¶67.6 WORDS TAKEN DOWN

Mr. DEFAZIO during one minute speeches addressed the House and, during the course of his remarks,

Mr. WALKER demanded that certain words be taken down.

The Clerk read the words taken down as follows:

Once again he has threatened to deny the reality of unemployment and veto the unemployment benefit extension for his own petty political gain.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MFUME, held the words taken down did not transgress the rules of the House, and said:

"The Chair has referred to Webster's Dictionary. The primary definition is: 'small, minor, having secondary rank or importance: having little or no importance or significance: marked by or reflective of narrow interests and sympathies.'

"The Chair rules that in the opinion of the Chair that does not transgress the rules of the House."

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MFUME, in response to a parliamentary inquiry made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. WALKER] wherein he questioned the words being correctly reported by the Clerk and that they should have included the phrase, "his own petty personal political gains", said:

"The Chair, in response to the gentleman's inquiry (point of order), reported the words that were handed to the Chair as recorded. The Chair believes, however, the gentleman from Oregon, for the sake of debate, will find it in order to withdraw the word 'personal' if, in fact, it was uttered."

By unanimous consent, Mr. DEFAZIO withdrew the word, "personal", from the remarks.

Mr. YATRON moved to suspend the rules and agree to the following concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 232); as amended:

Whereas the Helsinki Final Act and other documents of the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe, including the Moscow Conference on the Human Dimension (CDH) document, have established recognized standards for the promotion and protection of human rights, democracy, and the rule of law;

Whereas Principle VII of the Final Act sets forth specific commitments concerning respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms, including freedom of thought, conscience, religion, or belief;

Whereas the Charter of Paris for a New Europe states that "human rights and fundamental freedoms are the birthright of all human beings, are inalienable and are guaranteed by law", and further provides that "Democratic government is based on the will of the people, expressed regularly through free and fair elections" and is the "best safeguard of freedom of expression, tolerance of all groups of society, and equality of opportunity for each person";

Whereas the Copenhagen Conference on the Human Dimension (CDH) document declares that the will of the people, freely and fairly expressed through periodic and genuine elections, is the basis of the authority and legitimacy of all government;

Whereas the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe is committed to protecting the right of persons belonging to national minorities to freely express, preserve, and develop their identity without any discrimination and in full equality before the law;

Whereas Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Georgia, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Moldova, Russia, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, Ukraine, and Uzbekistan have gained their independence and have accepted all Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe commitments as participating states; and

Whereas human rights abuses have been reported in a number of these states, while others appear to be taking steps to promote and protect the rights of individuals within their territory: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That it is the sense of the Congress that—

(1) the leaders of Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Georgia, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Moldova, Russia, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, Ukraine, and Uzbekistan should take steps to implement all commitments on human rights, fundamental freedoms, and humanitarian cooperation (including those on monitoring activities) contained in the Helsinki Final Act, the Charter of Paris for a New Europe, or any other document of the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe;

(2) the parliamentary leadership of each of these states should consider the establishment, within their respective parliaments, of appropriate mechanisms for the promotion and protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms;

(3) the President should convey to the leaders of these states that respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms, as expressed in the Helsinki Final Act, the Charter of Paris for a New Europe, and other documents of the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe, is a vital element in achieving genuine security and cooperation in Europe; and

(4) the President should keep the Congress informed of the status of human rights and fundamental freedoms in each of these states.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MFUME, recognized Mr. YATRON and Mr. BROOMFIELD, each for 20 minutes.

After debate,

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House suspend the rules and agree to said concurrent resolution, as amended?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MFUME, announced that two-thirds of the Members present had voted in the affirmative.

So, two-thirds of the Members present having voted in favor thereof, the rules were suspended and said concurrent resolution, as amended, was agreed to.

By unanimous consent, the title was amended so as to read: "Concurrent resolution calling on the leaders of the independent states of the former Soviet Union to take steps to implement all commitments on human rights, fundamental freedoms, and humanitarian cooperation contained in the Helsinki Final Act and other documents of the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe."

A motion to reconsider the votes whereby the rules were suspended and said concurrent resolution, as amended, was agreed to and the title was amended was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

Ordered, That the Clerk request the concurrence of the Senate in said concurrent resolution.

