

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby the rules were suspended and said bill was passed was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

Ordered. That the Clerk request the concurrence of the Senate in said bill.

34.13 H. RES. 118—UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. McNULTY, pursuant to clause 5, rule 1, announced the further unfinished business to be the motion to suspend the rules and agree to the resolution (H. Res. 118) to condemn the release by the Government of Malta of convicted terrorist Mohammed Ali Rezaq; as amended.

The question being put,
Will the House suspend the rules and agree to the resolution, as amended?

The vote was taken by electronic device.

It was decided in the affirmative { Yeas 421

tingent fund of the House not more than $495,000 for one-half of the expenses of investigations and studies by the Joint Committee on the Organization of the Congress (hereinafter in this section referred to as the "Committee"), including expenses for procurement of consultant services under section 202(i) of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946.

(b) Not more than $50,000 of the amount specified in subsection (a) may be used for consultant services referred to in such subsection.

(c) Notwithstanding sections 7 and 8—

(1) payments under this section shall be made on vouchers signed by the House of Representatives co-chairman of the Committee and approved by the Committee on House Administration; and

(2) amounts shall be available under this section for investigations and studies carried out during the period beginning at noon on January 3, 1993, and ending on December 31, 1993.

SEC. 6. The Committee on House Administration—

(1) shall, through House Information Systems, develop, operate, maintain, and improve computer and information services for the House, including direct computer and information systems support for Members, committees, administrative offices, and other governmental entities, and shall conduct necessary investigations and studies of such services;

(2) is authorized to receive reimbursement for services under paragraph (1) and to expend amounts so reimbursed in accordance with policies of the committee; and

(3) is authorized to provide for professional development programs, office and personnel management consultation services, and periodic publication of handbooks, guides, bulletins, and other items necessary for the House.

SEC. 7. Payments under this resolution shall be made on vouchers authorized by the committee involved, signed by the chairman of such committee, and approved by the Committee on House Administration.

SEC. 8. Amounts shall be available under this resolution for investigations and studies carried out during the period beginning at noon on January 3, 1993, and ending immediately before noon on January 3, 1994.

SEC. 9. Amounts made available under this resolution shall be expended in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Committee on House Administration.

When said resolution was considered.

The following amendment in the nature of a substitute reported from the Committee on House Administration was considered:

Strike out all after the resolving clause and insert the following:

That there shall be paid out of the contingent fund of the House in accordance with this primary expense resolution not more than the amount specified in section 2 for investigations and studies by each committee named in such section, including expenses—

(1) in the case of a committee named in section 3, for procurement of consultant services under section 202(i) of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946; and
