

WHEREAS the American people regard the action of the Polish patriots in the Warsaw uprising as a great manifestation of bravery and devotion to home and country; and

WHEREAS this historic effort should serve to inspire people everywhere to rededicate themselves to the cause of freedom and justice:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LYNDON B. JOHNSON, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate August 1, 1964, as Warsaw Uprising Day.

I invite the people of the United States to observe this day with appropriate ceremonies and activities, and I urge them to mark this event as an exceptional demonstration of man's courage and devotion in the long and continuing struggle for human freedom.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this thirty-first day of July in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-four, and [SEAL] of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-ninth.

LYNDON B. JOHNSON

By the President:

DEAN RUSK,
Secretary of State.

Proclamation 3604

NINETIETH BIRTHDAY OF HERBERT HOOVER

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

August 10, 1964, marks the ninetieth anniversary of the birth of the Honorable Herbert Hoover—the thirty-first President of the United States.

For more than half a century this distinguished citizen has devoted his time, his talents, and his energies to public service.

His leadership in relief and reconstruction programs following the two World Wars resulted in saving the lives of millions of suffering victims of those wars.

As cabinet member and as President, he served his country with devotion and distinction. His wise counsel has since been sought by the Government on many occasions and, particularly in his service as Chairman of two Commissions on Organization of the Executive Branch, he has made lasting contributions to the efficiency and economy of governmental operations.

It is appropriate that on the anniversary of the birth of this statesman and humanitarian we pause to express our gratitude for his dedicated service to our country and to the world.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LYNDON B. JOHNSON, President of the United States of America, in consonance with the joint resolution of Congress approved August 6, 1964, do hereby officially recognize and proclaim the ninetieth birthday of the Honorable Herbert Hoover, August 10, 1964, and I urge the people of the United States to pause on that day to reflect upon the many accomplishments of this distinguished American on behalf of all humanity. Finally, in highest tribute to this remarkable citizen and humanitarian, I urge the youth of America to emulate the patriotism, integrity, and high ideals that have marked his career.

In accordance with section 3 of the joint resolution, I direct that the American flag be flown over the White House on August 10, 1964, in special recognition of the former President's ninetieth birthday, and that it then be presented to him as an expression of our love and respect for him.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this sixth day of August in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-four, and of [SEAL] the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-ninth.

LYNDON B. JOHNSON

By the President:

DEAN RUSK,
Secretary of State.

Proclamation 3605

GENERAL PULASKI'S MEMORIAL DAY, 1964

By the President of the United States of America

August 15, 1964

A Proclamation

WHEREAS during the American war for independence a young Polish patriot in exile, Count Casimir Pulaski, joined and fought brilliantly with the Continental Army, was promoted by Congress to brigadier general and commander of cavalry, and organized and commanded a corps called the Pulaski Legion; and

WHEREAS General Pulaski died on October 11, 1779, of a wound received two days earlier while leading a cavalry charge in the city of Savannah, Georgia; and

WHEREAS it is appropriate that we should continue to take pride in General Pulaski's devotion to our Nation and to the cause of universal freedom by marking the one hundred and eighty-fifth anniversary of his death; and

WHEREAS this occasion reminds us of the great contributions made to the progress and security of this Nation by our many citizens of Polish origin; and

WHEREAS it is fitting that we acknowledge our debt to General Pulaski and his countrymen and honor the memory of this gallant Polish patriot:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LYNDON B. JOHNSON, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate Sunday, October 11, 1964, as General Pulaski's Memorial Day; and I direct the appropriate Government officials to display the flag of the United States on all Government buildings on that day. I also invite the people of the United States to observe the day with appropriate ceremonies in honor of the memory of General Pulaski and the noble cause for which he gave his life.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.
