So the resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said resolution was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

43.16 PRIVILEGES OF THE HOUSE

Mr. RIGGS rose to a question of the privileges of the House and submitted the following resolution (H. Res. 431):

Whereas recent press accounts have cited allegations of illegal hiring practices and ghost employees in the House of Representatives and;

Whereas such allegations violations reflect upon the integrity of the House of Representatives and;

Whereas the Code of Ethics for Government Services (H. Con. Res. 175, 72 Stat. Part 2, B 12) calls on each government official to: "Never discriminate unfairly by the dispensing of special favors or privileges to anyone, whether for remuneration or not; and never accept for himself or his family, favors or benefits under circumstances which might be construed by reasonable persons as influencing the performance of his governmental duties." and;

Whereas such allegations would constitute violations of Rule XLIII, clauses 8, of the Code of Official Conduct which states that "A member or officer of the House shall retain no one under his payroll authority who does not perform official duties commensurate with the compensation received * * *". Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Speaker and Minority Leader shall appoint an ad hoc committee of an equal number of Democrats and Republicans under the jurisdiction of the Committee of Standards of Official Conduct to investigate the published reports and report within 90 days to the full House any violations of House rules.

Resolved, This ad hoc committee is authorized to appoint a special counsel to assist in this investigation and that the funds necessary for this investigation shall be provided by specific resolution.

Mr. GEPHARDT moved to lay the resolution on the table.

The question being put, viva voce, Will the House lay the resolution on the table?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MURTHA, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. WALKER demanded a recorded vote on said motion, which demand was supported by one-fifth of a quorum, so a recorded vote was ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device.
