28.4 PROVIDING FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF H. CON. RES. 64

Mr. BEILENSEN, by direction of the Committee on Rules, called up the following resolution (H. Res. 131):

Resolved, That at any time after the adoption of this resolution the Speaker may, pursuant to clause 1(b) of rule XXIII, declare the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for consideration of the concurrent resolution (H. Res. 64) setting forth the congressional budget for the United States Government for the fiscal years 1994, 1995, 1996, 1997, and 1998. The first reading of the concurrent resolution shall be dispensed with. All points of order against the concurrent resolution and against its consideration are waived. General debate shall be confined to the congressional budget and shall not exceed ten hours, with seven hours (including four hours on the subject of economic goals and policies) equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on the Budget, two hours controlled by Representative Mfume of Maryland, and one hour controlled by Representative Solomon of New York. After general debate the Committee of the Whole shall rise without motion. No further consideration of the concurrent resolution shall be in order except pursuant to a subsequent order of the House.

When said resolution was considered. After debate,

On motion of Mr. BEILENSEN, the previous question was ordered on the resolution to its adoption or rejection and under the operation thereof, the resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said resolution was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

28.5 PROVIDING FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 1335

Mr. DERRICK, by direction of the Committee on Rules, called up the following resolution (H. Res. 130):

Resolved, That at any time after the adoption of this resolution the Speaker may, pursuant to clause 1(b) of rule XXIII, declare the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for consideration of the bill (H.R. 1335) making emergency supplemental appropriations for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1993, and for other purposes. The first reading of the bill shall be dispensed with. Points of order against consideration of the bill for failure to comply with clause 2(l)(6) of rule XI or clause 7 of rule XXI are waived. General debate shall be confined to the bill and shall not exceed one hour equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Appropriations. After general debate the Committee of the Whole shall rise without motion. No further consideration of the bill shall be in order except pursuant to a subsequent order of the House.

When said resolution was considered. After debate,

On motion of Mr. DERRICK, the previous question was ordered on the resolution to its adoption or rejection and under the operation thereof, the resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said resolution was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

28.6 ECONOMIC STIMULUS

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MONTGOMERY, pursuant to House Resolution 130 and rule XXIII, declared the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 1335) making emergency supplemental appropriations for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1993, and for other purposes.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MONTGOMERY, by unanimous consent, designated Mr. LAROCCO as Chairman of the Committee of the Whole.

The Acting Chairman, Mr. BLACKWOOD assumed the Chair; and after some time spent therein,

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. BONIOR, assumed the Chair.

When Mr. LAROCCO, Chairman, reported that the Committee, having had under consideration said bill, had come to no resolution thereon.

28.7 CALL OF THE HOUSE
