¶67.15 RECORDED VOTE

A recorded vote by electronic device was ordered in the Committee of the Whole on the following amendment submitted by Mr. HUNTER:

Add at the end the following:

SEC. . RIGHT OF LAW-ABIDING RESIDENTS OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA TO KEEP A HANDGUN IN THE HOME.

(a) DEFENSE.—Notwithstanding any provision of law, a person may not be held criminally responsible for the possession of a handgun, or ammunition appropriate to the handgun, if each of the following elements are established:

(1) The person is a law-abiding individual not less than 18 years of age.

(2) The person is the sole owner of the handgun and is in compliance with all applicable Federal and State registration laws and regulations with respect to the handgun.

(3) The possession occurred in the District of Columbia—

(A) in a place of residence of the person; or

(B) if the handgun is unloaded, while the person was traveling to or from a place of residence of the person solely for the purpose of transporting the handgun in connection with an otherwise lawful transaction or activity relating to the handgun.

(b) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this section:

(1) The term "handgun" has the meaning given such term in section 921 of title 18, United States Code.

(2) The term "law-abiding individual" means an individual who has never been convicted of a criminal offense for which the person actually served time in jail or prison, and has never been convicted of battery, assault, or any other violent criminal offense.
