A message from the Senate by Mr. Hallen, one of its clerks, announced that the Senate had passed a bill of the following title, in which the concurrence of the House is requested:

S. 1913. An Act to extend certain compliance dates for pesticide safety training and labeling requirements.

The message also announced that the Senate disagreed to the amendments of the House to the bill (S. 1284) "An Act to amend the Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act to expand or modify certain provisions relating to programs for individuals with developmental disabilities, Federal assistance for priority area activities for individuals with developmental disabilities, protection and advocacy of individual rights, university affiliated programs, and projects of national significance, and for other purposes," requested a conference with the House on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses thereon, and appointed Mr. KENNEDY, Mr. HARKIN, Mr. METZENBAUM, Mrs. KASSEBAUM, and Mr. DURENBERGER, to be the conferees on the part of the Senate.

¶21.4 PROVIDING FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF H. CON. RES. 218

Mr. DERRICK, by direction of the Committee on Rules, called up the following resolution (H. Res. 384):

Resolved, That at any time after the adoption of this resolution the Speaker may, pursuant to clause 1(b) of rule XXIII, declare the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for consideration of the concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 218) setting forth the congressional budget for the United States Government for the fiscal years 1995, 1996, 1997, 1998, and 1999. The first reading of the concurrent resolution shall be dispensed with. All points of order against the concurrent resolution and against its consideration are waived. Initial general debate shall be confined to the congressional budget and shall not exceed two hours (including one hour on the subject of economic goals and policies) equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on the Budget. After initial general debate, an additional period of general debate shall be confined to the subject of the amendment numbered 4 in the report of the Committee on Rules accompanying this resolution and shall not exceed one hour equally divided and controlled by Representative Kasich of Ohio and an opponent. After general debate on the subject of the amendment numbered 4, an additional period of general debate shall be confined to the subject of the amendment numbered 3 of the report of the Committee on Rules and shall not exceed one hour equally divided and controlled by Representative Mfume of Maryland and an opponent. After general debate on the subject of the amendment numbered 3, the concurrent resolution shall be considered for amendment under the five-minute rule and shall be considered as read. No amendment shall be in order except those printed in the report of the Committee on Rules. Each amendment may be offered only in the order printed in the report, may be offered only by a Member designated in the report, shall be considered as read, shall be debatable for one hour equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent, and shall not be subject to amendment. All points of order against the amendments printed in the report are waived. If more than one amendment in the nature of a substitute is adopted, only the last to be adopted shall be considered as finally adopted and reported to the House. After the conclusion of consideration of the concurrent resolution for amendment, and a final period of general debate, which shall not exceed ten minutes equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on the Budget, the Committee shall rise and report the concurrent resolution to the House with such amendment as may have been finally adopted. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the concurrent resolution and amendments thereto to final adoption without intervening motion except amendments offered by the chairman of the Committee on the Budget pursuant to section 305(a)(5) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 to achieve mathematical consistency. The concurrent resolution shall not be subject to a demand for division of the question of its adoption.

When said resolution was considered.

After debate,

On motion of Mr. DERRICK, the previous question was ordered on the resolution to its adoption or rejection.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House agree to said resolution?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. CLYBURN, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. GOSS objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and not voting.

A quorum not being present,

The roll was called under clause 4, rule XV, and the call was taken by electronic device.
