19 CFR 113.27(a) and submit a new continuous bond application pursuant to 19 CFR 113.12(b). The requirements for submitting a new bond application pursuant to 19 CFR 113.12 are available on the CBP Web site at http://www.cbp.gov/xp/cgov/trade/priority_trade/revenue/bonds/pilot_program/news_develop/ under the "Policy and Procedures" section.

6. In the event there is more than one notice of appeal filed, the appeals shall be consolidated by the clerk and only one response shall be filed to the consolidated appeals.

d. Findings of fact. The findings of fact shall be presumed to be without reversible error. The presumption may be overcome by a sworn written statement presented to the court at the time of the filing of the notice of appeal which establishes, on the basis of the statement, any one or more of the following grounds:

1. That a witness ready and willing to testify at the time of the hearing on behalf of the appellant was not allowed by the alcohol beverage hearing officer to take the witness stand and testify, and such testimony would have materially altered the decision of the alcohol beverage hearing officer.

2. That the alcohol beverage hearing officer refused to admit documentary or other physical evidence, and such evidence would have materially altered the decision of the alcohol beverage hearing officer.

3. That after the hearing, the appellant discovered material evidence which, with reasonable diligence, could not have been discovered and produced at the hearing, and such evidence would have materially altered the decision of the alcohol beverage hearing officer.

4. In the event the court finds the presumption is overcome pursuant to this subsection, the court shall remand the case back to the alcohol beverage hearing officer for the limited purpose of hearing only the excluded or new evidence and any evidence presented in rebuttal to such evidence.

5. The hearing will be held within ten (10) days after the order of the court has been filed and served upon the appellants and appellee.

6. At the conclusion of such remand hearing, the alcohol beverage hearing officer shall, within ten (10) days of the hearing, make and enter such amended findings of fact and decision as the alcohol beverage hearing officer determines that the evidence adduced at the remand hearing requires. If the alcohol beverage hearing officer determines that the prior findings of fact requires no amendment, the alcohol beverage hearing officer will issue a decision reaffirming its prior findings of fact and decision.

7. The findings of fact and decision will be transmitted to the court and such findings of fact and decision will not be subject to a separate appeal.

e. Decision by the Court. The court shall determine whether the decision is supported by the findings of fact and the law.

1. Any party to the case may request an opportunity to appear before the court prior to its decision to give the court such party's view of the case.

2. The other party or parties shall be given adequate notice of the hearing and an opportunity to present such party's or parties' view of the case. Such views shall be presented orally by the parties or their advocates and shall only deal with the grounds relied on by the appellant as set out in the notice of appeal.

3. The hearing shall be limited to one hour and the time will be equally divided between the appellant and the appellee.

4. If the court finds that the previous decision is incorrect, it shall issue a new decision correctly stating the decision. Such decision shall be final and not subject to rehearing, review or appeal.

(7) Authority of the Office.

a. Inspection of Premises. The office or the beverage control officer may, in enforcing the provisions of this Article, inspect the premises.

b. Records of application, permit and proceedings. A complete record of all applications, actions taken thereon, and any licenses issued shall be maintained by the Community and shall be open for public inspection at the office.

c. License Term. Licenses shall be issued for a period of one year and are renewable on application to the office which will renew upon payment of the renewal application fee and annual license fee.

d. Transfer of License. Licenses issued under this article are nontransferable without the prior written approval of the alcohol beverage hearing officer after the application process has been completed.

e. Citation. The office of alcohol beverage control or the Salt River Police Department may cite a licensee to appear before the alcohol beverage hearing officer for a revocation hearing upon allegations of violations under this Article.

f. Revocation or Suspension of License. Any license issued pursuant to this article may be revoked or suspended after a hearing before the alcohol beverage hearing officer upon a finding that the licensee is operating the premises in violation of this article, the regulations adopted pursuant to it, the laws of the Community, or pursuant to finding that that the license would not have been originally issued had the facts in evidence at the time of any revocation hearing had been known at the time of the application for a license.

14-16a. Miscellaneous.

a. Severability. If any provision of this Article shall be determined invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such determination shall not be held to invalidate or render unenforceable the remainder of this Article, and to this end, the provisions of this Article are severable.

b. Amendment. This Article may be amended by a majority vote of the SRPMIC Council or by the SRPMIC initiative or referendum process.

[Inv. No. 337-TA-605]

In the Matter of Certain Semiconductor Chips With Minimized Chip Package Size and Products Containing Same; Notice of Commission Decision To Request Additional Briefing on Remedy and To Extend the Target Date

AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined to request additional briefing on remedy and to extend the target date to May 20, 2009, in the above captioned investigation.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Megan M. Valentine, Office of the General Counsel, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street, SW., Washington, DC 20436, telephone (202) 708-2301. Copies of non-confidential documents filed in connection with this investigation are or will be available for inspection during official business hours (8:45 a.m. to 5:15 p.m.) in the Office of the Secretary, U.S.

International Trade Commission, 500 E Street, SW., Washington, DC 20436, telephone (202) 205-2000. General information concerning the Commission may also be obtained by accessing its Internet server at <http://www.usitc.gov>. The public record for this investigation may be viewed on the Commission's electronic docket (EDIS) at <http://edis.usitc.gov>. Hearing-impaired persons are advised that information on this matter can be obtained by contacting the Commission's TDD terminal on (202) 205-1810.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on May 21, 2007, based on a complaint filed by Tessera, Inc. of San Jose, California against Spansion, Inc. and Spansion, LLC, both of Sunnyvale, California; QUALCOMM, Inc. of San Diego, California; AT1 Technologies of Thornhill, Ontario, Canada; Motorola, Inc. of Schaumburg, Illinois ("Motorola"); STMicroelectronics N.V. of Geneva, Switzerland; and Freescale Semiconductor, Inc. of Austin, Texas. 72 FR 28522 (May 21, 2007). The complaint alleges violations of section 337 in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain semiconductor chips with minimized chip package size or products containing same by reason of infringement of one or more claims of U.S. Patent Nos. 5,852,326, and 6,433,419.

On December 1, 2008, the presiding administrative law judge ("ALJ") issued his final ID finding no violation of section 337 by Respondents. The ID included the ALJ's recommended determination on remedy and bonding. In his ID, the ALJ found that Respondents' accused products do not infringe the asserted claims the '326 patent or the asserted claims of the '419 patent. The ALJ additionally found that the asserted claims of the '326 and '419 patents are not invalid for failing to satisfy the enablement requirement or the written description requirement of 35 U.S.C. 112 ¶ 1. The ALJ further found that the asserted claims of the '326 and '419 patents are not invalid as indefinite of 35 U.S.C. 112 ¶ 2. The ALJ also found that the asserted claims of the '326 and '419 patents are not invalid under 35 U.S.C. 102 for anticipation or under 35 U.S.C. 103 for obviousness. Finally, the ALJ found that an industry in the United States exists with respect to the '326 and '419 patents as required by 19 U.S.C. 1337(a)(2) and (3). In his recommended determination, the ALJ recommended that, should the Commission determine that a violation exists, a limited exclusion order ("LEO") would be properly directed to Respondents' accused chip packages and to the downstream products of Motorola, a named respondent.

On January 30, 2009, the Commission determined to review the final ID in part and requested briefing on the issues it determined to review, remedy, the public interest, and bonding. 74 FR 6175-6 (Feb. 5, 2009). The Commission determined to review: (1) The ALJ's finding that Respondents' accused devices do not infringe the asserted claims the '326 and '419 patents; (2) the ALJ's finding that Tessera has waived any argument that the accused products indirectly infringe the '419 patent; (3) the ALJ's finding that Motorola's invention of the 1989 68HC11 OMPAC chip ("OMPAC") does not anticipate the asserted patents under 35 U.S.C. 102(b); and (4) the ALJ's finding that the Motorola's OMPAC invention does not anticipate the asserted patents under 35 U.S.C. 102(g). Id. The Commission determined not to review the remaining issues decided in the ID.

On February 23, 2009, the parties filed initial written submissions regarding the issues on review, remedy, the public interest, and bonding. On March 5, the parties filed response submissions. Several respondents in co-pending investigation Certain Semiconductor Chips with Minimized Chip Package Size and Products Containing Same, Inv. No. 337-TA-649, also filed reply briefs on remedy, the public interest, and bonding. In its initial submission on remedy, Tessera requested that the Commission issue a "tailored" general exclusion order ("GEO") should the Commission determine that there is a violation of Section 337. See Complainant Tessera, Inc.'s Brief on the Issues of Remedy, the Public Interest and Bonding (Public Version) (March 5, 2009) ("Tessera Remedy Br.") (available on EDIS). Tessera also requested that, should the Commission determine that the current record is not adequate to support issuance of a GEO, the Commission should issue immediately the LEO recommended by the ALJ and then conduct further proceedings regarding the availability of a tailored GEO. See Tessera Remedy Br. at 5-6. The Commission investigative attorney ("IA") concurred. See Response of Office of Unfair Import Investigations to Complainant's and Respondents' Briefs on Issues Under Review and on Remedy, the Public Interest, and Bonding (Public Version) (March 16, 2009) (available on EDIS) at 33–34.

The Commission requests additional briefing regarding the appropriateness of Tessera's proposed remedy. Specifically the Commission is particularly interested in responses to the following questions:

1. Please address whether Tessera is entitled to a GEO under 19 U.S.C. 1337(d)(2).

2. Please address whether the Commission has the authority under the statute to issue a “tailored GEO,” which would ostensibly reach only specified downstream products and manufacturers while subjecting a complainant to the additional requirements of 19 U.S.C. 1337(d)(2).

3. Please address whether the Commission has the authority to issue two different exclusion orders at two different times, specifically whether the Commission can issue an LEO immediately and then issue a GEO at a later date.

The Commission has also determined that the target date be extended to May 20, 2009.

Written Submissions: Parties to the investigation, interested government agencies, and any other interested parties are encouraged to file written submissions on the issues of remedy, the public interest, and bonding. Such submissions should address the questions posed by the Commission above, as well as the recommended determination by the ALJ on remedy and bonding.

The written submissions must be filed no later than close of business on Friday, April 10, 2009. Reply submissions must be filed no later than the close of business on Monday, April 20, 2009. No further submissions on these issues will be permitted unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

Persons filing written submissions must file the original document and 12 true copies thereof on or before the deadlines stated above with the Office of the Secretary. Any person desiring to submit a document to the Commission in confidence must request confidential treatment unless the information has already been granted such treatment during the proceedings. All such requests should be directed to the Secretary of the Commission and must include a full statement of the reasons why the Commission should grant such treatment. See 19 CFR 210.6. Documents for which confidential treatment by the Commission is sought will be treated accordingly. All nonconfidential written submissions will be available for public inspection at the Office of the Secretary.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), and in section 210.42 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 210.42).

Dated: March 26, 2009.

By order of the Commission.

Marilyn R. Abbott,

Secretary to the Commission.

(73 FR 72080), December 4, 2008 (73 FR 73961), and December 11, 2008 (73 FR 75470) as required by the Act. The public comment period ended on December 22, 2008. The Commission received one comment letter. The comment did not affect the NRC staff's assessment, which finds that the Virginia Agreement materials program is adequate to protect public health and safety and compatible with the NRC's program. The proposed Virginia Agreement is consistent with Commission policy and thus meets the criteria for an Agreement with the Commission.

After considering the request for an Agreement by the Governor of Virginia, the supporting documentation submitted with the request for an Agreement, and its interactions with the staff of the Virginia Department of Health, the NRC staff completed an assessment of the Virginia program. The agency made a copy of the staff assessment available in the NRC's Public Document Room (PDR) and electronically on NRC's Web site. Based on the staff's assessment, the Commission determined on February 27, 2009, that the proposed Virginia program for control of radiation hazards is adequate to protect public health and safety, and compatible with the Commission's program.

Documents may be examined, and/or copied for a fee, at the NRC's PDR, located at One White Flint North, 11555 Rockville Pike (first floor), Rockville, Maryland. Documents referred to in this notice and other publicly available documents are available electronically at the NRC's Public Electronic Reading Room on the Internet at the NRC Web site, <http://www.nrc.gov/reading-rm/adams.html>. An Agreement Between the United States Nuclear Regulatory Commission and the Commonwealth of Virginia for the Discontinuance of Certain Commission Regulatory Authority and Responsibility Within The Commonwealth Pursuant to Section 274 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as Amended

Whereas, The United States Nuclear Regulatory Commission (the Commission) is authorized under Section 274 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 2011 et seq. (the Act), to enter into agreements with the Governor of any State/Commonwealth providing for discontinuance of the regulatory authority of the Commission within the Commonwealth under Chapters 6, 7, and 8, and Section 161 of the Act with respect to byproduct materials as defined in Sections 11e.(1), (3), and (4) of the Act, source materials, and special nuclear materials in quantities not sufficient to form a critical mass; and,

Whereas, The Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia is authorized under the Code of Virginia Section 32.1-235, to enter into this Agreement with the Commission; and,

Whereas, The Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia certified on June 12, 2008, that the Commonwealth of Virginia (the Commonwealth) has a program for the control of radiation hazards adequate to protect public health and safety with respect to the materials within the Commonwealth covered by this Agreement, and that the Commonwealth desires to assume regulatory responsibility for such materials; and,

Whereas, The Commission found on February 27, 2009 that the program of the Commonwealth for the regulation of the materials covered by this Agreement is compatible with the Commission's program for the regulation of such materials and is adequate to protect public health and safety; and,

Whereas, The Commonwealth and the Commission recognize the desirability and importance of cooperation between the Commission and the Commonwealth in the formulation of standards for protection against hazards of radiation and in assuring that Commonwealth and Commission programs for protection against hazards of radiation will be coordinated and compatible; and,

Whereas, The Commission and the Commonwealth recognize the desirability of the reciprocal recognition of licenses, and of the granting of limited exemptions from licensing of those materials subject to this Agreement; and,

Whereas, This Agreement is entered into pursuant to the provisions of the Act;

Now, therefore, It is hereby agreed between the Commission and the Governor of the Commonwealth acting on behalf of the Commonwealth as follows:

Article I

Subject to the exceptions provided in Articles II, IV, and V, the Commission shall discontinue, as of the effective date of this Agreement, the regulatory authority of the Commission in the Commonwealth under Chapters 6, 7, and 8, and Section 161 of the Act with respect to the following materials:

1. Byproduct materials as defined in Section 11e.(1) of the Act;
2. Byproduct materials as defined in Section 11e.(3) of the Act;
3. Byproduct materials as defined in Section 11e.(4) of the Act;
4. Source materials; and
5. Special nuclear materials in quantities not sufficient to form a critical mass.

Article II

This Agreement does not provide for discontinuance of any authority and the Commission shall retain authority and responsibility with respect to:

1. The regulation of the construction and operation of any production or utilization facility or any uranium enrichment facility;
2. The regulation of the export from or import into the United States of byproduct, source, or special nuclear material, or of any production or utilization facility;
3. The regulation of the disposal into the ocean or sea of byproduct, source, or special nuclear materials waste as defined in the regulations or orders of the Commission;
4. The regulation of the disposal of such other byproduct, source, or special nuclear materials waste as the Commission from time to time determines by regulation or order should, because of the hazards or potential hazards thereof, not be disposed without a license from the Commission;
5. The evaluation of radiation safety information on sealed sources or devices containing byproduct, source, or special nuclear materials and the registration of the sealed sources or devices for distribution, as provided for in regulations or orders of the Commission;

6. The regulation of byproduct material as defined in Section 11e.(2) of the Act;

7. The regulation of the land disposal of byproduct, source, or special nuclear material waste received from other persons.

Article III

With the exception of those activities identified in Article II.1 through 4, this Agreement may be amended, upon application by the Commonwealth and approval by the Commission, to include one or more of the additional activities specified in Article II, whereby the Commonwealth may then exert regulatory authority and responsibility with respect to those activities.

Article IV

Notwithstanding this Agreement, the Commission may from time to time by rule, regulation, or order, require that the manufacturer, processor, or producer of any equipment, device, commodity, or other product containing source, byproduct, or special nuclear material shall not transfer possession or control of such product except pursuant to a license or an exemption from licensing issued by the Commission.

Article V

This Agreement shall not affect the authority of the Commission under Subsection 161b or 161i of the Act to issue rules, regulations, or orders to protect the common defense and security, to protect restricted data, or to guard against the loss or diversion of special nuclear material.

Article VI

The Commission will cooperate with the Commonwealth and other Agreement States in the formulation of standards and regulatory programs of the Commonwealth and the Commission for protection against hazards of radiation and to assure that Commission and Commonwealth programs for protection against hazards of radiation will be coordinated and compatible.

The Commonwealth agrees to cooperate with the Commission and other Agreement States in the formulation of standards and regulatory programs of the Commonwealth and the Commission for protection against hazards of radiation and to assure that the Commonwealth's program will continue to be compatible with the program of the Commission for the regulation of materials covered by this Agreement.

The Commonwealth and the Commission agree to keep each other informed of proposed changes in their respective rules and regulations, and to provide each other the opportunity for early and substantive contribution to the proposed changes.

The Commonwealth and the Commission agree to keep each other informed of events, accidents, and licensee performance that may have generic implication or otherwise be of regulatory interest.

Article VII

The Commission and the Commonwealth agree that it is desirable to provide reciprocal recognition of licenses for the materials listed in Article I licensed by the other party or by any other Agreement State.

Accordingly, the Commission and the Commonwealth agree to develop appropriate rules, regulations, and procedures by which such reciprocity will be accorded.

Article VIII

The Commission, upon its own initiative after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing to the Commonwealth, or upon request of the Governor of the Commonwealth, may terminate or suspend all or part of this agreement and reassert the licensing and regulatory authority vested in it under the Act if the Commission finds that (1) such termination or suspension is required to protect public health and safety, or (2) the Commonwealth has not complied with one or more of the requirements of Section 274 of the Act.

The Commission may also, pursuant to Section 274j of the Act, temporarily suspend all or part of this agreement if, in the judgment of the Commission, an emergency situation exists requiring immediate action to protect public health and safety and the Commonwealth has failed to take necessary steps. The Commission shall periodically review actions taken by the Commonwealth under this Agreement to ensure compliance with Section 274 of the Act which requires a Commonwealth program to be adequate to protect public health and safety with respect to the materials covered by this Agreement and to be compatible with the Commission's program.

Article IX

This Agreement shall become effective on March 31, 2009, and shall remain in effect unless and until such time as it is terminated pursuant to Article VIII.

NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION

[IA-08-023; ASLBP No. 09-882-02-EA-BD01]

In the Matter of Himat Soni; Establishment of Atomic Safety and Licensing Board

Pursuant to delegation by the Commission dated December 29, 1972, published in the Federal Register, 37 FR 28710 (1972), and the Commission's regulations, see 10 CFR 2.104, 2.202, 2.300, 2.303, 2.309, 2.311, 2.318, and 2.321, notice is hereby given that an Atomic Safety and Licensing Board is being established to preside over the following proceeding:

In the Matter of Himat Soni; (Enforcement Action)

This proceeding concerns a request for a hearing submitted on March 13, 2009 by the law firm of Akerman Senterfitt on behalf of Mr. Himat Soni in response to a February 10, 2009 "NRC Staff Order Prohibiting Involvement in NRC-Licensed Activities," 74 FR 7932 (Feb. 20, 2009). Under the terms of that Order, the Staff concluded that Mr. Himat Soni, the President and Radiation Safety Officer of Eastern Testing and Inspection, Inc. (ETI), violated 10 CFR 30.10, which states, in part, that any Licensee or employee of a Licensee may not engage in deliberate misconduct that causes a Licensee to be in violation of any rule, regulation, or order issued by the Commission. The Order therefore prohibits Mr. Himat Soni from any involvement in NRC-licensed activities for a period of one year from the effective date of the Order.

The Board is comprised of the following administrative judges:

Ann Marshall Young, Chair, U.S.

Nuclear Regulatory Commission,
Washington, DC 20555-0001.

Paul B. Abramson, U.S. Nuclear

The minimum price variation for all classes included in the Penny Pilot Program, except for the QQQQs, is $0.01 for all quotations in option series that are quoted at less than $3 per contract and $0.05 for all quotations in option series that are quoted at $3 per contract or greater. The QQQQs are quoted in $0.01 increments for all options series.

During the extended Pilot Program, Nasdaq will submit a report addressing the impact of the pilot on the quality of the Exchange's markets and option quote traffic and capacity not later than the last business day of May 2009, covering the period from February 1, 2009 through April 30, 2009, and will submit further reports as requested by the Commission as the pilot continues.

2. Statutory Basis

Nasdaq believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the provisions of Section 6 of the Act,⁵ in general and with Section 6(b)(5) of the Act,⁶ in particular, in that it is designed to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to foster cooperation and coordination with persons engaged in regulating, clearing, settling, processing information with respect to, and facilitating transactions in securities, to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest; and are not designed to permit unfair discrimination between customers, issuers, brokers, or dealers, or to regulate by virtue of any authority conferred by this title matters not related to the purposes of this title or the administration of the exchange.

Analysis of the current Pilot has shown that the reduction in the minimum quoting increment has resulted in narrowing the average quoted spreads in all classes in the Pilot. A reduction in quoted spreads means that customers and other market participants may be able to trade options at better prices. Extending the Pilot Program as proposed will allow further analysis of the impact of penny quoting in the Pilot classes over a longer period of time on, among other things: (1) Spreads; (2) peak quote rates; (3) quote message traffic; (4) displayed size; (5) "depth of book" liquidity; and (6) market structure. Nasdaq's unique options market structure will add to the analysis delivered by the existing options markets to date.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

Nasdaq does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

Written comments were neither solicited nor received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Because the foregoing rule does not (i) Significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest; (ii) impose any significant burden on competition; and (iii) become operative for 30 days from the date on which it was filed, or such shorter time as the Commission may designate if consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest, the proposed rule change has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act⁷ and Rule 19b-4(f)(6) thereunder.⁸

The Exchange has requested that the Commission waive the 30-day operative delay so that the proposed rule change may become operative upon filing with the Commission pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act⁹ and Rule 19b-4(f)(6)¹⁰ thereunder. The Commission believes that waiving the 30-day operative delay is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest because such waiver will allow the Penny Pilot Program to continue without interruption through July 3, 2009.¹¹ Accordingly, the Commission designated the proposed rule change operative upon filing with the Commission.

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

[Release No. 34-59626; File No. SR-NYSE-2009-33]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; New York Stock Exchange LLC; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of Proposed Rule Change Modifying the Wireless Data Communications Initiatives and Codifying the Wireless Policy

March 25, 2009.

