“(2) TREATMENT WHERE PARTNER IN OTHER PARTNERSHIP.—If a large partnership is a partner in another partnership which is not a large partnership—

“(A) subchapter C of this chapter shall apply to items of such large partnership which are partnership items with respect to such other partnership, but “SEC. 6241. PARTNER’S RETURN MUST BE CONSISTENT WITH PARTNERSHIP RETURN.

“(a) GENERAL RULE.—A partner of any large partnership shall, on the partner’s return, treat each partnership item attributable to such partnership in a manner which is consistent with the treatment of such partnership item on the partnership return.

“(b) UNDERPAYMENT DUE TO INCONSISTENT TREATMENT ASSESSED AS MATH ERROR.—Any underpayment of tax by a partner by reason of failing to comply with the requirements of subsection (a) shall be assessed and collected in the same manner as if such underpayment were on account of a mathematical or clerical error appearing on the partner’s return. Paragraph (2) of section 6213(b) shall not apply to any assessment of an underpayment referred to in the preceding sentence.

“(c) ADJUSTMENTS NOT TO AFFECT PRIOR YEAR OF PARTNERS.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), subsections (a) and (b) shall apply without regard to any adjustment to the partnership item under part II.

“(2) CERTAIN CHANGES IN DISTRIBUTIVE SHARE TAKEN INTO ACCOUNT BY PARTNER.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—To the extent that any adjustment under part II involves a change under section 704 in a partner’s distributive share of the amount of any partnership item shown on the partnership return, such adjustment shall be taken into account in applying this title to such partner for the partner’s taxable year for which such item was required to be taken into account.

“(B) COORDINATION WITH DEFICIENCY PROCEDURES.—

“(i) IN GENERAL.—Subchapter B shall not apply to the assessment or collection of any underpayment of tax attributable to an adjustment referred to in subparagraph (A).

“(ii) ADJUSTMENT NOT PRECLUDED.—Notwithstanding any other law or rule of law, nothing in subchapter B (or in any proceeding under subchapter B) shall preclude the assessment or collection of any underpayment of tax (or the allowance of any credit or refund of any overpayment of tax) attributable to an adjustment referred to in subparagraph (A) and such assessment or collection or allowance (or any notice thereof) shall not preclude any notice, proceeding, or determination under subchapter B.

“(C) PERIOD OF LIMITATIONS.—The period for—

“(i) assessing any underpayment of tax, or

“(ii) filing a claim for credit or refund of any overpayment of tax, attributable to an adjustment referred to in subparagraph (A) shall not expire before the close of the period prescribed by section 6248 for making adjustments with respect to the partnership taxable year involved.

“(D) TIERED STRUCTURES.—If the partner referred to in subparagraph (A) is another partnership or an S corporation, the rules of this paragraph shall also apply to persons holding interests in such partnership or S corporation (as the case may be); except that, if such partner is a large partnership, the adjustment referred to in subparagraph (A) shall be taken into account in the manner provided by section 6242.

“(d) ADDITION TO TAX FOR FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH SECTION.—

“For addition to tax in case of partner's disregard of requirements of this section, see part II of subchapter A of chapter 68.

“SEC. 6242. PROCEDURES FOR TAKING PARTNERSHIP ADJUSTMENTS INTO ACCOUNT.

“(a) ADJUSTMENTS FLOW THROUGH TO PARTNERS FOR YEAR IN WHICH ADJUSTMENT TAKES EFFECT.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—If any partnership adjustment with respect to any partnership item takes effect (within the meaning of subsection (d)(2)) during any partnership taxable year and if an election under paragraph (2) does not apply to such adjustment, such adjustment shall be taken into account in determining the amount of such item for the partnership taxable year in which such adjustment takes effect. In applying this title to any person who is (directly or indirectly) a partner in such partnership during such partnership taxable year, such adjustment shall be treated as an item actually arising during such taxable year.

“(2) PARTNERSHIP LIABLE IN CERTAIN CASES.—If—

“(A) a partnership elects under this paragraph to not take an adjustment into account under paragraph (1),

“(B) a partnership does not make such an election but in filing its return for any partnership taxable year fails to take fully into account any partnership adjustment as required under paragraph (1), or the partnership shall pay to the Secretary an amount determined by applying the rules of subsection (b)(4) to the adjustments not so taken into account and any excess referred to in subparagraph (C).

“(3) OFFSETTING ADJUSTMENTS TAKEN INTO ACCOUNT.—If a partnership adjustment requires another adjustment in a taxable year after the adjusted year and before the partnership taxable year in which such partnership adjustment takes effect, such other adjustment shall be taken into account under this subsection for the partnership taxable year in which such partnership adjustment takes effect.

“(4) COORDINATION WITH PART II.—Amounts taken into account under this subsection for any partnership taxable year shall continue to be treated as adjustments for the adjusted year for purposes of determining whether such amounts may be readjusted under part II.

“(b) PARTNERSHIP LIABLE FOR INTEREST AND PENALTIES.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—If a partnership adjustment takes effect during any partnership taxable year and such adjustment results in an imputed underpayment for the adjusted year, the partnership—

“(A) shall pay to the Secretary interest computed under paragraph (2), and “(B) shall be liable for any penalty, addition to tax, or additional amount as provided in paragraph (3).

“(2) DETERMINATION OF AMOUNT OF INTEREST.—The interest computed under this paragraph with respect to any partnership adjustment is the interest which would be determined under chapter 67—

“(A) on the imputed underpayment determined under paragraph (4) with respect to such adjustment, or

“(B) for the period beginning on the day after the return due date for the adjusted year and ending on the return due date for the partnership taxable year in which such adjustment takes effect (or, if earlier, in the case of any adjustment to which subsection (a)(2) applies, the date on which the payment under subsection (a)(2) is made).

Proper adjustments in the amount determined under the preceding sentence shall be made for adjustments required for partnership taxable years after the adjusted year and before the year in which the partnership adjustment takes effect by reason of such partnership adjustment.

“(3) PENALTIES.—A partnership shall be liable for any penalty, addition to tax, or additional amount for which it would have been liable if such partnership had been an individual subject to tax under chapter 1 for the adjusted year and the imputed underpayment determined under paragraph (4) were an actual underpayment (or understatement) for such year.

“(4) IMPUTED UNDERPAYMENT.—For purposes of this subsection, the imputed underpayment determined under this paragraph with respect to any partnership adjustment is the underpayment (if any) which would result—

“(A) by netting all adjustments to items of income, gain, loss, or deduction and—

“(i) if such netting results in a net increase in income, by treating such net increase as an underpayment equal to the amount of such net increase multiplied by the highest rate of tax in effect under section 1 or 11 for the adjusted year, or

“(ii) if such netting results in a net decrease in income, by treating such net decrease as an overpayment equal to such net decrease multiplied by such highest rate, and

“(B) by taking adjustments to credits into account as increases or decreases (whichever is appropriate) in the amount of tax.

For purposes of the preceding sentence, any net decrease in a loss shall be treated as an increase in income and a similar rule shall apply to a net increase in a loss.

“(c) ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—Any payment required by subsection (a)(2) or (b)(1)(A)—

“(A) shall be assessed and collected in the same manner as if it were a tax imposed by subtitle C, and

“(B) shall be paid on or before the return due date for the partnership taxable year in which the partnership adjustment takes effect.

“(2) INTEREST.—For purposes of determining interest, any payment required by subsection (a)(2) or (b)(1)(A) shall be treated as an underpayment of tax.

“(3) PENALTIES.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—In the case of any failure by any partnership to pay on the date prescribed therefor any amount required by subsection (a)(2) or (b)(1)(A), there is hereby imposed on such partnership a penalty of 10 percent of the underpayment. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the term ‘underpayment’ means the excess of any payment required under this section over the amount (if any) paid on or before the date prescribed therefor.

“(B) ACCURACY-RELATED AND FRAUD PENALTIES MADE APPLICABLE.—For purposes of part II of subchapter A of chapter 68, any payment required by subsection (a)(2) shall be treated as an underpayment of tax.

“(1) PARTNERSHIP ADJUSTMENT.—The term ‘partnership adjustment’ means any adjustment in the amount of any partnership item of a large partnership.

“(2) WHEN ADJUSTMENT TAKES EFFECT.—A partnership adjustment takes effect—

“(A) in the case of an adjustment pursuant to the decision of a court in a proceeding brought under part II, when such decision becomes final,

“(B) in the case of an adjustment pursuant to any administrative adjustment request under section 6251, when such adjustment is allowed by the Secretary, or

“(C) in any other case, when such adjustment is made.

“(3) ADJUSTED YEAR.—The term ‘adjusted year’ means the partnership taxable year to which the item being adjusted relates.

“(4) RETURN DUE DATE.—The term ‘return due date’ means, with respect to any taxable year, the date prescribed for filing the partnership return for such taxable year (determined without regard to extensions).

“(5) ADJUSTMENTS INVOLVING CHANGES IN CHARACTER.—Under regulations, appropriate adjustments in the application of this section shall be made for purposes of taking into account partnership adjustments which involve a change in the character of any item of income, gain, loss, or deduction.

“(e) PAYMENTS NONDEDUCTIBLE.—No deduction shall be allowed under subtitle A for any payment required to be made by a large partnership under this section.

“(b) NOTICE OF PARTNERSHIP ADJUSTMENT.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—If the Secretary determines that a partnership adjustment is required, the Secretary is authorized to send notice of such adjustment to the partnership by certified mail or registered mail. Such notice shall be sufficient if mailed to the partnership at its last known address even if the partnership has terminated its existence.

“(2) FURTHER NOTICES RESTRICTED.—If the Secretary mails a notice of a partnership adjustment to any partnership for any partnership taxable year and the partnership files a petition under section 6247 with respect to such notice, in the absence of a showing of fraud, malfeasance, or misrepresentation of a material fact, the Secretary shall not mail another such notice to such partnership with respect to such taxable year.

“(3) AUTHORITY TO RESCIND NOTICE WITH PARTNERSHIP CONSENT.—The Secretary may, with the consent of the partnership, rescind any notice of a partnership adjustment mailed to such partnership. Any notice so rescinded shall not be treated as a notice of a partnership adjustment, for purposes of this section, section 6246, and section 6247, and the taxpayer shall have no right to bring a proceeding under section 6247 with respect to such notice. Nothing in this subsection shall affect any suspension of the running of any period of limitations during any period during which the rescinded notice was outstanding.

“SEC. 6246. RESTRICTIONS ON PARTNERSHIP ADJUSTMENTS.

“(a) GENERAL RULE.—Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, no adjustment to any partnership item may be made (and no levy or proceeding in any court for the collection of any amount resulting from such adjustment may be made, begun or prosecuted) before—

“(1) the close of the 90th day after the day on which a notice of a partnership adjustment was mailed to the partnership, and

“(2) if a petition is filed under section 6247 with respect to such notice, the decision of the court has become final.

“(b) PREMATURE ACTION MAY BE ENJOINED.—Notwithstanding section 7421(a), any action which violates subsection (a) may be enjoined in the proper court, including the Tax Court. The Tax Court shall have no jurisdiction to enjoin any action under this subsection unless a timely petition has been filed under section 6247 and then only in respect of the adjustments that are the subject of such petition.

“(c) EXCEPTIONS TO RESTRICTIONS ON ADJUSTMENTS.—

“(1) ADJUSTMENTS ARISING OUT OF MATH OR CLERICAL ERRORS.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—If the partnership is notified that, on account of a mathematical or clerical error appearing on the partnership return, an adjustment to a partnership item is required, rules similar to the rules of paragraphs (1) and (2) of section 6213(b) shall apply to such adjustment.

“(B) SPECIAL RULE.—If a large partnership is a partner in another large partnership, any adjustment on account of such partnership's failure to comply with the requirements of section 6241(a) with respect to its interest in such other partnership shall be treated as an adjustment referred to in subparagraph (A), except that paragraph (2) of section 6213(b) shall not apply to such adjustment.

“(2) PARTNERSHIP MAY WAIVE RESTRICTIONS.—The partnership shall at any time (whether or not a notice of partnership adjustment has been issued) have the right, by a signed notice in writing filed with the Secretary, to waive the restrictions provided in subsection (a) on the making of any partnership adjustment.

“(d) LIMIT WHERE NO PROCEEDING BEGUN.—If no proceeding under section 6247 is begun with respect to any notice of a partnership adjustment during the 90-day period described in subsection (a), the amount for which the partnership is liable under section 6242 (and any increase in any partner's liability for tax under chapter 1 by reason of any adjustment under section 6242(a)) shall not exceed the amount determined in accordance with such notice.

“SEC. 6247. JUDICIAL REVIEW OF PARTNERSHIP ADJUSTMENT.

“(3) the Claims Court.

