Whereas, on March 27, 1992, Attorney General William Barr, appointed former federal Judge Malcolm A. Wilkey as Special Counsel to the Attorney General to conduct a preliminary inquiry into possible violations of the criminal law arising out of the operations of the former House bank; and

Whereas, on April 20, 1992, the Speaker of the House, on behalf of himself and the Republican leader, forwarded to Judge Wilkey a letter informing him that it would be incon-

Resolved, That the House of Representatives shall comply with the subpoenas issued in connection with the preliminary inquiry of the Special Counsel, in a manner consistent with (1) enforcement of criminal law and procedure; (2) respect for the constitutional structure of government and the individual rights assured to all citizens; and (3) the expectation of the public that the legal process will be impartial and fair: Be it further

Resolved, That microfilm rolls shall be collected by the Sergeant at Arms and he shall promptly undertake to expeditiously have reproduced in documentary form, using the best available modern technology, the forty-one rolls of microfilm sought by the subpoena: Be it further

Resolved, The Sergeant at Arms shall obtain from the United States District Court a determination of the enforceability of the subpoena including its materiality and relevance and shall upon receipt of such determination notify the House of the Court's determination: Be it further

Resolved, That the House relies upon the assurances of the Special Counsel that he will take such steps as are necessary to provide full protection for the confidentiality of the records provided: Be it further

Resolved, Consistent with this resolution that it is the will of the House to maintain such communication and cooperation with the Special Counsel as will promote the ends of justice consistent with the privileges and rights of the House and its Members.