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act")¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on March 20, 2009, the New York Stock Exchange, LLC ("NYSE" or the "Exchange") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") the proposed rule change as described in Items I and II below, which Items have been prepared by NYSE. NYSE has submitted the proposed rule change pursuant to Rule 19b-4(f)(6) under the Act,³ which renders the proposal effective upon filing with the Commission. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

The Exchange proposes to: (1) Modify its Wireless Data Communications Initiatives (referred to herein as the "Wireless Policy") to eliminate the requirement that all orders or messages transmitted electronically from off the Floor must first be recorded in a Floor broker's booth location on the Floor ("Floor booth") before being transmitted to the Floor broker's wireless hand-held device for representation and execution; (2) modify the Wireless Policy to eliminate the requirement that Floor booth locations print paper records of all orders; (3) modify the interpretation of NYSE Rule 117 as it applies to what constitutes a "written order"; and (4) codify the Wireless Policy as amended herein.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the self-regulatory organization included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The self-regulatory organization has prepared summaries, set forth in sections (A), (B) and (C) below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

The Exchange proposes to: (1) Modify its Wireless Data Communications Initiatives (referred to herein as the "Wireless Policy")⁴ to eliminate the requirement that all orders or messages transmitted electronically from off the Floor must first be recorded in a Floor broker's booth location on the Floor ("Floor booth") before being transmitted to the Floor broker's wireless hand-held device for representation and execution; (2) modify the Wireless Policy to eliminate the requirement that Floor booth locations print paper records of all orders; (3) modify the interpretation of NYSE Rule 117 as it applies to what constitutes a "written order"; and (4) codify the Wireless Policy as amended herein.

The Exchange notes that parallel changes are proposed to be made to the rules of the NYSE Amex Exchange (formerly the American Stock Exchange).⁵

Background

On August 25, 1995, the Commission approved the Exchange's introduction of wireless data communications technology to the Floor. One feature of the wireless technology was the use of wireless hand-held data communications devices on the Floor. A wireless hand-held device ("hand-

The approval order of the initial filing and subsequent amendment by the Commission to changes to the Wireless Data Communications Initiatives has historically been referred to by the NYSE as the "Wireless Policy." held") is a tool used by NYSE Floor brokers as part of an integrated Floor order management system to trade and to send and receive messages. Such messages can consist of the price, size and time of the orders as well as cancellations and modification of orders from the hand-held to the Floor booth and thereafter to locations off the Floor. The Exchange developed and installed a wireless data communications infrastructure on its Floor and provided its Floor brokers with hand-helds. The Exchange also allowed private vendors to offer hand-helds, with any needed support infrastructure, to be used by Floor brokers.

The Wireless Policy was implemented in four phases in order to adequately install and test the viability of the wireless data communication infrastructure and connections to private vendor hand-helds.

By December 1997, the Exchange had completed the second phase of the implementation of the Wireless Policy, namely the supervision of additional pilot testing of independent wireless data communication services, including the services offered by the Exchange. After entering the next phase, the Exchange amended the Wireless Policy to, inter alia, modify the types of wireless data communications that the Exchange would permit over the infrastructure by allowing communications between two hand-helds on the Floor.⁶

The purpose of the 1997 amendments was to permit communication between two hand-helds on the Floor, thereby eliminating the first step of routing all such communications to the Floor booth. These amendments expedited the transmittal and receipt of orders and to allow for more efficient processing of orders and dissemination of information.

NYSE Rule 117 and the Wireless Policy

NYSE Rule 117 ("Orders of Members to be in Writing") states that no member on the Floor shall make any bid, offer or transaction for or on behalf of another member except pursuant to a written or electronically recorded order.

Pursuant to the Wireless Policy, the Exchange interpreted NYSE Rule 117 to mean that an order sent to an Exchange Floor member by an authorized hand-held constituted a "written order" for the purposes of NYSE Rule 117 if the member could show that the transmission of the order: (1) Provided adequate information relating to the price, size and time of the order, the cancellation of the order and any other relevant order information; (2) satisfied the Exchange's audit trail requirements; and (3) satisfied all other Exchange reporting and record-keeping requirements.

Furthermore, the Wireless Policy provided that all orders entered from off the Floor were required to be transmitted to a Floor broker's booth terminal prior to transmission to the Floor broker's hand-held.⁷ In addition, the Wireless Policy required Floor brokers to create and maintain a paper record at the booth to supplement the electronic record of an order transmitted from an off-Floor location to a booth terminal and, from the booth to a Floor broker's hand-held.⁸

Since the implementation of the Wireless Policy in 1995 and its subsequent amendment, the Exchange has made significant technological developments to the operation of its market. The Exchange has evolved into a more electronic market and the NYSE's trading systems have been continuously upgraded to provide for greater speed and efficiency in processing orders and reports through the hand-held.

The current electronic trading environment on the Floor has obviated the necessity for paper orders, as well as the need to electronically route all messages through the booth as an intermediate step between the Floor broker's hand-held and the message's points of origin and destination. In particular, the NYSE's systems have evolved significantly since the Wireless Policy was first approved, and are now capable of capturing all order information, including price, size and time, electronically, thereby rendering paper records unnecessary. In recognition of this, subsequent to the implementation of the Wireless policy, the Exchange amended NYSE Rule 123 (Record of Orders) to add sections (e) (System Entry Required) and (f) (Reports of Order Executions).⁹ These amendments required the entry of order information and execution reports into an electronic system on the Floor. All NYSE broker trading systems operate to create an electronic order trail, making the creation of a supplemental paper audit trail obsolete.¹⁰

Proposed Modifications to the Wireless Policy and Interpretation of NYSE Rule 117

The Exchange now proposes to amend the Wireless Policy and the interpretation of NYSE Rule 117, to provide that wireless communications can be sent and received directly to and from the hand-held. For example, orders entered from off the Floor may be transmitted directly to a hand-held, bypassing the booth.¹¹ Likewise, Floor brokers may send order-related messages (e.g., cancellations and administrative messages) and information (e.g., Market Look data) back to the customer directly through the hand-held. The Exchange seeks to modify its Wireless Policy to eliminate the requirement that orders be routed to the booth terminal before being received by the hand-held. Order-related messages or information sent from the hand-held would also not be routed to the booth terminal before being transmitted off-Floor. Pursuant to the instant proposal, orders and order-related messages or information may be sent directly to and received by the hand-held. These proposed amendments to the Wireless Policy do not change the content of what is sent currently to and from the hand-helds but simply amends the procedure for transmitting such information to and from the hand-held.

Pursuant to the proposed new Wireless Policy, where: (1) Orders are transmitted electronically from a member's off-Floor location to a booth

¹¹ In 2007, the NYSE amended NYSE Rule 54 and other rules to permit appropriately registered and supervised employees working in Exchange Regulation-approved booths to process orders sent to the booth in the same manner that sales traders in an "upstairs" office are allowed to process orders. See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 55908 (June 14, 2007), 72 FR 34056 (June 20, 2007) (SR-NYSE-07-51). See also Exchange Information Memo 07-77. This amendment to the Wireless Policy would not impact those rules because the direct transmittal of an order from off the Floor to the handheld would constitute a determination to have the order represented and executed on the NYSE Floor, and not processed in the booth in the same manner as an "upstairs" trading desk.

terminal and then the order is retransmitted from the booth terminal to a member's hand-held; or (2) order-related messages or information are transmitted directly to the hand-held, bypassing the booth, a record must be established and maintained which reflects the time the order or order-related message or information was received by the booth terminal or the hand-held. The time of receipt will be captured by the Booth or the hand-held, depending upon where the order was routed. The record of time of receipt by a hand-held and [sic] will be established and maintained by such device or the Booth and by the server which receives a message acknowledgment from the hand-held or the Booth. The Booth will not be required to print records.

Orders sent from off-Floor to the booth or the hand-held are first sent through a secured network and routed to an NYSE wired database that captures and records the orders. Likewise, order related messages or information generated from the Floor broker's booth or hand-holds are transmitted back to the Exchange-wired databases via the secured wireless network, where the information is captured and recorded, and then sent off-Floor to the customer via the Exchanges secured network. In short, Exchange wired databases capture and record all of the information sent to and transmitted from the hand-held.

The Exchange notes that the transmission of orders from off-Floor locations directly to the hand-holds and order-related messages or information sent from hand-holds to off-Floor locations will not result in an increased risk of loss of order information. As is the case today, all orders and order-related messages or information will be recorded in an Exchange database upon receipt and prior to delivery to the hand-held. In the event that a hand-held loses connectivity with the database, all incoming and outgoing transactions will continue to be captured and stored in said database and will be re-transmitted to the hand-held once connectivity is restored. To further mitigate the risk of any loss of data, the NYSE infrastructure offers a fully redundant, dual-sited back-up database. This same infrastructure is currently in place today for orders received into NYSE systems destined for a booth. Therefore, all the information captured by the database is the identical information that would be captured had the order been sent to the Floor booth before being sent to the hand-held or the order-related message or information had been sent from the hand-held to the Floor booth. The informational content transmitted to and from the hand-held remains the same and is not affected by these proposed amendments.

Furthermore, this change will not impact the requirements for the system entry of orders and execution reports under NYSE Rules 123(e) and (f). All order, order messages and report information captured by the database will be provided electronically in the same manner as orders transmitted directly to a booth today for audit trail purposes. The wireless infrastructure captures the same information that was previously captured in the Floor booth. The hand-held will operate as the functional equivalent as the Floor booth premise for order receipt and retention purposes.

Removing the requirement that orders be transmitted to the Floor booth will not affect the adequacy of information that is required to be provided through the hand-held. In fact, the hand-held will continue to provide the requisite information as to price, size and time of the order, and information if the order is cancelled. Audit trail information will be captured electronically by the hand-held, thereby obviating the need for the transmission to the booth terminal which historically recorded this information.

NYSE Rule 117 will now be interpreted to recognize any order transmitted directly to the hand-held to constitute a written order since the requisite information as to price, size and time of the order, and information if the order is cancelled will be captured by the hand-held. Furthermore, the information directly sent to the hand-held satisfies the Exchange's audit trail requirements and all other Exchange reporting and record-keeping requirements.

The Exchange believes that this proposal will provide for a more efficient and expeditious mechanism for order execution. The Exchange further believes that its customers and market participants will benefit from faster order execution, enhanced market quality and a reduction in latency of order executions as a result of this proposal.

2. Statutory Basis

The basis under the Act for the proposed rule change is the requirement under Section 6(b)(5),¹² which requires that an exchange have rules that are designed to foster cooperation and coordination with persons engaged in regulating, clearing, settling, processing information with respect to, and facilitating transactions in securities, to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest. The proposed rule change is consistent with these objectives in that it enables the Exchange to further facilitate transactions on the NYSE Trading Floor by eliminating the requirements that orders entered from off the Floor require transmission to a Floor booth before being transmitted to the hand-held for representation and execution or that order-related messages or information from the hand-held be transmitted to a Floor booth before being transmitted off-Floor. The elimination of this routing through the Floor booth terminal removes an impediment to the order execution system and provides for a faster, more efficient method of order execution.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants or Others

No written comments were solicited or received with respect to the proposed rule change.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Because the foregoing proposed rule change does not: (i) Significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest; (ii) impose any significant burden on competition; and (iii) become operative for 30 days from the date on which it was filed, or such shorter time as the Commission may designate, it has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act¹³ and Rule 19b-4(f)(6) thereunder.¹⁴

A proposed rule change filed pursuant to Rule 19b-4(f)(6) under the Act¹⁵ normally does not become operative for 30 days after the date of its filing. However, Rule 19b-4(f)(6)¹⁶ permits the Commission to designate a shorter time if such action is consistent

¹³ 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(3)(A).

¹⁴ 17 CFR 240.19b-4(f)(6). In addition, Rule 19b-4(f)(6) requires a self-regulatory organization to give the Commission written notice of its intent to file the proposed rule change at least five business days prior to the date of filing of the proposed rule change, or such shorter time as designated by the Commission. NYSE has satisfied this requirement.

¹⁵ 17 CFR 240.19b-4(f)(6).

with the protection of investors and the public interest. NYSE requests that the Commission waive the 30-day operative delay in order to immediately remove an impediment to the efficient execution of customer orders and transmission of order-related messages or information. The Exchange believes that it promotes the protection of investors and serves the public interest to have its systems allow for the delivery of customer orders to the point of sale and order-related messages or information back to the customer immediately now that hand-held technology is capable of meeting all audit trail requirements. The Commission notes the Exchange's representation that the proposed changes to the Wireless Policy do not change the content of what is sent to and from the hand-holds, but simply amends the procedure for transmitting such information. In addition, the Commission notes the Exchange's representation with regard to the ability of Exchange systems to capture and record all information sent to and transmitted from the handhelds. For these reasons, the Commission believes that waiving the 30-day operative delay¹⁷ is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest. Therefore, the Commission designates the proposal operative upon filing.

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

NYSE Amex LLC ("NYSE Amex" or "Exchange"), formerly the American Stock Exchange LLC and NYSE Alternext US LLC⁴ proposes to formally adopt and codify a Wireless Data Communications Initiative (referred to herein as the "Wireless Policy"). The proposed Wireless Policy is identical to a proposal separately submitted by the New York Stock Exchange LLC ("NYSE").⁵

Background

As described more fully in a related rule filing,⁶ NYSE Euronext acquired The Amex Membership Corporation ("AMC") pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated January 17, 2008 (the "Merger"). In connection with the Merger, the Exchange's predecessor, the American Stock Exchange LLC ("Amex"), a subsidiary of AMC, became a subsidiary of NYSE Euronext called NYSE Alternext US LLC, and continues to operate as a national securities exchange registered under Section 6 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Act").⁷ The effective date of the Merger was October 1, 2008.

In connection with the Merger, on December 1, 2008, the Exchange relocated all equities trading conducted on the Exchange legacy trading systems and facilities located at 86 Trinity Place, New York, New York, to trading systems and facilities located at 11 Wall Street, New York, New York (the "Equities Relocation"). The Exchange's equity trading systems and facilities at 11 Wall Street (the "NYSE Amex Trading Systems") are operated by the NYSE on behalf of the Exchange.⁸

As part of the Equities Relocation, NYSE Amex adopted NYSE Rules 1–1004, subject to such changes as necessary to apply the Rules to the Exchange, as the NYSE Amex Equities Rules to govern trading on the NYSE

Amex Trading Systems.⁹ The NYSE Amex Equities Rules, which became operative on December 1, 2008, are substantially identical to the current NYSE Rules 1–1004 and the Exchange continues to update the NYSE Amex Equities Rules as necessary to conform with rule changes to corresponding NYSE Rules filed by the NYSE.

Pursuant to the Equities Relocation, the Exchange's equity trading systems and facilities are operated by the NYSE on behalf of the Exchange. As a result, NYSE Amex Trading Systems currently operate pursuant to the NYSE's policies and procedures that govern wireless data communication technology of the Floor.¹⁰ The NYSE formally submitted a proposal to the Securities and Exchange Commission to modify its policies and procedures that govern wireless data communications technology on the systems NYSE operates on behalf of the Exchange. As such, the Exchange submits this proposal to formally adopt and codify those amended policies and procedures.

Wireless Policy

The Exchange now proposes to formally adopt a Wireless Policy that allows wireless communications to be sent to and received directly to and from: (i) A Floor broker's booth premise; or (ii) wireless technology in the form of wireless hand-held data communication devices. A wireless hand-held device ("hand-held") is a tool used by Floor brokers as part of an integrated Floor order management system to trade and to send and receive messages. Such messages can consist of orders and cancellations and modification of orders, as well as electronic text messages permitting the communication of text or graph information. Pursuant to the policy, orders entered from off the Floor may be transmitted to a Floor broker's booth or directly to a hand-held.¹¹ Likewise, Floor brokers may send order-related messages (e.g., cancellations and administrative messages) and information (e.g., Market Look data) back to the customer from the booth premise or directly from the hand-held.

Pursuant to the proposed Wireless Policy, where: (1) Orders are transmitted electronically from a member's off-Floor location to a booth terminal and then the order is retransmitted from the booth terminal to a member's hand-held; or (2) order-related messages or information are transmitted directly to the hand-held, bypassing the booth, a record must be established and maintained which reflects the time the order or order-related message or information was received by the booth terminal or the hand-held. The time of receipt will be captured by the Booth or the hand-held, depending upon where the order was routed. The record of time of receipt by a hand-held may be established and maintained by such device or the Booth and by the server which receives a message acknowledgment from the hand-held or the Booth. The Booth will not be required to print records.

Orders sent from off-Floor to the booth or the hand-held are first sent through a secured network and routed to an Exchange wired database that captures and records the orders. Likewise, order-related messages or information generated from the booth or the Floor broker's hand-held are transmitted back to the Exchange-wired databases via the secured wireless network, where the information is captured and recorded, and then sent off-Floor to the customer via the Exchange's secured network. In short, Exchange wired databases capture and record all of the information sent to and transmitted from the hand-held.

¹¹ Pursuant to NYSE Amex Equities Rule 54, appropriately registered and supervised employees working in Exchange Regulation-approved booths are permitted to process orders sent to a Floor broker's booth premise in the same manner that sales traders in an "upstairs" office are allowed to process orders. The proposed Wireless Policy would not impact this ability because the direct transmittal of an order from off the Floor to the handheld would constitute a determination to have the order represented and executed on the Exchange Floor, and not processed in the booth in the same manner as an "upstairs" trading desk.

The Exchange notes that the transmission of orders from off-Floor locations directly to the hand-holds and order-related messages or information sent from hand-holds to off-Floor locations will not result in an increased risk of loss of order information. As is the case today, all orders and order-related messages or information will be recorded in an Exchange database upon receipt and prior to delivery to the hand-held. In the event that a hand-held loses connectivity with the database, all incoming and outgoing transactions will continue to be captured and stored in said database and will be re-transmitted to the hand-held once connectivity is restored. To further mitigate the risk of any loss of data, the Exchange infrastructure offers a fully redundant, dual-sited back-up database. This same infrastructure is currently in place today for orders received into NYSE Amex systems destined for a booth. Therefore, all the information captured by the database is the identical information that would be captured had the order been sent to the Floor booth before being sent to the hand-held or the order-related message or information had been sent from the hand-held to the Floor booth. The informational content transmitted to and from the hand-held remains the same and is not affected by the proposed Wireless Policy.

Furthermore, this change will not impact the requirements for the system entry of orders and execution reports pursuant to NYSE Amex Equities Rule 123(e) and (f). All orders, order messages and report information captured by the database will be provided electronically in the same manner as orders transmitted directly to a booth today for audit trail purposes. The wireless infrastructure captures the same information that was previously captured in the Floor booth. The hand-held will operate as the functional equivalent as the Floor booth premise for order receipt and retention purposes.

Hand-holds will continue to provide the requisite information as to price, size and time of the order, and information if the order is cancelled. Audit trail information will be captured electronically by the hand-held, thereby obviating the need for the transmission to the booth terminal which historically recorded this information.

Pursuant to NYSE Amex Equities Rule 117, any order transmitted directly to the hand-held to constitute a written order since the requisite information as to price, size and time of the order, and information if the order is cancelled will be captured by the hand-held.

Furthermore, the information directly sent to the hand-held satisfies the Exchange's audit trail requirements and all other Exchange reporting and record-keeping requirements.

The Exchange believes that this proposal will facilitate an efficient and expeditious mechanism for order execution. The Exchange further believes that its customers and market participants will benefit from faster order execution, enhanced market quality and a reduction in latency of order executions as a result of this proposal.

2. Statutory Basis

The basis under the Act for the proposed rule change is the requirement under Section 6(b)(5),¹² which requires that an exchange have rules that are designed to foster cooperation and coordination with persons engaged in regulating, clearing, settling, processing information with respect to, and facilitating transactions in securities, to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest. The proposed rule change is consistent with these objectives in that it enables the Exchange to further facilitate transactions on the Exchange Trading Floor by allowing for the direct transmission of orders and order-related messages and information to the hand-held for representation and execution. Likewise, the ability to transmit order-related messages or information from the hand-held to off-Floor customers provides the customer with speed of execution and greater market transparency for off-Floor participants. Overall, the Exchange believes that its Wireless Policy provides for a faster, more efficient method of order execution.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants or Others

No written comments were solicited or received with respect to the proposed rule change.

¹² 15 U.S.C. 78f(b)(5).

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Because the foregoing proposed rule change does not: (i) Significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest; (ii) impose any significant burden on competition; and (iii) become operative for 30 days from the date on which it was filed, or such shorter time as the Commission may designate, it has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act¹³ and Rule 19b-4(f)(6) thereunder.¹⁴

A proposed rule change filed pursuant to Rule 19b-4(f)(6) under the Act¹⁵ normally does not become operative for 30 days after the date of its filing. However, Rule 19b-4(f)(6)¹⁶ permits the Commission to designate a shorter time if such action is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest. NYSE Amex requests that the Commission waive the 30-day operative delay in order to immediately remove an impediment to the efficient execution of customer orders and transmission of order-related messages or information. The Exchange represents that the proposed changes merely seek to adopt the identical provisions of the NYSE Wireless Policy. The Exchange believes that it promotes the protection of investors and serves the public interest to have its systems allow for the delivery of customer orders to the point of sale and order-related messages or information back to the customer immediately now that hand-held technology is capable of meeting all audit trail requirements. The Commission notes the Exchange's representation that the proposed changes to the Wireless Policy do not change the content of what is sent to and from the hand-holds, but simply amends the procedure for transmitting such information. In addition, the Commission notes the Exchange's representation with regard to the ability of Exchange systems to capture and record all information sent to and transmitted from the handhelds. For these reasons, the Commission believes that waiving the 30-day operative delay¹⁷ is consistent with the protection

¹³ 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(3)(A).

¹⁴ 17 CFR 240.19b-4(f)(6). In addition, Rule 19b-4(f)(6) requires a self-regulatory organization to give the Commission written notice of its intent to file the proposed rule change at least five business days prior to the date of filing of the proposed rule change, or such shorter time as designated by the Commission. NYSE Amex has satisfied this requirement.

¹⁵ 17 CFR 240.19b-4(f)(6).

¹⁶ 17 CFR 240.19b-4(f)(6).

¹⁷ For purposes only of waiving the 30-day operative delay, the Commission has considered the of investors and the public interest. Therefore, the Commission designates the proposal operative upon filing.

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:

Interest Rates

The Small Business Administration publishes an interest rate called the optional "peg" rate (13 CFR 120.214) on a quarterly basis. This rate is a weighted average cost of money to the government for maturities similar to the average SBA direct loan. This rate may be used as a base rate for guaranteed fluctuating interest rate SBA loans. This rate will be 3.375 (3 3/8) percent for the April-June quarter of FY 2009.

Pursuant to 13 CFR 120.921(b), the maximum legal interest rate for any third party lender's commercial loan which funds any portion of the cost of a 504 project (see 13 CFR 120.801) shall be 6% over the New York Prime rate or, if that exceeds the maximum interest rate permitted by the constitution or laws of a given State, the maximum interest rate will be the rate permitted by the constitution or laws of the given State.

DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Office of the Secretary

Providing Guidance on Airline Baggage Liability and Responsibilities of Code Share Partners Involving International Itineraries

AGENCY: Office of the Secretary, Department of Transportation.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Department is publishing the following notice on Airline Baggage Liability and Responsibilities of Code Share Partners Involving International Itineraries.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Nicholas Lowry, Attorney, Office of Aviation Enforcement and Proceedings (C-70), 1200 New Jersey Ave., SE., Washington, DC 20590, (202) 366-9349.