“(b) JURISDICTIONAL REQUIREMENT FOR BRINGING ACTION IN DISTRICT COURT OR CLAIMS COURT.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—A readjustment petition under this section may be filed in a district court of the United States or the Claims Court only if the partnership filing the petition deposits with the Secretary, on or before the date the petition is filed, the amount for which the partnership would be liable under section 6242(b) (as of the date of the filing of the petition) if the partnership items were adjusted as provided by the notice of partnership adjustment. The court may by order provide that the jurisdictional requirements of this paragraph are satisfied where there has been a good faith attempt to satisfy such requirement and any shortfall of the amount required to be deposited is timely corrected.

“(2) INTEREST PAYABLE.—Any amount deposited under paragraph (1), while deposited, shall not be treated as a payment of tax for purposes of this title (other than chapter 67).

“(c) SCOPE OF JUDICIAL REVIEW.—A court with which a petition is filed in accordance with this section shall have jurisdiction to determine all partnership items of the partnership for the partnership taxable year to which the notice of partnership adjustment relates and the proper allocation of such items among the partners (and the applicability of any penalty, addition to tax, or additional amount for which the partnership may be liable under section 6242(b)).

“(d) DETERMINATION OF COURT REVIEWABLE.—Any determination by a court under this section shall have the force and effect of a decision of the Tax Court or a final judgment or decree of the district court or the Claims Court, as the case may be, and shall be reviewable as such. The date of any such determination shall be treated as being the date of the court's order entering the decision.

“(e) EFFECT OF DECISION DISMISSING ACTION.—If an action brought under this section is dismissed other than by reason of a rescission under section 6245(b)(3), the decision of the court dismissing the action shall be considered as its decision that the notice of partnership adjustment is correct, and an appropriate order shall be entered in the records of the court.

“SEC. 6248. PERIOD OF LIMITATIONS FOR MAKING ADJUSTMENTS.

“(a) GENERAL RULE.—Except as otherwise provided in this section, no adjustment under this subpart to any partnership item for any partnership taxable year may be made after the date which is 3 years after the later of—

“(1) the date on which the partnership return for such taxable year was filed, or

“(2) the last day for filing such return for such year (determined without regard to extensions).

“(2) SUBSTANTIAL OMISSION OF INCOME.—If any partnership omits from gross income an amount properly includable therein which is in excess of 25 percent of the amount of gross income stated in its return, subsection (a) shall be applied by substituting ‘6 years’ for ‘3 years’.

“(3) NO RETURN.—In the case of a failure by a partnership to file a return for any taxable year, the adjustment may be made at any time.

“(4) RETURN FILED BY SECRETARY.—For purposes of this section, a return executed by the Secretary under subsection (b) of section 6020 on behalf of the partnership shall not be treated as a return of the partnership.

“(d) SUSPENSION WHEN SECRETARY MAILS NOTICE OF ADJUSTMENT.—If notice of a partnership adjustment with respect to any taxable year is mailed to the partnership, the running of the period specified in subsection (a) (as modified by the other provisions of this section) shall be suspended—

“(1) for the period during which an action may be brought under section 6247 (and, if a petition is filed under section 6247 with respect to such notice, until the decision of the court becomes final), and

“(2) for 1 year thereafter.

“(1) within 3 years after the later of—

“(A) the date on which the partnership return for such year is filed, or

“(B) the last day for filing the partnership return for such year (determined without regard to extensions), and

“(2) before the mailing to the partnership of a notice of a partnership adjustment with respect to such taxable year.

“(b) SECRETARIAL ACTION.—If a partnership files an administrative adjustment request under subsection (a), the Secretary may allow any part of the requested adjustments.

“(c) SPECIAL RULE IN CASE OF EXTENSION UNDER SECTION 6248.—If the period described in section 6248(a) is extended pursuant to an agreement under section 6248(b), the period prescribed by subsection (a)(1) shall not expire before the date 6 months after the expiration of the extension under section 6248(b).

“SEC. 6252. JUDICIAL REVIEW WHERE ADMINISTRATIVE ADJUSTMENT REQUEST IS NOT ALLOWED IN FULL.

The 2-year period set forth in paragraph (2) shall be extended for such period as may be agreed upon in writing by the partnership and the Secretary.

“(c) COORDINATION WITH SUBPART A.—

“(1) NOTICE OF PARTNERSHIP ADJUSTMENT BEFORE FILING OF PETITION.—No petition may be filed under this section after the Secretary mails to the partnership a notice of a partnership adjustment for the partnership taxable year to which the request under section 6251 relates.

“(2) NOTICE OF PARTNERSHIP ADJUSTMENT AFTER FILING BUT BEFORE HEARING OF PETITION.—If the Secretary mails to the partnership a notice of a partnership adjustment for the partnership taxable year to which the request under section 6251 relates after the filing of a petition under this subsection but before the hearing of such petition, such petition shall be treated as an action brought under section 6247 with respect to such notice, except that subsection (b) of section 6247 shall not apply.

“(3) NOTICE MUST BE BEFORE EXPIRATION OF STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.—A notice of a partnership adjustment for the partnership taxable year shall be taken into account under paragraphs (1) and (2) only if such notice is mailed before the expiration of the period prescribed by section 6248 for making adjustments to partnership items for such taxable year.

“(d) SCOPE OF JUDICIAL REVIEW.—Except in the case described in paragraph (2) of subsection (c), a court with which a petition is filed in accordance with this section shall have jurisdiction to determine only those partnership items to which the part of the request under section 6251 not allowed by the Secretary relates and those items with respect to which the Secretary asserts adjustments as offsets to the adjustments requested by the partnership.

“(e) DETERMINATION OF COURT REVIEWABLE.—Any determination by a court under this subsection shall have the force and effect of a decision of the Tax Court or a final judgment or decree of the district court or the Claims Court, as the case may be, and shall be reviewable as such. PART II—PROVISIONS RELATED TO TEFRA PARTNERSHIP PROCEEDINGS

SEC. 4311. TREATMENT OF PARTNERSHIP ITEMS IN DEFICIENCY PROCEEDINGS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Subchapter C of chapter 63 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

“SEC. 6234. DECLARATORY JUDGMENT RELATING TO TREATMENT OF ITEMS OTHER THAN PARTNERSHIP ITEMS WITH RESPECT TO AN OVERSHELTERED RETURN.

“(a) GENERAL RULE.—If—

“(1) a taxpayer files an oversheltered return for a taxable year,

“(2) the Secretary makes a determination with respect to the treatment of items (other than partnership items) of such taxpayer for such taxable year, and

“(3) the adjustments resulting from such determination do not give rise to a deficiency (as defined in section 6211) but would give rise to a deficiency if there were no net loss from partnership items, the Secretary is authorized to send a notice of adjustment reflecting such determination to the taxpayer by certified or registered mail.

“(b) OVERSHELTERED RETURN.—For purposes of this section, the term ‘oversheltered return’ means an income tax return which—

“(1) shows no taxable income for the taxable year, and

“(2) shows a net loss from partnership items.

“(c) JUDICIAL REVIEW IN THE TAX COURT.—

Within 90 days, or 150 days if the notice is addressed to a person outside the United States, after the day on which the notice of adjustment authorized in subsection (a) is mailed to the taxpayer, the taxpayer may file a petition with the Tax Court for redetermination of the adjustments. Upon the filing of such a petition, the Tax Court shall have jurisdiction to make a declaration with respect to all items (other than partnership items and affected items which require partner level determinations as described in section 6230(a)(2)(A)(i)) for the taxable year to which the notice of adjustment relates, in accordance with the principles of section 6214(a). Any such declaration shall have the force and effect of a decision of the Tax Court and shall be reviewable as such.

“(d) FAILURE TO FILE PETITION.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), if the taxpayer does not file a petition with the Tax Court within the time prescribed in subsection (c), the determination of the Secretary set forth in the notice of adjustment that was mailed to the taxpayer shall be deemed to be correct.

“(2) EXCEPTION.—Paragraph (1) shall not apply after the date that the taxpayer—

“(A) files a petition with the Tax Court within the time prescribed in subsection (c) with respect to a subsequent notice of adjustment relating to the same taxable year, or “(B) files a claim for refund of an overpayment of tax under section 6511 for the taxable year involved.

If a claim for refund is filed by the taxpayer, then solely for purposes of determining (for the taxable year involved) the amount of any computational adjustment in connection with a partnership proceeding under this subchapter (other than under this section) or the amount of any deficiency attributable to affected items in a proceeding under section 6230(a)(2), the items that are the subject of the notice of adjustment shall be presumed to have been correctly reported on the taxpayer's return during the pendency of the refund claim (and, if within the time prescribed by section 6532 the taxpayer commences a civil action for refund under section 7422, until the decision in the refund action becomes final).

"(e) LIMITATIONS PERIOD.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—Any notice to a taxpayer under subsection (a) shall be mailed before the expiration of the period prescribed by section 6501 (relating to the period of limitations on assessment).

"(2) SUSPENSION WHEN SECRETARY MAILS NOTICE OF ADJUSTMENT.—If the Secretary mails a notice of adjustment to the taxpayer for a taxable year, the period of limitations on the making of assessments shall be suspended for the period during which the Secretary is prohibited from making the assessment (and, in any event, if a proceeding in respect of the notice of adjustment is placed on the docket of the Tax Court, until the decision of the Tax Court becomes final), and for 60 days thereafter.

"(3) RESTRICTIONS ON ASSESSMENT.—Except as otherwise provided in section 6851, 6852, or 6861, no assessment of a deficiency with respect to any tax imposed by subtitle A attributable to any item (other than a partnership item or any item affected by a partnership item) shall be made—

"(A) until the expiration of the applicable 90-day or 150-day period set forth in subsection (c) for filing a petition with the Tax Court, or

"(B) if a petition has been filed with the Tax Court, until the decision of the Tax Court has become final.

"(f) FURTHER NOTICES OF ADJUSTMENT RESTRICTED.—If the Secretary mails a notice of adjustment to the taxpayer for a taxable year and the taxpayer files a petition with the Tax Court within the time prescribed in subsection (c), the Secretary may not mail another such notice to the taxpayer with respect to the same taxable year in the absence of a showing of fraud, malfeasance, or misrepresentation of a material fact.

"(g) COORDINATION WITH OTHER PROCEEDINGS UNDER THIS SUBCHAPTER.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—The treatment of any item that has been determined pursuant to subsection (c) or (d) shall be taken into account in determining the amount of any computational adjustment that is made in connection with a partnership proceeding under this subchapter (other than under this section), or the amount of any deficiency attributable to affected items in a proceeding under section 6230(a)(2), for the taxable year involved. Notwithstanding any other law or rule of law pertaining to the period of limitations on the making of assessments, for purposes of the preceding sentence, any adjustment made in accordance with this section shall be taken into account regardless of whether any assessment has been made with respect to such adjustment.

"(2) SPECIAL RULE IN CASE OF COMPUTATIONAL ADJUSTMENT.—In the case of a computational adjustment that is made in connection with a partnership proceeding under this subchapter (other than under this section), the provisions of paragraph (1) shall apply only if the computational adjustment is made within the period prescribed by section 6229 for assessing any tax under subtitle A which is attributable to any partnership item or affected item for the taxable year involved.

"(3) CONVERSION TO DEFICIENCY PROCEEDING.—If—

"(A) after the notice referred to in subsection (a) is mailed to a taxpayer for a taxable year but before the expiration of the period for filing a petition with the Tax Court under subsection (c) (or, if a petition is filed with the Tax Court, before the Tax Court makes a declaration for that taxable year), the treatment of any partnership item for the taxable year is finally determined, or any such item ceases to be a partnership item pursuant to section 6231(b), and

"(B) as a result of that final determination or cessation, a deficiency can be determined with respect to the items that are the subject of the notice of adjustment, the notice of adjustment shall be treated as a notice of deficiency under section 6212 and any petition filed in respect of the notice shall be treated as an action brought under section 6213.

"(4) FINALLY DETERMINED.—For purposes of this subsection, the treatment of partnership items shall be treated as finally determined if—

"(A) the Secretary enters into a settlement agreement (within the meaning of section 6224) with the taxpayer regarding such items,

"(B) a notice of final partnership administrative adjustment has been issued and—

"(i) no petition has been filed under section 6226 and the time for doing so has expired, or

"(ii) a petition has been filed under section 6226 and the decision of the court has become final, or

"(C) the period within which any tax attributable to such items may be assessed against the taxpayer has expired.

"(h) SPECIAL RULES IF SECRETARY INCORRECTLY DETERMINES APPLICABLE PROCEDURE.—

"(1) SPECIAL RULE IF SECRETARY ERRONEOUSLY MAILS NOTICE OF ADJUSTMENT.—If the Secretary erroneously determines that subchapter B does not apply to a taxable year of a taxpayer and consistent with that determination timely mails a notice of adjustment to the taxpayer pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, the notice of adjustment shall be treated as a notice of deficiency under section 6212 and any petition that is filed in respect of the notice shall be treated as an action brought under section 6213.

