So the amendment was agreed to.

After some further time,
The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MILLER of Florida, assumed the Chair.

When Mr. LAHOOD, Chairman, pursuant to House Resolution 430, reported the bill back to the House with an amendment adopted by the Committee.

The previous question having been ordered by said resolution.

The following amendment, reported from the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union, was agreed to:

Strike out all after the enacting clause and insert:

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "Freedom From Religious Persecution Act of 1998".

SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress makes the following findings:

(1) Governments have a primary responsibility to promote, encourage, and protect respect for the fundamental and internationally recognized right to freedom of religion.

(2)(A) Since its inception, the United States Government has rested upon certain founding principles. One of those principles is that all people have the inalienable right to worship freely, which demands that religion be protected from unnecessary government intervention. The Founding Fathers of the United States incorporated that principle in the Declaration of Independence, which states that mankind has the inalienable right to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness", and in the United States Constitution, the first amendment to which states that "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof". Therefore, in accordance with this belief in the inalienable right of freedom of religion for all people, as expressed by the Declaration of Independence, and the belief that religion should be protected from government interference, as expressed by the United States Constitution, the Congress opposes international religious persecution and believes that the policies of the United States Government and its relations with foreign governments should be consistent with the commitment to this principle.

(B) Numerous international agreements and covenants also identify mankind's inherent right to freedom of religion. These include the following:

(i) Article 18 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights states that "Everyone has the right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion; this right includes freedom to change his religion or belief, and freedom, either alone or in community with others and in public or private, to manifest his religion or belief in teaching, practice, worship and observance".

(ii) Article 18 of the Covenant on Civil and Political Rights declares that "Everyone shall have the right to freedom of thought, conscience, and religion * * *" and further delineates the privileges under this right.

(iii) The Declaration on the Elimination of All Forms of Intolerance and of Discrimination Based on Religion and Belief, adopted by the United Nations General Assembly on November 25, 1981, declares that "religion or belief, for anyone who professes either, is one of the fundamental elements in his conception of life * * *" and that "freedom of religion and belief should also contribute to the attainment of the goals of world peace, social justice and friendship among peoples and to the elimination of ideologies or practices of colonialism and racial discrimination".

(iv) The Concluding Document of the Third Follow-Up Meeting of the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe commits states to "ensure in their laws and regulations and in their application the full and effective exercise of the freedom of thought, conscience, religion or belief".

(3) Persecution of religious believers, particularly Roman Catholic and evangelical Protestant Christians, in Communist countries persists and in some cases is increasing.

(4) In many countries and regions thereof, governments dominated by extremist movements persecute non-Muslims and religious converts from Islam using means such as "blasphemy" and "apostasy" laws, and such movements seek to corrupt a historically tolerant Islamic faith and culture through the persecution of Baha'is, Christians, and other religious minorities.

(5) The extremist Government of Sudan is waging a self-described religious war against Christians, other non-Muslims, and moderate Muslims by using torture, starvation, enslavement, and murder.

(6) In Tibet, where Tibetan Buddhism is inextricably linked to the Tibetan identity, the Government of the People's Republic of China has intensified its control over the Tibetan people by interfering in the selection of the Panchen Lama, propagandizing against the religious authority of the Dalai Lama, restricting religious study and traditional religious practices, and increasing the persecution of monks and nuns.

(7) In Xinjiang Autonomous Region of China, formerly the independent republic of East Turkistan, where the Muslim religion is inextricably linked to the dominant Uyghur culture, the Government of the People's Republic of China has intensified its control over the Uyghur people by systematically repressing religious authority, restricting religious study and traditional practices, destroying mosques, and increasing the persecution of religious clergy and practitioners.

(8) In countries around the world, Christians, Jews, Muslims, Hindus, and other religious believers continue to be persecuted on account of their religious beliefs, practices, and affiliations.