This notice is intended to give guidance to U.S. and foreign air carriers on two tariff matters: First, tariffs relating to liability for lost, stolen, delayed or damaged baggage carried on international itineraries; and second, tariffs that appear to assign responsibility, in code-share service, to the operating carrier rather than the selling carrier (i.e., the carrier shown on the ticket).

We have become aware of tariff provisions filed by several carriers that attempt, with respect to checked baggage, to exclude certain items, generally high-cost or fragile items such as electronics, cameras, jewelry or antiques, from liability for damage, delay, loss or theft. A typical provision found in carrier tariffs and disclosed on carrier Web sites states that the carrier does not assume liability for loss, damage, or delay of "certain specific items, including: * * * antiques, documents, electronic equipment, film, jewelry, keys, manuscripts, medication, money, paintings, photographs * * *."

Such exclusions, while not prohibited in domestic contracts of carriage, are in contravention of Article 17 of the Montreal Convention (Convention),¹ as revised on May 28, 1999. Article 17 provides that carriers are liable for damaged or lost baggage if the "destruction, loss or damage" occurred while the checked baggage was within the custody of the carrier, except to the extent that the damage "resulted from the inherent defect, quality or vice of the baggage."² Article 19 provides that a carrier is liable for damage caused by delay in the carriage of baggage, except to the extent that it proves that it took all reasonable measures to prevent the damage or that it was impossible to take such measures. Although carriers may wish to have tariff terms that prohibit passengers from including certain items in checked baggage, once a carrier accepts checked baggage, whatever is contained in the checked baggage is protected, subject to the terms of the

² The quoted language might absolve a carrier from liability for a fragile item that is damaged during transport. It would not absolve the carrier from liability for the item's loss or theft.

Convention, up to the limit of 1000 SDRs (Convention, Article 22, para. 2.).³ Carriers should review their filed tariffs on this matter and modify their tariffs and their baggage claim policies, if necessary, to conform to the terms of the Convention. In addition, carriers should ensure that their websites do not contain improper information regarding baggage liability exclusions applicable to international service.

A second issue of concern stems from airline tariffs related to code-share service. As a condition for approval of international code-share services, the Department has as a matter of policy required that “the carrier selling such transportation (i.e., the carrier shown on the ticket) accept responsibility for the entirety of the code-share journey for all obligations established in the contract of carriage with the passenger; and that the passenger liability of the operating carrier be unaffected.” (Order 2008–5–19, OST–2008–0064).⁴ Notwithstanding this clear language, several carriers have filed tariff provisions that purport to apply the terms and conditions of the operating carrier’s contract of carriage generally, or in certain areas such as check-in time limits, unaccompanied minors, carriage of animals, refusal to transport, oxygen service, irregular operations, denied boarding compensation, and baggage acceptance, allowance and liability. Others state that passengers on code-share flights “may be subject” to the operating carrier’s baggage charges. A number of carriers have no clear tariff rule on the subject. The intent of this DOT code-share approval provision may not be circumvented by tariff provisions attempting to allocate responsibility and contract of carriage provisions in different ways by the carriers involved, or by silence on the subject. As with the exclusionary provisions cited above, carriers should review their tariffs and practices and make revisions, if necessary, to reflect the conditions imposed in the Department’s orders approving code-share service.

As a matter of policy, the Aviation Enforcement Office will consider the subject tariff provisions noted above involving exclusionary baggage provisions to be of no effect and in violation of the Convention and those ³ Article 22, para. 2 also allows the passenger to declare excess value for baggage, subject to payment of a supplementary fee if the carrier so requires. Some tariff provisions state that the higher declared value shall not apply to a list of valuable articles including “money, jewelry, silverware, negotiable papers, securities, business documents, samples, paintings * * *.” Such rules are also inconsistent with the Convention.

involving code share relationships to be in violation of pertinent Department approvals of those code-share services. The tariffs and their application, and similar practices, in the view of the Aviation Enforcement Office, also constitute unfair or deceptive business practices and unfair methods of competition in violation of 49 U.S.C. 41712. Carriers should, therefore, review their tariffs and practices with respect to these two areas and, if necessary, immediately modify their practices to conform to the Convention and Department code-share conditions and, within 90 days of this notice, revise their respective tariffs and modify appropriately the statements of their baggage and code-share policies on their Web sites. After that date, the Aviation Enforcement Office will pursue enforcement action in appropriate cases. This disclosure guidance, it should be noted, also extends to ticket agents. Questions regarding this notice may be addressed to the Office of Aviation Enforcement and Proceedings (C–70), U.S. Department of Transportation, 1200 New Jersey Ave., SE., Washington, DC 20590.

DATES: The effective date of the FAA’s determination on the noise exposure maps and of the start of its review of the associated noise compatibility program is March 20, 2009. The public comment period ends May 19, 2009.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

FAA, Todd Madison, ACE–61 1 F, 901 Locust, Room 335, Kansas City, Missouri 64106–2325, todd.madison@faa.gov, 816–329–2640. Comments on the proposed noise compatibility program should also be submitted to the above office.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This notice announces the FAA finds that the noise exposure maps submitted for the Kansas City International Airport are in compliance with applicable requirements of Part 150, effective March 20, 2009. Further, FAA is reviewing a proposed noise compatibility program for that airport which will be approved or disapproved on or before September 16, 2009. This notice also announces the availability of this program for public review and comment.

Under 49 U.S.C., section 47503 of the Act, an airport operator may submit to the FAA noise exposure maps which meet applicable regulations and which depict non-compatible land uses as of the date of submission of such maps, a description of projected aircraft operations, and the ways in which such operations will affect such maps. The Act requires such maps to be developed in consultation with interested and affected parties in the local community, government agencies, and persons using the airport.

An airport operator who has submitted noise exposure maps that are found by FAA to be in compliance with the requirements of Part 150, promulgated pursuant to the Act, may submit a noise compatibility program for FAA approval which sets forth the measures the operator has taken or proposes to take to reduce existing non-compatible uses and prevent the introduction of additional non-compatible uses.

The Kansas City Aviation Department submitted to the FAA on March 6, 2009, noise exposure maps, descriptions and other documentation that were produced during the “2008 Update to 14 CFR Part 150 Noise Exposure Maps and

DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Federal Aviation Administration

Noise Exposure Map Notice; Receipt of Noise Compatibility Program and Request for Review; Kansas City International Airport, Kansas City, MO

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration, DOT.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) announces its determination that the noise exposure maps submitted by the Kansas City Aviation Department for the Kansas City International Airport under the provisions of 49 U.S.C. 47501 et seq. (Aviation Safety and Noise Abatement Act, herein after referred to as “the Act”) and 14 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) part 150 (hereinafter referred to as “Part 150”) are in compliance with applicable requirements. The FAA also announces Noise Compatibility Program." It was requested that the FAA review this material as the noise exposure maps, as described in section 47503 of the Act, and that the noise mitigation measures, to be implemented jointly by the airport and surrounding communities, be approved as a noise compatibility program under section 47504 of the Act.

The FAA has completed its review of the noise exposure maps and related descriptions submitted by the Kansas City Aviation Department. The specific documentation determined to constitute the noise exposure maps includes: Current Noise Exposure Map (2008) as shown on Exhibit NEM-1, Future Noise Exposure Map/Noise Compatibility Program Map (2013) as shown on Exhibit NEM-2, and the associated supporting report, "2008 Update to 14 CFR Part 150 Noise Exposure Maps and Noise Compatibility Program", which contains all other narrative, graphic, or tabular representations of the data as required by section Al 50.101 of Part 150, and sections 47503 and 47506 of the Act. The FAA has determined that these maps for the Kansas City International Airport are in compliance with applicable requirements. This determination is effective on March 20, 2009. FAA's determination on an airport operator's noise exposure maps is limited to a finding that the maps were developed in accordance with the procedures contained in appendix A of FAR part 150. Such determination does not constitute approval of the applicant's data, information or plans, or constitute a commitment to approve a noise compatibility program or to fund the implementation of that program.

If questions arise concerning the precise relationship of specific properties to noise exposure contours depicted on a noise exposure map submitted under section 47503 of the Act, it should be noted that the FAA is not involved in any way in determining the relative locations of specific properties with regard to the depicted noise contours, or in interpreting the noise exposure maps to resolve questions concerning, for example, which properties should be covered by the provisions of section 47506 of the Act. These functions are inseparable from the ultimate land use control and planning responsibilities of local government. These local responsibilities are not changed in any way under Part 150 or through FAA's review of noise exposure maps. Therefore, the responsibility for the detailed overlaying of noise exposure contours onto the map depicting properties on the surface rests exclusively with the airport operator that submitted those maps, or with those public agencies and planning agencies with which consultation is required under section 47503 of the Act. The FAA has relied on the certification by the airport operator, under section 150.21 of Part 150, that the statutorily required consultation has been accomplished.

The FAA has formally received the noise compatibility program for the Kansas City International Airport, also effective on March 20, 2009. Preliminary review of the submitted material indicates that it conforms to the requirements for the submittal of noise compatibility programs, but that further review will be necessary prior to approval or disapproval of the program. The formal review period, limited by law to a maximum of 180 days, will be completed on or before September 16, 2009.

The FAA's detailed evaluation will be conducted under the provisions of section 150.33 of Part 150. The primary considerations in the evaluation process are whether the proposed measures may reduce the level of aviation safety, create an undue burden on interstate or foreign commerce, or be reasonably consistent with obtaining the goal of reducing existing non compatible land uses and preventing the introduction of additional non-compatible land uses.

Interested persons are invited to comment on the proposed program with specific reference to these factors. All relevant comments, other than those properly addressed to local land use authorities, will be considered by the FAA to the extent practicable. Copies of the noise exposure maps, the FAA's evaluation of the maps, and the proposed noise compatibility program are available for examination at the following locations:

Federal Aviation Administration, Central Region Airports Division, Room 335, 901 Locust, Kansas City, Missouri 64106-2325, from 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Lapondzia Jones, Kansas City Aviation Department, Kansas City International Airport, 601 Brasilia Avenue, Kansas City, Missouri 64153-2054, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Questions may be directed to the individual named above under the heading, FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Effective July 1, 2007, the FHWA assigned, and the California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) assumed, environmental responsibilities for this project pursuant to 23 U.S.C. 327. Notice is hereby given that Caltrans has taken final agency actions subject to 23 U.S.C. 139(l)(1) by issuing licenses, permits, and approvals for the following highway project in the State of California: The project is located in northern San Diego County on SR-76 from Melrose Drive in the City of Oceanside, to South Mission Road in the unincorporated community of Bonsall, covering a distance of approximately 9.4-kilometers (5.8-miles). The project would construct SR-76 as a four-lane conventional highway with right-of-way and grading to accommodate future widening, if justified. The project would require channelization lanes in some locations and would be constructed to accommodate six-lanes in response to the channelization need. The Existing Alignment Alternative has been selected as the Preferred Alternative and the Least Environmentally Damaging Practicable Alternative (LEDPA). The FHWA project reference number is FHWA-CA-EIS-07-01-F. The actions by the Federal agencies, and the laws under which such actions were taken, are described in the Final Environmental Impact Statement (FEIS) for the project, approved on November 26, 2008, in the FHWA Record of Decision (ROD) issued on March 3, 2009, and in other documents in the FHWA project records. The FEIS, ROD, and other project records are available by contacting Caltrans at the addresses provided above. The Caltrans FEIS and ROD can be viewed and downloaded from the project Web site at <http://www.keepsandiegomoving.com/sr-76.html>. Pending federal actions include:

of Title 49 of the CFR: 216 (Special notice and emergency order procedures: Railroad track, locomotive and equipment), 217 (Railroad operating rules), 218 (Railroad operating practices), 229 (Railroad locomotive safety standards), 233 (Signal systems reporting requirements), 235 (Instructions governing applications for approval or a discontinuance or material modification of a signal system or relief from the requirements of part 236), 236 (Rules, standards, and instructions governing the installation, inspection, maintenance, and repair of signal and train control systems, devices, and appliances), and 240 (Qualification and certification of locomotive engineers). Details of the exact relief granted are found in FRA's June 11, 2007, letter (document number FRA-2006-25057-0008).

The CBTM test territory authorized was 144.9 miles of CSXT trackage on the Blue Ridge Subdivision of the Huntington Division West, and 128.1 miles of CSXT trackage on two subdivisions, the Spartanburg and McCormick subdivisions of the Florence Division.

In association with the continued development and implementation testing of the CBTM system, by letter dated August 13, 2008, CSXT submitted an amended informational filing and waiver petition seeking to modify the terms of FRA's June 11, 2007, approval. In its August 13, 2008, waiver petition, CSXT asserts that because of increased traffic in the approved test territories, recent signal system upgrades have been completed that limit its ability to properly conduct CBTM field tests in the previously approved territory. Accordingly, CSXT requests that FRA amend its original approval and waiver to apply to new test territories on the railroad's Aberdeen and Andrews's subdivisions. Specifically, CSXT requests authority to test its CBTM system consistent with the conditions outlined in FRA's June 11, 2007, approval on 86.9 miles of CSXT trackage on the Aberdeen subdivision and 156.6 miles of CSXT trackage on the Andrews subdivision. Both the Aberdeen and Andrews subdivision are part of CSXT's Florence Division.

For information purposes only, FRA is also providing notice that pursuant to 49 CFR 236.913(j), CSXT has submitted an amended informational filing pertaining to enhancements that have been made to the CBTM system. FRA will accept comments on the amended informational filing only as far as that document requires waivers from regulatory requirements.

Notice of Informational Filing To Test a Processor-Based Signal and Train Control System and a Request for Waiver of Compliance

In accordance with Part 211 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), notice is hereby given that the Federal Railroad Administration (FRA) received a request for a waiver of compliance from certain requirements of its Federal railroad safety regulations. The individual petition is described below, including the party seeking relief, the regulatory provisions involved, the nature of the relief being requested, and the petitioner's arguments in favor of relief.

CSX Transportation, Inc.

(Docket Number FRA-2006-25057)

On June 11, 2007, FRA authorized CSX Transportation, Inc. (CSXT) to conduct limited field testing of its Communications Based Train Management (CBTM) system. CBTM is a non-vital safety-critical overlay designed to supplement the existing method of operation to protect against the consequence of human error. As part of this authorization, FRA granted CSXT temporary conditional relief from certain requirements of the Federal railroad safety regulations, including specific sections of the following Parts

Petition for Waiver of Compliance

In accordance with Part 211 of Title 49 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), notice is hereby given that the Federal Railroad Administration (FRA) received a request for a waiver of compliance with certain requirements of its safety standards. The individual petition is described below, including the party seeking relief, the regulatory provisions involved, the nature of the relief being requested, and the petitioner's arguments in favor of relief.

New River Railway Company (Docket Number FRA-2009-0005)

The New River Railway Company (NR) of Devonia, Tennessee, has petitioned for a permanent waiver of compliance for one locomotive (SOU 520) and two rail passenger coaches (NR 290 and NR 808) from the requirements of the Railroad Safety Glazing Standards, Title 49 CFR Part 223, which require certified glazing in all windows. The locomotive, as well as the two coaches, are in good condition with no defective glass.

NR operates between Huntsville and Devonia, Tennessee, a distance of approximately 32 miles, only on Saturday and Sunday. The territory is farm land, dense woodland and tall hills following NR. The operating speed is between 10 and 15 miles per hour (mph) and slowed down to 5 mph at times for passengers to view certain scenery. NR states that there is no history of vandalism involving their operations. NR also states that no one makes the safety glazing for the subject locomotive and the coaches because of the age of the equipment, and that to have the glazing specially made to FRA specifications for this equipment could cost more than the equipment would be worth to start with.

Interested parties are invited to participate in these proceedings by submitting written views, data, or comments. FRA does not anticipate scheduling a public hearing in connection with these proceedings since the facts do not appear to warrant a hearing. If any interested party desires an opportunity for oral comment, they should notify FRA, in writing, before the end of the comment period and specify the basis for their request.

All communications concerning these proceedings should identify the appropriate docket number (e.g., Waiver Petition Docket Number FRA-2009-0005) and may be submitted by any of the following methods:

Railserve Inc.

[Docket Number FRA-2008-0138]

The Railserve Inc. (RASX) of Atlanta, Georgia, has petitioned for a permanent waiver of compliance for fifteen (15) locomotives from the requirements of the Railroad Safety Glazing Standards, Title 49 CFR Part 223, which requires certified glazing in all windows. The reporting marks on these locomotives are RASX 5487, RASX 1078, RASX 2460, RASX 2558, RASX 8959, RASX 5489, RASX 5077, RASX 1037, RASX 356, RASX 4487, RASX 4489, RASX 8999, RASX 103, RPRY 2402, and LTEX 2503.

These locomotives are used in switching operations inside the DOW A & B Chemical Plants in Freeport, Texas. The switching operations involve interchange with the Union Pacific Railroad Company for inbounds and outbounds only on the trackage that is less than 1/4 mile long. RASX states that there is no history of vandalism at the DOW A & B Chemical Plants in Freeport, Texas, and that all of the locomotives are parked inside the plants at all times. The top speed of operations is 5 miles per hour. RASX has stated that to install glass at FRA specifications would be cost prohibitive.

SMS Rail Service

[Docket Number FRA-2009-0018]

The SMS Rail Service (SMS Lines) of Bridgeport, New Jersey, has petitioned for a permanent waiver of compliance for three locomotives (SLRS 304, SLRS 305 and SLRS 306) from the requirements of the Railroad Safety Glazing Standards, Title 49 CFR Part 223, which requires certified glazing in all windows. The locomotives are in good condition with no defective glass. SMS Lines operates these locomotives in back-up service within the Pureland Industrial Park in Bridgeport, NJ, and the Valero Refinery in Paulsboro, NJ. There has been no history of broken glass at these locations and there are no overhead bridges or tunnels. The maximum operating speed is 10 miles per hour. SMS Lines states that they plan to upgrade all three locomotives to FRA Safety Glazing Standards as and when these locomotives are overhauled and repaired. SMS Lines is, therefore, seeking interim relief from the FRA Safety Glazing Standards.

Interested parties are invited to participate in these proceedings by submitting written views, data, or comments. Sunflour Railroad Inc./Denver Rock Island Railroad

[Docket Number FRA-2003-15513]

The Sunflour Railroad Inc./Denver Rock Island Railroad (SNR) of Commerce City, Colorado, has petitioned for a permanent waiver of compliance for one locomotive (SNR 61) from the requirements of the Railroad Safety Glazing Standards, Title 49 CFR Part 223, which require certified glazing in all windows. The locomotive is equipped with automotive type safety glass that is in good condition with no discoloration. SNR operates over 26.3 miles of excepted track in primarily rural territory at speeds not exceeding 10 miles per hour. There has been no instances of vandalism from the time the original waiver was granted in 2003. As stated in their original petition for waiver in 2003, SNR states that the expense of retrofitting the locomotive to comply with FRA Safety Glazing Standards would impose an undue financial burden on the company to protect against situations they do not encounter.

BILLING CODE 4910-06-P

National Highway Traffic Safety Administration

[Docket No. NHTSA-2008-0178]

Amendments to Highway Safety Program Guidelines

AGENCY: National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA), Department of Transportation.

ACTION: Revisions to highway safety program guidelines.

SUMMARY: Section 402 of title 23 of the United States Code requires the Secretary of Transportation to promulgate uniform guidelines for State highway safety programs.

This notice revises five of the existing guidelines and adds a new one to reflect program methodologies and approaches that have proven to be successful and are based on sound science and program administration. The revised guidelines are Guideline No. 4 Driver Education; Guideline No. 5 Non-Commercial Driver Licensing; Guideline No. 7 Judicial and Court Services; Guideline No. 10 Traffic Records; and Guideline No. 17 Pupil Transportation. The new guideline is Guideline No. 12 Prosecutor Training.

DATES: The revised guidelines become effective as of the date of publication of this document in the Federal Register.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Susan Kirinich, Research and Program Development, NTI-100, National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, 1200 New Jersey Avenue SE., Washington, DC 20590; Telephone: 202-366-1755; Fax: 202-366-7721.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

Section 402 of title 23 of the United States Code requires the Secretary of Transportation to promulgate uniform guidelines for State highway safety programs. As the highway safety environment changes, it is necessary for NHTSA to update the guidelines to provide current information on effective program content for States to use in developing and assessing their traffic safety programs. Each of the revised guidelines reflects the best available science and the real-world experience of NHTSA and the States in developing and managing traffic safety program content. Specifically, NHTSA will update the guidelines periodically to address new issues and to emphasize program methodology and approaches that have proven to be effective in these program areas.

The guidelines offer direction to States in formulating their highway safety plans for highway safety efforts that are supported with Section 402 grant funds as well as safety activities funded from other sources. The guidelines provide a framework for developing a balanced highway safety program and serve as a tool with which States can assess the effectiveness of their own programs. NHTSA encourages States to use these guidelines and build upon them to optimize the effectiveness of highway safety programs conducted at the State and local levels.

The revised and new guidelines emphasize areas of nationwide concern and highlight effective countermeasures. As each guideline is updated or created, it will include a date representing the date of its revision or development.

All the highway safety guidelines are available on the NHTSA Web site at <http://www.nhtsa.dot.gov/nhtsa/whatsup/tea21/tea21programs/>.

In a Notice published in the Federal Register on February 6, 2007 (72 FR 5495), the agency requested comments on the proposed revisions and additions to the guidelines. The guidelines the agency proposed to revise were Guideline No. 4 Driver Education; Guideline No. 5 Non-Commercial Driver Licensing; Guideline No. 7 Judicial and Court Services; Guideline No. 10 Traffic Records; Guideline No. 17 Pupil Transportation; and Guideline No. 21 Roadway Safety. The new guideline is Guideline No. 12 Prosecutor Training. This new Guideline was developed because NHTSA has found educating prosecutors and judges to be an important part of broader efforts to enforce and prosecute traffic safety laws at the State and local levels. Guideline No. 21 Roadway Safety is still under review, and will be addressed in a subsequent publication. Overall, these revisions and additions will provide up-to-date and current guidance to States.

II. Comments

The agency received comments in response to the notice from several organizations or associations: the American Automobile Association (AAA), the Driver Education and Training Administrators (DETA), the Governors Highway Safety Association (GHSA), the Motorcycle Riders Foundation (MRF), the Motorcycle Safety Foundation (MSF), the National Road Safety Foundation (NRSF), the National School Transportation Association (NSTA), the National Association of Students Against Violence Everywhere (SAVE), one State agency (the State of Michigan Department of State Police); and four individuals.

GHSA submitted general comments on the guidelines. The majority of guideline-specific comments received focused on Guidelines No. 4 Driver Education and No. 5 Non-Commercial Driver Licensing. The agency also received two comments related to Guideline No. 17 Pupil Transportation.

A. Comments in General

SAVE generally supported the guidelines, stating that the guidelines further encourage States to protect students. MRF and MSF expressed general support for the proposed additions of motorcycle-specific safety references.