"(2) SPECIAL RULE IF SECRETARY ERRONEOUSLY MAILS NOTICE OF DEFICIENCY.—If the Secretary erroneously determines that subchapter B applies to a taxable year of a taxpayer and consistent with that determination timely mails a notice of deficiency to the taxpayer pursuant to section 6212, the notice of deficiency shall be treated as a notice of adjustment under subsection (a) and any petition that is filed in respect of the notice shall be treated as an action brought under subsection (c)."

"(2) DETERMINATION THAT SUBCHAPTER DOES NOT APPLY.—If, on the basis of a partnership return for a taxable year, the Secretary reasonably determines that this subchapter does not apply to such partnership for such year but such determination is erroneous, then the provisions of this subchapter shall not apply to such partnership (and its items) for such taxable year or to partners of such partnership."

“(i) amount allowed as a deduction under subsection (a)(2), and “(ii) loss on the sale or other disposition of marketable stock in a passive foreign corporation to the extent that the amount of such loss does not exceed the unreversed inclusions with respect to such stock, shall be treated as an ordinary loss. The amount so treated shall be treated as a deduction allowable in computing adjusted gross income.

“(2) SOURCE.—The source of any amount included in gross income under subsection (a)(1) (or allowed as a deduction under subsection (a)(2)) shall be determined in the same manner as if such amount were gain or loss (as the case may be) from the sale of stock in the passive foreign corporation.

“(d) UNREVERSED INCLUSIONS.—For purposes of this section, the term ‘unreversed inclusions’ means, with respect to any stock in a passive foreign corporation, the excess (if any) of—

“(1) the amount included in gross income of the taxpayer under subsection (a)(1) with respect to such stock for prior taxable years, over

“(2) the amount allowed as a deduction under subsection (a)(2) with respect to such stock for prior taxable years.

The amount referred to in paragraph (1) shall include any amount which would have been included in gross income under subsection (a)(1) with respect to such stock for any prior taxable year but for section 1293.

“(e) COORDINATION WITH SECTION 1292.—This section shall not apply with respect to any stock in a passive foreign corporation—

“(1) which is U.S. controlled,

“(2) which is a qualified electing fund with respect to the United States person for the taxable year, or

“(3) in which the United States person is a 25-percent shareholder.

“(f) TREATMENT OF CONTROLLED FOREIGN CORPORATIONS WHICH ARE SHAREHOLDERS IN PASSIVE FOREIGN CORPORATIONS.—In the case of a foreign corporation which is a controlled foreign corporation (or is treated as a controlled foreign corporation under section 1292) and which owns (or is treated under subsection (g) as owning) stock in a passive foreign corporation—

“(1) this section (other than subsection (c)(2) thereof) shall apply to such foreign corporation in the same manner as if such corporation were a United States person, and

“(2) for purposes of subpart F of part III of subchapter N—

“(A) any amount included in gross income under subsection (a)(1) shall be treated as foreign personal holding company income described in section 954(c)(1)(A), and “(B) any amount allowed as a deduction under subsection (a)(2) shall be treated as a deduction allocable to foreign personal holding company income so described.

“(g) STOCK OWNED THROUGH CERTAIN FOREIGN ENTITIES.—Except as provided in regulations—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of this section, stock owned, directly or indirectly, by or for a foreign partnership or foreign trust or foreign estate shall be considered as being owned proportionately by its partners or beneficiaries. Stock considered to be owned by a person by reason of the application of the preceding sentence shall, for purposes of applying such sentence, be treated as actually owned by such person.

“(2) TREATMENT OF CERTAIN DISPOSITIONS.—

In any case in which a United States person is treated as owning stock in a passive foreign corporation by reason of paragraph (1)—

“(A) any disposition by the United States person or by any other person which results in the United States person being treated as no longer owning such stock, and shall be treated as a disposition by the United States person of the stock in the passive foreign corporation.

“(B) any disposition by the person owning such stock,

“(h) COORDINATION WITH SECTION 851(b).—For purposes of paragraphs (2) and (3) of section 851(b), any amount included in gross income under subsection (a) shall be treated as a dividend.

“(i) TRANSITION RULES.—

“(1) INDIVIDUALS BECOMING SUBJECT TO U.S. TAX.—If any individual becomes a United States person in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1992, solely for purposes of this section, the adjusted basis (before adjustments under subsection (b)) of any marketable stock in a passive foreign corporation owned (or treated as owned under subsection (g)) by such individual on the first day of such taxable year shall be treated as being the greater of its fair market value on such first day or its adjusted basis on such first day.

“(2) MARKETABLE STOCK HELD BEFORE EFFECTIVE DATE.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—If any marketable stock in a passive foreign corporation is owned (or treated under subsection (g) as owned) by a United States person on the first day of such person’s first taxable year, beginning after December 31, 1992—

“(i) paragraph (2) of section 1294(a) shall apply to such stock as if it became marketable during such first taxable year; except that—

“(I) section 1293 shall not apply to the amount included in gross income under subsection (a) to the extent such amount is attributable to increases in fair market value during such first taxable year, and

“(II) the taxpayer’s holding period shall be treated as having ended on the last day of the preceding taxable year for purposes of allocating amounts under section 1293(a)(1)(A), and “(ii) such person may elect to extend the time for the payment of the applicable section 1293 deferred tax as provided in subparagraph (B).

“(B) ELECTION TO EXTEND TIME FOR PAYMENT.—

“(i) IN GENERAL.—At the election of the taxpayer, the time for the payment of the applicable section 1293 deferred tax shall be extended to the extent and subject to the limitations provided in this subparagraph.

“(ii) TERMINATION OF EXTENSION.—

“(1) DISTRIBUTIONS.—If any distribution is received with respect to any stock to which an extension under clause (i) relates and such distribution would be an excess distribution within the meaning of section 1293 if such section applied to such stock, then the extension under clause (i) for the appropriate portion (as determined under regulations) of the applicable section 1293 deferred tax shall expire on the last day prescribed by law (determined without regard to extensions) for filing the return of tax for the taxable year in which the distribution is received.

“(II) REVERSAL OF INCLUSION.—If an amount is allowable as a deduction under subsection (a)(2) with respect to any stock to which an extension under clause (i) relates and the amount so allowable is allocable to the amount which gave rise to the applicable section 1293 deferred tax, then the extension under clause (i) for the appropriate portion (as determined under regulations) of the applicable section 1293 deferred tax shall expire on the last day prescribed by law (determined without regard to extensions) for filing the return of the tax for the taxable year for which such deduction is allowed.

“(III) DISPOSITIONS, ETC.—If stock in a passive foreign corporation is disposed of during the taxable year, all extensions under clause (i) for payment of the applicable section 1293 deferred tax attributable to such stock which have not expired before the date of such disposition shall expire on the last date prescribed by law (determined without regard to extensions) for filing the return of tax for the taxable year in which such disposition occurs. To the extent provided in regulations, the preceding sentence shall not apply in the case of a disposition in a transaction with respect to which gain or loss is not recognized (in whole or in part), and the person acquiring such stock in such transaction shall succeed to the treatment under this section of the person making such disposition.

“(iii) OTHER RULES.—

“(1) ELECTION.—The election under clause (i) shall be made not later than the time prescribed by law (including extensions) for filing the return of tax imposed by this chapter for the first taxable year referred to in subparagraph (A).

“(II) TREATMENT OF LOANS TO SHAREHOLDER.—For purposes of this subparagraph, any loan by a passive foreign corporation (directly or indirectly) to a shareholder of such corporation shall be treated as a distribution to such shareholder.

“(C) CROSS REFERENCE.—

“For provisions providing for interest for the period of the extension under this paragraph, see section 6601.

“(D) APPLICABLE SECTION 1293 DEFERRED TAX.—For purposes of this paragraph, the term ‘applicable section 1293 deferred tax’ means the deferred tax amount determined under section 1293 with respect to the amount which, but for section 1293, would have been included in gross income for the first taxable year referred to in subparagraph (A). Such term also includes the tax imposed by this chapter for such first taxable year to the extent attributable to the amounts allocated under section 1293(a)(1)(A) to a period described in section 1293(a)(1)(B)(ii).

“(3) SPECIAL RULES FOR REGULATED INVESTMENT COMPANIES.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—If any marketable stock in a passive foreign corporation is owned (or treated under subsection (g) as owned) by a regulated investment company on the first day of such company’s first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1992—

“(i) section 1293 shall not apply to such stock with respect to any distribution or disposition during, or amount included in gross income under this section for, such first taxable year, but “(ii) such company’s tax under this chapter for such first taxable year shall be increased by the aggregate amount of interest which would have been determined under section 1293(c)(3) if section 1293 were applied without regard to this subparagraph.

“(B) DISALLOWANCE OF DEDUCTION.—No deduction shall be allowed to any regulated investment company for the increase in tax under subparagraph (A)(ii).

“SEC. 1292. CURRENT INCLUSION OF INCOME OF CERTAIN PASSIVE FOREIGN CORPORATIONS.

“(a) PASSIVE FOREIGN CORPORATIONS WHICH ARE U.S. CONTROLLED.—

“(1) TREATMENT UNDER SUBPART F.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—If a passive foreign corporation is United States controlled, then for purposes of subpart F of part III of subchapter N—

“(ii) the term ‘United States shareholder’ means, with respect to such corporation, any United States person who owns (within the meaning of section 958(a)) any stock in such corporation,

“(iii) the entire gross income of such corporation shall, after being reduced under the principles of paragraph (5) of section 954(b), be treated as foreign base company income, and “(iv) sections 970 and 971 shall not apply.

Except as provided in regulations, the preceding sentence shall also apply for purposes of section 904(d).

“(B) SPECIAL RULES.—If any taxpayer is treated as being a United States shareholder in a controlled foreign corporation solely by reason of this section—

“(i) section 954(b)(4) (relating to exception for certain income subject to high foreign taxes) shall not apply for purposes of determining the amount included in the gross income of such taxpayer under section 951 by reason of being so treated with respect to such corporation, and

“(ii) the amount so included in the gross income of such taxpayer under section 951 with respect to such corporation shall be treated as long-term capital gain to the extent attributable to the net capital gain of such corporation.

“(2) U.S. CONTROLLED.—For purposes of this subpart, a passive foreign corporation is United States controlled if—

“(A) such corporation is a controlled foreign corporation determined without regard to this subsection, or

“(B) at any time during the taxable year more than 50 percent of—

“(i) the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of such corporation entitled to vote, or

“(ii) the total value of the stock of such corporation, is owned directly or indirectly by 5 or fewer United States persons.

“(3) CONSTRUCTIVE OWNERSHIP RULES FOR PURPOSES OF PARAGRAPH (2)(B).—For purposes of paragraph (2)(B), the attribution rules provided in section 544 shall apply, determined as if any reference to a personal holding company were a reference to a corporation described in paragraph (2)(B) (and any reference to the stock ownership requirement provided in section 542(a)(2) were a reference to the requirement of paragraph (2)(B)); except that—

“(A) subsection (a)(4) of such section shall be applied by substituting ‘Paragraphs (1), (2), and (3)’ for ‘Paragraphs (2) and (3)’,

“(B) stock owned by a nonresident alien individual shall not be considered by reason of attribution through family membership as owned by a citizen or resident alien individual who is not the spouse of the nonresident alien individual and who does not otherwise own stock in the foreign corporation (determined after the application of such attribution rules other than attribution through family membership), and

“(C) stock of a corporation owned by any foreign person shall not be considered by reason of attribution through partners as owned by a citizen or resident of the United States who does not otherwise own stock in the foreign corporation (determined after the application of such attribution rules and subparagraph (A), other than attribution through partners).

“(b) TAXPAYERS ELECTING CURRENT INCLUSION AND 25-PERCENT SHAREHOLDERS.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—If a passive foreign corporation which is not United States controlled is a qualified electing fund with respect to any taxpayer or the taxpayer is a 25-percent shareholder in such corporation, then for purposes of subpart F of part III of subchapter N—

“(A) such passive foreign corporation shall be treated as a controlled foreign corporation with respect to such taxpayer,

“(B) such taxpayer shall be treated as a United States shareholder in such corporation, and

“(C) the modifications of clauses (iii) and (iv) of subsection (a)(1)(A) and of subparagraph (B) of subsection (a)(1) shall apply in determining the amount included under such subpart F in the gross income of such taxpayer (and the character of the amount so included).

For purposes of section 904(d), any amount included in the gross income of the taxpayer under the preceding sentence shall be treated as a dividend from a foreign corporation which is not a controlled foreign corporation.

