So the resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said resolution was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

¶16.12 MESSAGES FROM THE PRESIDENT

Sundry messages in writing from the President of the United States were communicated to the House by Mr. McCathran, one of his secretaries.

¶16.13 PRIVILEGES OF THE HOUSE

Mr. ISTOOK rose to a question of the privileges of the House and, pursuant to the order of the House of February 23, 1994, called up the following resolution (H. Res. 238); as amended:

Whereas, allegations reported in public and made in official court documents that personnel of the House Post Office provided illegal cash to certain members in three ways: (1) cash instead of stamps for official vouchers, (2) cash for postage stamps which, had earlier been purchased with official vouchers, and (3) cash for campaign checks;

Whereas, these allegations directly affect the rights of the House collectively, its safety, dignity, and the integrity of its proceedings, and the rights, reputation, and conduct of its Members;

Whereas, Article, I, Section V of the Constitution gives each House of the Congress responsibility over disorderly behavior of its Members:

Whereas, the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct has jurisdiction over the conduct and behavior of current House Members, Officers, and employees, including investigatory authority, and is the appropriate body of this House to conduct any inquiry: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct is instructed to investigate immediately all possible violations that are related, but not limited to, the documents received by the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct from the Committee on House Administration, and the allegations stated above.

Further resolved, The Committee on Standards of Official Conduct shall coordinate its investigation with the related efforts of the Department of Justice so as not to jeopardize any ongoing criminal investigation.

Further resolved, That in pursuing its investigations, the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct shall determine Members, Officers or employees who have violated House rules, practices and procedures in connection with the House Post Office.

Further resolved, The Committee shall inform the Department of Justice regarding the procedures and aspects the Committee intends to investigate. If the Department of Justice then responds that a specific matter the Committee intends to investigate is material to, or subject of an official investigation, the Committee may defer that inquiry pending the conclusion of the investigation by the Department of Justice.

Further resolved, That the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct shall file a public status report within 60 days of the adoption of the resolution and periodically thereafter.

When said resolution was considered. After debate, Mr. GEPHARDT moved to lay the resolution on the table.

The question being put, viva voce, Will the House lay the resolution on the table?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. HOYER, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. ISTOOK objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and not voting.

A quorum not being present, The roll was called under clause 4, rule XV, and the call was taken by electronic device.