GHSA provided several general comments on the guidelines and commented on NHTSA's characterization that the guidelines offer direction to States in formulating their highway safety plans for efforts supported with Section 402 and other funds. GHSA also asserted that the 402 program is a behavioral program rather than a comprehensive highway safety program. GHSA further commented that a State's annual Highway Safety Plan is not comprehensive and does not replace strategic highway safety plan requirements under the Highway Safety Improvement Program (HSIP) of Section 148 of the Safe, Accountable, Flexible, Efficient Transportation Equity Act: A Legacy for Users (SAFETEA-LU), Public Law 109-59.

The HSIP directs State transportation departments to establish and implement a State strategic highway safety plan in their State. To receive funds for the program, States must have a process in place to analyze highway safety problems and opportunities and to produce strategies to mitigate identified safety problems. The development and implementation of a strategic highway safety plan within each State requires that the transportation department conduct extensive consultation with other organizations within the State and adopt strategic and performance-based goals that are coordinated with other State highway safety programs. In and of itself this does not require changes in existing planning processes, plans, or programs of other State highway safety agencies; and updating and revising the Highway Safety Guidelines is not considered to be in conflict with the HSIP requirements.

Consistent with Congressional direction, NHTSA has issued the guidelines to provide broad guidance to the States on best practices in each program area. Research has shown that the most effective traffic safety countermeasures involve a comprehensive approach that utilizes education, enforcement, engineering and emergency medical services (the "4 E's"). This comprehensive approach is cross-cutting by nature and requires voluntary coordination between various State and local agencies. A State Highway Safety Office (SHSO) cannot require or mandate other State or local agencies to participate in this type of cross-cutting program. That does not mean, however, that the overall program approach should avoid those areas that are the primary responsibility of other governmental agencies. A SHSO should seek to work cooperatively with other State and local agencies to implement the guidelines and in development and implementation of the strategic highway safety plan required under Section 148 of SAFETEA-LU. These guidelines are not meant to supersede that process, but rather to complement it.

Citing specific examples in three proposed guidelines (Guideline No. 4 Driver Education; Guideline No. 5 Non-Commercial Driver Licensing; and Guideline No. 7 Judicial and Court Services), GHSA also asserted that "the guidelines recommend that SHSOs play a role that is beyond their authority or control or that may be unacceptable politically." NHTSA does not expect a SHSO to go beyond its State mandate to fulfill the guidelines. It can, however, encourage and support the efforts by other State agencies by providing leadership, technical guidance, or training in these areas, where appropriate.

GHSA also voiced concerns regarding the use of the guidelines. Specifically, GHSA asked whether NHTSA would hold a SHSO responsible for implementing the specific countermeasures in the guidelines, connecting them to assessments and management reviews. The purpose of each highway safety guideline is to provide States a description of a successful comprehensive highway safety program addressing a given safety issue. The agency does not intend the guidelines to be limited to activities required by Section 402, but rather to serve as a blueprint for States in developing and administering their own highway safety programs. Given the unique and changing circumstances in each State, certain guidelines and parts of guidelines may have a greater or lesser impact on the safety plans of different States. NHTSA Regional Offices can provide guidance to States to help determine how to use the guidelines most effectively based on individual State needs.

GHSA asked that NHTSA remove from the guidelines references to SHSOs. NHTSA believes that SHSOs have an important leadership role in developing comprehensive traffic safety programs that effectively reduce traffic fatalities. The highway safety guidelines are intended to provide direction to help SHSOs achieve that goal. As such, the guidelines remain unchanged in response to GHSA's comments outlined above.

B. Comments Regarding Guideline No. 4: Driver Education

The agency received comments related to Guideline No. 4 from AAA, DETA, GHSA, MRF, MSF, NRSF, and three individuals. The comments are addressed below under the corresponding Guideline section.

I. Program Management

DETA, AAA, and NRSF provided similar comments regarding the Program Management section of the Driver Education Guideline. In particular, DETA suggested that the Guideline should apply to public and private providers of driver education, that there should be collaboration and coordination with other State agencies in addition to the highway safety office, and the inclusion of a full-time State employee to provide leadership for driver education. The agency agrees with these suggestions and recommends that, to the extent feasible, States devote a full-time position for coordination and oversight of its driver education program.

AAA and NRSF stressed the importance of evaluating driver education programs and suggested the use of their materials to achieve this. The agency agrees that this kind of evaluation is important. However, the Guideline allows States to identify their own tools to help them accomplish this goal. NRSF also suggested periodic assessment of drivers. NHTSA believes that the expense of encouraging States to set up such a system would be prohibitive, particularly in light of unknown benefits. The Guideline remains unchanged in response to this comment.

DETA and NRSF stressed the importance of educating younger children about traffic safety. The agency agrees with this comment, and has added language recommending that States consider driver and highway safety education for younger students.

NRSF recommended that each State provide financial incentives to schools to teach driver education. The agency believes that this is solely within the discretion of each State, and, thus, has not included language to this effect in the Guideline.

II. Legislation, Regulation, and Policy

The MSF suggested that language regarding graduated driver licensing (GDL) restrictions may be more appropriate for Highway Safety Guideline No. 5. The agency retained the language in Guideline No. 4, but also added it to Guideline No. 5.

The MRF asked for a "common sense approach" in adapting GDL guidelines to motorcycles. NHTSA agrees and has added the language to this Guideline where GDL pertains to motorcycles. In response to this Guideline and Guideline No. 5, MRF indicated it would oppose the Guideline separating motorcycle licenses into categories. The agency notes that neither Guideline suggests such separation.

III. Enforcement Program

An individual commented that GDL is not enforced by the police. The agency agrees that challenges exist for GDL enforcement due to the inherent difficulties of identifying drivers covered by GDL restrictions. The agency has included in the existing language the need for visible and well-publicized enforcement of the components of the GDL and zero tolerance laws. AAA recommended evaluation of enforcement efforts. The agency agrees and believes this is part of an overall evaluation program that is currently incorporated within the Guideline. However, the agency added additional language to this section of the Guideline to further emphasize evaluation of enforcement efforts.

IV. Driver Education and Training Program

DETA suggested that NHTSA incorporate a section in this Guideline pertaining to continuing education for driver education instructors. DETA and AAA commented in support of inclusion of standards for driver education instructors, and indicated that this Guideline should apply to both public and commercial schools. DETA and AAA emphasized that coordination among all State agencies, not just the State Highway Safety Office, dealing with driver education is necessary. The agency agrees with these comments and that coordination among State agencies responsible for driver education is beneficial and has incorporated these suggestions into the Guideline.

DETA also suggested the inclusion of parent involvement in GDL. The agency agrees and has incorporated language in the Guideline regarding parental involvement.

AAA and NRSF recommended including a more comprehensive "post novice" or "adult retraining" within the Guideline. While NHTSA agrees that this additional training may be beneficial, States can opt to promote refresher training for older drivers through private sources or through a State agency. The Guideline remains unchanged in response to these comments.

AAA supports coordinating driver education with GDL. The agency agrees but believes the Guideline already addresses this concern.

One individual suggested alternate language for major parts of the elements of a training program. Some of these coincided with DETA recommendations. The Guideline incorporates two specific suggestions pertaining to requiring training in balanced vehicle movements (through steering, braking, accelerating, etc.) and training in new vehicle technology.

DETA recommended that training vehicles include certain safety equipment and that driver education programs include cognitive skills. The agency agrees and has incorporated this information into the Guideline.

DETA proposed the inclusion of "risk prevention" techniques within the Guideline's discussion about advanced driving techniques. Both AAA and an individual suggested that advanced driving techniques lack research on safety benefits and may be inappropriate for the novice driver. The agency agrees with these comments and has deleted the advanced driving techniques section, replacing it with risk prevention, as suggested by DETA. A recommendation by DETA to incorporate attitudinal awareness training and peer pressure education into the Guideline was also accepted.

DETA commented that driver licensing agencies should require and review parent driving logs detailing supervised driving. Because this would involve significant resources at DMVs and uncertain benefits, the Guideline remains unchanged in response to this comment.

The MSF expressed support for this Guideline's inclusion of "sharing the roadway" language but recommended that the Guideline also include scooters. Additionally, the MSF and MRF commented that driver education courses should include a motorcycle awareness component. The agency agrees with both comments and has incorporated these suggestions in the Guideline.

V. Communication Program

An individual commented that drivers from other countries acquire licenses too easily and need a longer education process addressing language and cultural needs. The agency notes that within the Communication Program segment of this Guideline there is existing language to identify audiences at particular risk and provide culturally competent materials. However, the agency does not agree that there should be a requirement for extended driver education for drivers from other countries.

DETA and the NRSF recommended the inclusion of language regarding education for children and youth that will engender knowledge of safe driving practices. The agency agrees and has incorporated introductory language to that effect. NRSF also had specific recommendations, such as the inclusion of a multi-media campaign and expanded discussion of parental responsibilities. The agency does not agree with those recommendations and believes States need flexibility to construct their communication programs.

VI. Program Evaluation and Data

DETA has suggested that NHTSA include language encouraging States to share data to determine whether the driver education guidelines impact traffic safety. The agency agrees with this statement but believes the Guideline already encourages evaluation in this section.

C. Comments Regarding Guideline No. 5: Non-Commercial Driver Licensing

The agency received comments related to Guideline No. 5 from AAA, DETA, MRF, MSF, NRSF and one individual. These comments are addressed below.

I. Program Management

An individual raised issues related to security within driver license agencies. The agency has added language in the program management section of the Guideline in response to this comment.

II. Legislation, Regulation and Policy

As noted above, DETA commented (in response to Guideline No. 4 Driver Education) that the driver license skill and knowledge tests are too brief and inadequate to assess a driver's readiness to drive. The agency is working with motor vehicle administrators to develop a model driver testing program, and anticipates that the model will provide a better assessment of readiness to drive. No changes will be made to the Guideline at this time.

AAA suggested that the recommendations for GDL be expanded with specific passenger age and nighttime driving restrictions. The Guidelines are intended to provide general guidance concerning GDL to allow States maximum flexibility. However, NHTSA provides more extensive GDL recommendations to the States in other publications.

MSF and MRF commented that GDL requirements must recognize differences between motorcycle operators and drivers to the extent that the requirements are prohibitive to motorcycling (e.g., seat belt use, supervised driving). The agency has made changes in Guideline No. 4 (Driver Education) to reflect these comments; however, in the interest of keeping GDL recommendations general in nature to allow States flexibility, this Guideline remains unchanged in response to these comments.

NRSF also provided several comments on this Guideline. It proposed that license renewals include skills assessments and examinations. While the agency does not agree that the Guideline should be overly prescriptive in the renewal process, language has been added that States should re-test, as appropriate.

This commenter additionally recommended that NHTSA research the effectiveness of supervised driving. The agency did not include this recommendation in the Guideline, however research efforts on this issue are underway. NRSF further recommended that supervising drivers should demonstrate driving qualifications and that States should implement procedures to help novice drivers and their guardians to identify and procure the services of qualified driving mentors. NHTSA will await the results of current research before offering guidance in this area. Strong parental involvement in the driver education and licensing of novice drivers is a critical contributor to a safe transition to driving. The agency strongly supports active parental involvement in assisting novice drivers in the transition to driving under a GDL program.

NRSF suggested that States provide online and print manuals detailing the requirements for supervised driving. NRSF further commented that driver education should be "integrated as a phased in process of GDL." The Guideline remains unchanged in response to these comments. NHTSA is developing materials for use by State licensing agencies and driver education programs on supervised driving. The commenter also recommended including a ban on cell phones and other personal electronic devices as part of GDL restrictions. NHTSA has recently incorporated a restriction on portable electronic communication and entertainment devices for drivers in the permit and intermediate phases in its GDL recommendations to the States. This has been noted in Guidelines 4 and 5. Finally, the agency does not agree with adding language on improvements to driver education prior to extensive evaluation of effectiveness.

III. Driver Fitness

AAA commented that experts suggest driver testing should focus on the functional limitations produced by a medical condition, rather than on the medical condition itself. Accordingly, AAA suggested the agency remove the word "medical" from this section of the Guideline and replace the phrase "mental or physical conditions" with "functional limitations." Because there remains evidence of increased risk among drivers with some medical conditions, NHTSA does not agree with elimination of the "medical" modifier to "evaluation." Because of this, the Guideline retains the language as proposed, but the agency will keep this recommendation in mind as further research becomes available.

NRSF commented that medical evaluation systems should include: (1) Guidelines for mental and physical performance; (2) medical standards for physician reference; (3) methodologies for determining patient health risks; and (4) methodologies for communicating health and fitness standards to patients and to DMVs. Specifically, NRSF suggested that training for medical professionals who work with the driving population include these components.

NRSF also commented that State guidelines should include periodic driver skill retesting to maintain operational and medical fitness for drivers of all ages. The Guideline remains unchanged in response to these comments. There is insufficient evidence at this time to suggest that periodic driver skill retesting, i.e., behind-the-wheel testing, is an effective strategy for identifying at-risk drivers. Currently, the best available evidence suggests that in-person renewal is the most effective approach to identifying at-risk drivers of all ages.

The Physician's Guide to Assessing and Counseling Older Drivers, developed by NHTSA and the American Medical Association, identifies red flags and interventions. Beyond that, assessment strategies are limited by the predictive value that a given screening tool might have. The Physician's Guide includes information on making referrals to the DMV and on counseling patients. It also includes information on obtaining Continuing Medical Education credits for use of the guide. The agency believes that NRSF's comments are addressed in its ongoing work. While on its face, periodic retesting seems reasonable, currently there is no evidence to suggest that such a strategy would have any safety benefits. The agency is conducting research on the safety benefits of different State licensing practices. Until that research is completed, any changes to the Guideline on this issue would be premature.

In response to the proposed Guideline's provision that each State should have “a medical advisory board or equivalent allied health professional unit composed of qualified personnel to advise the driver license agency on medical criteria and vision guidelines,” an individual recommended adding a reference to prescription, over-the-counter, and illegal alcohol and drug use. While there is value in considering alcohol and drug use for licensing purposes, the implementation of this recommendation would not be practical or feasible given the broad range of medications, the durations that people use them, and the different reactions individuals have to medications. Including alcohol use in the medical section’s purview seems worthwhile, given recognition that addiction to it is a treatable disease. Language, therefore, on this issue is included.

V. Driver Records, Data, and Evaluation

NRSF advocated for driver improvement action prior to when a driver demonstrates problematic behavior (i.e., drivers involved with a high number of traffic crashes or violations). The agency has made no changes to the Guideline in response to this comment, as the agency believes that States should have the flexibility to reassess drivers as States deem appropriate and institute follow-up measures accordingly. NHTSA is undertaking a project to determine best approaches to identifying and treating problem drivers.

MSF suggested cross-referencing rider education training data with operator licensing records, particularly in States conditioning licensing upon safety training. The agency agrees with this recommendation, and has recommended that motorcycle rider licensing and registration records be linked in State licensing records.

D. Comments Regarding Guideline No. 7 Judicial and Court Services & Guideline No. 12 Prosecutor Training

GHSA expressed concern regarding the development of a resource management plan that would include specific components concerning the allocation of funding, personnel, and facilities. GHSA also stated that this is not a feasible or appropriate role for a SHSO. GHSA said that it would be more appropriate for a national organization of prosecutors or judges to develop a model resource management tool for its members.

These Guidelines were developed to help the SHSOs effectively incorporate the criminal justice system into their traffic safety programs. The intent of this section is to ensure that the impact of SHSO-generated traffic safety law enforcement activities on the entire criminal justice system is taken into account when developing State plans.

The judicial and prosecutor Guidelines are designed to help the SHSOs develop a balanced overall approach that fully engages all elements of the criminal justice system. They are intended to provide a basic understanding of the criminal justice system, as it relates to traffic safety, and point out how decisions on funding various law enforcement activities can impact the overall effectiveness of the enforcement, prosecutorial and judicial outreach efforts. To help clarify that, the Resource Management section of these two Guidelines now indicates that the SHSO should work with the relevant State enforcement and adjudication offices to ensure that adequate resources are allocated throughout the criminal justice system for SHSO-generated law enforcement activities, while acknowledging that this is not meant to ask the SHSO to develop a resource plan for another State agency.

E. Comments Regarding Guideline No. 10 Traffic Records

The agency addresses below comments received from MRF, MSF, and AAA regarding Guideline No. 10 Traffic Records.

I. Traffic Records System Information Components

MSF and MRF expressed general support for a Traffic Records System (TRS). MRF added that motorcycle records should be administered and collected uniformly with “as little bias as possible with regard to all safety equipment.” The MSF recommended adding another category to crash data components to specifically document the use of motorcycle helmets and whether helmets used are DOT-compliant.

The MSF recommendation to document the use of safety equipment, specifically motorcycle helmets, is not appropriate because the Guideline does not address crash data components at the data element level. Collecting information on safety equipment for motorcycles, including motorcycle helmet use, is addressed in the revised Model Minimum Uniform Crash Criteria (MMUCC). The MMUCC is jointly developed by States and Federal agencies and is intended to improve traffic safety both nationally and locally by providing a recommended set of uniform data elements for capturing information about motor vehicle crashes. The Third Edition MMUCC Guideline was published in 2008.

The proposed Guideline identified particular elements crash data should incorporate, including location characteristics (e.g., roadway type or specific intersections). Commenting that crash data should be linked to roadway data, AAA proposed that NHTSA replace location characteristics with “Location” (linkable to Roadway Data Component). The agency intended the specific terms proposed in the “Crash Data Component” section to identify general variables and/or attributes that one would expect to find in a crash database for the characteristics of the persons, locations, vehicles, etc. involved in a crash. Accordingly, the Guideline does not incorporate AAA’s suggested change. The broader issue that the commenter raised—the State’s ability to link crash data with roadway inventory data—is a cogent issue. The benefit for a State to have data that permits the integration of databases is supported and addressed more fully in Section IV, Data Integration.

The premise of linking the crash data to a roadway inventory constitutes a major safety effort for the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA). The FHWA is currently working to establish the Model Minimum Inventory of Roadway Elements (MMIRE). Once the MMIRE is established, it will provide a uniform inventory of roadway data elements and attributes for locations (e.g., intersections and roadway segments). This linkage, which will rely upon the precise location of crashes, will permit an analysis on the contribution of roadway factors to traffic crashes.

AAA additionally commented that the Guideline should reflect that project inventory for the Roadway Data Component should include initiation and completion dates as well as descriptions of projects and project locations. While NHTSA concurs that the commenter’s suggested practice for documenting information regarding projects is valuable and should be followed by all agencies responsible for roadway maintenance/improvement, the agency believes that this level of detail in the Guideline extends beyond the intended scope and purpose of the Guideline.

MRF and MSF commented that VMT numbers are inaccurate with respect to motorcycles. MSF also commented that States should be required to report motorcycle VMT. NHTSA collects data on motor vehicle crashes, including those involving motorcycles; however, NHTSA does not collect data on VMT. VMT data are collected and published annually by FHWA as part of the Highway Performance Monitoring System (HPMS). The DOT recognizes the need for the best motorcycle travel data possible to support calculation of a more accurate and consistent measurement of motorcycle travel. State reporting of motorcycle VMT to the FHWA was optional prior to this year. Even for those States that reported motorcycle VMT, it was often only measured as a standard proportion of total VMT rather than being collected directly through surveys or roadside counters. FHWA had to then estimate VMT for States that did not report based on data from States that did report. Beginning in 2007, FHWA began requiring States to collect and report motorcycle VMT data. Initial data became available in 2008. Also, the Department is currently working with the States to improve and address any technical issues surrounding the collection of motorcycle exposure data. In October 2007, FHWA and NHTSA held a symposium on motorcycle travel to exchange State best practices in motorcycle VMT collection, explore new data sources and data collection technologies, and develop a long-term research and implementation roadmap.

II. Uses of a Traffic Records System

AAA expressed support for the proposed Guideline's language regarding reasonable public access to data and commented in favor of making data files available to traffic safety research organizations. NHTSA believes traffic safety research organizations are covered under the Guideline's language providing for data access for "the public or general non-government user."

III. Traffic Records System Management

MSF suggested cross-referencing rider education training data with operator licensing records, particularly in States conditioning licensing upon safety training. The agency has addressed this recommendation in Guideline No. 5 Non-Commercial Driver Licensing.

F. Comments Regarding Guideline No. 17 Pupil Transportation

The State of Michigan Department of State Police and NSTA submitted comments on this Guideline. The State of Michigan's comments summarized the State's current laws relative to this Guideline, noting that the State currently has no pending legislation to conform to several provisions in the proposed Guideline. This Guideline remains unchanged in response to the State of Michigan's submission. NSTA conveyed overall support for the Guideline, particularly its language regarding prohibiting the operation of nonconforming school transportation vehicles. NSTA's remaining comments are addressed below.

I. Operations

NSTA commented that with respect to driver physical qualifications, school bus inspections and maintenance and driver daily vehicle inspection reports, the Guideline differentiates between operations subject to the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations (FMCSRs) and those that are not. NSTA suggested that NHTSA apply the relevant provisions of the FMCSRs for all school bus operations. NHTSA agrees with the comment and modified this section accordingly as follows:

Under the Personnel heading, the Guideline removes the phrase "if the driver or the driver's employer is subject to those regulations" from the physical qualification standards statement.

Regarding school bus inspections, under the Vehicle Maintenance heading, the Guideline removes the references to FMCSR. The language now reads, "[r]egularly scheduled vehicle inspections should be conducted as specified in accordance with FMCSA regulations contained in 49 CFR Part 396.3" and "[s]chool bus drivers should perform daily inspections of their vehicles, including all safety equipment and submit a report of their findings daily as specified in 49 CFR 396."

The guidelines published today also will appear on NHTSA's Web site in the Highway Safety Grant Management Manual in the near future. Guideline Nos. 4, 5, 7, 10, 12, and 17 are set forth below. The remaining guidelines are not addressed by today's action and remain unchanged.

Highway Safety Program Guideline No. 4

Driver Education

Each State, in cooperation with its political subdivisions and tribal governments, should develop and implement a comprehensive, culturally competent highway safety program, reflective of State demographics, to achieve a significant reduction in traffic crashes, fatalities and injuries on public roads. All programs should be data driven, and the highway safety program should include a driver education and training program designed to educate new drivers and provide remedial training for existing drivers. This guideline describes the components that the State driver education program should include and the minimum criteria that the program components should meet. Resources permitting, schools should also include traffic safety education for children and youth designed to engender knowledge of safe driving practices.

I. Program Management

Each State should have centralized program planning, implementation, and coordination to deliver comprehensive and uniform driver education that applies to both public and private programs. Evaluation should be used to revise existing programs, develop new programs, and determine progress and success. The State Highway Safety Office (SHSO) in collaboration and in cooperation with other State agencies involved in driver education, such as Transportation Departments, Motor Vehicle Departments, Licensing Departments, and Education Departments, should:

- Provide leadership, training, and technical assistance to public and private providers of driver education to ensure consistency and quality;
- Resources permitting, work with other relevant State agencies to identify staff resources to provide full-time oversight over driver education programs delivered within the State; and
- Evaluate the effectiveness of the State's driver education program.

