So the resolution was agreed to.
A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said resolution was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

¶16.10 EMERGENCY UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION EXTENSION

On motion of Mr. ROSTENKOWSKI, pursuant to House Resolution 103, the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union was discharged from further consideration of the bill (H.R. 920) to extend the emergency unemployment compensation program, and for other purposes.

When said bill was considered and read twice.

Pursuant to House Resolution 103, the amendment recommended by the Committee on Ways and Means printed in the bill and the amendment printed in the report (Rept. No. 103-18) of the Committee on Rules accompanying said resolution were considered as adopted.

After debate,
The previous question having been ordered by said resolution.

The bill, as amended, was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, was read a third time by title.

Mr. ARCHER moved to recommit the bill to the Committee on Ways and Means with instructions to report the bill back to the House forthwith without section 6 (designating the spending provided and authorized as emergency requirements under the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985), and with an extension of the emergency unemployment compensation benefits through October 1993 which is offset in a manner consistent with the current budget rules and which does not increase the deficit for fiscal years 1993 and 1994.

By unanimous consent, the previous question was ordered on the motion to recommit with instructions.

The question being put, viva voce,
Will the House recommit said bill with instructions?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. LAROCCO, announced that the nays had it.

Mr. ARCHER objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and not voting.

A quorum not being present,
The roll was called under clause 4, rule XV, and the call was taken by electronic device.
