So the motion to lay on the table the motion to reconsider the vote was agreed to.

39.14 CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ON TAXES

Mr. CANADY, pursuant to House Resolution 395, called up the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 159) proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States requiring two-thirds majorities for bills increasing taxes.

When said joint resolution was read twice.

Mr. SKAGGS raised the question of consideration of said joint resolution.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House now consider said joint resolution, as amended?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. EWING, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. SKAGGS demanded a recorded vote on the question of consideration, which demand was supported by one-fifth of a quorum, so a recorded vote was ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device.

So the motion to lay on the table the motion to reconsider the vote was agreed to.

Pursuant to House Resolution 395, the following amendment in the nature of a substitute consisting of the text of House Joint Resolution 169, was considered as adopted:

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled (two-thirds of each House concurring therein), That the following article is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years after the date of its submission for ratification:

“ARTICLE —

“SECTION 1. Any bill, resolution, or other legislative measure changing the internal revenue laws shall require for final adoption in either House the concurrence of two-thirds the members present, unless that bill, resolution, or measure is determined at the time of adoption, in a reasonable manner prescribed by law, not to increase the internal revenue by more than a de minimis amount.

“SECTION 2. The Congress may waive section 1 when a declaration of war is in effect. The Congress may also waive section 1 when the United States is engaged in military conflict which causes an imminent and serious threat to national security and is so declared by a joint resolution, adopted by a majority of the whole number of each House, which becomes law. Any provision of law which would, standing alone, be subject to section 1 but for this section and which becomes law pursuant to such a waiver shall be effective for not longer than 2 years.

“SECTION 3. All votes taken by the House of Representatives or the Senate under this article shall be determined by yeas and nays and the names of persons voting for and against shall be entered on the Journal of each House respectively.”.

After debate,
The previous question having been ordered by said resolution.

The joint resolution was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, was read a third time by title.

Mr. STENHOLM moved to recommit the bill to the Committee on the Judiciary with instructions to report the bill back to the House forthwith with instructions that the Committee conduct hearings and a necessary study on the joint resolution.

After debate,

By unanimous consent, the previous question was ordered on the motion to recommit with instructions.

The question being put, viva voce,
Will the House recommit said bill with instructions?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. RIGGS, announced that the nays had it.

So the motion to recommit with instructions was not agreed to.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House pass said joint resolution?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. RIGGS, announced that two-thirds of the Members present having not voted in the affirmative, the joint resolution was not passed.

Mr. CANADY objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and not voting.

A quorum not being present,

The roll was called under clause 4, rule XV, and the call was taken by electronic device.
