¶45.13 PRIVILEGES OF THE HOUSE

Mr. MICHEL rose to a question of the privileges of the House and pursuant to the foregoing special order submitted the following privileged resolution (H. Res. 441):

Whereas, by letters of April 8 and 21, 1992, to the acting chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct and to the Speaker, respectively, the Honorable Malcolm R. Wilkey, Special Counsel to the Attorney General of the United States, has requested a "cooperative response" from the committee to his request for materials, specifically 41 microfilm rolls identified in the letter of April 21, in the possession of the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct relating to the inquiry of the operation of the Bank of the Sergeant-at-Arms pursuant to House Resolution 236, adopted by the House on October 3, 1991;

Whereas, the Constitution of the United States vests authority in the House of Representatives to protect and preserve materials of the House; and

Whereas, by the privileges of the House no evidence of a documentary character under the control and in the possession of the House can, either by the mandate of process of the ordinary courts of justice or pursuant to requests by appropriate Federal or State authorities, be taken from such control or possession except by the permission of the House; Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the microfilm rolls shall be collected by the Sergeant-at-Arms and he shall, no later than twelve noon on May 4, 1992, provide to the Special Counsel the microfilm rolls: Be it further

Resolved, That this provision of information shall be taken without prejudice to any future consideration by the House of the Judiciary of requests for documentary or testimonial evidence from the Members, Officers or employees of the House: Be it further

Resolved, That the House relies upon the assurances of the Special Counsel that he will take such steps as are necessary to provide for protection for the confidentiality of the records provided: Be it further

Resolved, The nothing in this Resolution shall be construed to deprive, condition or waive the constitutional or legal rights applicable or available to any Member, Officer or employee of the House or any other individual; and be it Further Resolved, That it is the will of the House to maintain such communication and cooperation with the Special Counsel as will promote the ends of justice consistent with the privileges and rights of the House.

After debate, Pursuant to the foregoing special order of the House heretofore agreed to, the previous question was considered as ordered on the resolution to its adoption or rejection.

The question being put, viva voce, Will the House agree to said resolution?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mrs. KENNELLY, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. MICHEL demanded a recorded vote on agreeing to said resolution, which demand was supported by one-fifth of a quorum, so a recorded vote was ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device.

¶45.17 COMMITTEE TO SIT

On motion of Mr. CONYERS, by unanimous consent, the Committee on Government Operations was granted permission to sit during the 5-minute rule on Thursday, April 30, 1992.

¶45.18 COMMITTEE FUNDING

Mr. GAYDOS, by direction of the Committee on House Administration, called up the following privileged resolution (H. Res. 429):

Resolved, That there shall be available from the contingent fund of the House such amounts as may be necessary for continuance of necessary investigations and studies by each standing committee and select committee of the House in the second session of the One Hundred Second Congress for the period beginning immediately after midnight on April 30, 1992, and ending at midnight on May 31, 1992, on the same terms and conditions as amounts were available to such committees for the period beginning at noon on January 3, 1992, and ending at midnight on March 31, 1992, pursuant to clause 5(f) of rule XI of the Rules of the House, except that the entitlement percentage shall be 8.33 percent.

When said resolution was considered. After debate,

On motion of Mr. GAYDOS, the previous question was ordered on the resolution to its adoption or rejection.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House agree to said resolution?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mrs. KENNELLY, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. BARTON demanded that the vote be taken by the yeas and nays, which demand was supported by one-fifth of the Members present, so the yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mrs. KENNELLY, pursuant to clause 5, rule I, announced that further proceedings on the motion were postponed until Thursday, April 30, 1992.

¶45.19 NASA AUTHORIZATION

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mrs. KENNELLY, pursuant to House Resolution 432 and rule XXIII, declared the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the further consideration of the bill (H.R. 4364) to authorize appropriations to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration for research and development, space flight, control and data communications, construction of facilities, research and program management, and Inspector General, and for other purposes.

Mr. LAROCCO, Acting Chairman, assumed the chair; and after some time spent therein,

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mrs. MINK, assumed the Chair.

When Mr. LAROCCO, Acting Chairman, reported that the Committee, having had under consideration said bill, had come to no resolution thereon.

¶45.20 SENATE BILLS REFERRED

Bills of the Senate of the following titles were taken from the Speaker's table and, under the rule, referred as follows:

S. 2620. An Act to amend title VII of the Public Health Service Act to correct a technical oversight in the Disadvantaged Minority Health Improvement Act of 1990 (Public law 101-527) by making schools of osteopathic medicine eligible to participate in the Centers of Excellence program, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Energy and Commerce.

S. 2569. An Act to amend title 10, United States Code, to make the Vice Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff a member of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; to provide joint duty credit for certain service; and to provide for the temporary continuation of the current Deputy National Security Advisor in a flag officer grade in the Navy; to the Committee on Armed Services.

¶45.21 LEAVE OF ABSENCE

By unanimous consent, leave of absence was granted—

To Mr. CALLAHAN, for today; and
To Mr. ALEXANDER, for today.
