

Public Law 102-424
102d Congress

Joint Resolution

Oct. 16, 1992
[S.J. Res. 305]

To designate October 1992 as "Polish-American Heritage Month".

- Whereas the first Polish immigrants to North America were among the first settlers of Jamestown, Virginia, in the seventeenth century;
- Whereas Kazimierz Pulaski, Tadeusz Kosciuszko, and other Poles came to the British colonies in America to fight in the Revolutionary War and to risk their lives and fortunes for the creation of the United States;
- Whereas Poles and Americans of Polish descent have distinguished themselves by contribution to the development of arts, sciences, government, military service, athletics, and education in the United States;
- Whereas the Polish Constitution of May 3, 1791, was modeled directly on the Constitution of the United States, is recognized as the second written constitution in history, and is revered by Poles and Americans of Polish descent;
- Whereas Poles and Americans of Polish descent take great pride and honor in the greatest son of Poland, his Holiness Pope John Paul the Second;
- Whereas Poles and Americans of Polish descent and people everywhere applauded the efforts of Solidarity's leader and now President in fighting for freedom, human rights, and economic reform in Poland;
- Whereas the Polish-American Congress is observing its forty-eighth anniversary this year and is celebrating October 1992 as "Polish-American Heritage Month": Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That October 1992 is designated "Polish-American Heritage Month", and the President of the United States is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe such a month with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

Approved October 16, 1992.
