So the resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said resolution was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

20.9 FEDERAL EMPLOYEES' POLITICAL ACTIVITIES

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MAZZOLI, pursuant to House Resolution 106 and rule XXIII, declared the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 20) to amend title 5, United States Code, to restore to Federal civilian employees their right to participate voluntarily, as private citizens, in the political processes of the Nation, to protect such employees from improper political solicitations, and for other purposes.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MAZZOLI, by unanimous consent, designated Mr. TORRES as Chairman of the Committee of the Whole; and after some time spent therein,

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MCNULTY, assumed the Chair.

When Mr. TORRES, Chairman, pursuant to House Resolution 106, reported the bill back to the House with sundry amendments adopted by the Committee.

The previous question having been ordered by said resolution.

The following amendments, reported from the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union, were agreed to:

Page 11, strike line 8 and all that follows through page 12, line 7, and insert the following:

“§ 7326. Candidates for elective office; leave

“(a) Except as provided in subsection (b), an employee may not seek nomination for election, or election, to any Federal or Statewide elective public office.

“(b) Subsection (a) shall not prohibit an employee from seeking nomination for election, or election, to an elective public office if no person is seeking to be nominated for, or elected to, such office as the candidate of a party any of whose candidates for presidential elector received votes in the last preceding election at which presidential electors were selected.

“(c) The standards applicable under section 7322(2) in determining whether an individual is seeking nomination for election, or election, to an office shall apply for purposes of making any such determination under this section.

“(d)(1) This subsection shall apply with respect to a candidate for any elective office, except that, in the case of an elective public office, this subsection shall not apply unless the office is one which may be sought by the employee involved under the preceding provisions of this section.

“(2) Except as provided in paragraph (3), an employee who is a candidate shall, upon the request of the employee, and for the purpose of allowing the employee to engage in activities relating to that candidacy—

- “(A) be granted leave without pay; and “(B) notwithstanding section 6302(d), be granted accrued annual leave.

“(3) A request for leave under subparagraph (A) or (B) of paragraph (2) may be denied if the exigencies of the public business so require. Any such denial shall be in writing and shall be accompanied by a statement of the reasons why the request is being denied.

“(4) An employee may not be required to take leave without pay under paragraph (2)(A), or accrued annual leave under paragraph (2)(B), in order to be a candidate, unless the activities relating to the candidacy interfere with the employee’s performing the duties of such employee’s position.

Page 12, strike line 8, and insert the following:

“§ 7327. Continued applicability of former provisions

“(a) This subchapter shall, with respect to employees of the Federal Election Commission, be administered in accordance with the following:

“(1) The provisions of this subchapter (as amended by the Federal Employees Political Activities Act of 1993) shall be deemed to have no force or effect, except for this section.

“(2) The provisions of this subchapter (as last in effect before the amendments made by the Federal Employees Political Activities Act of 1993 took effect) shall be deemed to have remained in effect, except for former section 7325.

“(b) For purposes of applying the provisions of chapter 12 which relate to the authority of the Special Counsel to conduct investigations, and to seek corrective or disciplinary action, in connection with any misconduct under this subchapter, and for purposes of any other provision of law, this subchapter shall, to the extent it is being applied with respect to employees of the Federal Election Commission, be construed in accordance with subsection (a).

“§ 7328. Regulations

Page 13, in the matter after line 3, strike the item relating to section 7327 and insert the following:

“7327. Continued applicability of former provisions.

“7328. Regulations.”.

(B) in paragraph (2)—
(i) by striking “(2) If” and inserting “If”; and

(ii) by inserting “(1),” before “(3),”.

(5) Section 1501(1) of title 5, United States Code, is amended by inserting “, the District of Columbia,” after “State”.

Page 15, line 20, strike “7327” and insert “7328”.

The bill, as amended, was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, was read a third time by title.

The question being put, viva voce, Will the House pass said bill?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MCNULTY, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. DOOLITTLE objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and not voting.

A quorum not being present,

The roll was called under clause 4, rule XV, and the call was taken by electronic device.
