Joint Resolution

To designate April 6, 1988, as "National Student-Athlete Day".

Apr. 12, 1988
[H.J. Res. 513]

- Whereas, the student-athlete represents a role model worthy of emulation by America's youth;
- Whereas, such worthy values and behaviors as perseverance, teamwork, self-discipline and commitment to a goal are fostered and promoted by both academic and athletic pursuits;
- Whereas, participation in athletics, together with education, provides opportunities to develop valuable social and leadership skills and to gain an appreciation of ethnic and racial groups different from one's own;
- Whereas, in spite of all the positive aspects of sport, overemphasis on sport at the expense of education can cause serious harm to an athlete's future;
- Whereas, the pursuit of victory in athletics among our nation's schools and colleges too often leads to exploitation and abuse of the student-athlete;
- Whereas, only 1 in 10,000 high school athletes who dream of a career in professional sports ever realize that aspiration, while those who do can expect a professional sports career of less than 4 years;
- Whereas, thousands of America's youth sacrifice academic achievement to the dream of professional athletics;
- Whereas, the practice of keeping athletes eligible for participation on a team, even at the high school level, must be abandoned for a policy of ensuring a meaningful education and degree;
- Whereas, coaches, parents and educators of student-athletes must express high expectations for academic performance as well as for athletic performance; and
- Whereas, there is a need in this Nation to reemphasize the "student" in the term "student-athlete": Now, therefore, be it