II. Legislation, Regulation and Policy

Each State should enact and enforce laws and policies intended to reduce crashes caused by novice drivers. To enhance the effectiveness of driver education, States should:

- Enact Graduated Driver Licensing (GDL) laws that include three stages of licensure, and that place restrictions and sanctions on high-risk driving situations for novice drivers (i.e., nighttime driving restrictions, passenger restrictions, zero tolerance, portable electronic communication and entertainment devices restrictions, and required seat belt use);

- Ensure that the GDL restrictions and sanctions for GDL licensure are adapted for and applicable to motorcycle operators, and enforceable for motorcycle operators;

- Develop driver education standards and guidelines to which all driver education programs, whether public or private, must adhere to satisfy licensing requirements for novice drivers; and

- Ensure that completion of driver education programs will not reduce time required for novice drivers to proceed through a GDL system.

III. Enforcement Program

Components of a State driver education enforcement program should include:

- Visible and well-publicized law enforcement of the components of GDL and zero tolerance laws;
- Licensing sanctions for violations of these provisions;
- Evaluation of enforcement efforts to determine effectiveness;
- State agency oversight of driver education programs to ensure delivery of approved State curriculum; and
- Administrative or financial penalties for programs in noncompliance.

IV. Driver Education and Training Program

A driver education program should be available to novice drivers and all youths of licensing age and include the following criteria:

- The program is taught by instructors, public or private, certified by the State as qualified for these purposes; examples of such standards might include: minimum levels of education and continuing education, not being convicted of any felony or certain misdemeanor crimes, holding a valid driver license, and setting limits on numbers and types of driving violations.
- All vehicles used in public or commercial Behind the Wheel training have appropriate safety inspections and are equipped with, at a minimum, a safety brake accessible by the driver side passenger, a first aid kit, a fire extinguisher, an instructor rear view mirror and an eye check mirror for the instructor.
- It provides each student with practice driving and/or instruction in at least the following:
 - Basic driving techniques, including starting, stopping, turning, and basic interaction in controlled environments in light and moderate traffic;
 - Additional driving techniques, including balanced vehicle movement through steering, braking, and accelerating in a precise and timely manner;
 - Cognitive aspects of driving, including gap management, recognizing blockage and hazards, responding early and appropriately to hazards and potential hazards, signaling techniques, methods for speed management and effective visual searching, and decision-making and habit-development strategies;
 - Risk prevention techniques such as skid prevention;
 - Rules of the road and other State laws and local motor vehicle laws and ordinances;
 - Attitudinal awareness training that includes how attitudes can have an impact on driving behavior;

- Peer pressure training including how vehicle operators and passengers can say no in unsafe peer-pressure situations and how to utilize leadership skills in managing the driver and the passengers in a vehicle;
 - Vehicle technology and the benefit of braking, traction, intelligent handling, and stability systems;
 - Critical vehicle systems and subsystems requiring preventive maintenance;
 - Vehicle and highway features (including different vehicle and roadway conditions) that:
 - Aid the driver in avoiding crashes;
 - Protect the driver and passengers in crashes; and
 - Maximize the care of the injured.
 - Signs, signals, and highway markings and highway design features that require understanding for safe operation of motor vehicles;
 - Differences in characteristics of urban and rural driving including safe use of modern expressways;
 - Safe Driving Practices, including making good driver decisions; use of occupant restraints; not driving under the influence; and dealing with fatigue, distractions, and aggressive drivers; and
 - Sharing the roadway with other users, especially pedestrians, bicycles, scooters, and motorcycles, who are more physically vulnerable to injury or death in the event of a crash. This should include techniques to increase awareness of motorcycles and other road users.

Each State should also ensure:

- That research and development programs include adequate research, development, and procurement of practice driving facilities, simulators, online teaching resources, and other similar teaching aids for both school and other driver training use;
- There is a program that engages parents and/or guardians in the driver education and GDL programs;
 - There is a program for adult driver training and retraining; and
 - Commercial driving schools are licensed and instructors are certified in accordance with applicable State laws, regulations or other criteria.

V. Communication Program

States should develop and implement communication strategies directed at supporting policy and program elements. The SHSO, in collaboration and cooperation with driver education and training and highway safety partners, should consider a statewide communications plan and campaign that:

- Informs the public, especially parents, about State GDL laws;

- Identifies audiences at particular risk and develops appropriate messages;
- Provides culturally competent materials;
- Informs parents/guardians and young drivers about the role of supervised driving and the State's GDL law;
- Informs novice drivers about underage drinking and zero tolerance laws (in effect in all 50 States and the District of Columbia), such as including information in manuals for new drivers and including a question about the topic on the written test for a learner's permit;
- Informs the public on the role of parental monitoring/involvement; and
- Informs the public about State guidelines and regulation of driver education.

VI. Program Evaluation and Data

The SHSO, in collaboration and cooperation with the State agencies responsible for driver education and training, should develop a comprehensive evaluation program to measure progress toward established project goals and objectives and optimize the allocation of limited resources. The State should promote effective evaluation by:

- Supporting the analysis of police accident reports;
- Encouraging, supporting, and training localities in process, impact, and outcome evaluation of local programs;
- Evaluating the use of program resources and the effectiveness of existing countermeasures for the general public and high-risk populations; and
- Ensuring that evaluation results are used to identify problems, plan new programs, and improve existing programs.

Non-Commercial Driver Licensing

Each State, in cooperation with its political subdivisions and tribal governments, should develop and implement a comprehensive, culturally competent highway safety program, reflective of State demographics, to achieve a significant reduction in traffic crashes, fatalities, and injuries on public roads. Each State should have a driver licensing program ensuring that every driver is adequately trained and tested, evaluated for physical and mental fitness, when appropriate, and possesses only one driver license and driver record.

I. Program Management

Each State should have a licensing agency that ensures only those qualified to operate motor vehicles obtain a valid State driver license applicable to vehicles they are authorized to operate. This agency should:

- Ensure that drivers are appropriately licensed for the vehicles they operate;
- Ensure that driver license applicants are appropriately screened for correct identity;
- Ensure that documents used to establish identity are appropriately analyzed;
- Take appropriate measures to ensure that applicants are not licensed in other States;
- Provide driver licenses that are tamper resistant to prevent fraudulent use of the document;
- Provide driver licenses that clearly indicate if the driver is under 21 years of age; and
- Ensure that license issuing offices maintain industry standards for security to prevent license issuance to ineligible applicants.

II. Legislation, Regulation, and Policy

A model driver licensing program should provide, at a minimum, that each driver:

- Hold only one license, which identifies the type(s) of vehicle(s) he or she is authorized to operate;
- Submits acceptable proof of identity in applying for an original, renewal, or re-application of a driver's license;
- Passes an examination demonstrating:
 - Ability to operate the class(es) of vehicles(s) for which he or she is licensed;
 - Ability to read and comprehend traffic signs and symbols;
 - Knowledge of laws relating to traffic (rules of the road) safe driving procedures, vehicle and highway safety features, emergency situations that arise in the operation of a vehicle, and other driver responsibilities; and
 - Visual acuity, which must meet or exceed State guidelines; and
 - Renews the license, in-person, periodically with skill testing and medical examinations, as appropriate.

A model Graduated Driver Licensing (GDL) law should require each driver under age 18 to participate in a GDL System, a three-stage system that incrementally adds privileges for novice drivers as they gain experience driving. The three-stage process should include the following progressive steps:

- First, the young, novice driver receives a learner's permit that:
 - Starts no younger than 16 years of age;
 - Requires completion of a minimum of 6 months driving without an at-fault crash or traffic violation;
- Requires supervised driving at all times in which the supervising licensed driver is age 21 or older; and
- Prohibits the use of portable electronic communication or entertainment devices while driving.
 - Next, the young driver receives an intermediate, or provisional, permit that:
 - Requires completion of a minimum of 6 months driving without an at-fault crash or traffic violation;
 - Imposes nighttime driving restrictions;
 - Imposes teenage passenger restrictions;
 - Prohibits the use of portable electronic communication or entertainment devices while driving; and
 - Mandates adherence to State seat belt use requirements.
 - The third and final stage is full licensure with:
 - Passenger, nighttime and portable electronic devices restrictions until age 18; and
 - Maximum blood alcohol limits of .02 until age 21.
 - The driver should receive driver education that meets standards set by the State that are related to the State driving manual and driving test and, to the greatest degree possible, increases the safety performance of new drivers. (Under no circumstance should driver education reduce the time required to pass through the GDL system.)

Each State should have:

- A system that provides medical evaluation of people who the driver licensing agency has reason to believe have mental or physical conditions that might impair their driving abilities;
- A procedure that will keep the driver license agency informed of all licensed drivers who are currently applying for or receiving any type of tax, welfare, or other benefits or exemptions for the blind or visually impaired beyond established State vision requirements;
- A medical advisory board or equivalent allied health professional unit composed of qualified personnel to advise the driver license agency on medical criteria, including alcohol use and vision guidelines; and
- Protection from civil liability for individuals who report, in good faith, potentially at-risk drivers to the licensing authority.

III. Driver Fitness

Each State should have:

- A system that provides medical evaluation of people who the driver licensing agency has reason to believe have mental or physical conditions that might impair their driving abilities;
- A procedure that will keep the driver license agency informed of all licensed drivers who are currently applying for or receiving any type of tax, welfare, or other benefits or exemptions for the blind or visually impaired beyond established State vision requirements;
- A medical advisory board or equivalent allied health professional unit composed of qualified personnel to advise the driver license agency on medical criteria, including alcohol use and vision guidelines; and
- Protection from civil liability for individuals who report, in good faith, potentially at-risk drivers to the licensing authority.

IV. Motorcycle Operator Licensing

States should require every person who operates a motorcycle on public roadways to pass an examination designed especially for motorcycle operation and to hold a license endorsement specifically authorizing motorcycle operation. Each State should have a motorcycle licensing system that requires:

- A motorcycle operator's manual that contains essential information on reducing the risks associated with riding a motorcycle;
- A motorcycle license examination, including knowledge and skill tests, and State licensing medical criteria;
- License examiner training specific to testing of motorcyclists;
- Motorcycle license endorsement;
- Cross referencing of motorcycle registrations with motorcycle licenses to identify motorcycle owners who do not have the proper endorsement;
- Motorcycle license renewal requirements;
- Learner's permits issued for a period of at least 90 days and the establishment of limits on the number and frequency of learner's permits issued per applicant to encourage each motorcyclist to get full endorsement; and
- Penalties for violation of motorcycle licensing requirements.

V. Driver Records, Data, and Evaluation

Each State should maintain a driver control record on each licensed driver that includes identification information, principle residence, and driver history. (See Highway Safety Program Guideline No. 10—Traffic Records.) In addition to the historical aspect, the traffic records system should be conducive to:

- Timely, accurate, and complete entry of data into the system;
- Ease of accessibility to the system to give timely, accurate, and complete information on drivers for users of the system. Functional users may include courts, administrative/legal personnel, motor vehicle administration, law enforcement, research and development, and private citizens;
- Real-time availability of data to provide DMV personnel and other system users with a rapid-response system for the information requested on standard and priority requests for eligibility of an applicant for issuance of a driver license;
- Ad-hoc reporting for statistical and other research purposes;
- Real-time identification of problem drivers for enforcement or other operational countermeasures; and
- Medical restriction or suspension/revocation information.

Each license should be issued for a specific term, and should be renewed to remain valid. At time of issuance or renewal each driver's record should be checked.

Motorcycle registration and licensing records should be linked to ensure that riders are properly licensed and trained.

There should be a driver improvement program to identify problem drivers for record review and other appropriate actions designed to reduce the frequency of their involvement in traffic crashes or violations.

The non-commercial driver licensing program should be periodically evaluated by the State. The evaluation should, among other issues, attempt to ascertain the extent to which driving without a license occurs.

VI. Communication Program

States should develop and implement communication strategies directed at supporting policy and program elements. In collaboration with motor vehicle and other State agencies, the SHSO should consider a statewide communications plan and campaign that:

- Informs the public about State licensing requirements;
- Identifies audiences at particular risk and develops appropriate messages;
- Provides information about driver fitness requirements and mental or physical conditions that might impair driving abilities;
- Informs motorcycle registrants of the need to obtain an appropriate motorcycle endorsement or license;
- Provides culturally competent materials;
- Informs parents/guardians about the role of supervised driving and the State's GDL law; and
- Informs novice drivers about underage drinking and zero tolerance laws (in effect in all 50 States and the District of Columbia), such as including information in manuals for new drivers and including a question about the topic on the written test for a learner's permit.

Highway Safety Program Guideline No. 7

Judicial and Court Services

Each State, in cooperation with its political subdivisions and tribal governments, should develop and implement a comprehensive, culturally competent highway safety program, reflective of State demographics, to achieve a significant reduction in traffic crashes, fatalities, and injuries on public roads. Each State should have a comprehensive judicial services program as part of its overall highway safety program. Such judicial services programs should support courts in the competent and effective adjudication of both administrative and statutory law cases. Judicial services programs should, consistent with ethical and professional requirements, promote judicial outreach activity to reduce traffic crashes and resultant fatalities and injuries. This document describes the four key components of State judicial services programs and the specific activities needed to implement those components. Additional information on judicial outreach is addressed in Highway Safety Guideline No. 8, Impaired Driving.

I. Program Management

Program planning, implementation, and coordination are essential for achieving and sustaining State traffic enforcement and adjudication functions. The State Highway Safety Office (SHSO), in conjunction with State and local court administrators, chief judges, and judicial educators should ensure that State traffic safety judicial education programs are well planned and coordinated. State SHSOs should provide leadership, training and technical assistance to:

- Implement and integrate regular traffic law and safety-related judicial education in judicial education programs for all judges;
- Generate broad-based support for traffic safety programs by informing all stakeholders, including court administrators and the judges they serve, of comprehensive highway safety plans for traffic enforcement;
- Coordinate traffic safety programs to include Commercial Motor Vehicle (CMV) safety activities such as the Motor Carrier Safety Assistance Program;
- Promote the dissemination of NHTSA-supported judicial traffic safety and education courses through coordination with State judicial educators and nationally based institutions such as the National Center for State Courts, National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges, and the National Judicial College; and

• Support the development and ethical implementation of judicial education programs for State, local, administrative, and tribal courts that will accomplish the following objectives:

- Utilize enabling legislation and regulations to provide the public with effective and efficient court services;
- Provide the impetus for judges to be thoroughly educated on all facets of motor vehicle law;
- Develop cooperative relationships with other government branches, agencies, and entities, as well as community organizations and traffic safety stakeholders; and

- Establish qualitative and quantitative performance measures by which the delivery of services can be evaluated.

II. Resource Management

The SHSO should coordinate with the courts to develop plans that identify the resources necessary to effectively provide efficient traffic law-related services throughout the criminal justice system. The plans should include specific components concerning the allocation of funding, personnel, and facilities and:

- Periodic assessment of traffic law-related service demands and the resources needed to serve the needs of the public;
- Development of traffic law-related court service plans that address budgetary requirements, staff allocation, and facilities requirements; and
- Employment of efficient accounting and data processing systems to facilitate prompt and accurate generation, retrieval, and sharing of information and records.

III. Training and Education

Training and education are essential to support and maintain the delivery of traffic law-related services by the judicial branch of government. To be effective adjudicators, and serve the needs of the public, judges must receive regular education and training of the highest caliber. Judicial education and training should be promoted and, where appropriate, presented by the SHSO or other training entities with experienced faculties in the area of traffic safety, including law and procedure. Judicial education and training should be:

- Adequately funded and where possible compulsory as a requirement to maintaining service in office;
- Provided by State or nationally based judicial education and training entities with experienced faculties in the areas of traffic-related law and procedure;
- Inclusive of education components consistent with models developed by the American Bar Association, for example the Code of Judicial Ethics and the Rules of Professional Conduct;
- Inclusive of case management components so as to foster productivity and the prompt and efficient disposition of cases;
- Specialized as to curriculum so as to address the needs of both statutory and administrative judges as well as hearing officers; and
- Assessed regularly so as to insure that education components address specialized traffic enforcement skills, techniques, or programs such as DWI/Drug Courts.

IV. Data and Evaluation

The SHSO, in conjunction with court administrators, should develop a comprehensive evaluation program to measure progress toward established project goals and objectives. Utilizing comprehensive evaluation programs, the SHSO should effectively plan and implement statewide, county, local, and tribal traffic safety programs. Such programs should have as objectives the optimization of limited resource allocation and should measure the impact of traffic enforcement on court resources. Data that are collected should include case disposition summaries and reports, and other relevant workload information. Court administrators should:

- Include evaluation components in initial program planning so as to ensure that data will be available for evaluation;
- Ensure that adequate resources and personnel are allocated to program planning and data collection;
- Regularly report results of program evaluations to project and program managers, legislative decision-makers, and to the public;
- Utilize results to guide future activities and to assess in justifying resources to governing bodies;
- Conduct surveys to assist in determining court and program effectiveness, including surveys that measure public knowledge and attitudes about court programs;
- Evaluate the effectiveness of services provided in support of priority safety programs; and
- Maintain and report court generated data to appropriate repositories through the use of effective records programs that:
 - Provide records rapidly and accurately;
 - Provide routine compilations of data for management use in the decision-making process;
 - Provide data for operational planning and execution;
 - Interface with a variety of data systems, including statewide traffic safety records systems that are accessible by other State and local governmental entities, agencies, and courts;
 - Provide for the evidentiary integrity of information so as to insure its admissibility in subsequent court and administrative hearing proceedings; and
 - Work with court administrators to use the traffic court functional standards that are available through the National Center for State Courts.

Traffic Records

Each State, in cooperation with its political subdivisions and tribal governments, should implement a traffic records system (TRS) to support highway and traffic safety decision-making and long-range transportation planning. A complete TRS is necessary for identifying the locations and causes of crashes, for planning and implementing countermeasures, for operational management and control, and for evaluating highway safety programs and improvements. This guideline describes the components that a State TRS program should include and the criteria that the program components should meet.

I. Traffic Records System Information Components

A TRS has been defined as a virtual set of independent real systems (e.g., driver conviction records, crash records, roadway data, etc.), which collectively form the information base for the management of the highway and traffic safety activities of a State. An updated concept of a TRS encourages States to take a global approach and work toward compiling data into a unified, accessible resource. Sharing and integrating data makes such a system possible, without necessarily duplicating costly and time-consuming tasks such as data entry. Achieving integrated access to data without bringing all the data into a single database is a goal of the TRS. The traffic records system should consist of the following major components:

- A. The Crash Data Component documents the time, location, environment, and characteristics (e.g., sequence of events, rollover, etc.) of a crash. It contains basic information about every reportable (as defined by State statute) motor vehicle crash on any public roadway in the State. Through links to other TRS components, the Crash Data Component identifies the roadways, vehicles, and people (e.g., drivers, occupants, pedestrians) involved in the crash. These data help to document the consequences of the crash (e.g., fatalities, injuries, property damage, and violations charged), support the analysis of crashes in general, and support the analysis of crashes within specific categories defined by:
 - Person characteristics (e.g., age or gender);

- Location characteristics (e.g., roadway type or specific intersections);
- Vehicle characteristics (e.g., condition and legal status); and
- The interaction of various components (e.g., time of day, day of week, weather, driver actions, pedestrian actions, etc.).

B. The Roadway Data Component includes roadway location, identification, and classification, as well as a description of a road's total physical characteristics and usage. These attributes are tied to a location reference system. Linked safety and roadway information are valuable components that support a State's construction and maintenance program development. This roadway information should be available for all public roadways, including local roads.

The State Department of Transportation (State DOT) typically has custodial responsibility for the Roadway Data Component. This component includes various enterprise-related files such as:

- Pavement
- Bridges
- Intersections
- Roadside appurtenances
- Traffic control devices
- Guard rails
- Barriers

Traffic

- VMT (vehicle miles traveled)
- Travel by vehicle type

Other

- GIS (Geographic Information System)
- LRS (Location Reference System)
- Project inventory

C. The Driver Data Component includes information about the State's population of licensed drivers as well as information about convicted traffic violators who are not licensed in that State. Information about persons licensed by the State should include: personal identification, driver license number, type of license, license status, driver restrictions, convictions for traffic violations in the State and the history of convictions for critical violations in prior States, crash history (whether or not cited for a violation), driver improvement or control actions, and driver education data.

Custodial responsibility for the Driver Data Component usually resides in a State Department or Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV). Some commercial vehicle operator-related functions may be handled separately from the primary custodial responsibility for driver data. The structure of driver databases typically is oriented to individual "customers."

D. The Vehicle Data Component includes information on the identification and ownership of vehicles registered in the State. Data should be available regarding vehicle make, model, year of manufacture, body type, and vehicle history (including odometer readings) in order to produce the information needed to support analysis of vehicle-related factors that may contribute to a State's crash experience. Such analyses would be necessarily restricted to crashes involving in-State registered vehicles only.

Custodial responsibility for the vehicle data usually resides in a State Department or Division of Motor Vehicles. Some commercial vehicle-related functions may be handled separately from the primary custodial responsibility for all other vehicle data. The structure of vehicle databases typically is oriented to individual "customers."

E. The Citation/Adjudication Data Component, which identifies citation/arrest and adjudication activity of the State, includes information that tracks a citation from the time of its distribution to a law enforcement officer, through its issuance to an offender, its disposition, and the posting of conviction in the driver history database.

Case management systems, law enforcement records systems, and DMV driver history systems should share information to support:

- Citation tracking;
- Case tracking;
- Disposition reporting; and
- Specialized tracking systems for specific types of violators (e.g., DUI tracking systems).

Information should be available to identify the type of violation, location, date and time, the enforcement agency, court of jurisdiction, and final disposition. Similar information for warnings and other motor vehicle incidents that would reflect enforcement activity are also useful for highway safety purposes and should be available at the local level.

The information should be used for determining the level of enforcement activity in the State, for accounting and controlling of citation forms, and for detailed monitoring of court activity regarding the disposition of traffic cases.

Custodial responsibility for the multiple systems that make up the Citation/Adjudication Data Component should be shared among local and State agencies, with law enforcement, courts, and the State Division or DMV sharing responsibility for some files (e.g., portions of the citation tracking system). State-level agencies should have responsibility for managing the law enforcement information network (e.g., a criminal justice information agency), for coordinating and promoting court case management technology (e.g., an administrative arm of the State Supreme Court), and for assuring that convictions are forwarded to the DMV and actually posted to the drivers' histories (e.g., the court records custodian and the DMV).

F. The Statewide Injury Surveillance System (SWISS) Data Component typically incorporates pre-hospital (EMS), trauma, emergency department (ED), hospital in-patient/discharge, rehabilitation and morbidity databases to track injury causes, magnitude, costs, and outcomes. Often, these systems rely upon other components of the TRS to provide information on injury mechanisms or events (e.g., traffic crash reports). The custodial responsibility for various files within the SWISS typically is distributed among several agencies and/or offices within a State Department of Health.

