

present including at least one member and one staff person from the minority.

(2) Affidavit and deposition testimony shall be deemed to have been taken in Washington, D.C. before the task force once filed with the Clerk of the task force for the task force's use, and shall be deemed to have been taken in executive session.

(3) The provisions of clause 2(g)(2) of rule XI requiring a committee vote to close hearings to the public shall not apply with respect to the taking of affidavit and deposition testimony in executive session.

(d) Pursuant to its authority under House Rules to require by subpoena or otherwise the testimony of witnesses and the production of certain materials, the task force may use such authority to obtain any relevant intelligence materials, however classified, White House materials of President Carter and President Reagan, campaign materials, materials of present and former government officials and materials pertaining to unvouchered expenditures or concerning communications interceptions or surveillance; and to obtain evidence in other appropriate countries with the cooperation of their governments.

(e) The task force shall be authorized to respond to judicial or other process, or to make any applications to court, upon consultation with the Speaker consistent with Rule L.

(f)(1) The task force shall provide in its written rules procedures for the protection of classified information from unauthorized disclosure.

(2) The task force shall provide other committees and Members of the House with access to information and proceedings, consistent with rule XLVIII, clause 7(c)(2); Provided, That the task force may direct that particular matters of classes of matter shall not be made available to any person by its members, staff, or others, and may impose any other restriction.

(3) The task force may require its staff to enter nondisclosure agreements, and its chairman, in consultation with the ranking minority member, may require others, such as counsel for witnesses, to do so.

(4) The Committee on Standards of Official Conduct may investigate any unauthorized disclosure of such classified information by a Member, officer or employee of the House or other covered person upon request of the task force.

(5) If, at the conclusion of its investigation, the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct determines that there has been a significant unauthorized disclosure, it shall report its findings to the House and recommend appropriate sanctions for the Member, officer, employee, or other covered person consistent with rule XLVIII, clause 7(e), and any committee restriction, including nondisclosure agreements.

(6) Classified information received by the task force shall not be disclosed publicly by any Member, officer, or employee of the House, except pursuant to the procedure specified in rule XLVIII, clause 7(b) for which purpose the task force shall be the select committee to which the rule refers.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

SEC. 5. (a) Authorized expenses of the task force for investigations and studies, including for the procurement of the services of individual consultants or organizations thereof, and for the training of staff, shall be paid from the contingent fund of the House upon vouchers signed by the chairman and approved by the Chairman of the Committee on House Administration, except such payments may not exceed $300,000.

(b) In carrying out its functions under this resolution, the task force is authorized—

(1) to appoint, either on a permanent basis or as experts or consultants, such staff as the task force considers necessary;

(2) to prescribe the duties and responsibilities of such staff;

(3) to fix the compensation of such staff;

(4) to terminate the employment of any such staff as the task force deems appropriate; and

(5) to reimburse members of the task force and its staff for travel, subsistence, and other necessary expenses incurred by them in the performance of their duties and responsibilities for the task force, other than expenses in connection with any meeting of the task force held in the District of Columbia.

(c) The task force and all authority granted in this resolution shall expire thirty days after the filing of the report of the task force.

(d) The task force shall be deemed a committee of the House for all purposes of law, including sections 6005, 1505, and 1621 of title 18, section 192 of title 2, 1754(b)(1)(B)(ii) of title 22, and section 734(a) of title 31, United States Code.

(e) The task force may request investigations, reports, and other assistance from any agency of the executive, legislative and judicial branches of the Federal government.

REPORT AND RECORDS

SEC. 6. (a)(1) The task force shall report to the House as soon as practicable during the present Congress but not later than six months after the date of adoption of this resolution, the results of its investigation and study, together with such recommendations as it deems advisable.

(2) Not more than 45 days prior to the expiration of the six-month period referred to in paragraph (1), but prior to the expiration of such period, the task force may file an interim report detailing the progress made to date, the costs incurred by the inquiry, and the need for extending the inquiry.

(3) At any time after the filing of such interim report it shall be in order in the House to consider as privileged a resolution introduced and offered by the chairman of the task force, or his designee, extending the period of the inquiry to a date certain which shall be specified in the resolution. If the resolution is adopted the task force shall have until the date specified in the resolution to file its final report. If the resolution is not adopted, the task force shall file its final report as soon as practicable thereafter but in no event later than 15 calendar days after such vote.

(b) Any such report which is made when the House is not in session shall be filed with the Clerk of the House.

(c) Any such report shall be referred to the committee or committees which have jurisdiction over the subject matter thereof.

(d) The records, files and materials of the task force shall become the records of the Committee on Foreign Affairs except for those records relating to intelligence matters which shall become the records of the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence.

After debate,
The question being put, viva voce,
Will the House agree to said amendment?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. OBEY, announced that the nays had it.

Mr. MICHEL objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and not voting.

A quorum not being present,
The roll was called under clause 4, rule XV, and the call was taken by electronic device.