“(2) QUALIFIED ELECTING FUND.—For purposes of this subpart, the term ‘qualified electing fund’ means any passive foreign corporation if—

“(A) an election by the taxpayer under paragraph (3) applies to such corporation for the taxable year of the taxpayer, and

“(B) such corporation complies with such requirements as the Secretary may prescribe for purposes of carrying out the purposes of this subpart.

“(3) ELECTION.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—A taxpayer may make an election under this paragraph with respect to any passive foreign corporation for any taxable year of the taxpayer. Such an election, once made with respect to any corporation, shall apply to all subsequent taxable years of the taxpayer with respect to such corporation unless revoked by the taxpayer with the consent of the Secretary.

“(B) WHEN MADE.—An election under this subsection may be made for any taxable year of the taxpayer at any time on or before the due date (determined with regard to extensions) for filing the return of the tax imposed by this chapter for such taxable year. To the extent provided in regulations, such an election may be made later than as required in the preceding sentence where the taxpayer fails to make a timely election because the taxpayer reasonably believes that the corporation was not a passive foreign corporation.

“(4) 25-PERCENT SHAREHOLDER.—For purposes of this subpart, the term ‘25-percent shareholder’ means, with respect to any passive foreign corporation, any United States person who owns (within the meaning of section 958(a)), or is considered as owning by applying the rules of section 958(b), 25 percent or more (by vote or value) of the stock of such corporation.

“SEC. 1293. INTEREST ON TAX DEFERRAL.

“(a) TREATMENT OF DISTRIBUTIONS AND STOCK DISPOSITIONS.—

“(1) DISTRIBUTIONS.—If a United States person receives an excess distribution in respect of stock to which this section applies, then—

“(A) the amount of the excess distribution shall be allocated ratably to each day in the taxpayer’s holding period for the stock,

“(B) with respect to such excess distribution, the taxpayer’s gross income for the current year shall include (as ordinary income) only the amounts allocated under subparagraph (A) to—

“(i) the current year, or

“(ii) any period in the taxpayer’s holding period before the first day of the first taxable year of the corporation which begins after December 31, 1986, and for which it was a passive foreign corporation, and

“(C) the tax imposed by this chapter for the current year shall be increased by the deferred tax amount (determined under subsection (c)).

“(2) DISPOSITIONS.—If the taxpayer disposes of stock to which this section applies, then the rules of paragraph (1) shall apply to any gain recognized on such disposition in the same manner as if such gain were an excess distribution.

“(3) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this subpart—

“(A) HOLDING PERIOD.—The taxpayer’s holding period shall be determined under section 1223; except that—“(i) for purposes of applying this section to an excess distribution, such holding period shall be treated as ending on the date of such distribution, and

“(ii) if section 1291 applied to such stock with respect to the taxpayer for any prior taxable year, such holding period shall be treated as beginning on the first day of the first taxable year beginning after the last taxable year for which section 1291 so applied.

“(B) CURRENT YEAR.—The term ‘current year’ means the taxable year in which the excess distribution or disposition occurs.

“(b) EXCESS DISTRIBUTION.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of this section, the term ‘excess distribution’ means any distribution in respect of stock received during any taxable year to the extent such distribution does not exceed its ratable portion of the total excess distribution (if any) for such taxable year.

“(2) TOTAL EXCESS DISTRIBUTION.—For purposes of this subsection—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—The term ‘total excess distribution’ means the excess (if any) of—

“(i) the amount of the distributions in respect of the stock received by the taxpayer during the taxable year, over

“(ii) 125 percent of the average amount received in respect of such stock by the taxpayer during the 3 preceding taxable years (or, if shorter, the portion of the taxpayer’s holding period before the taxable year).

For purposes of clause (ii), any excess distribution received during such 3-year period shall be taken into account only to the extent it was included in gross income under subsection (a)(1)(B).

“(B) NO EXCESS FOR FIRST YEAR.—The total excess distributions with respect to any stock shall be zero for the taxable year in which the taxpayer’s holding period in such stock begins.

“(3) ADJUSTMENTS.—Under regulations prescribed by the Secretary—

“(A) determinations under this subsection shall be made on a share-by-share basis, except that shares with the same holding period may be aggregated,

“(B) proper adjustments shall be made for stock splits and stock dividends,

“(C) if the taxpayer does not hold the stock during the entire taxable year, distributions received during such year shall be annualized,

“(D) if the taxpayer’s holding period includes periods during which the stock was held by another person, distributions received by such other person shall be taken into account as if received by the taxpayer,

“(E) if the distributions are received in a foreign currency, determinations under this subsection shall be made in such currency and the amount of any excess distribution determined in such currency shall be translated into dollars,

“(F) proper adjustment shall be made for amounts not includible in gross income by reason of section 959(a) or for which a deduction is allowable under section 245(c), and

“(G) if a charitable deduction was allowable under section 642(c) to a trust for any distribution of its income, proper adjustments shall be made for the deduction so allowable to the extent allocable to distributions or gain in respect of stock in a passive foreign corporation.

For purposes of subparagraph (F), any amount not includible in gross income by reason of section 551(d) (as in effect on January 1, 1992) or 1293(c) (as so in effect) shall be treated as an amount not includible in gross income by reason of section 959(a).

“(c) DEFERRED TAX AMOUNT.—For purposes of this section—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—The term ‘deferred tax amount’ means, with respect to any distribution or disposition to which subsection (a) applies, an amount equal to the sum of—

“(A) the aggregate increases in taxes described in paragraph (2), plus

“(B) the aggregate amount of interest (determined in the manner provided under paragraph (3)) on such increases in tax.

Any increase in the tax imposed by this chapter for the current year under subsection (a) to the extent attributable to the amount referred to in subparagraph (B) shall be treated as interest paid under section 6601 on the due date for the current year.

“(2) AGGREGATE INCREASES IN TAXES.—For purposes of paragraph (1)(A), the aggregate increases in taxes shall be determined by multiplying each amount allocated under subsection (a)(1)(A) to any taxable year (other than the current year) by the highest rate of tax in effect for such taxable year under section 1 or 11, whichever applies.

“(3) COMPUTATION OF INTEREST.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—The amount of interest referred to in paragraph (1)(B) on any increase determined under paragraph (2) for any taxable year shall be determined for the period—

“(i) beginning on the due date for such taxable year, and by using the rates and method applicable under section 6621 for underpayments of tax for such period.

“(B) DUE DATE.—For purposes of this subsection, the term ‘due date’ means the date prescribed by law (determined without regard to extensions) for filing the return of the tax imposed by this chapter for the taxable year.

“(C) SPECIAL RULE.—For purposes of determining the amount of interest referred to in paragraph (1)(B), the amount of any increase in tax determined under paragraph (2) shall be determined without regard to any reduction under section 1294(d) for a tax described in paragraph (2)(A)(ii) thereof.

“SEC. 1294. DEFINITIONS AND SPECIAL RULES.

“(a) STOCK TO WHICH SECTION 1293 APPLIES.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, section 1293 shall apply to any stock in a passive foreign corporation unless—

“(A) such stock is marketable stock as of the time of the distribution or disposition involved, or

“(B)(i) with respect to each of such corporation’s taxable years which begin after December 31, 1992, and include any portion of the taxpayer’s holding period in such stock—

“(I) such corporation was U.S. controlled (within the meaning of section 1292(a)(2)), or

“(II) such corporation was treated as a controlled foreign corporation under section 1292(b) with respect to the taxpayer, and “(ii) with respect to each of such corporation’s taxable years which begin after December 31, 1986, and before January 1, 1993, and include any portion of the taxpayer’s holding period in such stock, such corporation was treated as a qualified electing fund under this part (as in effect on January 1, 1992) with respect to the taxpayer.

“(2) TREATMENT WHERE STOCK BECOMES MARKETABLE.—If any stock in a passive foreign corporation becomes marketable stock after the beginning of the taxpayer’s holding period in such stock, section 1293 shall apply to—

“(A) any distributions with respect to, or disposition of, such stock in the taxable year of the taxpayer in which it becomes so marketable, and

“(B) any amount which, but for section 1293, would have been included in gross income under section 1291(a) with respect to such stock for such taxable year in the same manner as if such amount were gain on the disposition of such stock.

“(3) ELECTION TO RECOGNIZE GAIN WHERE COMPANY BECOMES SUBJECT TO CURRENT INCLUSIONS.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—If—

“(i) a passive foreign corporation first meets the requirements of clause (i) of paragraph (1)(B) with respect to the taxpayer for a taxable year of such taxpayer which begins after December 31, 1992,

“(ii) the taxpayer holds stock in such company on the first day of such taxable year, and

“(iii) the taxpayer establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary the fair market value of such stock on such first day, the taxpayer may elect to recognize gain as if he sold such stock on such first day for such fair market value.

“(B) ADDITIONAL ELECTION FOR SHAREHOLDER OF CONTROLLED FOREIGN CORPORATIONS.—

“(i) IN GENERAL.—If—

“(I) a passive foreign corporation first meets the requirements of subclause (I) of paragraph (1)(B)(i) with respect to the taxpayer for a taxable year of such taxpayer which begins after December 31, 1992,

“(II) the taxpayer holds stock in such corporation on the first day of such taxable year, and “(III) such corporation is a controlled foreign corporation without regard to this part, the taxpayer may elect to be treated as receiving a dividend on such first day in an amount equal to the portion of the post-1986 earnings and profits of such corporation attributable (under regulations prescribed by the Secretary) to the stock in such corporation held by the taxpayer on such first day. The amount treated as a dividend under the preceding sentence shall be treated as an excess distribution and shall be allocated under section 1293(a)(1)(A) only two days during periods taken into account in determining the post-1986 earnings and profits so attributable.

“(ii) POST-1986 EARNINGS AND PROFITS.—For purposes of clause (i), the term ‘post-1986 earnings and profits’ means earnings and profits which were accumulated in taxable years of the corporation beginning after December 31, 1986, and during the period or periods the stock was held by the taxpayer while the corporation was a passive foreign corporation.

“(iii) COORDINATION WITH SECTION 959(e).—For purposes of section 959(e), any amount treated as a dividend under this subparagraph shall be treated as included in gross income under section 1248(a).

“(C) ADJUSTMENTS.—In the case of any stock to which subparagraph (A) or (B) applies—

“(i) the adjusted basis of such stock shall be increased by the gain recognized under subparagraph (A) or the amount treated as a dividend under subparagraph (B), as the case may be, and “(ii) the taxpayer’s holding period in such stock shall be treated as beginning on the first day referred to in such subparagraph.

“(b) RULES RELATING TO STOCK ACQUIRED FROM A DECEDENT.—

“(1) BASIS.—In the case of stock of a passive foreign corporation acquired by bequest, devise, or inheritance (or by the decedent’s estate), notwithstanding section 1014, the basis of such stock in the hands of the person so acquiring it shall be the adjusted basis of such stock in the hands of the decedent immediately before his death (or, if lesser, the basis which would have been determined under section 1014 without regard to this paragraph).

“(2) DEDUCTION FOR ESTATE TAX.—If stock in a passive foreign corporation is acquired from a decedent, the taxpayer shall, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, be allowed (for the taxable year of the sale or exchange) a deduction from gross income equal to that portion of the decedent’s estate tax deemed paid which is attributable to the excess of (A) the value at which such stock was taken into account for purposes of determining the value of the decedent’s gross estate, over (B) the basis determined under paragraph (1).

“(3) EXCEPTIONS.—This subsection shall not apply to any stock in a passive foreign corporation if—

“(A) section 1293 would not have applied to a disposition of such stock by the decedent immediately before his death, or “(B) the decedent was a nonresident alien at all times during his holding period in such stock.

“(c) RECOGNITION OF GAIN.—Except as otherwise provided in regulations, in the case of any transfer of stock in a passive foreign company to which section 1293 applies, where (but for this subsection) there is not full recognition of gain, the excess (if any) of—

“(1) the fair market value of such stock, over

“(2) its adjusted basis, shall be treated as gain from the sale or exchange of such stock and shall be recognized notwithstanding any provision of law. Proper adjustment shall be made to the basis of property for gain recognized under the preceding sentence.

“(d) COORDINATION WITH FOREIGN TAX CREDIT RULES.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—If there are creditable foreign taxes with respect to any distribution in respect of stock in a passive foreign corporation—

“(A) the amount of such distribution shall be determined for purposes of section 1293 with regard to section 78,

“(B) the excess distribution taxes shall be allocated ratably to each day in the taxpayer’s holding period for the stock, and

“(C) to the extent—

“(i) that such excess distribution taxes are allocated to a taxable year referred to in section 1293(a)(1)(B), such taxes shall be taken into account under section 901 for the current year, and

“(ii) that such excess distribution taxes are allocated to any other taxable year, such taxes shall reduce (subject to the principles of section 904 and not below zero) the increase in tax determined under section 1293(c)(2) for such taxable year by reason of such distribution (but such taxes shall not be taken into account under section 901).

