Resolved, That immediately upon the adoption of this resolution the House shall resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 290) proposing an amendment to the Constitution to provide for a balanced budget for the United States Government and for greater accountability in the enactment of tax legislation, all points of order against the joint resolution and against its consideration are hereby waived, and the first reading of the joint resolution shall be dispensed with. After general debate, which shall be confined to the joint resolution and which shall not exceed four and one-half hours, to be equally divided and controlled by Representative Brooks of Texas, Representative Fish of New York, and Representative Stenholm of Texas, or their designees, the joint resolution shall be considered for amendment under the five-minute rule. No amendment to the joint resolution shall be in order in the House or the Committee of the Whole except for the following amendments, which shall be considered only in the following order, and which shall not be subject to amendment:

(a) an amendment in the nature of a substitute by, and if offered by, Representative Fish of New York, or his designee. This amendment shall be debatable for no longer than one hour to be equally divided and controlled by the Member proposing the amendment, or a designee, and a Member opposed thereto;

(b) an amendment in the nature of a substitute by, and if offered by, Representative Barton of Texas, or his designee, which may be offered notwithstanding the adoption of the amendment in the nature of a substitute as made possible under section 1(a). This amendment shall be debatable for no longer than one hour to be equally divided and controlled by the Member proposing the amendment, or a designee, and a Member opposed thereto;

(c) an amendment in the nature of a substitute by, and if offered by, Representative Brooks of Texas, or his designee, which may be offered notwithstanding the adoption of the amendments in the nature of a substitute as made possible under section 1(a) or section 1(b). This amendment shall be debatable for no longer than one hour to be equally divided and controlled by the Member proposing the amendment, or a designee, and a Member opposed thereto;

(d) an amendment in the nature of a substitute by, and if offered by, any Member, which shall be the text of any comparable joint resolution as passed by the Senate, and which may be offered notwithstanding the adoption of the amendments in the nature of a substitute as made possible under section 1(a), section 1(b), or section 1(c). This amendment shall be debatable for no longer than one hour to be equally divided and controlled by the Member proposing the amendment and a Member opposed thereto;

The previous question shall be considered as having been ordered on the joint resolution and such amendment thereto, to final passage without intervening motion except one motion to recommit, with or without instructions.

SEC. 2. If the Committee rises on any day without coming to a final resolution on the joint resolution, the House shall, on the next legislative day, following House approval of the Journal, immediately resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union for the further consideration of the joint resolution.

SEC. 3. If a comparable joint resolution has been passed by the Senate, it shall be in order at any time after House consideration of H.J. Res. 290 for Representative Stenholm or his designee to move for immediate consideration of such Senate Joint Resolution and to move for concurrence in the passage of such Senate Joint Resolution, with or without amendment but, if with an amendment, then such amendment shall strike all after the resolving clause and substitute therefor the text of H.J. Res. 290 as passed by the House.
