¶25.16 RECORDED VOTE

A recorded vote by electronic device was ordered in the Committee of the Whole on the following amendment in the nature of a substitute submitted by Mr. MILLER of California:

Strike all after the enacting clause and insert the following:

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "Paycheck Protection and Family Flexibility Act of 1997".

SEC. 2. IN GENERAL.

Section 7 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C. 207) is amended to add at the end the following:

"(r)(1) An employee may receive, in accordance with this subsection and in lieu of monetary overtime compensation, compensatory time off at a rate not less than 1½ hours for each hour of employment for which overtime is required by subsection (a).

"(2) An employer may provide compensatory time to an eligible employee under paragraph (1) only—

"(A) pursuant to—

"(i) applicable provisions of a collective bargaining agreement between the employer and the labor organization which has been certified or recognized as the representative of the employees under applicable law, or

"(ii) in the case of employees who are not represented by a collective bargaining agent or other representative designated by the employee, a plan adopted by the employer and provided in writing to the employer's employees which provides employees with a voluntary, informed option to receive compensatory time off for overtime work where there is an express, voluntary written request by an individual employee for compensatory time off in lieu of overtime pay provided to the employer prior to the performance of any overtime assignment;

"(B) if the employee has not earned compensatory time in excess of the applicable limit prescribed by paragraph (4)(A) or in regulations issued by the Secretary pursuant to paragraph (13);

"(C) if the employee is not required as a condition of employment to accept or request compensatory time;

"(D) if the agreement or plan complies with the requirements of this subsection and the regulations issued by the Secretary under paragraph (13), including the availability of compensatory time to similarly situated employees on an equal basis; and

"(E) if, for purposes of a plan established under subparagraph (A)(ii), the employer, in providing compensatory time, does not modify a leave policy so as to reduce any paid or unpaid leave or does not reduce any other type of benefit or compensation an employee would otherwise be entitled to receive.

"(3) An employee may, at any time, withdraw a request for compensatory time made under a plan under paragraph (2)(A)(ii).

"(4)(A) An employee may earn not more than a total of 80 hours of compensatory time in any year or alternative 12-month period designated pursuant to subparagraph (C). The employer shall regularly report to the employee on the number of compensatory hours earned by the employee and the total amount of the employee's earned-and-unused compensatory time, in accordance with regulations issued by the Secretary.

"(B) Upon the request of an employee who has earned compensatory time, the employer shall on the payday of the pay period during which the request is received provide monetary compensation for any such compensatory time at a rate not less than the regular rate earned by the employee at the time the employee performed the overtime work or the employee's regular rate at the time such monetary compensation is paid, whichever is higher.

"(C) Not later than January 31 of each calendar year, each employer shall provide monetary compensation to each employee for any compensatory time earned during the preceding calendar year for which the employee has not already received monetary compensation (either through paid time off or cash payment) at a rate not less than the regular rate earned by the employee at the time the employee performed the overtime work or the employee's regular rate at the time such monetary compensation is paid, whichever is higher. An agreement or plan under paragraph (2) may designate a 12-month period other than the calendar year, in which case such compensation shall be provided not later than 31 days after the end of such 12-month period. An employee may voluntarily, at the employee's own initiative, request in writing that such end-of-year payment of monetary compensation for earned compensatory time be delayed for a period not to exceed 3 months. This subparagraph shall have no effect on the limit on earned compensatory time set forth in subparagraph (A) or in regulations issued by the Secretary pursuant to paragraph (13).

"(5) An employee who has earned compensatory time authorized to be provided under paragraph (1) shall, upon the voluntary or involuntary termination of employment or upon expiration of this subsection, be paid for unused compensatory time at a rate of compensation not less than the regular rate earned by the employee at the time the employee performed the overtime work or the employee's regular rate at the time such monetary compensation is paid, whichever is higher.

"(6) An employee shall be permitted to use, at the time the employee has requested, any compensatory time earned pursuant to paragraph (1)—

"(A) for any reason which would qualify for leave under section 102(a) of the Family and Medical Leave Act (29 U.S.C. 2612(a)) or any comparable State law; or

"(B) for any other purpose—

"(i) upon notice to the employer at least 2 weeks prior to the date on which the time off is to be used, unless use of the compensatory time at that time will cause substantial and grievous injury to the employer's operations; or

"(ii) upon notice to the employer within the 2 weeks prior to the date on which the time off is to be used unless use of the compensatory time at that time will unduly disrupt the operations of the employer.

"(7) An employee shall not be required by the employer to use any compensatory time earned pursuant to paragraph (1).

"(8) Except where there is a collective bargaining agreement, an employer may modify or terminate a compensatory time plan upon not less than 60 days notice to employees. When a plan is terminated, an employer may not, except as provided in paragraph (4)(C), require that an employee who has earned compensatory time receive monetary compensation in lieu of such time.

"(9) An employer may not pay monetary compensation in lieu of earned compensatory time except as expressly prescribed in this subsection. Any payment owed to an employee under this subsection for unused compensatory time shall be considered unpaid overtime compensation.

"(10) It shall be an unlawful act of discrimination, within the meaning of section 15(a)(3), for an employer—

"(A) to discharge or in any other manner penalize, discriminate against, or otherwise interfere with any employee—

"(i) because such employee may refuse or has refused to request or accept compensatory time off in lieu of overtime pay, or

"(ii) because such employee may request to use or has used compensatory time off in lieu of overtime pay;

"(B) to request, directly or indirectly, that an employee accept compensatory time off in lieu of overtime pay, to require an employee to request or to refuse to request such compensatory time as a condition of employment or as a condition of employment rights or benefits or to qualify the availability of work for which overtime compensation is required upon an employee's request for or acceptance of compensatory time off in lieu of overtime compensation; or

"(C) to deny an employee the right to use or force an employee to use earned compensatory time in violation of this subsection.

"(11) An employer who violates any provision of this subsection shall be liable, in an action brought pursuant to section 16(b) or 16(c), in the amount of overtime compensa-
