¶65.28 PRIVILEGES OF THE HOUSE

Mr. HAMILTON rose to a question of the privileges of the House and submitted the following resolution (H. Res. 477):

Whereas, the House of Representatives in the 100th Congress, 1st Session, adopted House Resolution 12 on January 7, 1987 establishing the Select Committee to Investigate Covert Arms Transactions with Iran, and authorizing that committee, during its continuance, to respond to judicial or other process consistent with Rule L;

Whereas, the House of Representatives in the 100th Congress, 1st Session, adopted House Resolution 330 on December 10, 1987 providing for the termination of that Select Committee on March 1, 1988 and for the transmittal of its records to the Clerk of the House for storage in the National Archives;

Whereas, the Office of Independent Counsel as part of its continuing criminal investigation of Iran/Contra matters has in a letter to the General Counsel to the Clerk dated June 1, 1992 requested certain testimonial and documentary information in connection with the June 17, 1987 deposition of former Secretary of Defense Casper W. Weinberger (taken in a closed proceeding of that Select Committee pursuant to House Resolution 12);

Whereas, by the privileges of the House, no evidence under the control of the House can, either by the mandate of process of the ordinary courts of justice or pursuant to requests by appropriate Federal or State authorities, be taken from such control except by the permission of the House: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the testimonial and documentary evidence in connection with the

June 17, 1987 deposition of former Secretary of Defense Casper Weinberger as outlined in the request of June 1, 1992 by the Independent Counsel, be furnished in the direction of the Clerk of the House in a manner consistent with the privileges and precedents of the House.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MURTHA, ruled that the resolution submitted did present a question of the privileges of the House under rule IX.
