

praised fair market value of the lands. Where the ownership of lands at the time of their acquisition by the Government was in more than one person, and two or more such former owners assert a preference right for the same tract, the preference right applicants shall be given a period of thirty days in which to file a joint purchase application or otherwise to compose their conflict. If they fail to do so, the Secretary shall determine the order of preference among them by lot. Any lands remaining unsold after competitive bids have been solicited may be sold by the Secretary in such manner as he shall deem proper but at not less than their appraised fair market value. The Secretary may at any time withdraw from sale any unsold lands and reoffer them at a reappraised fair market value.

Definitions.

(d) As used in this section, the term "lands" includes interests in land, and the term "former owner" includes the surviving spouse of a deceased former owner.
