On motion of Mr. WATTS of Oklahoma, by unanimous consent,

Ordered, That it may be in order to discharge the Committee on the Judiciary from further consideration of the concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 187) expressing the sense of Congress with respect to recent church burnings, and that it be immediately considered in the House; that debate be limited to fifty minutes, equally divided and controlled by Mr. Watts and Mrs. Clayton; and that the previous question be considered as ordered on the concurrent resolution final adoption without intervening motion.

¶74.34 CHURCH ARSON PREVENTION

On motion of Mr. WATTS of Oklahoma, pursuant to the foregoing order of the House, the Committee on the Judiciary was discharged from further consideration of the following concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 187):

Whereas more than 30 African-American churches have been burned over the last 18 months;

Whereas arrests have been made in only 5 of the cases currently under investigation;

Whereas the African-American community deserves the full support of Congress in solving these cases in an expeditious manner and it is important for Congress to speak out against the recent incidents of arson; and

Whereas several measures which would expedite the investigation into these incidents and assist in the prosecution of individuals found guilty of involvement in these incidents are now pending before Congress: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That it is the sense of Congress that—

(1) attacks on places of worship because of the race, color, denomination, or ethnicity of the congregation undermine fundamental American ideals;

(2) these fires appear to be hate crimes and also implicitly interfere with the First Amendment rights and other civil rights of the victims;

(3) the arson of a place of worship is repulsive to us as a society;

(4) the Congress condemns, in the strongest possible terms, these abhorrent actions against freely worshipping American citizens and the African-American community in particular;

(5) the Congress sends its sincere condolences to those individuals who have been affected by these acts of cowardice;

(6) the Congress fully supports the activities of local law enforcement officials, the Department of Justice, and the Department of the Treasury in investigating these incidents;

(7) the Congress urges the United States Attorney General and local prosecutors to seek the maximum penalty available under law to punish the perpetrators of these crimes;

(8) it is important that Congress enact appropriate legislation to ensure that Federal law enforcement has the necessary tools to punish and deter these shameful, vile acts, including the bipartisan legislation introduced by Representatives Hyde and Conyers which would facilitate the prosecution of persons responsible for these acts;

(9) the President is urged to make the fullest possible use of all available law enforcement resources to bring the culprits in these crimes to justice;

(10) Congress encourages the people of the United States to work within their own communities to prevent arson against African-American or any other house of worship; and

(11) Congress encourages American citizens to observe a national week of prayer beginning June 16, 1996, and ending June 23, 1996, in their churches, synagogues, mosques and other places of worship for racial harmony, religious tolerance and respect for the civil and human rights of all Americans.

When said concurrent resolution was considered.

After debate,

Pursuant to the order of the House, the previous question was considered as ordered on the concurrent resolution.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House agree to said concurrent resolution?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. JONES of North Carolina, announced that the yeas had it.
