28.4 PROVIDING FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF H. CON. RES. 64

Mr. BEILENSEN, by direction of the Committee on Rules, called up the following resolution (H. Res. 131):

Resolved, That at any time after the adoption of this resolution the Speaker may, pursuant to clause 1(b) of rule XXIII, declare the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for consideration of the concurrent resolution (H. Res. 64) setting forth the congressional budget for the United States Government for the fiscal years 1994, 1995, 1996, 1997, and 1998. The first reading of the concurrent resolution shall be dispensed with. All points of order against the concurrent resolution and against its consideration are waived. General debate shall be confined to the congressional budget and shall not exceed ten hours, with seven hours (including four hours on the subject of economic goals and policies) equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on the Budget, two hours controlled by Representative Mfume of Maryland, and one hour controlled by Representative Solomon of New York. After general debate the Committee of the Whole shall rise without motion. No further consideration of the concurrent resolution shall be in order except pursuant to a subsequent order of the House.

When said resolution was considered. After debate,

On motion of Mr. BEILENSEN, the previous question was ordered on the resolution to its adoption or rejection and under the operation thereof, the resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said resolution was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

28.5 PROVIDING FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 1335