“(2) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this subsection—

“(A) CREDITABLE FOREIGN TAXES.—The term ‘creditable foreign taxes’ means, with respect to any distribution—

“(i) any foreign taxes deemed paid under section 902 with respect to such distribution, and

“(B) EXCESS DISTRIBUTION TAXES.—The term ‘excess distribution taxes’ means, with respect to any distribution, the portion of the creditable foreign taxes with respect to such distribution which is attributable (on a pro rata basis) to the portion of such distribution which is an excess distribution.

“(C) SECTION 1248 GAIN.—The rules of this subsection also shall apply in the case of any gain which but for this section would be includible in gross income as a dividend under section 1248.

“(e) ATTRIBUTION OF OWNERSHIP.—For purposes of this subpart—

“(1) ATTRIBUTION TO UNITED STATES PERSONS.—This subsection—

“(A) shall apply to the extent that the effect is to treat stock of a passive foreign corporation as owned by a United States person, and

“(B) except as provided in paragraph (3) or in regulations, shall not apply to treat stock owned (or treated as owned under this subsection) by a United States person as owned by any other person.

“(2) CORPORATIONS.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—If 50 percent or more in value of the stock of a corporation (other than an S corporation) is owned, directly or indirectly, by or for any person, such person shall be considered as owning the stock owned directly or indirectly by or for such corporation in that proportion which the value of the stock which such person so owns bears to the value of all stock in the corporation.

“(B) 50-PERCENT LIMITATION NOT TO APPLY IN CERTAIN CASES.—For purposes of determining whether a shareholder of a passive foreign corporation (or whether a United States shareholder of a controlled foreign corporation which is not a passive foreign corporation) is treated as owning stock owned directly or indirectly by or for such corporation, subparagraph (A) shall be applied without regard to the 50-percent limitation contained therein.

“(C) FAMILY AND PARTNER ATTRIBUTION FOR 50-PERCENT LIMITATION.—For purposes of determining whether the 50-percent limitation of subparagraph (A) is met, the constructive ownership rules of section 544(a)(2) shall apply in addition to the other rules of this subsection.

“(3) PARTNERSHIPS, ETC.—Except as provided in regulations, stock owned, directly or indirectly, by or for a partnership, S corporation, estate, or trust shall be considered as being owned proportionately by its partners, shareholders, or beneficiaries (as the case may be).

“(4) OPTIONS.—To the extent provided in regulations, if any person has an option to acquire stock, such stock shall be considered as owned by such person. For purposes of this paragraph, an option to acquire such an option, and each one of a series of such options, shall be considered as an option to acquire such stock.

“(5) SUCCESSIVE APPLICATION.—Stock considered to be owned by a person by reason of the application of paragraph (2), (3), or (4) shall, for purposes of applying such paragraphs, be considered as actually owned by such person.

“(f) OTHER SPECIAL RULES.—For purposes of this subpart—

“(1) TIME FOR DETERMINATION.—Stock held by a taxpayer shall be treated as stock in a passive foreign corporation if, at any time during the holding period of the taxpayer with respect to such stock, such corporation (or any predecessor) was a passive foreign corporation. The preceding sentence shall not apply if the taxpayer elects to recognize gain (as of the last day of the last taxable year for which the company was a passive foreign corporation) under rules similar to the rules of subsection (a)(3)(A).

“(2) APPLICATION OF SUBPART WHERE STOCK HELD BY OTHER ENTITY.—Under regulations—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—In any case in which a United States person is treated as owning stock in a passive foreign corporation by reason of subsection (e)—

“(i) any transaction which results in the United States person being treated as no longer owning such stock,

“(ii) any disposition of such stock by the person owning such stock, and

“(iii) any distribution of property in respect of such stock to the person holding such stock, shall be treated as a disposition by, or distribution to, the United States person with respect to the stock in the passive foreign corporation.

“(B) AMOUNT TREATED IN SAME MANNER AS PREVIOUSLY TAXED INCOME.—Rules similar to the rules of section 959(b) shall apply to any amount described in subparagraph (A) in respect of stock which the taxpayer is treated as owning under subsection (e).

“(C) COORDINATION WITH SECTION 951.—If, but for this subparagraph, an amount would be taken into account under section 1293 by reason of subparagraph (A) and such amount would also be included in the gross income of the taxpayer under section 951, such amount shall only be taken into account under section 1293.

TITLE VI—HEALTH CARE OF COAL MINERS

SEC. 6001. SHORT TITLE.

This title may be cited as the "Coal Industry Retiree Health Benefit Act of 1992".

SEC. 6002. FINDINGS AND DECLARATION OF POLICY.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds that—

(1) coal provides a significant portion of the energy used in the United States;

(2) the production, transportation and use of coal affects interstate and foreign commerce and the national public interest;

(3) a significant portion of the national work force has been employed in the production of coal for interstate and foreign commerce and in the national interest;

(4) the Government of the United States has regulated the coal industry, employment in the industry, and the provision of retirement benefits within the industry;

(5) the continued well-being and security of employees, retirees and their dependents within the coal industry are directly affected by the provision of health benefits to retirees and their dependents;

(6) for many decades, the provision of adequate health care for retirees has been an essential element in maintaining a stable and strong coal industry as an important component in a strong United States economy;

(7) an important element in the privately maintained benefit plans now experiencing financial difficulty has been the provision of health benefits for retirees of companies no longer in business; and

(8) withdrawals of contributing employers from privately maintained benefit plans under collective bargaining agreements derived from an agreement with the United States, covering retirees within the coal industry, result in substantially increased funding burdens for employers that continue to contribute to such plans, adversely affect labor-management relations and the stability and strength of the coal industry, and impair the provision of health care to retirees.

(b) ADDITIONAL FINDINGS.—The Congress further finds that—

(1) it is necessary to modify and reform the current private benefit plan structure for retirees within the coal industry in order to stabilize the provision of health care benefits to such retirees; and

(2) it is necessary to supplement the current private benefit plan structure with a benefit protection program that will assure continued funding and contain program costs.

(c) DECLARATION OF POLICY.—It is hereby declared to be the policy of this title—

(1) to remedy problems that discourage the provision, funding, and delivery of health care to coal industry retirees;

(2) to provide reasonable protection for the health benefits of coal industry retirees;

(3) to require use of state-of-the-art cost containment and managed care measures as part of the overall package of health care delivery and financing; and

(4) to provide a financially self-sufficient program for the provision of retiree health benefits in the coal industry.

“(5) In any action brought under this chapter, whether to collect premiums, penalties (in the amount determined by the Corpora-

All amounts received by the Corporation shall be deposited in the Fund, and all expenditures made by the Corporation shall be made out of the Fund.

“(2) The Corporation shall transfer to the Secretary of the Treasury for deposit in the general fund of the Treasury of the United States any portion of the premiums received under subsection (g) which are allocable to the portion of such premiums which are imposed to offset Federal revenue losses by reason of deductions being allowed under chapter 1 with respect to such premiums.

“(3) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the balance of the Fund shall at any time consist of the aggregate at such time of the following items:

“(A) Cash on hand or on deposit.

“(B) Amounts invested in United States Government or agency securities.

“(g) IMPOSITION OF PREMIUM PAYMENT OBLIGATION.—

“(1)(A) There is hereby imposed on each person that produces bituminous coal for use or for sale the obligation to pay to the Corporation an hourly premium equal to—

“(i) in the case of bituminous coal produced in an eastern State, the rate for each hour worked in coal production work by such person's employees determined in accordance with the following:

“In the case of calendar year	The rate is:
1992	$0.99
1993	$1.09
1994	$1.20

“(ii) in the case of bituminous coal produced in a western State, 15 cents on each hour worked in coal production work by such person's employees.

“(B)(i) There is hereby imposed on bituminous coal imported to the United States, for use or for sale, a per-ton premium obligation to be paid to the Corporation. Such premium is intended to be equivalent to the premium imposed on domestically produced bituminous coal.

“(ii) The amount of the per-ton premium shall be equal to 25 percent of the hourly premium imposed pursuant to subparagraph (A).

“(iii) For purposes of this subparagraph, the term ‘ton’ means 2,000 pounds, and the term ‘United States’ means any State of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, Guam, Wake Island, the Canal Zone, and the Outer Continental Shelf lands defined in the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act (43 U.S.C. 1331-1343).

“(C)(i) In addition to the amounts specified in subparagraphs (A) and (B), each last signatory operator and each other employer referred to in this subparagraph shall pay to the Corporation an annual per beneficiary premium. The amount of the annual per beneficiary premium shall be the product of the total number of orphan miners, spouses, surviving spouses, and dependents (determined under section 9711) attributable to such last signatory operator or employer and the per beneficiary premium as calculated in clause (iii).

“(ii) For purposes of this subparagraph, an orphan miner (and his spouse, surviving spouse and dependents) shall be attributable—

“(I) to an employer if his employment with such employer resulted in his eligibility under section 9711(b)(1)(E); or “(II) to a last signatory operator meeting the conditions described in section 9723(6) with respect to such orphan miner.

“(iii) The amount of the per beneficiary premium shall be determined in accordance with the following table:

1996 or thereafter	$3,772.

“(iv) A last signatory operator shall have no liability under this subparagraph if—

“(I) as of November 5, 1990, and for all periods thereafter, such last signatory operator, and the persons described in section 9723(5) (B) and (C) with respect to such last signatory operator, have ceased all involvement in the mining, production, preparation, marketing, sale, distribution, transportation, leasing or licensing of coal; and “(II) such last signatory operator, and the persons described in section 9723(5) (B) and (C) with respect to such last signatory operator, were, in the aggregate, involved in the production of fewer than 50,000 tons of coal during each of the 3 years immediately preceding the cessation of such involvement. The limitation of liability set forth in the preceding sentence shall cease to apply at any time that a last signatory operator, or any persons described in section 9723(5) (B) and (C) with respect to such last signatory operator, ceases to meet the conditions described in subclause (I).

“(v) The annual per beneficiary premium shall be payable in equal monthly installments, due by the tenth day of each month. In no event shall a last signatory operator be obligated to pay a per beneficiary premium for an individual for any month for which the last signatory operator has paid its required assessment for such individual under section 9713(d).

“(vi) A last signatory operator shall have no liability under this subparagraph if as of January 1, 1992, such last signatory operator and the persons described in section 9723(5) (B) and (C) with respect to such last signatory operator, have ceased all involvement in the production, sale, distribution, transportation, or use in processes for producing products of the operator and such persons, of bituminous and sub-bituminous coal (other than the sale or leasing of any interest in coal reserves).

“(2)(A) In the event that a person required to make payments under paragraph (1) fails to do so, the Corporation shall assess liability against the person, based upon the Corporation’s estimate of the person’s liability.

“(B) No later than 90 days after the assessment of liability by the Corporation, the person may request administrative review of the Corporation’s assessment, in accordance with procedures adopted by the Corporation.

“(C) Notwithstanding the pendency of administrative review of any assessment of liability, the person shall, no later than 30 days after the assessment of such liability, pay all amounts required by the assessment in accordance with any payment schedule applied by the Corporation. In the event a person fails to make such payments, all amounts owed by the person shall become immediately due and payable.

“(D) In the event the person that has made payments in accordance with subparagraph (C) is ultimately determined, in accordance with subparagraph (B), to have paid in excess of the amounts actually due, the person shall receive a refund of such excess amounts, with interest.

“(3) The Corporation shall report to the Congress before the close of any calendar year with respect to any adjustment in the amount of the premiums imposed under subparagraphs (A)(i) and (B) of paragraph (1) for the following calendar year which the Corporation determines necessary to enable the provision of benefits under section 9712. Any recommendation with respect to any adjustment shall reflect the reduction in Federal revenues by reason of deductions being allowed under chapter 1 with respect to such premiums.

“(4) Premiums owed under subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (1) shall be due on the tenth day of each calendar month immediately following the month in which the coal is produced or imported, and shall be paid to the Corporation in accordance with forms and schedules promulgated by the Corporation.

“(5) The premium obligation imposed under this section shall take effect on the date of the enactment of this chapter. Premiums paid under this section shall be deemed to be fully deductible under this title without regard to any limitation on deductibility set forth in this title.

