So the resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said resolution was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

26.29 H.J. RES. 78—UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. CAMP, pursuant to clause 5, rule I, announced the unfinished business to be the motion to suspend the rules and pass the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 78) to grant the consent of the Congress to certain additional powers conferred upon the Bi-State Development Agency by the States of Missouri and Illinois; as amended.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House suspend the rules and pass said joint resolution, as amended?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. CAMP, announced that two-thirds of those present had voted in the affirmative.

Mr. GOSS demanded a recorded vote on passage of said joint resolution, as amended, which demand was supported by one-fifth of a quorum, so a recorded vote was ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device.

It was decided in the affirmative { Yeas 405 Nays 0

¶26.34 AMERICAN OVERSEAS INVESTMENTS

Mr. GILMAN, pursuant to House Resolution 375, called up the following conference report (Rept. No. 104-478):

The committee of conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the amendment of the Senate to the bill (H.R. 1561), to consolidate the foreign affairs agencies of the United States; to authorize appropriations for the Department of State and related agencies for fiscal years 1996 and 1997; to responsibly reduce the authorizations of appropriations for United States foreign assistance programs for fiscal years 1996 and 1997, and for other purposes, having met, after full and free conference, have agreed to recommend and do recommend to their respective Houses as follows:

That the House recede from its disagreement to the amendment of the Senate and agree to the same with an amendment as follows:

In lieu of the matter proposed to be inserted by the Senate amendment, insert the following:
