¶61.4 PRIVILEGES OF THE HOUSE

Mr. GEPHARDT rose to a question of the privileges of the House and submitted the following resolution (H. Res. 471):

Whereas on April 29, 1992 the House of Representatives adopted House Resolution 441 directing the release of certain materials relating to the inquiry into the operation of the Bank of the Sergeant at Arms pursuant to House Resolution 236 as a "cooperative response" to requests for those materials from the Honorable Malcolm R. Wilkey, Special Counsel to the Attorney General of the United States;

Whereas pursuant to House Resolution 441 the 41 microfilm rolls provided to the Special Counsel were furnished without prejudice to any future consideration by the House or the Judiciary of requests for documentary or testimonial evidence from Members, Officers of employees of the House, but only upon assurances of the Special Counsel that he will take such steps as are necessary to provide for protection of the confidentiality of the records provided;

Whereas pursuant to House Resolution 441 the House expressed its will to maintain such communication and cooperation with the Special Counsel as will promote the ends of justice consistent with the privileges and rights of the House and consistent with the constitutional or legal rights applicable or available to any Member, Officer or employee of the House or any other individual;

Whereas the Special Counsel has requested the production of further documentary evidence in addition to that furnished pursuant to House Resolution 441;

Whereas, by the privileges of the House no evidence of a documentary character under the control and in the possession of the House can, either by the mandate of process of the ordinary courts of justice or pursuant to requests by appropriate Federal or State authorities, be taken from such control or possession except by the permission of the House; Now therefore be it

Resolved, That the material requested by the Special Counsel consisting of: for the period July 1, 1988 through October 1991 the general ledgers of the bank; the "throwout books"; lists or other compilations of persons whose check privileges had been suspended or otherwise restricted; for accounts in which there were one or more "overdrafts" any list or other compilation of individuals who had been granted signature authority by account holders and any list or other compilation of individuals who had been designated by Members as a staff contact person; information relating to overdrawn accounts and general bank administration maintained in the computers of the bank; in addition, and without respect to the time limitation referenced above, any list or other compilation relating to promissory notes made by the National Bank of Washington, shall be collected by the Sergeant at Arms and he shall commence production thereof to the Special Counsel not later than five p.m. on Monday June 1, 1992; Be it further

Resolved, That upon receipt of further requests for documentary or testimonial evidence from the Special Counsel addressed to any Member, Officer, or employee of the House, the Leadership Legal Advisory Group (consisting of the Speaker, the majority leader, the minority leader, the majority whip and the minority whip), is hereby authorized to respond to and to take appropriate action with respect to such requests from the Special Counsel in a manner consistent with the privileges and precedents of the House.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mrs. UNSOELD, ruled that the resolution submitted did present a question of the privileges of the House and recognized Mr. GEPHARDT for one hour.

After debate,

On motion of Mr. GEPHARDT, the previous question was ordered on the resolution to its adoption or rejection.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House agree to said resolution?

The SPEAKER announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. GINGRICH objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and not voting.