This system should allow the documentation of information that tracks magnitude, severity, and types of injuries sustained by persons in motor-vehicle-related crashes. Although traffic crashes cause only a portion of the injuries within any population, they often represent one of the more significant causes of injuries in terms of frequency and cost to the community. The SWISS should support integration of the injury data with police-reported traffic crashes and make this information available for analysis to support research, public policy, and decision making.

II. Traffic Records System Information Quality

A State's traffic records information should be maintained in a form that is of high quality and readily accessible to users throughout the State. Performance-based measures should be quantifiable and should be established for each attribute of each component (e.g., the amount of elapsed time from initial data collection until entry in the traffic records system, the level of accuracy and completeness the data must meet in order to pass edit and validation checks during data entry, the level of adoption of various standards and guidelines, etc.). The definition of each performance-based measure and its relative significance may vary for each of the State's TRS data components.

The quality of a State's traffic records information is determined by the following attributes:

- Timeliness—information should be available within a timeframe to be meaningful for effective analysis of a State's highway safety programs, and for efficient conduct of each custodial agency's business and mission;

- Consistency—the information should be consistent with nationally accepted and published guidelines and standards (e.g., the Model Minimum Uniform Crash Criteria, the National EMS Information System) and data should be collected on uniform forms that are prescribed by the State for use by all jurisdictions. The ANSI D16.1-2007 is the standard for statistical classification of motor vehicle traffic crashes and is the primary reference for classifying motor vehicle crashes. This standard promotes consistency of motor vehicle traffic accident statistics. To view the standard, go to: <http://www.atsip.org/index.php?atsip/d-16>.

- Completeness—the information should be complete in terms of all the people, events, things, or places represented by the records in the various components, and it should be complete in terms of all the variables required to be collected on those people, events, things, or places;

- Accuracy—the information should be accurate as determined by quality control methods to ensure accurate information is contained on individual reports (e.g., validity and consistency checks in the data capture and data entry processes and feedback to jurisdictions submitting inaccurate reports);

- Accessibility—the information should be readily and easily accessible to the principal users of the traffic records system components, including both direct access (automated) and the ability to obtain periodic (standard) reports as well as reports and data by special request; and

- Data Integration—information in any traffic records system component should be capable of being linked with any other component through the use of common data variables where possible and permitted by law.

III. Uses of a Traffic Records System

The purpose of a State's traffic records system is to establish a base of useful information and data. This includes operational personnel, program managers, program analysts, researchers, policy makers, and the public. To be of optimal value, the system should provide for the efficient flow of data to support a broad range of traffic safety and other activities, in particular the following:

- Problem Identification

Problem identification is the process of determining the locations and causes of crashes and their outcomes and of selecting those sites and issues that represent the best opportunity for highway safety improvements;

- Research and Program Development
The traffic records system should provide information to identify safety problems, trends, and baseline measures essential for data-driven planning decisions;

- Policy Development

The traffic records system should provide information to permit informed decisions in setting highway safety policy, including State Highway Safety Plans.

- Analytic Resources Access

Data users, and decision makers in particular, should have access to resources including skilled analytic personnel and easy to use software tools to support their needs. These tools should be specifically designed to meet needs such as addressing legislative issues (barriers as well as new initiatives), program and countermeasure development, management, and evaluation, as well as meeting all reporting requirements.

- Public Access to Data

The TRS should be designed to give the public or general non-government user reasonable access to data files, analytic results, and resources, but still meet State and Federal privacy and security standards.

- Data Use and Improvement

The TRS should be viewed as more than a collection of data repositories, and as a set of processes, methods, and component systems. Knowledge of how these data are collected and managed, along with where the bottlenecks and quality problems arise, is critical to users understanding proper ways to apply the data.

IV. Traffic Records System Management

The development and management of traffic safety programs is a systematic process with the goal of reducing the number and severity of traffic crashes. This data-driven process ensures that all opportunities to improve highway safety are identified and considered for implementation. This process can be achieved through the following initiatives:

Traffic Records Coordinating Committee (TRCC)

The State should form a TRCC whose membership includes, among others, managers, collectors, and users of traffic records and public health and injury control data systems. The TRCC should have the authority to approve the State's Strategic Plan for Traffic Records Improvements. The TRCC should also:

- Represent all stakeholders; each stakeholder must have support from the top management of the representative agency;

- Have the authority to review any of the State's highway safety data and traffic records systems and to review any proposed changes to such systems prior to implementation;
- Provide a forum for the discussion of highway safety data and traffic records issues and report on any such issues to the agencies and organizations in the State that create, maintain, and use highway safety data and traffic records;
- Represent the interests of the agencies and organizations within the traffic records system to outside organizations; and
- Review and evaluate new technologies to keep the highway safety data and traffic records system up-to-date.

Strategic Planning

The TRS should support the traffic safety strategic planning process that helps State and local data owners identify and support their overall traffic safety program needs and addresses the changing needs for information over time.

Data Integration

States should integrate data and expand their linkage opportunities to track traffic safety events among data files. Data integration should be addressed through the following:

- Create and maintain a system inventory;
- Support centralized access to linked data;
- Meet Federal reporting requirements such as the Fatality Analysis Reporting System (FARS), Motor Carrier Management Information System (MCMIS/safetynet), the Highway Performance Monitoring System (HPMS) and others;
- Support electronic data sharing; and
- Adhere to State and Federal privacy and security standards.

Prosecutor Training

Each State, in cooperation with its political subdivisions and tribal governments, should develop and implement a comprehensive, culturally competent highway safety program, reflective of State demographics, to achieve a significant reduction in traffic crashes, fatalities, and injuries on public roads. All programs should include a comprehensive prosecutorial training program that supports prosecutors in the prosecution of traffic-related cases. Prosecutorial training programs should be consistent with ethical and professional requirements in addition to addressing training and technical assistance needs. These programs should encourage prosecutors to make the prosecution of traffic-related cases a high priority. This guideline describes the key components that a State program should include and the minimum criteria that the program components should meet. Additional information on prosecutor outreach is addressed in Highway Safety Guideline No. 8, Impaired Driving.

I. Program Management

Program planning, implementation, and coordination are essential for achieving and sustaining high-quality State traffic enforcement and prosecution functions. The State Highway Safety Office (SHSO), in conjunction with State prosecutor associations, Prosecutor Coordinators, and Traffic Safety Resource Prosecutors (TSRP) should ensure that State traffic safety programs are comprehensive, well planned, and coordinated. State SHSOs should provide leadership, training, and technical assistance to their State's prosecutors. In doing so, the SHSOs should:

- Communicate and coordinate with State prosecutor coordinators and TSRPs regarding comprehensive highway safety plans for traffic enforcement so they can generate broad-based prosecutorial support for traffic safety programs;
- Assist State prosecutor coordinators and TSRPs in implementing regular traffic law and safety-related prosecutor training programs;
- Provide support and assistance to State prosecutor coordinators and TSRPs for training and technical assistance that prosecutors need to effectively prosecute impaired driving and other traffic-related cases; and
- Evaluate the delivery of training and technical assistance through established qualitative and quantitative measures.

II. Resource Management

The SHSO should encourage prosecutors to develop plans that identify those resources necessary to provide efficient traffic law-related services that include:

- Periodic assessment of traffic law-related service demands and the resources needed to serve the needs of prosecution and the public.
- Development of traffic law-related prosecutor resource management plans that address budgetary requirements, staff allocation, and facilities requirements.

- Employment of efficient accounting and data processing systems to facilitate prompt and accurate generation, retrieval, and sharing of information and records.

III. Training and Technical Assistance

Training and technical assistance are essential to support the delivery of high-quality traffic law-related prosecution. To effectively serve the needs of law enforcement, victims, and the public, prosecutors must receive regular, consistent training and have available to them individuals who can provide technical assistance in a competent and efficient manner. To this end, the SHSO should:

- Encourage the implementation of the TSRP program;
- Provide Prosecutor Coordinators and TSRPs with advanced education and training in the area of traffic-related law and procedure so as to enhance delivery of training and technical assistance to local prosecutors, law enforcement officers, advocacy groups, and other traffic safety professionals;
- Assist and support prosecutor coordinators in providing traffic law and safety-related training programs to the State's prosecutors;
- Include development and delivery of specialized curriculum to address the needs of both experienced and inexperienced prosecutors handling complex impaired-driving and other traffic prosecutions;
- Encourage consistent training and technical assistance through the prosecutor coordinators to address high turnover rates in prosecutor offices; and
- Include case management components to foster prompt and effective prosecution of traffic cases.

IV. Data and Evaluation

The SHSO, in conjunction with the prosecutor coordinator and the TSRP, should develop a comprehensive evaluation program to measure progress toward established project goals and objectives. Using comprehensive evaluation strategies, the SHSO should effectively plan and implement statewide, county, and local traffic safety training programs. Collected data should include training programs attended, technical assistance requested and received, and other workload information. The evaluation results should be used to maximize limited resources and measure the impact of such training and assistance on prosecutorial resources and the ability to effectively prosecute traffic cases. The

SHSO should make sure that Prosecutor Coordinators or TSRPs:

- Include evaluation components in initial program planning to ensure that data will be available for analysis;
- Ensure that adequate resources and personnel are allocated to program planning and data collection;
- Regularly report results of program evaluations to project managers, program managers, and legislative decision-makers;
- Utilize results to guide future activities and assess resource allocation; and
- Evaluate the effectiveness of services provided in support of priority traffic safety programs.

Pupil Transportation Safety

Each State, in cooperation with its political subdivisions and tribal governments, should establish a State highway safety program for pupil transportation safety including administration; the identification, operation, and maintenance of buses used for carrying students; and the training of passengers, pedestrians, and bicycle riders. The purpose of this guideline is to provide strategies for minimizing, to the greatest extent possible, the danger of death or injury to school children while they are traveling to and from school and school-related events.

I. Program Management

There should be a single State agency with primary administrative responsibility for pupil transportation, that employs at least one full-time professional to carry out these responsibilities. The responsible State agency should develop an operating system for collecting and reporting information needed to improve the safety of operating school buses and school-chartered buses. Each State should establish procedures to meet the following recommendations for identification and equipment of school buses. All school buses should:

- Be identified with the words "School Bus" printed in letters not less than eight inches high, located between the warning signal lamps as high as possible without impairing visibility of the lettering from both front and rear, and have no other lettering on the front or rear of the vehicle, except as required by Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standards (FMVSS), 49 CFR Part 571;
- Be painted National School Bus Glossy Yellow, in accordance with the colorimetric specification of National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) Federal Standard No. 595a, Color 13432; except that the hood should be either that color or lusterless black, matching NIST Federal Standard No. 595a, Color 37038.

- Have bumpers of glossy black, matching NIST Federal Standard No. 595a, Color 17038, unless, for increased visibility, they are covered with a reflective material;
- Comply with all FMVSS applicable to school buses at the time of their manufacture;
- Be equipped with safety equipment for use in an emergency, including a charged fire extinguisher that is properly mounted near the driver's seat, with signs indicating the location of such equipment;

- Be equipped with device(s) demonstrated to enhance the safe operation of school vehicles, such as a stop signal arm;
- Be equipped with a system of signal lamps that conforms to the school bus requirements of FMVSS No. 108, 49 CFR 571.108; and
- Have a system of mirrors that conforms to the school bus requirements of FMVSS No. 111, 49 CFR 571.111.
- School-chartered buses should comply with all applicable Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations (FMCSR) and FMVSS.

Any school bus meeting the recommendations above that is permanently converted for uses other than transporting children to and from school should be painted a color other than National School Bus Glossy Yellow, and should have the stop arms and school bus signal lamps removed.

School buses, while being operated on a public highway and transporting primarily passengers other than school children, should have the words "School Bus" covered, removed, or otherwise concealed, and the stop arm and signal lamps should not be operated.

II. Operations

Each State should establish procedures to meet the following recommendations for operating school buses and school-chartered buses:

- Personnel
 - Each State should develop a plan for selecting, training, and supervising people whose primary duties involve transporting school children in order to ensure that such persons will attain a high degree of competence in, and knowledge of, their duties;
 - Every person who drives a school bus or school-chartered bus occupied by school children should, at a minimum:

- Have a valid State driver's license to operate such a vehicle. All drivers who operate a vehicle designed to transport 16 or more persons (including the driver) are required by the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration's (FMCSA) Commercial Driver's License Standards (49 CFR Part 383) to have a valid commercial driver's license;
- Meet all physical, mental, moral, and other requirements established by the State agency having primary responsibility for pupil transportation, including requirements related to drug and/or alcohol misuse or abuse; and
- Meet the physical qualification standards for drivers under the FMCSR of the FMCSA, 49 CFR Part 391.
- Vehicles
 - Each State should enact legislation that provides for uniform procedures regarding school buses stopping on public highways for loading and discharge of children. Public information campaigns should be conducted on a regular basis to ensure that the driving public fully understands the implications of school bus warning signals and requirements to stop for school buses that are loading or discharging school children. Schools should work with local law enforcement agencies to enforce laws against passing a stopped school bus that is loading or unloading students.
 - Each State should establish policies to ensure that school districts are aware of the Federal statutory provision 49 U.S.C. Section 30112(a), as amended by Section 10309(b) of SAFETEA-LU (Pub. L. 109-59), prohibiting the purchase by schools and school systems of new non-conforming vehicles for school transportation purposes, and prohibit operation of any school bus or other vehicle used for school transportation purposes unless it meets the FMVSSs for school buses.
 - Each State should minimize highway use hazards to school bus and school-chartered bus occupants, other highway users, pedestrians, bicycle riders and property. Efforts to minimize such hazards should include, but not be limited to:
 - Planning safe routes and annually reviewing routes for safety hazards;
 - Planning routes to ensure the most effective use of school buses and school-chartered buses to ensure that passengers are not standing while these vehicles are in operation;
 - Providing loading and unloading zones off the main traveled part of highways, whenever it is practical to do so;
 - Establishing restricted loading and unloading areas for school buses and

- school-chartered buses at or near schools;
- Ensuring that school bus operators, when stopping on a highway to take on or discharge children, adhere to State regulations for loading and discharging including the use of signal lamps;
 - Replacing school buses manufactured before April 1, 1977, with buses that meet the current FMVSSs for school buses, and not chartering any pre-1977 school buses; and
 - Prohibiting public or private schools from purchasing school buses built prior to April 1, 1977 for school transportation or school-related events.
 - Use of amber signal lamps to indicate that a school bus is preparing to stop to load or unload children is at the option of the State. Use of red warning signal lamps as specified in this guideline for any purpose or at any time other than when the school bus is stopped to load or discharge passengers should be prohibited.
 - When school buses are equipped with stop arms, such devices should be operated only in conjunction with red warning signal lamps, when vehicles are stopped.
 - Seating
 - Children are protected in large school buses by compartmentalization, a passive occupant protection system. This provides a protective envelope consisting of strong, closely-spaced seats that have energy-absorbing padded seat backs that help to distribute and reduce crash forces. Compartmentalization is most effective when occupants are fully seated within the bus seat. Seating should be provided that will allow each occupant to sit on a school bus seat without any part of his or her body extending into the aisle.
 - There should be no auxiliary seating accommodations such as temporary or folding jump seats in school buses.
 - Standing while school buses and school-chartered buses are in motion should not be permitted. Routing and seating plans should be coordinated to eliminate passengers standing when a school bus or school-chartered bus is in motion.
 - Drivers of school buses and school-chartered buses should be required to wear occupant restraints whenever the vehicle is in motion.
 - Passengers in school buses and school-chartered buses with a gross vehicle weight rating (GVWR) of 10,000 pounds or less should be required to wear occupant restraints (where provided) whenever the vehicle is in motion. Occupant restraints should comply with the requirements of
 - FMVSS Nos. 208, 209 and 210, as they apply to multipurpose vehicles.
 - When transporting preschool age children in a school bus;
 - Each child should be properly secured in a Child Safety Restraint System, suitable for the child's weight and age, that meets applicable FMVSSs; and
 - The Child Safety Restraint System should be properly secured to the school bus seat, using anchorages that meet FMVSSs.
 - Emergency exit access
 - Baggage and other items transported in the passenger compartment should be stored and secured so that the aisles are kept clear and the door(s) and emergency exit(s) remain unobstructed at all times.
 - When school buses are equipped with interior luggage racks, the racks should be capable of retaining their contents in a crash or sudden driving maneuver.
 - Vehicle maintenance. Each State should establish procedures to meet the following recommendations for maintaining buses used to carry school children:
 - School buses should be maintained in safe operating condition through a systematic preventive maintenance program;
 - Regularly scheduled vehicle inspections should be conducted as specified in accordance with FMCSA regulations contained in 49 CFR Part 396.3; and
 - School bus drivers should perform daily inspections of their vehicles, including all safety equipment and submit a report of their findings daily as specified in 49 CFR 396.11.

III. Other Elements of Pupil Transportation Safety

- At least once during each school semester, each pupil transported from home to school in a school bus should be instructed in safe riding practices, proper loading and unloading techniques, proper street crossing to and from school bus stops and should participate in supervised and timed emergency evacuation drills. Prior to each departure, each pupil transported on an activity or field trip in a school bus or school-chartered bus should be instructed in safe riding practices and the location and operation of emergency exits.
- Parents and school officials should work together to identify and select safe pedestrian and bicycle routes for the use of school children. (See Guideline No. 14.)
- All school children should be instructed in safe transportation practices for walking to and from school. For those children who routinely walk to school, training should include pre-selected routes and the importance of adhering to those routes.

- Children riding bicycles to and from school should receive bicycle safety education, be required to wear bicycle safety helmets, and not deviate from pre-selected routes.

- Local school officials and law enforcement personnel should work together to establish crossing guard programs.

- Local school officials should investigate programs that incorporate the practice of escorting students across streets and highways when they leave school buses. These programs may include the use of school safety patrols or adult monitors.

- Local school officials should establish passenger vehicle loading and unloading points at schools that are separate from the school bus loading zones.

- Before chartering any vehicle or motor coach for school activity purposes, schools should check the safety record of charter bus companies through the FMCSA Safety and Fitness Electronic Records System. Schools should also consider using a multi-function school activity bus in place of charter buses where feasible. A multi-function school activity bus is not required to be equipped with traffic control devices (i.e., flashing lights and stop arm). These buses are not intended for the roadside picking up and dropping off of children during service between home and school. They are intended for use by schools and other institutions that need transportation services for school activity trips or for other coordinated transportation activities.

IV. Program Evaluation

The pupil transportation safety program should be evaluated at least annually by the State agency having primary administrative responsibility for pupil transportation.

V. Definitions

- A “bus” is a motor vehicle designed for carrying more than 10 persons (including the driver).

- A “school bus” is a “bus” that is used for purposes that include carrying students to and from school or related events on a regular basis, but does not include a transit bus or a school-chartered bus.

- A “school-chartered bus” is a bus that is operated under a short-term contract with State or school authorities who have acquired the exclusive use of the vehicle at a fixed charge to provide transportation for a group of students to a special school-related event.

- A “multi-function school activity bus” is a school bus whose purposes do not include transporting student to and from home or school bus stops.

- “Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations (FMCSR)” are the regulations of the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA) for commercial motor vehicles in interstate commerce, including buses with a gross vehicle weight rating (GVWR) or gross vehicle weight greater than 10,000 pounds; designed or used to transport more than 8 passengers (including the driver) for compensation; or designed or used to transport more than 15 passengers (including the driver), and not used to transport passengers for compensation. (The FMCSR are set forth in 49 CFR Parts 390–399.)

- A “child safety restraint system” is any device (except a passenger system lap seat belt or lap/shoulder seat belt), designed for use in a motor vehicle to restrain, seat, or position a child who weighs less than 65 pounds.

National Highway Traffic Safety Administration

Notice of Intent To Prepare an Environmental Impact Statement for New Corporate Average Fuel Economy Standards

AGENCY: National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA), Department of Transportation (DOT).

ACTION: Notice of intent; request for scoping comments.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA), NHTSA plans to prepare an Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) to analyze the potential environmental impacts of the agency’s Corporate Average Fuel Economy program for passenger automobiles (referred to herein as “passenger cars”) and nonpassenger automobiles (referred to herein as “light trucks”). The EIS will consider the potential environmental impacts of new fuel economy standards for model year 2012–2016 passenger cars and light trucks that NHTSA will be proposing pursuant to the Energy Independence and Security Act of 2007.

This notice initiates the NEPA scoping process by inviting comments from Federal, State, and local agencies, Indian Tribes, and the public to help identify the environmental issues and reasonable alternatives to be examined in the EIS. This notice also provides guidance for participating in the scoping process and additional information about the alternatives NHTSA expects to consider in its NEPA analysis.

DATES: The scoping process will culminate in the preparation and issuance of a Draft EIS, which will be made available for public comment. To ensure that NHTSA has an opportunity to fully consider scoping comments and to facilitate NHTSA’s prompt preparation of the Draft EIS, scoping comments should be received on or before May 1, 2009. NHTSA will try to consider comments received after that date to the extent the rulemaking schedule allows.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In a forthcoming notice of proposed rulemaking (NPRM), NHTSA intends to propose Corporate Average Fuel Economy (CAFE) standards for model year (MY) 2012–2016 passenger cars and light trucks pursuant to the amendments made by the Energy Independence and Security Act of 2007 (EISA) to the Energy Policy and Conservation Act (EPCA).¹ In connection with this action, NHTSA intends to prepare an Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) to analyze the potential environmental impacts of the proposed CAFE standards and reasonable alternative standards pursuant to the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) and implementing regulations issued by the Council on Environmental Quality (CEQ) and NHTSA.² NEPA instructs Federal agencies to consider the potential environmental impacts of their proposed actions and possible alternatives in their decisionmaking. To inform decisionmakers and the public, the EIS will compare the potential environmental impacts of the agency's preferred alternative and reasonable alternatives, including a "no action" alternative. As required by NEPA, the EIS will consider direct, indirect, and cumulative impacts and discuss impacts in proportion to their significance.

Background

EPCA, as amended by EISA, sets forth extensive requirements concerning the establishment of CAFE standards. It requires the Secretary of Transportation³ to establish average fuel economy standards at least 18 months before the beginning of each model year and to set them at "the maximum feasible average fuel economy level that the Secretary decides the manufacturers can achieve in that model year." When setting "maximum feasible" fuel economy standards, the Secretary is required to "consider technological feasibility, economic practicability, the effect of other motor vehicle standards of the Government on fuel economy, and the need of the

United States to conserve energy."⁴ NHTSA construes the statutory factors as including environmental and safety considerations.⁵ NHTSA considers the environmental NEPA analysis when setting CAFE standards.

