¶29.5 MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

A message from the Senate by Mr. Hallen, one of its clerks, announced that the Senate had passed with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested, bills of the House of the following titles:

H.R. 3355. An Act to amend the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 to allow grants to increase police presence, to expand and improve cooperative efforts between law enforcement agencies and members of the community to address crime and disorder problems, and otherwise to enhance public safety; and

H.R. 3474. An Act to reduce administrative requirements for insured depository institutions to the extent consistent with safe and sound banking practices, to facilitate the establishment of community development financial institutions, and for other purposes.

The message also announced that the Senate disagreed to the amendment of the House to the amendment of the Senate to the bill (H.R. 965) "An Act to provide for toy safety and for other purposes" and requested a conference with the House on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses thereon, and appointed Mr. HOLLINGS, Mr. FORD, Mr. BRYAN, Mr. DANFORTH, and Mr. GORTON to be the conferees on the part of the Senate.

The message also announced that the Senate insisted upon its amendment to the bill (H.R. 3355) "An Act to amend the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 to allow grants to increase police presence, to expand and improve cooperative efforts between law enforcement agencies and members of the community to address crime and disorder problems, and otherwise to enhance public safety" and requested a conference with the House on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses thereon.

The message also announced that the Senate insisted upon its amendment to the bill (H.R. 3474) "An Act to reduce administrative requirements for insured depository institutions to the extent consistent with safe and sound banking practices, to facilitate the establishment of community development financial institutions, and for other purposes" and requested a conference with the House on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses thereon, and appointed Mr. RIEGLE, Mr. SARBANES, Mr. DODD, Mr. D'AMATO, and Mr. GRAMM to be the conferees on the part of the Senate.

The message also announced that the Senate had passed a bill of the following title, in which the concurrence of the House is requested:

S. 208. An Act to reform the concessions policies of the National Park Service, and for other purposes.

¶29.6 PROVIDING FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 4092

Mr. DERRICK, by direction of the Committee on Rules, called up the following resolution (H. Res. 395):

Resolved That at any time after the adoption of this resolution the Speaker may, pursuant to clause 1(b) of rule XXIII, declare the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for consideration of the bill (H.R. 4092) to control and prevent crime. The first reading of the bill shall be dispensed with. All points of order against the bill and against its consideration are waived. General debate shall be confined to the bill and shall not exceed one hour equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on the Judiciary. After general debate the Committee of the Whole shall rise without motion. No further consideration of the bill shall be in order except pursuant to a subsequent order of the House. The requirement of clause 4(b) of rule XI for a two-thirds vote to consider a report from the Committee on Rules on the same day it is presented to the House is waived with respect to a resolution reported on or before the legislative day of March 23, 1994, providing for further consideration or disposition of the bill.

When said resolution was considered.

After debate,

On motion of Mr. DERRICK, the previous question was ordered on the resolution to its adoption or rejection.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House agree to said resolution?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. FIELDS of Louisiana, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. GOSS objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and not voting.

A quorum not being present,