“(b) ORPHAN MINER STATUS.—For purposes of this section—

“(1) An orphan miner is any person who—

“(A)(i) as of the date of enactment of this chapter, was eligible to receive benefits as a retiree from a plan described in section

9721(d) (or, but for the enactment of this chapter, would be eligible to receive benefits as a retiree from the plan described in section 9721(d)(2)(A)), and

“(ii) is not receiving benefits as a retiree from a plan described in section 9721(d) or from the plan established pursuant to section 9713;

“(iii) is at any time after beginning to receive such pension not receiving retiree medical benefits equal to the benefits in effect as that time under the plans described in section 9712(b)(3); and

“(iv) meets the eligibility requirements for retiree medical benefits then in effect under such plans; or

“(E)(i) was eligible as a result of coal production work performed in the bituminous, sub-bituminous or lignite coal industry to receive retiree medical benefits from a health care plan that met the requirements of subparagraphs (D) and (E) of paragraph (2);

“(ii) initially ceased to receive retiree medical benefits on or after the date of enactment of this chapter, despite continued eligibility therefore;

“(iii) had been receiving such benefits from a plan that had been in existence for at least 3 years prior to the cessation of benefits; and “(iv) was included in a category of retirees that had been eligible to receive benefits for at least 3 years prior to the cessation of benefits.

“(2) For purposes of paragraph (1)(E), the following rules shall apply:

“(A) Eligibility is continuing where benefits ceased incident to an employer’s cessation of operations, but is not continuing where benefits ceased pursuant to a lawful termination or modification of a plan (under circumstances other than a cessation of operations).

“(B) In the case of any individual who has 20 years of credited service under a defined benefit pension plan maintained pursuant to the agreement described in section 9723(7), or who was otherwise eligible to receive retiree medical benefits from a single employer health care plan pursuant to a coal wage agreement, all health care plans in which such individual was a participant during a period of such credited service or during such period of eligibility shall be taken into account in determining whether the 3-year tests have been met.

“(C) In the case of an employer that established a new health care plan as a replacement for a prior plan, such prior plan shall be taken into account in determining whether the 3-year tests have been met.

“(D) A health care plan meets the requirements of this subparagraph if the employer maintaining the plan, a labor organization representing the employees of the employer, or an employee of the employer submits a copy of the plan to the Corporation within 180 days from the later of—

“(i) the date of establishment of the plan; or

“(ii) the date of enactment of this chapter.

“(E) A health care plan meets the requirements of this subparagraph if the employer maintaining the plan, a labor organization representing the employees of the employer, or an employee of the employer submits a copy of any amendment or modification to the plan to the Corporation within 180 days from the later of—

“(i) the date of such amendment or modification; or

“(ii) the date of enactment of this chapter.

“(C) ELIGIBILITY OF SPOUSES AND DEPENDENTS.—

“(1) A spouse, surviving spouse or dependent of an orphan miner or a deceased coal miner meets the conditions of this section if such individual was eligible to receive benefits from a plan described in section 9721(d) as of the date of enactment of this chapter, and is not receiving benefits from that plan or from the plan established pursuant to section 9713.

“(2) A spouse, surviving spouse or dependent of an orphan miner or a deceased coal miner meets the conditions of this section if such individual is not described in paragraph (1), but was eligible to receive benefits from the plan established pursuant to section 9713 and is not receiving benefits from such plan.

“(3) In the case of any spouse, surviving spouse or dependent of an orphan miner described in subsection (b)(1)(A) or (b)(1)(C) of this section, eligibility shall be based upon the rules set forth in the plans described in section 9721(d) as of the date of enactment of this chapter. In the case of any spouse, surviving spouse or dependent of an orphan miner described in subsection (b)(1)(D), eligibility shall be based upon the rules set forth in individual employer plans maintained pursuant to the agreement described in section 9723(7) on the date that the orphan miner first became eligible for benefits from the Corporation. In all other cases, eligibility shall be based upon the rules of the plan that was or would have been applicable to the orphan miner or deceased coal miner for the 3-year period preceding eligibility for benefits from the Corporation. The Corporation is authorized to promulgate regulations consistent with this paragraph establishing the eligibility of other spouses, surviving spouses and dependents of orphan miners or deceased coal miners for health benefits.

“(d) REENROLLMENT OF ORPHAN MINERS AND BENEFICIARIES.—The Corporation and the joint board of trustees of the plan established pursuant to section 9713 shall cooperate to review the eligibility of individuals under this section. Pending such review, any individual receiving benefits from a plan described in section 9721(d) as of the date of enactment of this chapter shall be presumed to meet the first part of the eligibility tests of subsections (b)(1)(A) and (c)(1). However, no individual shall be considered eligible to receive benefits provided by the Corporation unless a determination is made that such individual in fact met or meets all eligibility requirements necessary to receive benefits as required under subsection (b) or (c). No individual shall be eligible under subsection (b)(1)(A) or (c)(1) if such individual was finally determined to be ineligible to receive benefits from a plan described in section 9721(d) prior to the date of enactment of this chapter.

“SEC. 9712. PAYMENT OF BENEFITS.

“(a) IN GENERAL.—The Corporation shall provide medical benefits to orphan miners, their spouses, surviving spouses and dependents, who meet the eligibility requirements of section 9711, and shall provide coverage for death benefits to orphan miners eligible for such benefits. The board shall establish schedules of benefits applicable to classes of orphan miners, their spouses, surviving spouses and dependents, in accordance with this section. All benefit obligations of the Corporation shall be contingent upon the continued imposition of an hourly premium payment obligation as specified in section 9704(g)(1)(A).

“(b) BENEFIT LEVELS.—

“(1) An orphan miner eligible for benefits pursuant to section 9711(b)(1)(A) or 9711(b)(1)(C) shall be entitled to benefit coverage that is substantially the same as (but not exceeding) the coverage provided by the plans described in section 9721(d) as of the date of enactment of this chapter, and shall be subject to all limitations of such coverage. Such orphan miner shall also be eligible for death benefits, which shall be equal to the death benefits provided as of the date of enactment of this chapter under the plan described in section 9721(c).

“(2) An orphan miner eligible for benefits pursuant to section 9711(b)(1)(B) or 9711(b)(1)(E) shall be entitled to a level of benefits and benefit coverage that is substantially the same as (but not exceeding) the retiree benefit coverage applicable to him immediately preceding his eligibility for benefits from the Corporation, and shall be subject to all limitations of such coverage. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following rules shall apply:

“(A) The level of benefits and benefit coverage provided under this paragraph shall not exceed that which is provided under paragraph (1) of this subsection.

“(B) In determining the retiree benefit coverage applicable to an orphan miner for purposes of this paragraph, the Corporation shall disregard any increases or decreases in benefits or benefit coverage that were in effect for fewer than 3 years preceding the orphan miner's eligibility for benefits from the Corporation, except that—

“(i) any death benefit applicable to an orphan miner as a result of 1991 amendments to the agreement described in section 9723(7) shall not be disregarded; and

“(ii) increases or decreases in benefits or benefit coverage that were the subject of a collective bargaining agreement shall not be disregarded.

“(3) An orphan miner eligible for benefits pursuant to section 9711(b)(1)(D) shall be entitled to a level of benefits and benefit coverage equivalent to the level of benefits and benefit coverage, if any, provided under individual employer plans maintained pursuant to the agreement described in section 9723(7) on the date that the orphan miner first became eligible for benefits from the Corporation, and shall be subject to all limitations of such coverage.

“(4) An individual eligible for benefits pursuant to section 9711(c) shall be entitled to medical benefit coverage that does not exceed the medical benefit coverage that is or would have been applicable to the coal miner through whom the individual claims eligibility, and the individual shall be subject to all limitations of such coverage.

“(5) The Corporation may make increases to its schedules of benefits that are desirable for efficiency of administration, except that such adjustments to benefits may not result in an increase in cost to the Corporation or an increase in any premium under section 9704(g).

“(c) MANDATORY MANAGED CARE.—The Corporation shall develop managed care rules which shall be applicable to the payment of benefits under this section. The rules shall preserve freedom of choice while reinforcing managed care network use by allowing a point of service decision as to whether a network medical provider will be used. Major elements of such rules shall include, but not be limited to—

“(1) implementing formulary for drugs and subjecting the prescription program to a rigorous review of appropriate use;

“(2) obtaining a unit price discount in exchange for patient volume and preferred provider status, with the amount of the potential discount varying by geographic region;

“(3) limiting benefit payments to physicians to the Medicare allowable charge, while protecting beneficiaries from balance billing by providers;

“(4) utilizing Medicare's 'appropriateness of service' protocols in the claims payment function where they are more stringent;

“(5) creating mandatory utilization review (UR) procedures, but placing the responsibility to follow such procedures on the physician or hospital, not the beneficiaries;

“(6) selecting the most efficient physicians and state-of-the-art utilization management techniques, including ambulatory care techniques, for medical services delivered by the managed care network; and

“(7) utilizing a managed care network provider system as practiced in the health care industry at the time medical services are needed (point-of-service) in order to receive maximum benefits available under this section.

Any managed care or cost containment program shall have as its primary goal the provision of quality medical care. In no event shall any such program result in the reduction of the quality of care provided to participants and beneficiaries consistent with sound medical practice.

“(d) EFFECTIVE DATE.—Benefits shall be payable under this section as of January 1, 1992. Pursuant to section 9715, the Corporation shall pay the trustees of the plans described in section 9721(d) and the plan established pursuant to section 9713 for all benefit and administrative costs expended with respect to eligible orphan miners, spouses, surviving spouses and dependents, from the effective date to the date that such individuals are transferred to the Corporation.

“(e) ELECTIVE COVERAGE.—

“(1) An employer may elect to provide retirement health coverage to its employees by meeting the following conditions:

“(A) The employer must employ workers in the coal industry.

“(B) The employer agrees to pay an annual premium, as determined by the Corporation, sufficient to provide retirement health coverage to all of its employees who perform classified work as determined under the agreement described in section 9723(7), or any successor agreement, who have worked a total of 20 years, including both service with that employer, service for any other employer described in this subsection, and service for any other employer that is credited for purposes of eligibility by a plan described in section 404(c).

“(C) The employer is not currently obligated by a collective bargaining agreement to make contributions to the plan established pursuant to section 9713.

“(D) The employer's election, once made, is irrevocable.

“(2) Upon the retirement of an employee of an employer described in paragraph (1), with 20 or more years of service, upon such terms and conditions as established by the Corporation, such employee and his or her dependents shall receive benefits, upon such terms and conditions as determined by the Corporation.

“SEC. 9713. ESTABLISHMENT OF UNITED MINE WORKERS OF AMERICA 1991 BENEFIT FUND.

“(a) MERGER OF RETIREE BENEFIT PLANS.—

“(1) As soon as practicable after the enactment of this chapter, and in no event later than 60 days, the settlors of the plans described in section 9721(d) shall cause such plans to be merged, and shall appoint a joint board of trustees to manage the operation and administration of the merged plan. The merged plan shall be known as the United Mine Workers of America 1991 Benefit Fund (hereinafter referred to as the '1991 Fund'). The 1991 Fund shall be an employee welfare benefit plan within the meaning of section 3(1) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (29 U.S.C. 1002(1)) and a multiemployer plan within the meaning of section 3(37) of such Act (29 U.S.C. 1002(37)).

"(2) The settlors shall design the structure and administration of the 1991 Fund. The settlors may at any time and for any reason change the number and identity of the members comprising the board of trustees of the 1991 Fund.

"(b) ELIGIBILITY.—

"(1) The following individuals shall be eligible to receive benefits from the 1991 Fund:

"(A) Any individual who, as of the date of enactment of this chapter, was eligible to receive benefits from the plan described in section 9721(d)(2)(A) (or who, but for the enactment of this chapter, would be eligible for benefits from such plan), and with respect to whom the last signatory operator is and remains signatory to an agreement that is described in section 9723(7) or that contains provisions relating to pension and health care benefits that are the same as those contained in such agreement.

"(B) Any individual who retired from classified employment under an agreement that is described in section 9723(7) or that contains provisions relating to pension and health care benefits that are the same as those contained in such agreement, and any spouse, surviving spouse or dependent of such retiree, with respect to whom the last signatory operator makes an election prior to February 1, 1993, to pay premiums to the 1991 Fund for such benefits and is and remains signatory to an agreement that is described in section 9723(7) or that contains provisions relating to pension and health care benefits that are the same as those contained in such agreement. Any election made pursuant to this subparagraph must cover, at a minimum, all of the last signatory operator's retirees who retired from classified employment as of February 1, 1993.

"(2) No individual shall be eligible under subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) unless the joint board of trustees of the 1991 Fund determines that such individual in fact met all eligibility requirements of the plan described in section 9721(d)(2)(A) as of the date of enactment of this chapter. Any individual who was finally determined to have been ineligible for benefits from a plan described in section 9721(d)(2)(A) prior to such date of enactment shall be ineligible under subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1).

"(c) BENEFITS.—

"(1) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, health care benefits provided under the 1991 Fund shall be identical to the benefits provided under the plans described in section 9721(d). The 1991 Fund shall provide coverage for death benefits to retirees, equal to the death benefits provided under the plan described in section 9721(c).