As amended by EISA in December 2007, EPCA further directs the Secretary, after consultation with the Secretary of Energy and the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), to establish separate average fuel economy standards for passenger cars and for light trucks manufactured in each model year beginning with model year 2011 "to achieve a combined fuel economy average for model year 2020 of at least 35 miles per gallon for the total fleet of passenger and non-passenger automobiles manufactured for sale in the United States for that model year."⁶ In doing so, the Secretary of Transportation is required to "prescribe annual fuel economy increases that increase the applicable average fuel economy standard ratably beginning with model year 2011 and ending with model year 2020."⁷ Additionally, the standards for passenger cars and light trucks must be "based on 1 or more vehicle attributes related to fuel economy" and expressed "in the form of a mathematical function." In any single final rule, standards may be established for not more than five model years.⁸ EPCA also mandates a minimum standard for domestically manufactured passenger cars.⁹

Pursuant to EISA, on April 22, 2008, NHTSA proposed CAFE standards for MY 2011–2015 passenger cars and light trucks in a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking published on May 2, 2008. See 73 FR 24352. In March 2008, NHTSA issued a Notice of Intent to prepare an EIS for the MY 2011–2015 CAFE standards. See 73 FR 16615; 40 CFR 1501.7. On July 3, 2008, EPA issued its Notice of Availability for the DEIS, triggering the 45-day public comment period. The public was invited to submit written comments on the DEIS until August 18, 2008. NHTSA also held a public hearing on the DEIS in Washington, DC, on August 4, 2008. On October 10, 2008, NHTSA submitted to the EPA its Final Environmental Impact Statement, Corporate Average Fuel Economy Standards, Passenger Cars and Light Trucks, Model Years 2011–2015, Docket No. NHTSA-2008-0060-0605 (FEIS). On October 17, 2008, the EPA published a Notice of Availability of the FEIS in the Federal Register. See 73 FR 61859. On January 7, 2009, the Department of Transportation announced that the Bush Administration would not issue the final rule. See Statement from the U.S. Department of Transportation, available at <http://www.dot.gov/affairs/dot0109.htm> (last accessed Feb. 9, 2009).

On January 26, 2009, President Barack Obama issued a memorandum to the Secretary of Transportation and the Administrator of NHTSA, requesting NHTSA "to publish in the Federal Register by March 30, 2009, a final rule prescribing increased fuel economy for model year 2011." See 74 FR 4907. President Obama also requested that "before promulgating a final rule concerning model years after model year 2011, [the agency] consider the appropriate legal factors under EISA, the comments filed in response to the [NPRM], the relevant technological and scientific considerations, and to the extent feasible, the forthcoming report by the National Academy of Sciences mandated under section 107 of EISA * * *." Id.

In accordance with President Obama's request, on March 30, 2009, NHTSA published a Final Rule promulgating the fuel economy standards for MY 2011 only. The Final Rule also constituted the Record of Decision (ROD) for NHTSA's MY 2011 CAFE standards, pursuant to NEPA and CEQ's implementing regulations. See 40 CFR 1505.2. The agency postponed a decision and the issuance of a final rule and ROD for MY 2012 and beyond, pursuant to the President's January 26th memorandum. The deferral of action on standards for the later model years provides the agency with an opportunity to review its approach to CAFE standard setting, including its methodologies, economic and technological inputs and decision-making criteria, so as to ensure that it will produce standards that contribute, to the maximum extent feasible within the limits of EPCA/EISA, to meeting the energy and environmental challenges and goals outlined by the President.

NHTSA intends to propose CAFE standards for MY 2012–2016, a five-year period, for various important reasons. As a preliminary matter, a standard for MY 2012 must be issued by the end of March 2010.¹⁰ Moreover, achieving an industry-wide combined fleet average of at least 35 miles per gallon for MY 2020 depends, in substantial part, upon setting standards well in advance so as to provide automobile manufacturers with as much lead time as possible to make the necessary changes to their automobiles. Setting fuel economy standards for the full five-year increment permitted by EISA, would provide manufacturers with the maximum lead time possible under EPCA and EISA and promote regulatory stability and the efficient use of government resources.

This Notice of Intent initiates the scoping process for the EIS under NEPA, 42 U.S.C. 4321–4347, and implementing regulations issued by CEQ, 40 CFR parts 1500–1508, and NHTSA, 49 CFR part 520. See 40 CFR 1501.7, 1508.22; 49 CFR 520.21(g). Specifically, this Notice of Intent requests public input on the scope of NHTSA's NEPA analysis relating to the CAFE standards for MY 2012–2016 automobiles. As part of the NEPA scoping process, this notice briefly describes the alternatives NHTSA is currently considering for setting MY 2012–2016 CAFE standards.

The Alternatives: NHTSA's upcoming NPRM will propose separate attribute-based standards for MY 2012–2016 passenger cars and for MY 2012–2016 light trucks. This notice briefly describes a variety of possible alternatives that are currently under consideration by the agency, and seeks input from the public about these alternatives and about whether other alternatives should be considered as we proceed with the rulemaking and the EIS.

As noted above, NHTSA is statutorily required to promulgate attribute-based fuel economy standards. See 49 U.S.C.A. 32902(b)(3)(A). Under the upcoming proposed standards, each individual vehicle model would have a specific fuel economy target based on the quantitative value of the attribute (for example, footprint) possessed by that vehicle model.¹¹ Fuel economy targets would reflect, in part, NHTSA's analysis of the technological and economic capabilities of the industry within the rulemaking time frame. A manufacturer's CAFE standard, in turn, would be based on the target levels set for its particular mix of vehicles in that model year. Compliance would be determined by comparing a manufacturer's harmonically averaged fleet fuel economy levels in a model year with a required fuel economy level calculated using the manufacturer's actual production levels and the targets for each vehicle it produces.¹²

In developing alternatives, NHTSA must consider EPCA's requirements for setting CAFE standards. 49 U.S.C. 32902(b)(2)(A) and (C) contain the following three requirements specific to CAFE standards for MYs 2011–2020: (1) The standards must be sufficiently high to result in a combined (passenger car and light truck) fleet fuel economy of at least 35 mpg by MY 2020; (2) the standards must increase annually; and (3) the standards must increase ratably. EPCA also requires the agency to determine what level of CAFE stringency would be the "maximum feasible" for each model year. In determining the maximum feasible levels, EPCA directs NHTSA to consider four factors: Technological feasibility, economic practicability, the effect of other standards of the Government on fuel economy, and the need of the nation to conserve energy. See 49 U.S.C. 32902(f). In balancing these four factors, NHTSA also accounts for relevant environmental and safety considerations, as discussed above.

The alternatives that NHTSA currently has under consideration, in order of increasing stringency, are:

(1) A "no action" alternative, which assumes, strictly for purposes of NEPA analysis, that NHTSA would not issue a rule regarding CAFE standards.¹³ NEPA requires agencies to consider a "no action" alternative in their NEPA analyses and to compare the effects of not taking action with the effects of the reasonable action alternatives to demonstrate the different environmental effects of the action alternatives. The recent amendments to EPCA direct NHTSA to set new CAFE standards and do not permit the agency to take no action on fuel economy.¹⁴ NHTSA refers to this as the "No Action Alternative" or as a "no increase" or "baseline" alternative.

¹¹ Vehicle models made by different manufacturers would have the same fuel economy target if they both possessed the exact same quantity of the attribute upon which the standards are based.

NHTSA is also proposing to consider five action alternatives, each of which would cause the average fuel economy for the industry-wide combined passenger car and light truck fleet to increase, on average, by a specified percentage for each model year during the rulemaking period. Because the percentage increases in stringency are "average" increases, they may either be constant throughout the period or may vary from year to year, so long as the average yearly increase over that period equals the percentage increase specified in the alternative.

The alternatives below represent the percentage increases in fuel economy that the agency is considering:

(2) A 3% average annual increase, resulting in 31.7 mpg in MY 2016 (and 35.6 mpg in MY 2020, if the increase were continued through that model year). NHTSA refers to this as the "3% Alternative."

(3) A 4% average annual increase, resulting in 33.2 mpg in MY 2016 (38.9 mpg in MY 2020). NHTSA refers to this as the "4% Alternative."

(4) A 5% average annual increase, resulting in 34.8 mpg in MY 2016. (42.4 mpg in MY 2020). NHTSA refers to this as the "5% Alternative."

(5) A 6% average annual increase, resulting in 36.5 mpg in MY 2016 (46.1 mpg in MY 2020). NHTSA refers to this as the "6% Alternative."

(6) A 7% average annual increase, resulting in 38.3 mpg in MY 2016 (50.2 mpg in MY 2020). NHTSA refers to this as the "7% Alternative."

Each of the alternatives proposed by NHTSA represents, in part, a different way in which NHTSA conceivably could weigh EPCA's statutory requirements and account for NEPA's policies. For example, the 7% Alternative, the most stringent alternative, weighs energy conservation and climate change considerations more heavily and technological feasibility and economic practicability less heavily. In contrast, the 3% Alternative, the least stringent alternative, places more weight on technological feasibility and economic practicability. The “feasibility” of the alternatives also may reflect differences and uncertainties in the way in which key economic (e.g., the price of fuel and the social cost of carbon) and technological inputs could be assessed and estimated or valued. The agency may select one of the above-identified alternatives as its Preferred Alternative or it may select a level of stringency that falls between the levels of stringency reflected in the alternatives proposed in this Scoping Notice.

Under NEPA, the purpose of and need for an agency’s action inform the range of reasonable alternatives to be considered in its NEPA analysis.¹⁵ The above alternatives represent a broad range of approaches under consideration for setting proposed CAFE standards and whose environmental impacts we propose to evaluate under NEPA. These alternatives take into account the comments NHTSA received during the prior rulemaking and EIS process.

As detailed below, NHTSA invites comments to ensure that the agency considers a full range of reasonable alternatives in setting CAFE standards and that the agency identifies the environmental impacts and focuses its analyses on all the potentially significant impacts related to each alternative. Comments may go beyond the approaches and information that NHTSA used in developing the above alternatives and in identifying the potentially significant environmental effects. The agency may modify the proposed alternatives and environmental effects that will be analyzed in depth based upon the comments received during the scoping process and upon further agency analysis.

Scoping and Public Participation: The scoping process initiated by this notice seeks to determine “the range of actions, alternatives, and impacts to be considered” in the EIS and to identify the most important issues for analysis involving the potential environmental impacts of NHTSA’s CAFE standards.¹⁶ NHTSA’s NEPA analysis for the MY 2012–2016 CAFE standards will consider the direct, indirect and cumulative environmental impacts of the proposed standards and those of reasonable alternatives.

While the main focus of NHTSA’s prior EIS (i.e., EIS for Model Years 2011–2015) was the quantification of impacts to energy, air quality, and climate, and qualitative analysis of cumulative impacts resulting from climate change, it also addressed other potentially affected resources. NHTSA conducted a qualitative review of the related direct, indirect, and cumulative impacts, positive or negative, of the alternatives on other potentially affected resources (water resources, biological resources, land use, hazardous materials, safety, noise, historic and cultural resources, and environmental justice).

For the current EIS, NHTSA intends to focus on the impacts in the same manner as it did in the prior EIS. NHTSA is currently considering analyzing environmental impacts related to fuel and energy use, emissions including GHGs and their effects on temperature and climate change, air quality, natural resources, and the human environment. NHTSA also will consider the cumulative impacts of the proposed standards for MY 2012–2016 automobiles together with estimated impacts of NHTSA’s implementation of the CAFE program through MY 2011 and NHTSA’s future CAFE rulemakings for MY 2017 and beyond. To that end, NHTSA will project the effects of CAFE standards for MY 2012–2016 and beyond on fuel use and emissions over the lifetimes of the vehicles produced during those model years (or “the vehicles subject to those standards”), as well as on future fuel use and emissions by the entire U.S. automobile and light truck fleets.

NHTSA anticipates considerable uncertainty in estimating and comparing the potential environmental impacts related to climate change in particular. For instance, it may be difficult to predict with a reasonable degree of certainty or accuracy the range of potential global temperature changes that may result from changes in fuel and energy consumption and GHG emissions due to new CAFE standards. It also may be difficult to predict and compare the ways in which potential temperature changes attributable to new CAFE standards may affect many aspects of the environment. NHTSA will do its best to gather all relevant and credible information. If, however, the agency discovers incomplete or unavailable information, the agency will acknowledge the uncertainties in its NEPA analysis, and will apply the provisions in the CEQ regulations addressing “[i]ncomplete or unavailable information.”¹⁷

Currently, NHTSA intends to rely upon the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) 2007 Fourth Assessment Report, and subsequent updates, and Reports of the U.S. Climate Change Science Program (CCSP) as sources for recent “summar[ies] of existing credible scientific evidence which is relevant to evaluating the reasonably foreseeable significant adverse impacts on the human environment.”¹⁸ NHTSA believes that the IPCC Fourth Assessment Report and the CCSP Reports are the most recent, most comprehensive summaries available, but recognizes that subsequent research may provide additional relevant and credible evidence not accounted for in these Reports. NHTSA expects to rely on such subsequent information as well, to the extent that it provides relevant and credible evidence.

NHTSA also expects to rely on the FEIS it published on October 10, 2008,¹⁹ incorporating material by reference “when the effect will be to cut down on bulk without impeding agency and public review of the action.”²⁰ Therefore, the NHTSA NEPA analysis and documentation will incorporate by reference relevant materials, including portions of the agency’s prior FEIS, where applicable.

In preparing this notice of public scoping to identify the range of actions, alternatives, and impacts to be analyzed in depth in the EIS, NHTSA has consulted with agencies, including CEQ, DOE, EPA, the Office of Management and Budget, and the Office of Energy and Climate Change Policy. Through this notice, NHTSA invites all Federal agencies, Indian Tribes, State and local agencies with jurisdiction by law or special expertise with respect to potential environmental impacts of proposed CAFE standards, and the public to participate in the scoping process.²¹

¹⁸ 40 CFR 1502.22(b)(3); see 40 CFR 1502.21. The report and the IPCC’s earlier reports are available at <http://www.ipcc.ch/> (last visited March 11, 2008).

²⁰ 40 CFR 1502.21.

²¹ Consistent with NEPA and implementing regulations, NHTSA is sending this notice directly to: (1) Federal agencies having jurisdiction by law or special expertise with respect to the environmental impacts involved or authorized to develop and enforce environmental standards; (2) the Governors of every State, to share with the appropriate agencies and offices within their administrations and with the local jurisdictions

¹⁶ See 40 CFR 1500.5(d), 1501.7, 1508.25.

Specifically, NHTSA invites all stakeholders to participate in the scoping process by submitting written comments concerning the appropriate scope of NHTSA's NEPA analysis for the proposed CAFE standards to the docket number identified in the heading of this notice, using any of the methods described in the ADDRESSES section of this notice. NHTSA does not plan to hold a public scoping meeting, because written comments will be effective in identifying and narrowing the issues for analysis.

NHTSA is especially interested in comments concerning the evaluation of climate change impacts. Specifically, NHTSA requests:

- Peer-reviewed scientific studies that have been issued since the IPCC's Fourth Assessment Report (and are not reflected in the IPCC's work through November 17, 2007) and that address: (a) The impacts of CO₂ and other greenhouse gas emissions on temperature, and specifically, the temperature changes that may be associated with any of the alternatives under consideration; (b) the impacts of changes in temperature on the environment, including water resources and biological resources, and human health and welfare; or (c) the time periods over which such impacts may occur.

- Comments on how NHTSA should estimate the potential changes in temperature that may result from the changes in CO₂ emissions projected from setting MY 2012–2016 CAFE standards, and comments on how NHTSA should estimate the potential impacts of temperature changes on the environment.

- Comments on what time frame NHTSA should use to evaluate the environmental impacts that may result from setting MY 2012–2016 CAFE standards, both incrementally and cumulatively. For example, some commenters during the last CAFE rulemaking suggested using a 50-year time frame to evaluate environmental impacts, while others suggested using a time frame that spanned more than 100 years. See FEIS sections 10.2.1, 10.3.1.2.

- Reports analyzing the potential impacts of climate change within the United States or in particular geographic areas of the United States. Such reports could be prepared by or on behalf of States, local governments, Indian Tribes, within their States; (3) organizations representing state and local governments and Indian Tribes; and (4) other stakeholders that NHTSA reasonably expects to be interested in the NEPA analysis for the MY 2012–2016 CAFE standards. See 42 U.S.C. 4332(2)(C); 49 CFR 520.21(g); 40 CFR 1501.7, 1506.6.

- NHTSA understands that there are a variety of potential alternatives that could be considered that fit within the purpose and need for the proposed rulemaking, as set forth in EPCA, as amended by EISA. NHTSA, therefore, seeks comments on how best to structure a reasonable alternative for purposes of evaluating it under NEPA. Specifically, NHTSA seeks comments on what criteria should be used to structure such alternative, given the attribute-based system that EISA requires, while being consistent with NHTSA's statutory requirement of setting "maximum feasible" fuel economy standards that increase ratably. See 49 U.S.C. 32902(f). When suggesting a possible alternative, please explain how it would satisfy EPCA's factors (in particular, technological feasibility, economic practicability, the effect of other motor vehicle standards of the Government on fuel economy, and the need of the nation to conserve energy) and requirements (such as achieving a combined fleet average fuel economy of at least 35 miles per gallon for MY 2020) and give effect to NEPA's policies.²²

In addition, NHTSA requests comments on how the agency should assess cumulative impacts, including those from various emissions source categories and from a range of geographic locations. Also in regard to cumulative impacts, the agency requests comments on how to consider the incremental impacts from foreseeable future actions of other agencies or persons, especially those relating to greenhouse gas regulation or climate change initiatives and how they might interact with the CAFE program's incremental cumulative impacts.

Two important purposes of scoping are identifying the significant issues that merit in-depth analysis in the EIS and identifying and eliminating from detailed analysis the issues that are not significant and therefore require only a brief discussion in the EIS.²³ In light of these purposes, written comments should include an Internet citation (with a date last visited) to each study or report you cite in your comments if one is available. If a document you cite is not available to the public on-line, you should attach a copy to your comments. Your comments should indicate how each document you cite or attach to your comments is relevant to the NEPA analysis and indicate the specific pages and passages in the attachment that are most informative.

The more specific your comments are, and the more support you can provide by directing the agency to peer-reviewed scientific studies and reports as requested above, the more useful your comments will be to the agency. For example, if you identify an additional area of impact or environmental concern you believe NHTSA should analyze, or an analytical tool or model that you believe NHTSA should use to evaluate these environmental impacts, you should clearly describe it and support your comments with a reference to a specific peer-reviewed scientific study, report, tool or model. Specific, well-supported comments will help the agency prepare an EIS that is focused and relevant, and will serve NEPA's overarching aims of making high quality information available to decisionmakers and the public by "concentrat[ing] on the issues that are truly significant to the action in question, rather than amassing needless detail."²⁴ By contrast, mere assertions that the agency should evaluate broad lists or categories of concerns, without support, will not assist the scoping process for the proposed standards.

Please be sure to reference the docket number identified in the heading of this notice in your comments. NHTSA intends to correspond directly to interested parties by e-mail. Thus, please also provide an e-mail address (or a mailing address if you decline e-mail communications).²⁵ These steps will help NHTSA to manage a large volume of material during the NEPA process. All comments and materials received, including the names and addresses of the commenters who submit them, will become part of the administrative record and will be posted on the Web at <http://www.nhtsa.dot.gov>.

Based on comments received during scoping, NHTSA expects to prepare a draft EIS for public comment later this summer and a final EIS to support a final rule early next year.²⁶ In regard to NHTSA's decisionmaking schedule, the agency expects to issue a final rule next year.

Separate Federal Register notices will announce the availability of the draft EIS, which will be available for public comment, and the final EIS, which will be available for public inspection.

²⁴ 40 CFR 1500.1(b).

²⁵ If you prefer to receive NHTSA's NEPA correspondence by U.S. mail, NHTSA intends to provide its NEPA publications via a CD readable on a personal computer.

²⁶ 40 CFR 1506.10.

NHTSA also plans to continue to post information about the NEPA process and this CAFE rulemaking on its Web site (<http://www.nhtsa.dot.gov>).

The line traverses U.S. Postal Service Zip Codes 92225, 92226, and 92280, and includes the stations of Rice, Styx, Midland, Cox, Inca, Mesaville, Blythe, Miller Farms, and Ripley.

The line does contain Federally granted rights-of-way. Any documentation in ARZC's possession will be made available promptly to those requesting it.

The interest of railroad employees will be protected by the conditions set forth in Oregon Short Line R. Co.—Abandonment—Goshen, 360 I.C.C. 91 (1979).

By issuance of this notice, the Board is instituting an exemption proceeding pursuant to 49 U.S.C. 10502(b). A final decision will be issued by June 30, 2009.

All interested persons should be aware that, following abandonment of rail service and salvage of the line, the line may be suitable for other public use, including interim trail use. Any request for a public use condition under 49 CFR 1152.28 or for trail use/rail banking under 49 CFR 1152.29 will be due no later than April 21, 2009. Each trail use request must be accompanied by a $200 filing fee. See 49 CFR 1002.2(f)(27).

[Assistance for the hearing impaired is available through the Federal Information Relay Service (FIRS) at 1-800-877-8339.]

An environmental assessment (EA) (or environmental impact statement (EIS), if necessary) prepared by SEA will be served upon all parties of record and upon any agencies or other persons who commented during its preparation. Other interested persons may contact SEA to obtain a copy of the EA (or EIS). EAs in these abandonment proceedings normally will be made available within 60 days of the filing of the petition. The deadline for submission of comments on the EA will generally be within 30 days of its service.

Surface Transportation Board

[STB Docket No. AB-308 (Sub-No. 4X)]

Central Michigan Railway Company—Abandonment Exemption—in Kent County, MI

Central Michigan Railway Company (CMRY) has filed a verified notice of exemption under 49 CFR 1152 Subpart F—Exempt Abandonments to abandon an approximately 1.75-mile line of railroad, consisting of the following three interconnected segments: (1) A line (segment A) extending from milepost 157.96 (at the switch connection with the east-west aligned tracks of the Mid-Michigan Railroad, Inc. (MMR) near the intersection of Taylor Avenue and Quimby Street) through valuation map marker 9+87.2 (the location of the south wye, or Press Track, switch adjacent to Monroe Avenue) and continuing to the end of the track at a point immediately north of Michigan Street/Bridge Street; (2) a line (segment B) extending from valuation map marker 3+00 (at a switch connection with a line of MMR immediately at the east end of the MMR bridge spanning the Grand River) to a connection with segment A at valuation map marker 9+87.2 (at the south wye switch); and (3) a line (segment C) extending from valuation map marker 0+00 (at a point of connection with the east-west aligned MMR line immediately to the east of the MMR line's bridge spanning the Grand River) due northward to valuation map marker 11+15.0 (approximately 250 feet south of Ann Street),¹ in Grand Rapids, Kent County, MI. The line traverses United States Postal Service Zip Codes 49503 and 49505.

CMRY has certified that: (1) No local traffic has moved over the line for at least 2 years; (2) there is no overhead traffic that would need to be rerouted; (3) no formal complaint filed by a user of rail service on the line (or by a state or local government entity acting on behalf of such user) regarding cessation of service over the line either is pending with the Surface Transportation Board (Board) or with any U.S. District Court or has been decided in favor of a complainant within the 2-year period; and (4) the requirements at 49 CFR 1105.7 (environmental report), 49 CFR 1105.8 (historic report), 49 CFR 1105.11 (transmittal letter), 49 CFR 1105.12 (newspaper publication), and 49 CFR 1152.50(d)(1) (notice to governmental agencies) have been met.

