

prorated direct costs of administering the requirements described in subsection (a).

(c) DENIAL OF REGISTRATION PERMIT.—If a State denies, for any reason, an application for the issuance or renewal of a private security officer's registration permit, then, not later than 10 days after denial of such application, the State regulatory agency shall give written notice to the applicant and the applicant's employer (if any) specifying the reasons for denial.

SEC. 9. WAIVER.

On the request of an employer, a State shall waive the preassignment screening requirements described in section 6(a), and the training requirements described in section 7(a), with respect to a private security officer if—

(1)(A) such officer holds a valid security officer's registration permit issued or renewed by the State in which such officer will perform security services for such employer, and

(B) the immediately preceding employer of such officer satisfied all such requirements with respect to the most recent application for the issuance or renewal of such permit, or

(2) such officer is a law enforcement officer employed by a governmental entity that allows such law enforcement officer to serve off-duty as a private security officer.

SEC. 10. GRACE PERIOD FOR ISSUANCE OF NEW REGISTRATION PERMITS TO PRIVATE SECURITY OFFICERS WHO HOLD CURRENT PERMITS.

Until—

(1) January 1, 1997, or

(2) the expiration of the 2-year period beginning on the date a State initially puts into effect a program that satisfies the requirements of sections 6, 7, and 8, whichever is later, such sections shall not apply with respect to the issuance of a registration permit to a private security officer who holds a private security officer's registration permit that is valid without regard to the operation of this subtitle.

SEC. 11. EMPLOYEE PROTECTION.

A State shall have in effect a law that makes invalid and unenforceable any limitation imposed by an employer on the right of an employee to seek or obtain subsequent employment as a private security officer after voluntary or involuntary termination of employment by such employer.

SEC. 12. NOTICE OF CRIMINAL CHARGE.

A State shall have in effect requirements regarding criminal charges made against a private security officer, including the following, at a minimum:

(1) If a private security officer is charged with a felony or misdemeanor, such officer shall notify such officer's employer (if any) not later than 48 hours after the charge is made.

(2) An employer who has knowledge that its employee has been so charged shall report the fact of such charge to the State regulatory agency not later than 2 business days after acquiring such knowledge.

(3) The registration permit of such officer may be suspended by such agency pending disposition of the charge.

(4) Upon conviction of a felony, the State shall revoke the registration permit of such officer.

(5) Upon conviction of such misdemeanor, such State may revoke such permit.

SEC. 13. PENALTIES.

A State shall have in effect a law that authorizes the imposition of a penalty for each violation of the requirement imposed by the State to satisfy a condition of eligibility specified in section 4(a), including the following, at a minimum:

(1) After notice, and a public hearing if requested by an employer charged with such violation, a daily monetary penalty for each day on which violation continues.

(2) If such violation continues after imposition of a monetary penalty described in paragraph (1), and after notice and a hearing described in such paragraph, suspension or revocation of a registration permit issued as described in section 5(a).

(3) Prosecution of an individual of a misdemeanor for submitting an application for employment as a private security officer, for the issuance of a private security officer's registration permit, or for renewal of such permit, if such individual knowingly included false information in such application.

(4) After notice, and a public hearing if requested by a private security officer, suspension or revocation of such officer's registration permit issued or renewed as a result of application if such officer knowingly included false information in such application.

(5) Administrative or judicial review of each penalty imposed under paragraphs (1) through (4).

SEC. 14. MORE STRINGENT REQUIREMENTS.

This subtitle shall not preclude or limit the authority of a State to establish or maintain requirements that are more stringent than the requirements described in this subtitle.