"(2) The joint board of trustees of the 1991 Fund shall develop managed care rules, subject to section 9714(b), which shall be applicable to the payment of benefits under this section. The rules shall preserve freedom of choice while reinforcing managed care network use by allowing a point of service decision as to whether a network medical provider will be used. The board of trustees shall permit any last signatory operator subject to section 9714 to utilize the managed care and cost containment rules and programs developed pursuant to this paragraph, at the election of such last signatory operator. Major elements of such rules shall include, but not be limited to—

"(A) implementing formulary for drugs and subjecting the prescription program to a rigorous review of appropriate use;

"(B) obtaining a unit price discount in exchange for patient volume and preferred provider status, with the amount of the potential discount varying by geographic region;

"(C) limiting benefit payments to physicians to the medicare allowable charge, while protecting beneficiaries from balance billing by providers;

"(D) utilizing medicare's 'appropriateness of service' protocols in the claims payment function where they are more stringent;

"(E) creating mandatory utilization review (UR) procedures, but placing the responsibility to follow such procedures on the physician or hospital, not the beneficiaries;

"(F) selecting the most efficient physicians and state-of-the-art utilization management techniques, including ambulatory care techniques, for medical services delivered by the managed care network; and

"(G) utilizing a managed care network provider system as practiced in the health care industry at the time medical services are needed (point-of-service) in order to receive maximum benefits available under this section.

Any managed care or cost containment program shall have as its primary goal the provision of quality medical care. In no event shall any such program result in the reduction of the quality of care provided to participants and beneficiaries consistent with sound medical practice.

"(d) ASSESSMENTS.—

"(1) As of November 30 of each plan year, the joint board of trustees of the 1991 Fund shall set a monthly assessment for each person required to pay assessments pursuant to paragraph (2). The monthly assessment for each such person shall be equal to $\frac{1}{12}$ of the product of—

"(A) the projected cost of operating the 1991 Fund during the succeeding plan year (less any assets received from a plan described in section 9721(c) and any other surplus assets) divided by the number of participants and beneficiaries for the current plan year; and

"(B) the projected number of the 1991 Funds' eligible participants and beneficiaries attributable to such person, determined as of the nearest November 1.

In projecting the cost of operating the 1991 Fund, the board of trustees shall take into account the anticipated benefit experience and administrative expenses of the 1991 Fund as a whole, and amounts needed to eliminate any accumulated deficit. The monthly assessment determined under this paragraph shall be verified by an independent auditor, and shall continue in effect for each month of the succeeding plan year, except that the joint board of trustees shall determine a monthly assessment for any new contributor or other person for whom a monthly assessment has not been established, and a revised monthly assessment for any last signatory operator that makes the election described in subsection (b)(1)(B) and with respect to which new participants and beneficiaries become eligible for benefits. Any new monthly assessment or revised monthly assessment shall be based upon the number of projected participants and beneficiaries attributable to the contributor as of the date the new or revised assessment is made. Each person required to pay assessments pursuant to paragraph (2) shall continue to pay to the plans described in section 9721(d) the contributions required under the applicable coal wage agreement, until the first month for which the assessment described in this paragraph in set. In no event shall a person required to pay assessments pursuant to paragraph (2) be required to make any payment to the 1991 Fund for the same period for which a contribution to a plan described in section 9721(d) is required.

"(2) Each last signatory operator with respect to any person described in subsection (b)(1)(A), and each last signatory operator with respect to any person described in subsection (b)(1)(B) that has agreed to provide benefits coverage through the 1991 Fund, shall pay to the 1991 Fund for each month the assessment determined by the joint board of trustees pursuant to paragraph (1). The assessments paid under this section shall be deemed to be fully deductible under this title without regard to any limitation on deductibility set forth in this title.

"(3) Either of the settlors shall have the right to audit the accounts, books and records, and operation of the 1991 Fund, at any time and for any reason, upon reasonable notice to the joint board of trustees. The joint board of trustees shall cooperate fully with the settlors in connection with any such audit and shall make available appropriate personnel and records deemed necessary by the auditors for inspection and copying at reasonable times and places.

"(4) Each last signatory operator obligated to pay assessments to the 1991 Fund pursuant to paragraph (2) shall be bound by all of the provisions of the plan and trust documents establishing and governing the 1991 Fund.

"(5) As of the date any assessment owed under this subsection is due, the persons described in section 9723(5) (B) or (C) with respect to any last signatory operator shall be treated as such last signatory operator and shall be jointly and severally liable for such assessment.

"(e) EXCLUSIVE OBLIGATION.—Except as provided in this chapter, no employer that was a signatory to the 1978 or any subsequent coal wage agreement and that had an obligation to provide health care benefits to coal mine retirees shall be obligated to provide benefits to individuals covered by the plans described in section 9721(d), or to make contributions to any plan described in section 9721(d), or to the 1991 Fund, with respect to work performed or coal mined after the date of enactment of this chapter, or to pay withdrawal liability to a plan described in section 9721(d) as a result of the change in the contribution obligation required by this chapter.

"SEC. 9714. OBLIGATION OF LAST SIGNATORY OPERATOR TO PROVIDE BENEFITS TO RETIREES.

"(a) DURATION OF OBLIGATION.—The last signatory operator of any individual receiving retiree health care benefits as of February 1, 1993 (including retiree, spouse, surviving spouse and dependent benefits) from an individual employer plan maintained pursuant to a coal wage agreement (or who has applied for such benefits as of February 1, 1993, and has met every eligibility requirement for such benefits as of such date) shall provide retiree health care benefits to such individual equal to the benefits required to be provided by such last signatory operator's individual employer plan as of January 1, 1992, as limited by any managed care or cost containment rules of the type described in sections 9712(c) and 9713(c)(2), and subject to subsection (b), for as long as the last signatory operator remains in business. The existence, level and duration of benefits provided to a last signatory operator's former employees (and their spouses, surviving spouses and dependents), other than those described in this subsection, who are or were covered by a coal wage agreement, shall only be as determined by and subject to collective bargaining or lawful unilateral action, except that this subsection shall not be construed to impair the eligibility of any individual described in section 9711(b)(1)(D) for the benefit coverage described in section 9712(b)(3).

“(b) MANAGED CARE PROVIDER SYSTEM QUALITY CONTROL.—Any managed care provider system adopted by a last signatory operator as permitted under subsection (a), or by the joint board of trustees of the 1991 Fund, pursuant to section 9713(c)(2), shall be subject to the following requirements of this subsection:

“(1) The settlors shall establish a medical peer review panel, which shall determine standards of quality for managed care provider systems. Standards of quality shall include accessibility to medical care, taking into account that accessibility requirements may differ depending upon the nature of the medical need. Each settlor shall have the power to appoint and remove 2 individuals who shall serve on the panel. A panel member shall be either a medical practitioner knowledgeable in managed care, or an individual who is expert in managed care.

“(2) Each last signatory operator and the joint board of trustees of the 1991 Fund shall submit a description of any managed care provider system to the panel prior to implementation of the system, and shall, on the same date or prior to such submission, provide notice of the submission to the participants of the affected employee benefit plan or plans. The last signatory employer or the joint board of trustees may implement the proposed system on a provisional basis on or after the 120th day after the submission to the panel, unless the panel issues a preliminary determination that the system has not been shown to meet the requisite standards. The requirements of this paragraph shall not apply to a last signatory operator electing to utilize the managed care provider system established by the 1991 Fund if the panel has issued a favorable determination for such system.

“(3)(A) Upon receipt of a submission by a last signatory operator or by the joint board of trustees, the panel shall conduct a preliminary examination of the managed care provider system. In the event that the preliminary review reveals a failure to show compliance with established standards such that provisional implementation by a last signatory operator or by the joint board of trustees may be detrimental to participants subject to the system, the panel shall, within 120 days of the submission, issue a preliminary determination that the system has not been shown to meet the requisite standards.

“(B) Within 240 days from the date of any submission, the panel shall issue a final determination of whether the system has been shown to meet the established standards of quality. In the event of a negative determination, the panel shall list specific steps that may be taken by the last signatory operator or by the joint board of trustees to qualify the system under the established standards.

“(C) The first-named settlor in section 9723(8) shall have the authority to review submissions made under paragraph (2), and to designate the order in which such submissions shall be considered by the panel.

“(D) In the event that the members of the panel deadlock on a determination to be made under this paragraph, they shall, by majority vote, appoint a neutral person, who would be qualified to serve as a panel member, to break such deadlock.

“(4) In the event of a negative determination by the panel, the last signatory operator shall have the options described in subparagraph (A), (B), or (C), and the joint board of trustees shall have the options described in subparagraphs (A) and (B):

“(A) implementing the specific steps outlined by the panel pursuant to paragraph (3);

“(B) consistent with the requirements of this subsection, establishing a new managed care provider system that meets the requisite standards; or

“(C) electing to utilize the managed care provider system established by the 1991 Fund if the panel has issued a favorable determination for such system.

“(5) The panel shall develop rules for the periodic review of determinations made, except that reviews shall be no more frequent than once every 3 years; and for the reconsideration of any prior determination upon a showing that the managed care provider system does not or has ceased to meet the established standards. The panel may take into account written complaints received from affected participants and beneficiaries, but the authority of the panel shall be limited to determining the continued qualification of a managed care provider system under the established standards, and shall not extend to resolving claims of medical malpractice or any other issue.

“(6) The panel shall withhold from all persons not connected with the conduct of a reconsideration or review described in paragraph (5) (other than the first-named settlor in section 9723(8)) all information relating to the subject of any written complaint received by an affected participant or beneficiary; and may not be compelled in any Federal, State, or local civil, criminal, administrative, legislative, or other proceedings to identify such information. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the panel shall provide the last signatory operator or the joint board of trustees of the 1991 Fund with a copy of any written complaint relating to a managed care provider system maintained by such last signatory operator or joint board of trustees.

“(7)(A) The panel, any person acting as a member or staff to the panel, any person under a contract or other formal agreement with the panel, and any person who participates with or assists the panel with respect to any action taken pursuant to this subsection, shall not be liable in damages under any law of the United States or of any State (or political subdivision thereof) with respect to the action. The preceding sentence shall not apply to damages under any law of the United States or any State relating to the civil rights of any person or persons, including the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (42 U.S.C. 2000e et seq.) and the Civil Rights Acts (42 U.S.C. 1981 et seq.). Nothing in this subparagraph shall prevent the United States or any attorney general of a State from bringing an action, where such an action is otherwise authorized.

“(B) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no person (whether as a witness or otherwise) providing information to the panel regarding the competence or professional conduct of a physician shall be held, by reason of having provided such information, to be liable in damages under any law of the United States or of any State (or political subdivision thereof) unless such information is false and the person providing it knew that such information was false.

“(8) The joint board of trustees of the 1991 Fund and each last signatory operator that makes a submission pursuant to subsection (b)(2) shall be liable for reasonable fees assessed by the panel in connection with the review of managed care provider systems.

“(c) SATISFACTION OF OBLIGATIONS.—Subject to the provisions of sections 9711 and 9713, the obligations of a last signatory operator under this section may be satisfied for any period with respect to any individual by payment of the required assessment under section 9713(d) or the premium under section 9704(g)(1)(C), or by the provision of the required benefits under an individual employer plan.

“(d) CONTROL GROUP LIABILITY.—As of the date that any benefit obligation owed pursuant to this section is due, the persons described in section 9723(5) (B) and (C) with respect to any last signatory operator shall be treated as such last signatory operator, and shall be jointly and severally liable for such benefit obligation.

“SEC. 9715. TRANSITION BENEFITS; PREMIUM NONPAYMENT; TRANSFERS BETWEEN 1991 FUND AND CORPORATION.

“(a) PAYMENT OF BENEFITS TO ORPHAN MINERS.—The plans described in section 9721(d) and the 1991 Fund shall continue to provide benefits to orphan miners, spouses, surviving spouses and dependents described in section 9711 (b) and (c), until the end of the second month beginning after the effective date of section 9712(d). Such orphan miners, spouses, surviving spouses and dependents shall be transferred to the Corporation as of the first day of the third month following the effective date of section 9712(d). The defined benefit pension plans maintained pursuant to the agreement described in section 9723(7) shall, on behalf of the Corporation and the 1991 Fund, continue to provide death benefits to orphan miners described in section 9711(b) and to retirees described in section 9713(b)(1) until the end of the second month beginning after the effective date of section 9712(d). Such pension plans shall have no liability for death benefits for the orphan miners described in section 9711(b), or for the retirees described in section 9713(b)(1), as of the first day of the third month following the effective date of section 9712(d). The Corporation may elect to pay the plans described in section 9721(d), the 1991 Fund, or the defined benefit pension plans maintained pursuant to the agreement described in section 9723(7) to continue to provide transition benefits after the end of the second month beginning after the effective date of section 9712(d), and for a period not to exceed 6 months. If the Corporation so elects, it shall pay such plans all amounts necessary to enable the provision of benefits and to cover all costs of administration associated with the provision of benefits. The schedule for such payments shall be determined by the boards of trustees of the plans, and may require advance payments. Amounts paid pursuant to this subsection shall not be included in the amounts to be reimbursed pursuant to subsection (b).