As a condition to this exemption, any employee adversely affected by the abandonment shall be protected under Oregon Short Line R. Co.—Abandonment—Goshen, 360 I.C.C. 91 (1979). To address whether this condition adequately protects affected employees, a petition for partial revocation under 49 U.S.C. 10502(d) must be filed.

¹ CMRY states that, except for the northern connection of segment A to the rail line of MMR, the line does not possess milepost markers. For that reason CMRY has supplied valuation map markers where available, and other geographic points of reference to better identify the terminal points of each segment of the line.

Provided no formal expression of intent to file an offer of financial assistance (OFA) has been received, this exemption will be effective on May 1, 2009, unless stayed pending reconsideration. Petitions to stay that do not involve environmental issues,² formal expressions of intent to file an OFA under 49 CFR 1152.27(c)(2),³ and trail use/rail banking requests under 49 CFR 1152.29 must be filed by April 13, 2009. Petitions to reopen or requests for public use conditions under 49 CFR 1152.28 must be filed by April 21, 2009, with the Surface Transportation Board, 395 E Street, SW., Washington, DC 20423-0001.

A copy of any petition filed with the Board should be sent to CMRY's representative: William A. Mullins, 2401 Pennsylvania Ave., NW., Suite 300, Washington, DC 20037.

If the verified notice contains false or misleading information, the exemption is void ab initio.

CMRY has filed environmental and historic reports, which addresses the effects, if any, of the abandonment on the environment and historic resources. SEA will issue an environmental assessment (EA) by April 6, 2009. Interested persons may obtain a copy of the EA by writing to SEA (Room 1100, Surface Transportation Board, Washington, DC 20423-0001) or by calling SEA, at (202) 245-0305. [Assistance for the hearing impaired is available through the Federal Information Relay Service (FIRS) at 1-800-877-8339.] Comments on environmental and historic preservation matters must be filed within 15 days after the EA becomes available to the public.

Environmental, historic preservation, public use, or trail use/rail banking conditions will be imposed, where appropriate, in a subsequent decision.

Pursuant to the provisions of 49 CFR 1152.29(e)(2), CMRY shall file a notice of consummation with the Board to signify that it has exercised the authority granted and fully abandoned the line. If consummation has not been effected by CMRY's filing of a notice of consummation by April 1, 2010, and there are no legal or regulatory barriers to consummation, the authority to abandon will automatically expire.

² The Board will grant a stay if an informed decision on environmental issues (whether raised by a party or by the Board's Section of Environmental Analysis (SEA) in its independent investigation) cannot be made before the exemption's effective date. See Exemption of Out-of-Service Rail Lines, 5 I.C.C.2d 377 (1989). Any request for a stay should be filed as soon as possible so that the Board may take appropriate action before the exemption's effective date.

³ Each OFA must be accompanied by the filing fee, which is currently set at $1,500. See 49 CFR 1002.2(f)(25).

Board decisions and notices are available on our Web site at "http://www.stb.dot.gov."

Abstract: In 1985, the Banking Supervisory Agencies issued procedures to be used by banks and certain other financial institutions operating in the United States to report known or suspected criminal activities to the appropriate law enforcement and Banking Supervisory Agencies. Beginning in 1994, the Banking Supervisory Agencies and the FinCEN redesigned the reporting process resulting in the Suspicious Activity Report, which became effective in April 1996. The report is authorized by the following regulations: 31 CFR 103.18 (FinCEN); 12 CFR 21.11 (OCC); 12 CFR 563.180 (OTS); 12 CFR 208.62(c), 211.5(k), 211.24(f), and 225.4(f) (Board); 12 CFR 353.3 (FDIC); 12 CFR 748.1 (NCUA). The regulations were issued under the authority contained in the following statutes: 31 U.S.C. 5318(g) (FinCEN); 12 U.S.C. 93a, 1818, 1881-84, 3401-22, 31 U.S.C. 5318 (OCC); 12 U.S.C. 1463 and 1464 (OTS); 12 U.S.C. 248(a)(1), 625, 1818, 1844(c), 3105(c)(2) and 3106(a) (Board); 12 U.S.C. 1818-1820 (FDIC); 12 U.S.C. 1766(a), 1789(a) (NCUA).

Current Action: The Banking Supervisory Agencies and the FinCEN propose to renew, without revision, the currently approved form.²

Estimated Number of Respondents:

² The form being renewed was approved by OMB effective June 30, 2007. On May 1, 2007, FinCEN published a Federal Register notice (72 FR 23891) (http://www.fincen.gov/statutes_regs/frn/pdf/sar_fr_notice.pdf) announcing the delayed implementation of the revised Suspicious Activity Report (SAR) forms. The revised SAR forms that support joint filings were originally scheduled to become effective on June 30, 2007 and mandatory on December 31, 2007. The delay in implementation does not impact ongoing suspicious activity reporting. Filers should continue to use the July 2003 form until further notice (http://www.fincen.gov/forms/files/f9022-47_sar-di.pdf). FinCEN will establish new dates for using the revised SAR forms in a future notice. Depository institutions will be provided ample lead time to incorporate the approved version.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This system of records contains information regarding applicants for and beneficiaries of benefits chiefly administered by the Veterans Benefits Administration (VBA) of the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). This system is a core system for VBA programs. This system of records does not directly address health or memorial benefits administered respectively by the Veterans Health Administration or the National Cemetery Administration, the other two of the three Administrations within VA. This system was first published on March 3, 1976, and last amended on September 2, 2008, by the addition of routine use number 72, that was erroneously printed as number 70. Our comprehensive review of this system found that many routine uses could be modified, altered, amended or deleted. The Department proposes to reduce the existing 72 routine uses to 64 routine uses to reflect the present state of disclosure authority. Accordingly, the Department proposes to delete existing routine uses 30 and 31, which authorized disclosure on the basis of a valid subpoena issued by a competent Federal, State, or municipal court. Subsequent case law has invalidated the legality of disclosures solely on the basis of a subpoena. The Department has made minor, non-substantive changes to the remaining existing routine uses for grammar and clarity purposes, and those changes are not further discussed. Several routine uses were merged as they contained unnecessary duplication. Overall, these changes resulted in the elimination of eight of the existing routine uses. In addition to the changes in the routine uses identified above, the Department also proposes to add Veterans Services Network (VETSNET) and the Virtual VA Suite of Applications to this existing system of records in the storage category, as these applications reflect state of the art trends in information processing and storage.

The Veterans Service Network (VETSNET) is a suite of five applications to improve the processing of claims within the Compensation and Pension (C&P) Service business line: Share, MAP—D (Modern Award Processing—Development), RBA2000 (Rating Board Automation), Awards and FAS (Finance and Accounting System). VETSNET will transition VBA's legacy system (Benefits Delivery Network, or BDN) to a more contemporary computing infrastructure. The Virtual VA Suite of Applications is an enterprise content management (ECM) system. It is comprised of 15 different technologies that capture, manage, preserve, and deliver content and documents related to C&P Service's business processes in an electronic form through the use of the electronic folder. The electronic folder (eFolder) is an application within the Virtual VA Suite of Applications that replaces manual paper transfer, and eliminates the need for storage of paper claims folders by providing secure and efficient electronic storage of data.

Finally, the Department is renaming the system "Compensation, Pension, Education, and Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment Records—VA" with the corresponding number of 58VA 21/22/28 to signify that this is the 58th VA system of records. The numbers 21, 22, and 28 reflect VBA's internal office routing numbers: Compensation and Pension Programs (21), Education (22) and Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment Service (28). The Report of Intent to Amend a System of Records Notice For Veterans Benefits Administration (VBA) and an advance copy of the proposed changes have been sent to the appropriate Congressional committees and to the Director of the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) as required by 5 U.S.C. 552a(r) (Privacy Act) and guidelines issued by OMB (65 FR 77677), December 12, 2000.

Approved: March 12, 2009.

John R. Gingrich,
Chief of Staff, Department of Veterans Affairs.

This matching program is performed pursuant to the DOL Inspector General's authority under Public Law 95-452, section 4(a) to detect and prevent fraud and abuse. Identifying information, such as name, social security number, VA claim number, date and place of birth, etc., in this system may be disclosed to an employer or school having information relevant to a claim in order to obtain information from the employer or school to the extent necessary to determine that eligibility for VA compensation or pension benefits continues to exist or to verify that there has been an overpayment of VA compensation or pension benefits. Any information in this system also may be disclosed to any of the above-entitled individuals or entities as part of ongoing computer matching programs to accomplish these purposes.

42. 44. The name, address, VA file number, date of birth, date of death, social security number, and service information may be disclosed to the Defense Manpower Data Center. The Department of Defense will use this information to identify retired veterans and dependent members of their families who have entitlement to Department of Defense benefits but who are not identified in the Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS) program and to assist in determining eligibility for Civilian Health and Medical Program of the Uniformed Services (CHAMPUS) benefits. 47. This routine use authorizes VA to compile lists of the social security numbers and loan account numbers of all persons with VA-guaranteed and portfolio loans in default, or VA loans on which there has been a foreclosure and the Department paid a claim, and provide these records to the Department of Housing and Urban Development for inclusion in its Credit Alert Interactive Voice Response System (CAIVRS). Information included in this system may be disclosed to all participating agencies and lenders who participate in the agencies' programs to enable them to verify information provided by new loan applicants and evaluate the creditworthiness of applicants. These records may also be disclosed as part of an ongoing computer-matching program to accomplish these purposes.

48. Identifying information including social security number, abbreviated surname, first and middle initial, date of birth, sex and claim number, and excluding the full name and address, may be disclosed to the Social Security Administration for the purpose of conducting a computer match to obtain information to validate the social security number maintained in VA records.

49. Any information contained in the files of veterans whose claims were referred to VA Central Office for an advisory opinion concerning their claims that their disabilities were incurred secondary to occupational radiation exposure may be disclosed to the Department of the Navy. The information to be furnished to the Navy would include the medical opinions, dose estimates, advisory opinions, and rating decisions including veterans' names, addresses, VA claim numbers, social security numbers and medical information. The requested information may be disclosed to the Department of the Navy upon receipt of its official written request for such information for its use in the review and assessment of its occupational radiation exposure controls and training.

50. A veteran's claims file number and folder location may be disclosed to a court of proper jurisdiction that has issued a garnishment order for that veteran under 42 U.S.C. 659 through 660.

51. An individual's identifying and payment information may be disclosed to the educational institution, training establishment, or other entity the individual attends (or attended) if that individual received educational assistance from VA based on training at that educational institution, training establishment, or entity. VA will disclose this information to assist the educational institution, training establishment, or other entity in verifying the individual's receipt of VA educational assistance and to assist the individual in applying for additional financial aid (e.g. student loans).

52. The name and address of a prospective, present, or former accredited representative, claims agent or attorney and any information concerning such individual which is relevant to a refusal to grant access privileges to automated veterans' claims records, or a potential or past suspension or termination of such access privileges may be disclosed to the entity employing the individual to represent veterans on claims for veterans benefits.

53. The name and address of a former accredited representative, claim agent or attorney, and any information concerning such individual, except a veteran's name and home address, which is relevant to a revocation of such access privileges may be disclosed to an appropriate governmental licensing organization where VA determines that the individual's conduct that resulted in revocation merits reporting.

54. A record from this system (other than the address of the beneficiary) may be disclosed to a former representative of a beneficiary to the extent necessary to develop and adjudicate a claim for payment of attorney fees to such representative from past-due benefits under 38 U.S.C. 5904(d) and Public Law 109-461 or to review a fee agreement between such representative and the beneficiary for reasonableness under 38 U.S.C. 5904(c)(2) and Public Law 109-461.

55. Disclosure of tax returns and return information received from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) may be made only as provided by 26 U.S.C. 6103 (an IRS confidentiality statute) also covering any IRS tax return information provided as part of an ongoing computer matching program.

56. Where VA determines that there is good cause to question the legality or ethical propriety of the conduct of a person or organization representing a person in a matter before VA, a record from this system may be disclosed, on VA's initiative, to any or all of the following: (1) Applicable civil or criminal law enforcement authorities and (2) a person or entity responsible for the licensing, supervision, or professional discipline of the person or organization acting as a representative. Name and home addresses of veterans and their dependents will be released on VA's initiative under this routine use only to Federal entities.

57. The name and address of a VA beneficiary, and other information as is reasonably necessary to identify such a beneficiary, who has been adjudicated as incompetent under 38 CFR 3.353, may be provided to the Attorney General of the United States or his/her designee, for use by the Department of Justice in the National Instant Criminal Background Check System (NICS) mandated by the Brady Handgun Violence Prevention Act, Public Law 103-159.

58. Disclosure may be made to the National Archives and Records Administration and General Services Administration in record management inspections and such other activities conducted under Authority of Title 44 U.S.C.

59. VA may disclose information from this system of records to the Department of Justice (DoJ), either on VA's initiative or in response to DoJ's request for the information, after either VA or DoJ determines that such information is relevant to DoJ's representation of the United States or any of its components in legal proceedings before a court or adjudicative body, provided that, in each case, the agency also determines prior to disclosure that release of the records to the DoJ is a use of the information contained in the records that is compatible with the purpose for which VA collected the records. VA, on its own initiative, may disclose records in this system of records in legal proceedings before a court or administrative body after determining that the disclosure of records to the court or administrative body is a use of the information contained in the records that is compatible with the purpose for which VA collected the records.

60. Disclosure of relevant information may be made to individuals, organizations, public or private agencies, or other entities with whom VA has a contract or agreement or where there is a subcontract to perform such services as VA may deem practicable for the purposes of laws administered by VA, in order for the contractor or subcontractor to perform the services of the contract or agreement.

61. Disclosure to other Federal agencies may be made to assist such agencies in preventing and detecting possible fraud, waste, overpayment, or abuse by individuals in their operations and programs as well as identifying areas where legislative and regulatory amendments directed toward preventing overpayments. These records may also be disclosed as part of an ongoing computer-matching program to accomplish this purpose.

62. VA may on its own initiative, disclose any information or records to appropriate agencies, entities, and persons when (1) VA suspects or has confirmed that the integrity or confidentiality of information in the system of records has been compromised; (2) VA has determined that as a result of the suspected or confirmed compromise, there is a risk of embarrassment or harm to the reputations of the record subjects, harm to the economic or property interests, identity theft or fraud, or harm to the programs (whether maintained by VA or another agency or entity) that rely upon the potentially compromised information; and (3) the disclosure is to agencies, entities, or persons whom VA determines are reasonably necessary to assist or carry out the VA's efforts to respond to the suspected or confirmed compromise and prevent, minimize, or remedy such harm. This routine use permits disclosures by VA to respond to a suspected or confirmed data breach, including the conduct of any risk analysis or provision of credit protection services as provided in 38 U.S.C. 5724, as the terms are defined in 38 U.S.C. 5727.

63. VA may disclose information to other Federal Agencies including, but not limited to, identifying information, payment information, and vocational objectives about a veteran or service member who is receiving or has received benefits under the Vocational Rehabilitation program to be used in data analysis and development of performance measures.

64. Any information contained in this system may be disclosed by VA, as deemed necessary, to DoD for use for determinations required by DoD. VA will routinely use the information to conduct medical evaluations needed to produce VA disability ratings and to promulgate subsequent claims for benefits under Title 38 U.S.C.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORING, RETRIEVING, ACCESSING, RETAINING, AND DISPOSING OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

STORAGE:

The Benefits Delivery Network (BDN), Virtual VA, Corporate WINRS, and Veterans' Service Network (VETSNET) are data telecommunication terminal systems. Records (or information contained in records) are maintained on paper documents in claims folders (C-folders), vocational rehabilitation folders, electronic file folders (e.g., Virtual VA, and TIMS Files), and on automated storage media (e.g., microfilm, microfiche, magnetic tape and disks). Such information may be accessed through BDN, Virtual VA, Corporate WINRS, and VETSNET terminals. BDN, Virtual VA, Corporate WINRS, and VETSNET terminal locations include VA Central Office, regional offices, VA health care facilities, Veterans Integrated Service Network (VISN) offices, Department of Defense Finance and Accounting Service Centers and the U.S. Coast Guard Pay and Personnel Center. Remote on-line access is also made available to authorized remote sites, representatives of claimants and to attorneys of record for claimants. A VA claimant must execute a prior written consent or a power of attorney authorizing access to his or her claims records before VA will allow the representative or attorney to have access to the claimant's automated claims records. Access by representatives and attorneys of record is to be used solely for the purpose of assisting an individual claimant whose records are accessed in a claim for benefits administered by VA. Information relating to receivable accounts owed to VA, designated the Centralized Accounts Receivable System (CARS), is maintained on magnetic tape, microfiche and microfilm. CARS is accessed through a data telecommunications terminal system at St. Paul, Minnesota.

RETRIEVABILITY:

File folders, whether paper or electronic, are indexed by name of the individual and VA file number. Automated records are indexed by name, VA file number, payee name and type of benefit. Automated Records of employee productivity cannot be accessed. At the conclusion of a monthly reporting period, the generated listing is indexed by employee BDN identification number. Records in CAIVRS may only be retrieved by social security number.

SAFEGUARDS:

1. Physical Security:

(a) Access to working spaces and claims folder file storage areas in VA regional offices and centers is restricted to VA employees on a need-to-know basis. Generally, file areas are locked after normal duty hours and the offices and centers are protected from outside access by the Federal Protective Service or other security personnel. Employee claims file records and claims file records of public figures are stored in separate locked files. Strict control measures are enforced to ensure that access to and disclosure from these claims file records are limited to a need-to-know basis.

(b) Access to BDN, Virtual VA, Corporate WINRS, and VETSNET data telecommunication networks are by authorization controlled by the site security officer who is responsible for authorizing access to the BDN, Virtual VA and VETSNET by a claimant's representative or attorney approved for access in accordance with VA regulations. The site security officer is responsible for ensuring that the hardware, software and security practices of a representative or attorney satisfy VA security requirements before granting access. The security requirements applicable to the access of automated claims files by VA employees also apply to the access of automated claims files by claimants' representatives or attorneys. The security officer is assigned responsibility for privacy-security measures, especially for review of violation logs, information logs and control of password distribution, including password distribution for claimants' representatives.

(c) Access to data processing centers is generally restricted to center employees, custodial personnel, Federal Protective Service and other security personnel. Access to computer rooms is restricted to authorized operational personnel through electronic locking devices. All other persons provided access to computer rooms are escorted.

(d) Employee production records are identified by the confidential BDN and VETSNET employee identification number, and are protected by management/supervisory personnel from unauthorized disclosure in the same manner as other confidential records maintained by supervisors.

2. BDN, Virtual VA and VETSNET System Security:

(a) Usage of the BDN, Virtual VA, Corporate WINRS and VETSNET systems is protected by the usage of "login" identification passwords and authorized function passwords. The passwords are changed periodically. These same protections apply to remote access users.

(b) At the data processing centers, identification of magnetic tapes and disks containing data is rigidly enforced using labeling techniques. Automated storage media, which are not in use, are stored in tape libraries, which are secured in locked rooms. Access to programs is controlled at three levels: Programming, auditing and operations. Access to the data processing centers where HUD maintains CAIVRS is generally restricted to center employees and authorized subcontractors. Access to computer rooms is restricted to center employees and authorized operational personnel through electronic locking devices. All other persons granted access to computer rooms are escorted. Files in CAIVRS use social security numbers as identifiers. Access to information files is restricted to authorized employees of participating agencies and authorized employees of lenders who participate in the agencies' programs. Access is controlled by agency distribution of passwords. Information in the system may be accessed by use of a touch-tone telephone by authorized agency and lender employees on a "need-to-know" basis.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Compensation, pension, and vocational rehabilitation claims file folders are retained at the servicing regional office until they are inactive for three years, after which they are transferred to the Records Management

Center (RMC) for the life of the veteran. At the death of the veteran, these records are sent to the Federal Records Center (FRC), and maintained by the FRC for 75 years, and thereafter, destroyed. Some claims files folders are electronically imaged, in which case, the electronic file folder is maintained in the same manner as the claims file folder. Once a file is electronically imaged and accepted by VA, its paper contents (with the exception of service treatment records and official legal documents), are destroyed in accordance with Records Control Schedule VB-1 Part 1 Section XIII, as authorized by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) of the United States.

Vocational Rehabilitation counseling records are maintained until the exhaustion of a veteran's maximum entitlement or upon the exceeding of a veteran's delimiting date of eligibility (generally, ten or twelve years from discharge or release from active duty), whichever occurs first, and then destroyed. Automated storage media containing temporary working information are retained until a claim is decided, and then destroyed. All other automated storage media are retained and disposed of in accordance with disposition authorization approved by NARA.

Education electronic file folders are retained at the servicing Regional Processing Office. Education folders may be destroyed in accordance with the times set forth in the Veterans Benefits Administration Records Management, Records Control Schedule VB-1, Part 1, Section VII, as authorized by NARA.

Employee productivity records are maintained for two years after which they are destroyed by shredding or burning. File information for CAIVRS is provided to HUD by VA on magnetic tape. After information from the tapes has been read into the computer the tapes are returned to VA for updating. HUD does not keep separate copies of the tapes.

Small Business Administration New Privacy Act Systems of Records; Narrative StatementPrivacy Act System of Records SBA 35; Non-Employment Related Background Checks*A. Narrative Statement*

1. The Small Business Administration (SBA) is adding a new system of records to the Agency's Privacy Act Systems of Records. The new system is entitled "Non-Employment Related Background Checks." The systems consists of records that maintain information about applicants for SBA loans or other assistance or recognition, including application forms, such as SBA Form 912 and related fingerprint cards, criminal history and other records checks and correspondence concerning background. The system is maintained by SBA's Office of the Inspector General in both electronic and paper formats.

2. Refer to the following citations: 5 U.S.C. App. 3 (The Inspector General Act of 1978, as amended); 15 U.S.C. Chapters 14A and 14B, and 44 U.S.C. 3101.

3. The effect on the individual will be minimal. The information contained in the System will be viewed only by Agency personnel, contractors, experts, consultants or volunteers in the line of their official duties. These individuals must comply with the requirements of the PA of 1974, as amended, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(m). Any potential disclosures outside of the Agency will be in compliance with the routine uses of the System and will only be to individuals with a need to know.

4. Access and use of the records will be limited to specified individuals with official need to know. Records will be stored in locked file cabinets and all computers containing these records are protected by password and user identification codes. In addition, records in this system of records are exempt from the application of all provisions of section 552a except sections (b), (c)(1) and (2), (e)(4)(A) through (F), (e)(6), (7), (9), (10), (11), and (i).

5. The new proposed category of records use satisfies the compatibility requirement of subsection (a)(4) of the Act as the FOI/PA Tracking System is a "collection, or grouping of information about an individual that is maintained by an agency" and "contains his name, or the identifying number, symbol, or other identifying particular assigned to the individual."

6. This is an internal information collection. The Agency deems the OMB approved information collection requirements unnecessary.
