§ 8. Funeral Committees

A resolution of sympathy on the death of a sitting Member or Senator will typically empower the Speaker to appoint Members to a funeral committee. The House will also authorize funeral committees for other noted persons. Funeral committees often are composed of a delegation representing the home state of the deceased and members of the leadership. However, a funeral committee for a President or a former President may include the entire House.⁽¹⁾ Traditionally, the Speaker will order the appointment of a funeral committee for a Member or a Senator as follows: dean of the delegation of the deceased; members of the leadership; other members of the state delegation; and other Members of the House by seniority.⁽²⁾ In the case of the death of an Officer of the House—the Member from the deceased's home district is named first, and the remainder of the delegation in order of seniority.⁽³⁾ When a funeral committee is needed during a period of adjournment, the Speaker may use existing authority to appoint Members to such a committee and advise the House of his actions when it reconvenes.⁽⁴⁾ Statute provides that the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House is authorized and funds are made available to make such arrangements as may be necessary for any duly-appointed committee of Members of the Senate and House to attend the funeral of a deceased Member of the House.⁽⁵⁾