“(b) REIMBURSEMENT OF COST FOR TRANSITION BENEFITS.—No later than the first day of the fourth month after the effective date of section 9712(d), the Corporation shall reimburse the plans described in section 9721(d) and the 1991 Fund, with interest, for the amounts of benefits paid and administrative expenses incurred pursuant to subsection (a). No later than the first day of the fourth month after the effective date of section 9712(d), the Corporation and the 1991 Fund shall reimburse the defined benefit pension plans maintained pursuant to the agreement described in section 9723(7), with interest, for the amount of death benefits paid and administrative expenses incurred pursuant to subsection (a).

“(c) ACCESS TO RECORDS.—The joint boards of trustees of the plans described in section 9721(d) and the 1991 Fund shall share with the Corporation all records, files and documents related to the orphan miners, spouses, surviving spouses and dependents transferred to the Corporation, to the extent necessary for the Corporation to administer the payment of benefits to such individuals.

“(d) PREMIUM NONPAYMENT.—

“(1) No individual shall be eligible for benefits from the 1991 Fund during any month for which the assessments required under section 9713(d) have not been paid by such individual's last signatory operator. Such individual shall be immediately eligible to receive benefits from the Corporation and the Corporation shall have a cause of action against such individual's last signatory operator for the per beneficiary premium imposed under section 9704(g)(1)(C).

"(2) The 1991 Fund shall continue to treat an individual described in paragraph (1) as if he or she were eligible for benefits until the end of the third month for which an assessment due has not been paid. If the last signatory operator with respect to such individual has not paid its assessments due by the end of such month (with such interest and liquidated damages imposed by the board of trustees in their discretion, up to the amounts provided in section 9722(d)(2) (B) and (C)), the 1991 Fund shall notify the Corporation that the individual is transferred to the Corporation pursuant to paragraph (1), and the Corporation shall reimburse the 1991 Fund, with interest, for any benefits paid to or on behalf of such individual for all months for which assessments have not been paid.

The trustees of the plan described in subsection (c) shall recalculate the excess pension assets at any time that they are directed to do so by the settlors.

"(2) Immediately following the calculation (or recalculation) of the excess pension assets, the trustees of the plan described in subsection (c) shall segregate the excess pension assets from the remaining assets of such plan. The segregated excess pension assets (including all earnings thereon) shall be held in the plan until disbursed pursuant to subsection (b).

"(b) DISPOSITION OF EXCESS PENSION ASSETS.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the excess pension assets (including all earnings thereon) shall be expended in the following order:

"(3) Fifty million dollars shall be added to the general assets of the 1991 Fund.

"(4) The remainder of the excess pension assets, if any, shall be added to the general assets of the 1991 Fund, at such times and in such amounts as may be directed by the settlors.

"(c) PLAN CONTAINING EXCESS PENSION ASSETS.—A plan is described in this subsection if it is a pension plan and—

"(e) TAX TREATMENT, VALIDITY OF TRANSFER OF EXCESS PENSION ASSETS.—

"(1) No deduction shall be allowed under this title with respect to the expenditure of excess pension assets pursuant to subsection (a), but such transfer shall not adversely affect the deductibility (under applicable provisions of this title) of contributions previously made by employers or amounts hereafter contributed by employers to the plans described in subsection (c) or (d), or to the 1991 Fund.

"(2) The expenditure of excess pension assets pursuant to subsection (b)—

"(A) shall not be treated as an employer reversion from a qualified plan for purposes of section 4980, and

"(B) shall not be includible in the gross income of any employer maintaining a plan described in subsection (c).

"(3) Neither the segregation of excess pension assets pursuant to subsection (a)(2), the expenditure of excess pension assets pursuant to subsection (b), nor any direction made by the settlors pursuant to subsection (a)(1) or (b)(4) shall be deemed to violate or be prohibited by any provision of law, or to cause the settlors, joint board of trustees, employers or any related person to incur or be subject to taxes, fines, or penalties of any kind whatsoever.

"SEC. 9722. CIVIL ENFORCEMENT.

"(a) Civil actions may be brought by the 1991 Fund for appropriate relief, legal or equitable or both, to enforce the provisions of this chapter.

"(b) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, where such an action is brought in a district court of the United States, it may be brought in the district where the 1991 Fund is administered, in the district where the violation took place, or where a defendant resides or may be found, and process may be served in any other district where a defendant resides or may be found.

"(c) The district courts of the United States shall have jurisdiction of actions brought by the 1991 Fund under this chapter without regard to the amount in controversy in any such action.

"(d)(1) In any action brought under subsection (a) (other than an action described in paragraph (2)), the court in its discretion may award to the 1991 Fund all or a portion of the costs of litigation, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by the 1991 Fund in connection with such action.

"(2) In any action by the 1991 Fund to enforce section 9713(d)(2), in which a judgment in favor of the 1991 Fund is awarded, the court shall award the 1991 Fund—

"(A) the unpaid assessments;

"(B) interest on the unpaid assessments;

"(C) an amount equal to the greater of—

"(i) interest on the unpaid assessments; or

"(ii) liquidated damages in the amount of 20 percent of the amount determined by the court under subparagraph (A);

"(D) reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of the action, to be paid by the defendant; and

"(E) such other legal or equitable relief as the court deems appropriate.

For purposes of this paragraph, interest on unpaid assessments shall be determined by using the rate provided under the rules of the 1991 Fund, or, if none, the rate prescribed under section 6621.

"(e)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), an action under this subsection may not be brought after the later of—

"(A) 6 years after the date on which the cause of action arose; or

"(f) Any person who is an employer, a last signatory operator, a person described in section 9723(5) (B) or (C) with respect to an employer or last signatory operator, a bituminous coal industry retiree, or any spouse, surviving spouse or dependent of a bituminous coal industry retiree, and is adversely affected by any act or omission of any party under this chapter, or who is an employee organization of which such a coal industry retiree is a member, or an employer association of which such an employer is a member, may bring an action for appropriate equitable relief in the appropriate court.

"(1) During the pendency of any proceeding under this subsection by an employer, employer association, last signatory operator, or person described in section 9723(5) (B) or (C) with respect to an employer or last signatory operator, all potentially affected retirees, spouses, surviving spouses and dependents eligible for benefits from the 1991 Fund shall be transferred to the Corporation, which shall—

"(A) provide such benefits as would have been provided from the 1991 Fund, and

"(B) have and exercise all of the rights and obligations of the 1991 Fund with respect to—

"(i) the collection of assessments relating to such retirees and spouses, surviving spouses and dependents, and

"(ii) the defense of the proceeding.

"(2) In the event that a last signatory operator or other person pays to the 1991 Fund the assessments required pursuant to section 9713(d) for any month during the pendency of a proceeding described in paragraph (1), the 1991 Fund, and not the Corporation, shall be responsible for providing any benefits required to be paid for that month to eligible individuals under section 9713(b).

"(g) In any action brought under subsection (f), the court may award all or a portion of the costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred in connection with such action to any party that prevails or substantially prevails in such action.

"(h) This subsection shall be the exclusive means for bringing actions against the Corporation or the 1991 Fund under this chapter.

"(i)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), an action under this subsection may not be brought after the later of—

"(A) 6 years after the date on which the cause of action arose; or

"(B) 3 years after the earliest date on which the plaintiff acquired or should have acquired actual knowledge of the existence of such cause of action.

"(2) In the case of fraud or concealment, the period described in paragraph (1)(B) shall be extended to 6 years after the applicable date.

"(j) The district courts of the United States have jurisdiction of actions brought under this subsection without regard to the amount in controversy.

"(k) In any suit, action or proceeding in which the 1991 Fund is a party, in any State court, the 1991 Fund may, without bond or security, remove such suit, action, or proceeding from the State court to the United States district court for the district or division in which such suit, action or proceeding is pending by following any procedure for removal now or hereafter in effect.

overburden and coal waste, the transportation of coal (except by waterway or rail not owned by an employer engaged in the production of coal), repair and maintenance work normally performed at a mine site or central shop of an employer engaged in the production of coal, maintenance of gob piles and mine roads, construction of mine or mine-related facilities including the erection of mine tipples and sinking of mine shafts or slopes performed by employees of the employer engaged in the production of coal, and work of the type customarily related to the foregoing; except that the term shall not mean managerial, supervisory, warehouse, clerical or technical work, unless such work is performed subject to a coal wage agreement binding the employer engaged in the production of coal.

"(2) The term 'coal wage agreement' shall mean—

"(A) the National Bituminous Coal Wage Agreement;

"(B) any agreement substantially identical or substantially similar to such agreement, but only if, as of the date of enactment of this chapter, such agreement provided for contributions to be made to the plans described in section 9721(d); or

"(C) any other agreement entered into between an employer in the bituminous coal industry and the United Mine Workers of America that requires the provision of health benefits to retirees of such employer, eligibility for which is based on years of service credited under a plan established by the settlors and described in section 404(c) or a continuation of such plan.

"(3) The term 'credited service' shall have the same meaning as determined under the applicable defined benefit pension plan, but only if such service was of the type used to determine eligibility under the plan described in section 9721(d)(2)(B).

"(4) The term 'excess pension assets' shall mean the excess of the current value of plan assets (as defined in section 3(26) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (29 U.S.C. 1002(26)) of the plan described in section 9721(c) over the actuarial present value of all benefits for all plan participants under such plan, determined as of the date of enactment, in accordance with the actuarial assumptions and methods which reflect the plan actuary's best estimate of anticipated experience under such plan, except that where excess pension assets are recalculated as required under section 9721(a)(1), the amount of excess pension assets shall be determined as of the July 1 next preceding the date of the recalculation.

"(5) A last signatory operator shall be considered to be in business for purposes of this chapter if any of the following conducts or derives revenue from any business, whether or not within the coal industry—

"(A) such last signatory operator;

"(B) any member of the controlled group of corporations (within the meaning of section 414(b)) of such last signatory operator; or

"(C) any trade or business which is under common control (as determined under section 414(c)) with such last signatory operator.

If a last signatory operator is no longer in business and there is no successor, the relationships described in paragraphs (2) and (3) shall be determined at the time it ceased to be in business.

"(6)(A) The term 'last signatory operator' shall mean, with respect to any orphan miner or other coal industry retiree eligible for medical benefits, a person that meets or at one time met the following conditions:

"(i) A person meets the conditions of this clause if such person is—

"(I) an owner, lessee or other person who operates, controls or supervises a coal mine;

"(II) an independent contractor who operates, controls or supervises a coal mine; or

"(III) in the event a person described in (I) or (II) is no longer in business, any successor to such person, except that a purchaser shall not be considered to be a successor with respect to any orphan miner or other coal industry retiree eligible for medical benefits, if responsibility for the medical benefits of such orphan miner or other coal industry retiree was retained by the seller in the purchase and sale transaction.

"(ii) A person meets the conditions of this clause if such person or, in the case of a person described in clause (i)(III), such person's predecessor—

"(I) was a signatory to a 1978 coal wage agreement, or any subsequent coal wage agreement; and

"(II) was the last coal industry employer of such orphan miner or other retiree.

"(B) Notwithstanding subparagraph (A), if, as of the date of enactment of this chapter, a person has assumed or retained responsibility for retiree medical benefit obligations for individuals who retired from employment under a coal wage agreement, then such person shall be treated as the last signatory operator with respect to such individuals for purposes of this chapter, and any person from whom such responsibility was assumed shall not be treated as the last signatory operator.

"(C) For purposes of this chapter, the last signatory operator of any orphan miner or other coal industry retiree shall be considered to be the last signatory operator with respect to such orphan miner's or other coal industry retiree's spouse, surviving spouse and dependents, if any.

"(7) The term 'National Bituminous Coal Wage Agreement' shall mean the collective bargaining agreement negotiated by the settlors.

"(8) The term 'settlors' means the United Mine Workers of America and the Bituminous Coal Operators' Association, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as the 'BCOA'), except that if the BCOA ceases to exist, members of the BCOA representing more than 50 percent of the tonnage membership of BCOA on the date of enactment of this Act shall collectively be considered a settlor.

"SEC. 9724. SHAM TRANSACTIONS.

"If a principal purpose of any transaction is to evade or avoid liability under this chapter, this chapter shall be applied (and liability shall be imposed) without regard to such transaction. A bona fide, arm's-length sale of an entity subject to liability under this chapter to an unrelated party (within the meaning of section 4204(d) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended), shall not by itself be sufficient to establish a principal purpose to evade or avoid liability within the meaning of this section."
