¶67.4 VOICE OF AMERICA

Mr. HAMILTON moved to suspend the rules and agree to the following resolution (H. Res. 189):

Whereas the Voice of America is the global radio network of the United States Government, seeking to promote understanding abroad for the United States, its people, culture, and policies;

Whereas the Voice of America's charter calls upon it to provide consistently reliable and authoritative news, balanced and comprehensive information about the United States, and official pronouncements of the United States Government;

Whereas the Voice of America broadcasts are not directed to audiences in the United States, so that most Americans have no first-hand knowledge of the professionalism and patriotism that are the hallmark of such broadcasts;

Whereas the Voice of America tells America's story to the world on a daily basis, not only in terms of news and politics and policy, but also by reflecting the complexity, diversity, and excellence of American art and culture;

Whereas chief among our Nation's indigenous art forms is jazz;

Whereas since 1955, Willis Conover of Voice of America has been broadcasting the best of American jazz to millions around the world;

Whereas during that time, the music of Duke Ellington, Charlie Parker, Ella Fitzgerald, Benny Goodman, Dizzy Gillespie, and other great American artists, broadcast by Mr. Conover, have come to symbolize the freedom and creativity of democracy for those denied freedom; and

Whereas Mr. Conover has said "Jazz is a liberating kind of music . . . every emotion—love, anger, joy, sadness—can be communicated with the vitality and spirit that characterizes our country at its best—which is of course the same freedom that people everywhere should enjoy."': Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives applauds the Voice of America for disseminating the very best of American culture to those in other lands, exemplified in the work of Willis Conover who for thirty-eight years has made a unique and important contribution to the cause of international understanding and good will.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MONTGOMERY, recognized Mr. HAMILTON and Mr. GILMAN, each for 20 minutes.

After debate,

The question being put, viva voce,

¶67.9 PROVIDING FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 2200

Mr. HALL of Ohio, by direction of the Committee on Rules, called up the following resolution (H. Res. 193):

Resolved, That at any time after the adoption of this resolution the Speaker may, pursuant to clause 1(b) of rule XXIII, declare the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for consideration of the bill (H.R. 2200) to authorize appropriations to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration for research and development, space flight, control, and data communications, construction of facilities, research and program management, and Inspector General, and for other purposes. The first reading of the bill shall be dispensed with. Points of order against consideration of the bill for failure to comply with clause 2(1)(6) of rule XI are waived. General debate shall be confined to the bill and shall not exceed one hour equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Science, Space, and Technology. After general debate the bill shall be considered for amendment under the five-minute rule. It shall be in order to consider as an original bill for the purpose of amendment under the five-minute rule the amendment in the nature of a substitute recommended by the Committee on Science, Space, and Technology now printed in the bill. The committee amendment in the nature of a substitute shall be considered by title rather than by section. Each title shall be considered as read. At the conclusion of consideration of the bill for amendment the Committee shall rise and report the bill to the House with such amendments as may have been adopted. Any Member may demand a separate vote in the House on any amendment adopted in the Committee of the Whole to the bill or to the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the bill and amendments thereto to final passage without intervening motion except one motion to recommend with or without instructions.

When said resolution was considered. After debate,

On motion of Mr. HALL of Ohio, the previous question was ordered on the resolution to its adoption or rejection and under the operation thereof, the resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said resolution was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.