(9) The 104th Congress recognized the facts set forth in this section and stated clearly the sense of the Senate and the House of Representatives regarding these matters in approving—

(A) House Resolution 515, expressing the sense of the House of Representatives with respect to the persecution of Christians worldwide;

(B) S. Con. Res. 71, expressing the sense of the Senate with respect to the persecution of Christians worldwide;

(C) H. Con. Res. 102, concerning the emancipation of the Iranian Baha'i community; and

(D) section 1303 of H.R. 1561, the Foreign Relations Authorization Act, Fiscal Years 1996 and 1997.

(10) The Department of State, in a report to Congress pursuant to House Report 104-863, accompanying the Omnibus Consolidated Appropriations Act, 1997 (Public Law 104-208) set forth strong evidence that widespread and ongoing religious persecution is occurring in a number of countries around the world.

(11)(A)(i) In recent years there have been successive terrorist attempts to desecrate and destroy the premises of the Ecumenical Patriarchate in the Fanar area of Istanbul (Constantinople), Turkey.

(ii) Attempts against the Ecumenical Patriarchate have intensified, including the following:

(I) On September 30, 1996, a hand grenade was thrown into the headquarters of the Eastern Orthodox Patriarchate and exploded, causing damage to the physical structure of the grounds, most notably the Agios Georgios Church.

(II) On May 28, 1994, three powerful bombs were discovered in the living quarters of the Patriarch, and were subsequently defused only minutes before they were set to detonate.

(III) In July and August 1993, the Christian Orthodox cemetery in Yenikoy, near Istanbul, was attacked by vandals and desecrated.

(iii) His All Holiness Patriarch Bartholomew and those associated with the Ecumenical Patriarchate are Turkish citizens and thus must be protected under Turkish law against blatant and unprovoked attacks toward ethnic minorities.

(iv) The Turkish Government arbitrarily closed the Halki Patriarchal School of Theology in 1971.

(v) The Ecumenical Patriarchate is the spiritual center for more than 250,000,000 Orthodox Christians worldwide, including approximately 5,000,000 in the United States.

(vi) It is in the best interest of the United States to prevent further incidents regarding the Ecumenical Patriarchate and in the overall goals of the United States to establish peaceful relations with and among the many important nations of the world that have substantial Orthodox Christian populations.

(B) It is the sense of the Congress that—

(i) the United States should use its influence with the Turkish Government and as a permanent member of the United Nations Security Council to suggest that the Turkish Government—

(I) ensure proper protection for the Patriarchate and all of the Orthodox faithful residing in Turkey;

(II) provide for the proper protection and safety of the Ecumenical Patriarch and Patriarchate personnel;

(III) establish conditions that would prevent the recurrence of past terrorist activities and vandalism and other personal threats against the Patriarch;

(IV) establish conditions to ensure that the Patriarchate is free to carry out its religious mission; and

(V) do everything possible to find and punish the perpetrators of any provocative and terrorist acts against the Patriarchate; and

(ii) the Secretary of State should report to the Congress on an annual basis on the status and progress of the concerns expressed in clause (i).

(b) PURPOSE.—It is the purpose of this Act to reduce and eliminate the widespread and ongoing religious persecution taking place throughout the world today.

(d) PROGRAMS AND ALLOCATIONS OF FUNDS BY UNITED STATES MISSIONS ABROAD.—It is the sense of the Congress that—

(1) United States diplomatic missions in countries the governments of which engage in or tolerate religious persecution should develop, as part of annual program planning, a strategy to promote the respect of the internationally recognized right to freedom of religion; and

(2) in allocating or recommending the allocation of funds or the recommendation of candidates for programs and grants funded by the United States Government, United States diplomatic missions should give particular consideration to those programs and candidates deemed to assist in the promotion of the right to religious freedom.

(e) EQUAL ACCESS TO UNITED STATES MISSIONS ABROAD FOR CONDUCTING RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES.—

(A) In many nations where severe violations of religious freedom occur, there is not sufficient statutory legal protection for religious minorities or there is not sufficient cultural and social understanding of international norms of religious freedom.
