(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds that—

(1) racial discrimination is indefensible, improper, and immoral;

(2) it has been reported that many institutions of higher education have instituted admissions quotas designed to limit the admission of Asian-Americans;

(3) these restrictive quotas are similar to those instituted in the 1920's to limit the admission of Jewish students;

(4) statistics show that Asian-American students face greater obstacles in their attempts to attend institutions of higher education than students of other races;

(5) The Office of Civil Rights of the Department of Education is conducting investigations at the University of California at Berkeley and the University of California at Los Angeles to determine whether the schools in violation of title VI (relating to nondiscrimination in federally assisted programs) of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (42 U.S.C. 2000d-2000d-6); and

(6) the Chancellor of the University of California at Berkeley apologized to Asian-Americans for an admission process of the school which had a negative impact on the admission of Asian-Americans.

—Page 701, line 2, insert before the semicolon the following: "because of their race in violation of Regents of the University of California v. Bakke, 438 U.S. 265 (1978)".