¶67.15 CHINESE HARASSMENT OF JOURNALISTS

Mr. YATRON moved to suspend the rules and agree to the following resolution (H. Res. 461):

Whereas on May 17, 1992, Beijing state security officers confiscated materials from the office of Washington Post Beijing correspondent, Lena Sun;

Whereas the correspondent's husband and child were not allowed to leave their home during the interrogation and two United States Embassy officials were prevented from entering the Washington Post bureau;

Whereas security officials told Ms. Sun that a Chinese acquaintance had been arrested and that his case was under investigation;

Whereas on April 30, 1992, Chinese police detained and interrogated James Miles, a British Broadcasting Corporation correspondent, for attempting to report on a protest in Tiananmen Square;

Whereas in the last two months the New York Times bureau chief in Beijing, Nicholas Kristof, was summoned twice by the Chinese Foreign Ministry for articles the ministry described as "vicious slanders of the Chinese Government";

Whereas in September 1991, a journalist for the Independent, Andrew Higgins, was expelled from China while carrying out standard journalistic responsibilities;

Whereas foreign correspondent, Mike Chinoy and Bill Whitaker, in September 1991 were separately harassed by Chinese security officials while attempting to film United States Members of Congress commemorating the 1989 Tiananmen Square crackdown;

Whereas foreign correspondents have regularly reported that they are often under surveillance and that their contacts are frequently harassed;

Whereas it has been reported that Chinese authorities have increased surveillance and harassment of journalists in the past few months;

Whereas article 19 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights states that "Everyone has the right to freedom of opinion and expression; this right includes freedom to hold opinions without interference and to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media and regardless of frontiers.": Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of the House of Representatives that—

(1) the recent confiscation of materials from the Beijing bureau of the Washington Post and interrogation of its correspondents as well as the interrogation of the bureau chief for the New York Times and other foreign correspondents is in violation of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights;

(2) the President should urge the Chinese Government to allow greater press freedom to foreign and domestic journalists.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MFUME, recognized Mr. YATRON and Mr. BROOMFIELD, each for 20 minutes.

After debate,

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House suspend the rules and agree to said resolution?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MFUME, announced that two-thirds of the Members present had voted in the affirmative.

So, two-thirds of the Members present having voted in favor thereof, the rules were suspended and said resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby the rules were suspended and said resolution was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

¶67.16 H.R. 5333—UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MFUME, pursuant to clause 5, rule I, announced the unfinished business to be the motion to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 5333) to provide that, beginning with fiscal year 1994, the President transmit to Congress and Congress consider a budget that requires a balanced budget by fiscal year 1998 and for subsequent fiscal years, and for other purposes.

The question being put,

Will the House suspend the rules and pass said bill?

The vote was taken by electronic device.

¶67.20 PROVIDING FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 5260

Mr. DERRICK, by direction of the Committee on Rules, called up the following resolution (H. Res. 475):

Resolved, That at any time after the adoption of this resolution the Speaker may, pursuant to clause 1(b) of rule XXIII, declare the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 5260) to extend the emergency unemployment compensation program, to revise the trigger provisions contained in the extended unemployment compensation program, and for other purposes, and the first reading of the bill shall be dispensed with. All points of order against the bill, as amended, and against its consideration are hereby waived. After general debate, which shall be confined to the bill and which shall not exceed one hour, to be equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Ways and Means, the bill shall be considered as having been read for amendment under the five-minute rule. The amendment printed in the report of the Committee on Rules accompanying this resolution shall be considered as having been adopted in the House and in the Committee of the Whole. No amendment to the bill shall be in order. At the conclusion of the consideration of the bill for amendment, the Committee shall rise and report the bill to the House, and the previous question shall be considered as ordered on the bill to final passage without intervening motion except one motion to recommit.

When said resolution was considered.

After debate,

Mr. DERRICK moved the previous question on the resolution to its adoption or rejection.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House now order the previous question?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MFUME, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. SOLOMON objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and not voting.

A quorum not being present,

The roll was called under clause 4, rule XV, and the call was taken by electronic device.

So the resolution was agreed to. A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said resolution was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

¶67.23 UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION EXTENSION

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MFUME, pursuant to House Resolution 475 and rule XXIII, declared the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 5260) to extend the emergency unemployment compensation program, to revise the trigger provisions contained in the extended unemployment compensation program, and for other purposes.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MFUME, by unanimous consent, designated Mr. LEWIS of Georgia as Chairman of the Committee of the Whole; and after some time spent therein,

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. GEPHARDT, assumed the Chair.

When Mr. LEWIS of Georgia, Chairman, pursuant to House Resolution 475, reported the bill back to the House.

The previous question having been ordered by said resolution.

Pursuant to House Resolution 475, the amendment printed in the report to accompany said resolution was considered as adopted.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, was read a third time by title.

Mr. ARCHER moved to recommit the bill to the Committee on Ways and Means with instructions to promptly report the bill back to the House forthwith with extended unemployment benefits through March of 1993 which are offset in a manner which is consistent with the current budget rules and does not increase the deficits for the fiscal years 1992 through 1995.

After debate, By unanimous consent, the previous question was ordered on the motion to recommit with instructions.

The question being put, viva voce, Will the House recommit said bill with instructions?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. GEPHARDT, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. ARCHER objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and not voting.

A quorum not being present, The roll was called under clause 4, rule XV, and the call was taken by electronic device.
